1 MS. CAMPBELL: Judge, if I can mark these as a Court's
2 Exhibit. The first one was a notice where he was to come
3 in on February 4th, attached to that, the significant part,
4 is the change of address. He was to come in at the end of 5 January to change his address to a local address. And then
6 the second exhibit is dated January 28th which puts him on 7 notice to be here today and he's not here. I'll hand this 8 up.

9 THE COURT: Okay. All right. We're on the record in 10 the State of South Carolina versus Eric Terrell Spears,
11 this is 2012-GS-40-2824. Present for the State is Ms.
12 Campbell and Ms. Walker of the solicitor's office. Present
13 for the defendant is Lucas Hawks, R. Lucas Hawks, and Adam
14 Ruffin of the Public Defender's Office. Mr. Spears is not 15 present, and the solicitor's office has provided, which we 16 will mark as Court's Exhibit Number 1, is a yellow
17 solicitor's office Notice for Court form in which Mr. --
18 and attached to that is a change of address form that was 19 signed by Mr. Spears changing his address to a local 20 address here in Columbia. And then -- we'll mark that 21 grouping as Court's Exhibit Number 1. And then as Court's 22 Exhibit Number 2 is a letter from the solicitor's office to 23 Mr. Spears at the address that he provided telling him that 24 he is on notice for trial for February 17th 2015 at 25 9:00 a.m. and he is on notice for trial that whole week and

1 then for subsequent terms of court. It has in bold letters
2 and underlined and in all caps, "Should you fail to appear
3 a bench warrant will be issued and your trial will be --
4 you will be tried in your absence." All right. So let's
5 mark those as Court's Exhibit Number 1 and Court's Exhibit
6 Number 2.

7 (Court's Exhibits 1 and 2 were marked for 8 Identification only.)

9 THE COURT: Okay. And Mr. Hawks and Mr. Ruffin, if 10 you can relay the information that you relayed to me in 11 chambers as officers of the Court about what you know as to 12 Mr. Spears' location.

13 MR. HAWKS: Your Honor, this morning a representative
14 of Todd Rutherford's office came in to inform me that Mr.
15 Spears was attempting to hire that law firm. It's my 16 understanding that he then left to acquire the funds to do
17 so, he still has not returned. I spoke to him on the 18 phone and told him that --

19 THE COURT: You spoke to the defendant on the phone.

20 MR. HAWKS: Yes, the defendant on the phone.

21 THE COURT: This morning.

22 MR. HAWKS: This morning. I told him he needed to 23 either get a letter of representation from Todd
24 Rutherford's office or come back here immediately. I also 25 told him that either way we would be picking a jury without

1 him if he did not come back. I also informed him that he
2 is on notice to be here, that's a court appearance and that
3 if he did not show up today he would be issued a bench
4 warrant. I don't think Mr. Ruffin has anything to add to 5 that.

6 THE COURT: All right. Ms. Campbell?

7 MS. CAMPBELL: I would inquire what he said in 8 response to your telling him that.

9 MR. HAWKS: He said, "Okay."

10 THE COURT: Okay.

11 MR. HAWKS: He seemed to understand. If I could add
12 one more thing, Judge.

13 THE COURT: Sure.

14 MR. HAWKS: I'm afraid that that notice you have in 15 front of you does not mention that it would be a
16 trafficking third offense, only that it would be a
17 trafficking.

18 THE COURT: Anything else?

19 MS. CAMPBELL: No, sir. At this time we move for a
20 bench warrant.

21 THE COURT: All right. A bench warrant will be issued
22 for Mr. Spears' arrest. I find the defendant has received
23 notice of his right to be present at this hearing. He has 24 been told by a lawyer -- how long have you been 25 representing him, Mr. Hawks?

