SC Court of Appeals

Notice of Motion

Now comes the Appellant giving notice of motion for time enlargement.

Motion for Enlargement of time

Now comes the Appellant moving for an enlargement of time to file his Initial brief and Designation of matter for the following reasons:

1. The Appellant does not have the resources to make photocopies of anything as SCDC mandates that all handwritten or typed will not be photo-copied unless clock stamped by the court.

2. The Appellant Recently just filed his motion for leave to proceed in forma pauperis and amended Notice of Appeal, as the motion for leave to proceed in forma pauperis has not been answered, nor does the Appellant possess the financial means to pay the filing fees he did not wish to overwhelm this court with briefs or Records without first knowing of Approval to proceed indigently.

Conclusion

Wherefore, upon the foregoing the Appellant prays for and additional thirty (30) days to file his initial brief and Designation of matter.

Sincerely,
S/ Justin Griffin
