

SOUTH CAROLINA COURT OF APPEALS

Appellate Case No. 2014-002776

RECEIVED

AUG 15 2016

SC Court of Appeals

Loushonda Myers,

In Propria Persona, Sui Juris, Claimant

RESPONSE IN OPPOSITION

Vs.

TO MOTION TO STRIKE

STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA,

Fictitious Entity.

I, LouShonda Myers, now respectfully demands that V. Henry Gunter, Jr.'s (herein also referred to as Henry Gunter) Motion to Strike be denied. As I will show herein, this motion must be denied.

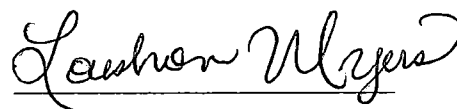

Mr. Gunter has no firsthand knowledge of any of the events, occurrences, and/or conduct which precipitated this matter. As such, he has no facts or evidence he can submit to this court, and as a matter of law his motion to strike must be denied. (Trinsey v. Pagliaro, 229 F. Supp. 647) Furthermore, I made it very clear that I had filed complaints more than once; and that I had been denied access by the clerks in the Clerk of Court's Office that prevented me from submitting documents, proofs, and/or evidence in the lower court matter. I also made it very clear on the record that judgement had been passed on me without having the full opportunity to be heard.

The complaints filed in this matter are material and they are key documentation of the abuses I suffered. And, as the lower court record will show, Judge Harrington later recused herself from the lower court matter. The Right to petition the court not only encompasses the Right to be heard, but to be fully heard by an impartial tribunal; and the Right to submit papers, documents, and/or effects on record in furtherance thereof. I was already denied my Rights guarded by the First Amendment once in the lower court, it must not happen again here.

Therefore, I am respectfully demanding that Mr. Gunter's motion to strike be denied and that the record on appeal continue a designated.
