PLAINTIFF-APPELLANT ZULVETA'S NOTICE'S MEMORANDUM OF LAW IN SUPPORT AND AFFIDAVIT

Plaintiff Armando Despaigne Zulveta, Pro Se, respectfully submit the following Memorandum of Support and Affidavit.

STANDARD OF REVIEW

To avoid repetition Plaintiff-Appellant Zulveta refers this Court of Appeals to the complete Roster Of Civil Case Greenville County Civil Case No.: 2015CP2305171 as well as Appellate Case No.: 2016-000229 and No. 2016-001439 filed with this court. In particular, Stay of Proceeding with its Memorandum In Support filed in this court

STAY OF PROCEEDING MEMORANDUM OF LAW IN SUPPORT OF LAW

Appellant Zulveta being Pro Se with no legal experience is a factor that complicates this civil case. There is a greater factor when just from the start: a) at hearing presided by Judge Garrison Hill date January 25, 2016 at the time Plaintiff Zulveta introduced as evidence EXHIBIT "A" and "B" enclosed related to the culture of defaults in court Defendant's Charter's attorneys they have. Judge Hill, defendant's attorneys, and I, we discussed the issue. hearing's presiding Judge Hill was aware that Plaintiff has a pending civil case in federal court in which Gallivan, White & Boyd, P.A. was involved with Greenville Hospital System as THE MOVANTS with rest of defendants. Judge Hill was a member of the Greenville Hospital System's Board of Director. As well as Judge Robin Stilwell who was also at said Board of Director and issued order and judgment who favored Defendant's attorney.

On January 27, 2016 at the hearing presided by Judge Leticia Verdin they were two law enforcement police officers that according to their hostile behavior it can be seen they have been prejudiced against me, a party to the proceeding. An investigation will be on the way. (See Exhibit "C") Judge Verdin's order is questionable as well as the great deal of attention I shared with these two police officers. At the hearing, for me they were for me a super distraction.

Appellant requests from the court Stay of Proceeding regarding Stay of Proceeding on order issued by this court on August 24, 2016 relating to denial of Appellant's motion to proceed in forma pauperis until this investigation is complete and it can be determined the reason of those police officers there, the way they behave unlike police officers down stairs in charge of Mr. Braggs.
