SC Court of Appeals

Re: Appeal

Dear Mr. McNeill:

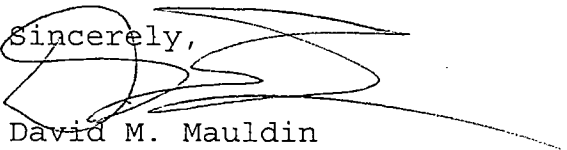

Enclosed is the paperwork for the appeal you asked me to file. Notice that this includes a document captioned Rule 203 Explanation. Court rules require counsel to inform the court whether or not they believe an appeal has merit when the appeal is from a guilty plea. I do not have a good faith basis to believe that your appeal has any contested legal issues. The purpose of this letter is to advise you that you will have to inform the South Carolina Court of Appeals in writing of any arguable basis on which to assert that there are legal issues preserved for appeal in your case. This must be done within 20 days of the date of this letter. You can write the court at this address:

Sincerely,

David M. Mauldin
