OFFICIAL COURT REPORTER

1 THE COURT: Agent?

2 MR. BURCH: Yes, Your Honor. Standing before you is 3 Daniel Mason Hurt. He was sentenced for the offense of 4 burglary second degree in Abbeville County by Your Honor
5 on August 11, 2015. You sentenced him to ten years
6 suspended to one year, five year's probation. He had 7 special conditions of if he violates to bring him back 8 to court, no consent orders, no nothing. You ordered 9 him for intensive probation for the first year, 10 forty hours of public service and random drug testing, 11 substance abuse counseling.

12 Your Honor, we're here today, Mr. Hurt was released 13 on October 1st. He reported to the office and was given 14 his intake day, he did report on October 8, 2015 for his 15 intake and that's the last time Mr. Hurt reported. We 16 didn't see him until he was arrested on our warrant by 17 Greenwood Sheriff's Department.

18 Would like to point out that on October 8th, we give 19 everybody a baseline drug test, and even being released 20 that first week, he was positive for amphetamines and 21 methamphetamines. I attached an additional warrant. He 22 was supposed to report to court Monday and he did not 23 report. We were in touch with his bondsman on Tuesday 24 to have him come Thursday morning. Again, he failed to 25 report yesterday morning. I know he got the message,

1 too, that because he actually messaged one of my agents 2 wanting to know if we were going to help him out on 3 Thursday morning.

4 Also like to point out -- of course, he never 5 reported to be set up for public service and substance
6 abuse counseling or anything like that. We didn't 7 really know where he was. The first time he was 8 arrested, he was found, I believe, at his mother's house
9 and I believe he had ate some kind of illegal substance 10 and had to take him to the hospital. When he was 11 arrested yesterday afternoon, they also found some 12 methamphetamine.

13 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Hurt, if you would, just 14 raise your right hand, please.

15 DANIEL M. HURT,
16 being first duly sworn, was examined and testified as 17 follows:

18 EXAMINATION BY THE COURT:

19 THE COURT: Are you Daniel Mason Hurt?

20 A Yes, sir.

21 THE COURT: And, Mr. Hurt, you've had a chance to 22 review this violation report with Ms. Bolen?

23 A Yes, sir.

24 THE COURT: All right. You admit that you're in 25 violation of your probation?

1 A Yes, sir, I do.

2 THE COURT: Ms. Bolen?

3 MS. BOLEN: Thank you, Your Honor. We're asking
4 Your Honor to consider, he understands that he violated
5 probation. What Mason, which is what he goes by, what 6 he tells me is that he has a very, very bad addiction
7 problem. That it's something that he really needs help
8 with and he's before you asking that the Court help him 9 with his addiction problem.

10 He -- to give you a little bit of background, Your 11 Honor, he did come into my office on March 7 which was a 12 week ago Monday, he brought with him an application that 13 he had filled out for Faith Home and he had been 14 approved to go into Faith Home on March 16th. He 15 brought that with him and I asked probation if that's 16 something they could allow him to do and that I think 17 because of the prior order, it wasn't. He then came in 18 last Friday as well. So although I understand he didn't 19 come to court when he was supposed to, he was diligent 20 about checking up with me. He actually met with me
21 twice before his violation hearing today. Met with me 22 on Friday. We discussed some other options and we 23 talked about the 30-day program that Faith Home is 24 probably not sufficient for what he needs. And he 25 recognizes that. That what he needs is a really

1 intensive program such as the Miracle Hill program up in 2 Greenville which runs a very intensive, I think their 3 program starts at six months and goes up to 4 eighteen months.

5 In terms of not being in court, Your Honor, he tells 6 me he was here on Monday. I didn't see him, but I did 7 get a message from our receptionist Ms. Copeland that he 8 was wanting me to talk to him before he went up to 9 court. Monday morning was a busy time. By the time I 10 called the number she had left for me, it didn't go 11 through, but he says he was here and he ended up 12 leaving. And understands again that he should have 13 waited to talk to me and to talk to Agent Williams. But 14 he was here.

15 Part of the reason he didn't stay on Monday and the 16 reason he didn't come yesterday is he felt like he 17 didn't have sufficient support. And, again, I offer 18 that as an explanation of his recognition that this 19 addiction problem he has is something he needs help 20 with. It's beyond his own personal control. He didn't 21 feel this his girlfriend or family would be up here 22 supporting him and he wanted that support because he 23 felt like he needed it.

24 So even though it was wrong not to come, his reason 25 for not coming was not to show any disrespect to the

1 Court or anything like that, but simply because he felt 2 that he wouldn't be strong enough to face this on his 3 own. He does have his girlfriend and his mother --
4 grandmother, I'm sorry, with him today.

5 Your Honor, he -- and grant that I've only known him
6 for about a week and a half, but in my conversations 7 with him, he has been very honest and upfront about this 8 very addiction problem and we're just asking you to 9 consider something that allows him to get out and go to 10 one of these intensive rehabs. He wanted me to assure 11 the Court that if you were to give him this overcomer's 12 program through Miracle Hill or some similar intensive 13 probation that he would request to stay in the jail
14 until a bed became available. Again, because he knows 15 how much help he needs with his addiction.

