Re: State v. Antonio Jordan, 2013-GS-46-37355

Dear Ms. Bennett,

On August 31, 2016, our office requested two transcripts in the above-referenced case. The first was for a Schmerber hearing that occurred on February 20, 2014, before the Honorable Lee Alford. The second was for a bond hearing that occurred on April 3, 2014, before Judge Alford as well. According to the information we obtained from the Public Defender's Office, Phyllis Campo was the court reporter. It is my understanding that Ms. Campo is no longer employed by the Judicial Department, and therefore, we sent our requests to Court Administration.

On September 13, 2016, my assistant, Sean Flynn, told me that you had left a voicemail for him about the transcript requests in this case. I assume the requests have been sent to you from Court Administration in light of Ms. Campo no longer being employed by the Judicial Department. According to Mr. Flynn, you stated that you had received requests from Mr. Jordan directly regarding transcripts and you wanted some clarification regarding our requests and his. You left a telephone number of 843-604-9941. I tried to return your call at that number all day yesterday and this morning. Unfortunately, I have been unable to reach you at that number. I would greatly appreciate the opportunity to speak to you about the requests and provide any clarification that I can. Please call me at your earliest convenience at 803-734-1330.

Sincerely,

Susan B. Hackett
Appellate Defender