1 MR. HAWKS: Since I started here June of 2013.

2 THE COURT: Okay. So Mr. Hawks has been representing
3 him for a year-and-a-half, and he has also been put on 4 notice and warned that his trial would proceed in his
5 absence should he fail to appear, therefore I deem that a
6 trial in absence is appropriate under the circumstances.
7 Further, Ms. Walker informed the Court this morning in the 8 presence of defense counsel that you actually talked to 9 Mr. Rutherford's --

10 MS. WALKER: Yes, Your Honor. I've spoken with both
11 Mr. Rutherford and his office manager, her name is Tatiana,
12 her last name escapes me at the moment, I apologize for 13 that. But I spoke with Mr. Rutherford, he said that he 14 wasn't aware of this particular client. He told me to give 15 him one moment, he hung up, called his office, then called 16 back and said no, that they had not been retained to 17 represent him. I then called the Rutherford Law Firm and 18 spoke with the office manager and asked if she was aware of 19 Eric Spears, she said she had never heard of that name. I
20 told her that we were starting jury selection for his case
21 and if she sees him that she should tell him that he should 22 come to the courthouse.

23 THE COURT: All right. Anything else you want on the 24 record, Ms. Campbell?

25 MS. CAMPBELL: No, sir.

VOIR DIRE

1 THE COURT: Anything else, Mr. Hawks?

2 MR. HAWKS: No, Your Honor. However, I would ask what
3 would happen if he showed up today, would he be arrested or 4 allowed --

5 THE COURT: He would be taken into custody, yes.

6 MR. HAWKS: And would that happen anyway.

7 THE COURT: Yes.

8 MR. HAWKS: All right.

9 THE COURT: I find that a trial in absence is proper
10 and that a bench warrant is proper. Mr. Spears has 11 received notice of this trial, he has received a warning
12 that his trial would proceed in his absence should he fail
13 to appear, he's also received notice of his right to be 14 present at this hearing. Was he actually physically here
15 this morning, Mr. Hawks?

16 MR. HAWKS: Yes, Your Honor.

17 THE COURT: I'm not trying to put Mr. Hawks in a
18 difficult situation, nor -- Mr. Hawks enjoys a very good
19 representation with this Court and is being very candid and 20 frank with the Court about his communications with Mr.
21 Spears and his knowledge of this, and certainly Mr. Hawks
22 has been on notice of this trial for some time for this
23 week. I think we even talked about it last week, you know,
24 what was the status of the case and where were we going.
25 So I find that Mr. Hawks is certainly doing his duty and

VOIR DIRE

1 obligation as an officer of the Court in regards to this
2 situation. Okay. Let's bring up -- any voir dire from the 3 State?

4 MS. CAMPBELL: Your usual voir dire.

5 THE COURT: Anything from the defense?

6 MR. HAWKS: None, Your Honor.

7 THE COURT: Okay. Let's bring up the jury panel.

8 (The jury panel entered the courtroom.)

9 THE COURT: Good morning, ladies and gentlemen, and 10 welcome back. This was a quick turn around. Let me give 11 you a plan for what you're doing the rest of the day just 12 so you know and you can make plans accordingly. We're 13 going to spend about -- sometimes this takes about an hour,
14 45 minutes to an hour, just depends on how fast we move to 15 select a jury in this case. If you actually get selected
16 on my case and you're seated up here in the box, then once
17 you're selected I'm going to give you about five minutes
18 worth of information and then you're going to be excused
19 for the day completely. So it is right around the lunch
20 hour, you will be excused, you're free to go home, free to 21 go to work, whatever you want to do and you'll report back
22 tomorrow morning for the start of the case. While this is 23 a very important case, I do not believe it to be a very 24 lengthy case, but it is still important to all parties and 25 all sides. And so you'll be done for the day. If you make

VOIR DIRE

1 that I'm about to ask you is for you to tell the truth.
2 Okay. That's the most important thing. And if this were a
3 case that you were involved in regardless of what side you
4 may be on, you would be sitting there with the assumption
5 and the knowledge that these potential citizens who are
6 going to make a decision in this case are going to answer
7 the judge's questions truthfully, and I want you to err on 8 the side of providing us more information as opposed to 9 less information, does that make sense to you? Because 10 accurate information is what all the attorneys need to make 11 good decisions about who to put on the jury and who not to 12 put on the jury. And so it's very important as I go
13 through these questions with you, answer them accurately
14 and honestly so that everybody can make good decisions in 15 the jury selection process. All right. Ms. Campbell, if 16 you will start by introducing everybody with you.