16 THE COURT: All right. I've asked my clerk to go 17 back and pull my notes from August 11th just so I can 18 take a quick look at the underlying offense. Ladies, is 19 there anything that y'all want to say on behalf of 20 Mr. Hurt or tell me?

21 MS. STAMPS: Well, I'm his grandmother and I raised
22 him -- well I've been knowing him all his life and I 23 really think he needs help for the addiction, but he 24 needs psychological help, too.

25 THE COURT: What's your name, ma'am?

1 MS. STAMPS: Mary Stamps.

2 THE COURT: Your last name again?

3 MS. STAMPS: Stamps. S-T-A-M-P-S.

4 THE COURT: All right. Anything that you want to 5 say, ma'am?

6 MS. BULLY: Yeah. I don't know if you remember me,
7 but I'm pretty sure you do. I just want to, you know, 8 I've overcome my addiction and it wasn't because of 9 prison, it was because of Faith Home as soon as I got 10 released from prison. And, like, it -- I want so bad is 11 -- he's not my boyfriend, he's my friend, and I just 12 want so bad to be there for, you know, him. Because I 13 can relate. I talk to him and addiction is like you 14 don't have nobody, you know, that you can turn to. And 15 I really do -- I hope he can get help with the addiction
16 because I don't feel like prison is the answer to it.
17 And like I said, you know, Faith Home helped me. I'm 18 sixteen months clean now.

19 THE COURT: All right. I think I ended up sending 20 you to prison for a year on a probation violation about 21 four years ago? No. What did I do? What's your name 22 again?

23 MS. BULLY: Audrey Bully.

24 THE COURT: Ms. Bully. Okay.

25 MS. BULLY: Yes, sir.

1 THE COURT: All right. Just give me one second,
2 please. Mr. Hurt, anything that you would like to say, 3 sir?

4 MR. HURT: Yes, sir. I'm not asking for a break.
5 I'm not asking for you to cut me loose or none of that.
6 I'm asking for help. I done been to prison three times 7 and I've done more dope in prison than I done on the 8 streets. Every time I come home I'm just as big an 9 addict as I was before I went. And I need help. If I
10 got to go do however many years, can I do it at a place
11 where there's no drugs? That's all I have to say.

12 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Hurt, I want to see you 13 get help. I want to see you get off the drugs. And 14 you're right, going back to prison over and over and 15 over again is not accomplishing anything.

16 I pulled my notes from August 11th, apparently you 17 had Ms. Able, Ms. Patel, and Ms. Merrill representing 18 you on a whole slew of Greenwood charges and a whole 19 slew of Abbeville charges where you just got into 20 trouble over and over and over again.

21 MR. HURT: And it's all back to the drugs, Your 22 Honor. All because of being high. If I wasn't get 23 high, I wouldn't be doing none of these things.

24 THE COURT: And I don't disagree with you, sir. I 25 really don't disagree with you. And I saw where you had

1 previously done a grand larceny of four years, a
 2 negotiated plea contemplated to one year active sentence
 3 and that's probably, honestly, sir, why I wanted to try 4 and make sure that you got off these drugs and intensive 5 supervision was part of it.

6 Mr. Hurt, your request to go into the Faith Home is 7 somewhat of a day late and a dollar short. Okay.

8 MR. HURT: Yes, sir. Well, Your Honor, I don't want 9 the Faith Home, I want something longer than the Faith 10 Home. I don't need the Faith Home. The Faith Home is 11 not going to help me.

12 THE COURT: Well, I hope you get it after you get 13 done serving these nine years. I will ask that you be 14 screened for the addictions treatment unit, Mr. Hurt.
 15 Society -- I'm sorry about your addiction. I hope you 16 get off the stuff, but you cannot continue to commit 17 crimes and victimize people because of the addiction.
 18 At some point in time, the jig is up. That's today.

19 MR. HURT: Your Honor, there's no way I can get that 20 time cut in half?

21 THE COURT: No, sir.

22 MR. HURT: You put me back on probation?

23 THE COURT: No, sir. When I talked to you back in 24 August, I told you that the Court was going to come down 25 hard on you if you violated your probation. You showed

1 up one time on your probation. You could have gone to 2 them and said, yeah, I got a drug problem. Get me into 3 rehab. I need to go to rehab. You could have found 4 probably a dozen places just by --

5 MR. HURT: They didn't give you the basis on the 6 reason I didn't show up. I had broke my ankle and they 7 told me they was going to do home visits until my ankle 8 was healed.

9 THE COURT: Well, I'm sure a telephone call probably 10 would have mitigated that somewhat. Revoke, nine years, 11 terminate the case and the outstanding balance is 12 enrolled as civil judgements.

13 Mr. Hurt -- and screen him for the addictions
14 treatment unit. When you get out, Mr. Hurt, ask to go 15 to a halfway house, they'll keep you for six months.
16 Good luck to you, sir.

17 MS. BOLEN: Thank you, Judge.
