APPEAL FROM PICKENS COUNTY
Court of Common Pleas

The Honorable Perry H. Gravely, Circuit Court Judge

Appellate Case No. 2016-001525
Trial Case No. 2014-CP-39-350

Alliance Biomedical Research, LLC,

Appellant,

v.

Judith H. Parham, Personal Representative of the Estate of David Michael Parham, deceased and Parham & Smith, LLC,

Respondents.

CONSENT MOTION FOR EXTENSION

Pursuant to South Carolina Appellate Rule 263(b), Appellant, with the consent of the Respondents, respectfully moves this Court to extend the time within which Appellant may file its Initial Brief by an additional fourteen (14) days. Appellant's Initial Brief is currently due on September 19, 2016. The granting of this Consent Motion for Extension would cause Appellant's Initial Brief to be due by October 3, 2016. Appellant requests this extension due to its involvement, as well as that of its counsel, in a business transaction which was expedited two (2) weeks, resulting in the sale of Appellant. Counsel will continue to represent Appellant. This would be Appellant's second extension. By consent, Appellant requested and received a prior extension of thirty (30) days.

Prior to filing this motion, counsel for Appellant conferred with counsel for the Respondents who graciously consented to the extension. This extension would not affect any other deadlines.

Warning: Use only the printed original label for shipping. Using a photocopy of this label for shipping purposes is fraudulent and could result in additional billing charges, along with the cancellation of your FedEx account number.

Use of this system constitutes your agreement to the service conditions in the current FedEx Service Guide, available on fedex.com. FedEx will not be responsible for any claim in excess of $100 per package, whether the result of loss, damage, delay, non-delivery, misdelivery, or misinformation, unless you declare a higher value, pay an additional charge, document your actual loss and file a timely claim. Limitations found in the current FedEx Service Guide apply. Your right to recover from FedEx for any loss, including intrinsic value of the package, loss of sales, income interest, profit, attorney's fees, costs, and other forms of damage whether direct, incidental, consequential, or special is limited to the greater of $100 or the authorized declared value. Recovery cannot exceed actual documented loss. Maximum for items of extraordinary value is $1,000, e.g. jewelry, precious metals, negotiable instruments and other items listed in our Service Guide. Written claims must be filed within strict time limits, see current FedEx Service Guide.
