Re: Earl Dukes v. Kenneth Farrell
Appellate Case No. 2014-000730

Dear Sir or Madame:

In response to the court's inquiry dated August 12, 2016 it is my belief that reference to the plat and survey at p. 30 of the record is an error and that the correct survey is referenced under the second bullet point, below.

I have reviewed the survey and the entire record on appeal. I have requested that our abstractor check for any other plats of record dated May 15, specifically. There are none. There are two referenced surveys in the record on appeal, as follows:

- Survey of Fischer Sherer dated May 15, 2008 (Record at p. 30).
- Survey for Robert J. Edwards dated August 4, 2008 (Record at p. 181-183)

For this reason I respectfully believe it is a clerical error. I am copying opposing counsel on this communication with the court for his position on the same in response to the court's inquiry.

With regards, I remain

Respectfully,

J. Cameron Halford
