Delories Jenkins,

v.

Defendants,

of whom

MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME

The Initial Brief of Appellant was served upon Respondent's Counsel on August 30, 2016. Therefore, pursuant to Rule 208(a)(2) of the SCACR Respondent's Initial Brief is due on Thursday, September 29, 2016. Now, Respondent hereby respectfully requests an extension of an additional Thirty (30) days to file Respondent's Initial Brief in this matter. Respondent is informed and believes that the granting of an additional Thirty (30) days would call for the Initial Brief to due on Saturday, October 29, 2016. However, pursuant to SCACR Rule 26, the Initial Brief would not actually be due until Monday, October 31, 2016.

The purpose for which the Respondent has requested this extension of time is due to Counsel's workload and, further, due to the fact that Respondent's Counsel must be out of this state some throughout the next several weeks due to a family member's illness. Specifically, Counsel's wife is in an ongoing fight against cancer and will be traveling to Cancer Treatment Center in Newnan, Georgia for consultations, treatments, etc. Respondent's Counsel feels the need to be involved with his wife's consultations, decisions to be made and to be of support and assistance to her. Further, Respondent's Counsel has consulted with Counsel for the Appellant and has been advised that Appellant has no objection to the granting of this extension of time.

Accordingly, Respondent hereby respectfully requests that this Honorable Court grant an extension of an additional Thirty (30) days or until Monday, October 31, 2016, to file Respondent's Initial Brief in this matter.

September 7, 2016

Respectfully submitted,