17 MS. CAMPBELL: May it please the Court? I'm Luck
18 Campbell, I'm an assistant solicitor here in the 5th
19 Judicial Circuit.

20 MS. WALKER: Hi. I'm Meghan Walker, assistant
21 solicitor in the 5th Judicial Circuit.

22 THE COURT: Thank you, ladies. Is anybody related by 23 blood or marriage or close personal friends with or have 24 any connection to business, social, professional or 25 otherwise with Ms. Campbell or Ms. Walker? Do you have any

VOIR DIRE

1 introduce yourselves.

2 MR. HAWKS: May it please the Court, Your Honor?

3 THE COURT: Yes, sir.

4 MR. HAWKS: My name is Lucas Hawks, I'm an assistant
5 public defender here in the 5th Circuit.

6 MS. WALKER: I am Adam Ruffin, I'm also a Richland
7 County assistant public defender.

8 THE COURT: Thank you, gentlemen. Is any anybody
9 related by blood or marriage, close personal friends with 10 or have any connection to Mr. Hawks or Mr. Ruffin? Have 11 you ever been represented by them or on another side of a
12 case from them, or do you have any connection to anyone at 13 the 5th Circuit Public Defender's Office which encompasses
14 Richland and Kershaw County? If so, please stand. All 15 right. Thank you very much. The defendant in this case is 16 Eric Terrell Spears. Is anybody related by blood or 17 marriage, close personal friends with, have any connection
18 to, business, social, professional or otherwise with Mr.
19 Spears? If so, please stand. All right. The next thing
20 that I'm going to do is read you a list of potential
21 witnesses in this case. Now, I don't know that they will 22 call all of these witnesses, but these are all of the 23 potential witness that could be called in the case. If you
24 think you know these people or if you're related by blood
25 or marriage or close personal friends with or have any

PRETRIAL MOTIONS

1 participating in this case?

2 INVESTIGATOR GWYN: Involved in, no, sir.

3 THE COURT: Thank you. That's what I was trying to 4 make clear so you understand that's what their position is.

5 MR. HAWKS: Your Honor, I failed to mention earlier
6 that we may have a witness for this hearing, she was on 7 scene, her name is, I believe, Tracy Jenkins. She has been 8 subpoenaed, I spoke to her, she's supposed to be here at 9 2:00 but clearly I have trouble getting people here. But I
10 do intend to call her if she shows up.

11 THE COURT: Do you have any identifying information
12 for her so they can rap on her if they need to?

13 MR. HAWKS: I have a phone number, Judge.

14 THE COURT: Date of birth or anything like that?

15 MR. HAWKS: I don't have that.

16 THE COURT: Okay. All right. What else?

17 MR. HAWKS: We can start the motion to suppress, Your 18 Honor.

19 THE COURT: Okay. All right. Do you want to start
20 calling witnesses?

21 MR. HAWKS: Your Honor, it's the State's burden to 22 prove that the search was lawful, so that would be them
23 calling the witnesses.

24 THE COURT: You have to give me some foundation for 25 the motion to suppress.

PRETRIAL MOTIONS

1 MR. HAWKS: In the form of witness testimony?

2 THE COURT: No. In the form of some kind of summary
3 of where you're going.

4 MR. HAWKS: Okay. Judge, basically I think there are
5 three or four issues with this search. One is the initial
6 contact made by officers; two, the decision to Terry frisk
7 Mr. Spears; and three, pulling -- actually pulling the 8 alleged crack cocaine from the waistband. I believe that
9 Mr. Spears was keyed on contact without reasonable
10 suspicion, I believe that he was frisked without reasonable
11 suspicion of a weapon, and I do not believe that the plain
12 view doctrine would satisfy pulling out the substance.

