RE: Terry Douglas Campbell v. The State of South Carolina

Court of Appeals Number: 2016-000066

Dear Ms. Kitchings:

This letter is to seek an explanation or to clarify the Rules which govern the appellate court. On August 30, 2016, Steven R. Spreewiers of the Davidson + Lindemann Law Firm who represents the Respondents in the above titled case wrote you a letter requesting an extension of time to file the Initial Brief of Respondents and their Designation of Matter. The South Carolina Appellate Court Rules, which are available to me in the South Carolina Department of Corrections, reflect that the time for performing any act may be extended but should be by a motion and that any party opposing such motion shall have ten days to oppose that motion by filing a Return.

Within 4 days of receiving the Respondents Request, I sent my Return opposing an extension stating my grounds for doing so yet on Sept. 6, 2016, which was also the very same day which I sent my Return, you filed an Order which granted their extension, which reflects that there was no regard for my standing on their request.

Could you please send me a copy of any current Appellate Court Rules and also let me know if I am to follow the same procedure which the Respondents used if I were to request an extension and if so would the Respondents also not be allowed to oppose my request.

Respectfully submitted,

Jerry Campbell
