Re: The State v. Hurst, Travis Maurice

Dear Counsel:

Our records indicate that the transcript in the above matter should have been delivered by November 23, 2009. As of today's date, this Court has not received any information indicating that the court reporter has been granted an extension to deliver the transcript; nor have we been provided with notification that you received the transcript so time lines for your initial brief can be set.

Pursuant to Rule 207 (a)(5) and 207 (b)(4) of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules, you are required to notify the appropriate parties (Office of Court Administration) in writing if you have not received the transcript within the allotted time. You must also copy the appellate court in which the appeal is pending and all other parties to the appeal with any correspondence concerning the transcript.

Within ten (10) days of the date of this letter, you are requested to provide this Court with written status of the transcript, or your appeal may be dismissed.

Very truly yours,

ACTING CLERK