13 THE COURT: All right. Ms. Campbell?

14 MS. CAMPBELL: May it please the Court?

15 THE COURT: Yes, ma'am.

16 MS. CAMPBELL: Your Honor, I think we can take care of 17 this with one witness. We would call Investigator Dennis
18 Tracy.

19 THE COURT: Okay. Please come forward, Investigator
20 Tracy.

21 The witness, DENNIS TRACY, was first duly sworn,
22 and testified as follows:

23 THE COURT: Thank you. Have a seat in the witness
24 stand for me..

25 THE CLERK: State your name for the record.

PRETRIAL MOTIONS

1 THE COURT: Dennis Tracy, T-R-A-C-Y.

2 DIRECT EXAMINATION

3 BY MS. CAMPBELL:

4 Q Agent Tracy, where are you currently employed?

5 A I'm employed by the State Law Enforcement Division.

6 Q What do you do there, sir?

7 A I'm a narcotics investigator.

8 Q And how long have you actually been in law
9 enforcement?

10 A This is my 19th year in law enforcement.

11 Q Can you tell the judge a little bit about your 12 training and your experience in the field of narcotics?

13 A Yes, ma'am. I've been working narcotics since 2002.

14 I've been working in the field of interdiction since
15 about 2004, transportation interdiction and parcel

16 interdiction, certified by law enforcement administration

17 in transportation interdiction, which is anything related

18 to buses, planes, trains, hotel, motel, anything that's

19 not highway interdiction. I also teach for the DEA,

20 teaching parcel interdiction. I've been involved in about

21 roughly 2600 narcotics cases since I've been a narcotics

22 agent.

23 Q Turning your attention back to March of 2012, where 24 were you employed then?

25 A I was employed by the Lexington County Sheriff's

PRETRIAL MOTIONS

1 Department.

2 Q And were you part of a task force or a group of people
3 that were working on some interdiction cases?

4 A Yes, ma'am. I was working with the -- I'm a task
5 force officer with the Immigration and Customs Enforcement
6 which is now Homeland Security. I am what is referred to 7 as a Title 19 TFO which means I have authority to force
8 certain codes of laws that falls under the jurisdiction of 9 Immigration and Customs Enforcement.

10 Q I want to turn your attention specifically to March
11 the 29th of 2012. Who all were you working with that day?

12 A We had agents from the Richland County Sheriff's 13 Department, Immigrations Customs Enforcement, Drug
14 Enforcement Administration. I'm pretty sure that's about 15 it.

16 Q And that day, did y'all receive a tip which you chose
17 to then go and kind of flesh out?

18 A From my --

19 MR. HAWKS: Objection, Your Honor, that calls for 20 hearsay.

21 THE COURT: Overruled.

22 A From my understanding the DEA received a tip, they
23 requested the assistance of Homeland Security, or I think
24 it was ICE at that time so it was Immigrations Customs
25 Enforcement, specifically asked for my assistance since I

PRETRIAL MOTIONS

1 was certified by interdiction. So we got together. We
2 went over real quick rules of the road, for lack of a
3 better term, about what they could and couldn't do or what
4 steps we needed to make sure we didn't do to make a bad
5 case, steps about not to impede the person's movement.

6 Q Not what to a person's movement?

7 A Not impeding the person's movement. This is
8 basically based on consensual encounters.

9 Q And that was information y'all actually went over
10 prior to getting there?

11 A Yes, ma'am.

12 Q And you were the one actually giving them the 13 information to make sure that they understood it.

14 A Correct.

15 Q And the tip, what information did you have about a tip
16 that you were following up on?

17 A From what I understand supposedly a black male
18 subject was traveling from New York on what we refer to as 19 the chinese bus lines, which are a low cost bus that comes
20 out of New York, makes very few stops and comes straight
21 to North Carolina/South Carolina. The buses are --
22 there's no positive ID required to get on these buses.
23 There is also no security measures, no magnetometers,
24 there's no security of any means. So these buses are 25 commonly used by felons, by wanted subjects, by people

PRETRIAL MOTIONS

1 trafficking in narcotics and counterfeit goods. There's a
2 whole slew of people using these buses because of the lack
3 of security.

