RE: The State v. Jacoby J. Gregory
Appellate Case No.: 2016-001533

Dear Sir or Madam:

I was retained counsel for Jacoby J. Gregory at the trial level. Mr. Gregory is indigent and, as such, the handling of his appeal was referred to the Office of Appellate Defense.

Mr. Gregory was required to complete and submit an affidavit of indigency to the Office of Appellate Defense by August 10, 2016, in order to determine whether he qualified for their services prior to ordering the transcript. Mr. Gregory was unable to return the completed affidavit to this office before both the Office of Appellate Defense's and Rule 207, SCACR, deadlines.

Upon our receipt of Mr. Gregory's affidavit, we forwarded it to the Office of Appellate on August 31, 2016. As the Rule 207 deadline has passed, an extension of the Rule 207 deadline is necessary for the Office of Appellate Defense to make an appropriate determination regarding Mr. Gregory's indigency status, and order the transcript.

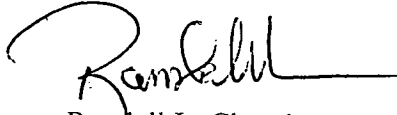

Based upon the above, I therefore kindly and respectfully request that you grant Appellant an extension of the thirty (30) day deadline in order for Appellant's affidavit to be reviewed and the court transcript ordered by the Office of Appellate Defense.

Should you need anything further or if we need to take any additional steps to continue the appeal in the above-referenced matter, please do not hesitate to contact this office.

With kind regards I remain,

RECEIVED

Sincerely,

Randall L. Chambers
