Re: Ten State Street, LLP v. William E. Danielson
Appellate Case No. 2016-000910

Dear Clerk Kitchings:

I hope this letter finds you well. I along with my law partner, Clayton B. McCullough, represent Respondent William E. Danielson in the above appeal. On Friday, August 26, 2016, we received a copy of the Appellant's Initial Brief. We note that no Designation of Matter for the Record on Appeal was included with Appellant's Initial Brief and no Designation of Matter was served. In addition, it does not appear that any proof of service was filed or served with the Initial Brief.

We would respectfully ask the Court to require the Appellant to comply with the Appellate Court Rules and file and serve its Designation of Matter so that the Respondent may properly reply to this appeal. We would also ask that the Respondent's time to file its Initial Reply Brief be stayed until the time of which the Appellant has complied with the Appellate Court Rules.

Should you have any questions concerning this matter, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely yours,

McCULLOUGH KHAN, LLC