4 Q And that day where were you responding to?

5 A The buses pulled into Richland County in two
6 locations, one over by the Dutch Square Mall, and another
7 location just north of I-20 on Broad River Road.

8 Q And which location did you respond to that day?

9 A We were at both of them. Normally the buses don't 10 come in right on top of each other, but they came in 11 within ten minutes of each other. The first bus showed up
12 at the Dutch Square location, we got information the 13 second one was pulling off the interstate as well. So
14 myself, Task Force Officer Brandon Finch and Special Agent
15 Briton Lorenzen responded to the location north of I-20 on 16 Broad River Road to meet that bus.

17 Q Is that near a landmark right there?

18 A I'm not sure of the hotel, it's right there kind of 19 by the Dutch Fork --

20 Q The post office?

21 A Yes, ma'am.

22 Q So it's right near the Dutch Fork Post Office.

23 A Yes, ma'am.

24 Q And when you responded there that day, did you also
25 meet up with Investigator Brian Gwyn with the Richland

PRETRIAL MOTIONS

1 County Sheriff's Department?

2 A Eventually.

3 Q When you first got there, tell the judge what, if 4 anything, you observed.

5 A We saw a few have people getting off the bus and most
6 of the people we observed didn't arise any suspicions,
7 they were getting off the bus, they were being greeted by 8 relatives or friends, they were making calls, they were
9 getting in cabs. We did see two subjects get off the bus
10 and they retrieved a large number of bags, I think it was 11 four bags total from underneath the bus. And then they 12 engaged in conversations with themselves, continued to 13 look over toward us and then they proceeded to walk up the 14 street toward the post office.

15 Q And you said there were two subjects. Were they both 16 men, both women?

17 A It was a black male and a black female.

18 Q And you said they retrieved some luggage from the bus;
19 is that correct?

20 A I believe it was four large bags.

21 Q And you mentioned that they were looking over at you.
22 How were y'all dressed that day?

23 A We were in plain clothes.

24 Q But they kept looking at you?

25 A They did.

PRETRIAL MOTIONS

1 Q And why did that arouse your suspicions?

2 A Most of the other people didn't pay that much
3 attention to us, they would look and go on with their
4 business, but these two subjects continued to -- what
5 appeared to us is that they kept looking at us and talking
6 amongst themselves.

7 Q And everyone else was going out and greeting people
8 that were there to meet them.

9 A Correct.

10 Q Or had gotten off the bus themselves.

11 A Yes, ma'am.

12 Q So y'all would be the only ones that hadn't gotten off
13 the bus other than the people greeting the others.

14 A Yes, ma'am.

15 Q What did you observe next?

16 A The two subjects continued to walk up the street --
17 and forgive me, I'm not sure of the name of that street,
18 but toward the post office.

19 Q Uh-huh.

20 A As they continued to walk up toward the post office.
21 Myself, TWO Frank Finch and Special Agent Lorenzen walked
22 up the street behind them. As we approached them I saw 23 the female subject reach into her bag and pull out an 24 unknown object, her arm movement was consistent --

25 MR. HAWKS: Objection, Your Honor. I have not been

PRETRIAL MOTIONS

1 provided any of this information.

2 THE COURT: Okay. What's your objection?

3 MR. HAWKS: Well, perhaps I could have advised my
4 client differently if I knew that all this stuff was going
5 to come out.

6 THE COURT: Okay. Overruled, so keep going.

7 A The female appeared to hand the male subject an
8 unknown item. The male then -- his hands did not come
9 above his waist so we figured it wasn't like a food
10 object, it wasn't a piece of gum, it wasn't a piece of 11 candy, so we figured it was either going to be in his 12 hands or his waistband or his pockets. As they got closer
13 to the post office they continued to look back at us.
14 Once we got within 15 or 20 feet of them we asked them if 15 we could speak with them, they stopped walking. We 16 identified ourselves, made small talk with them about 17 their travel itinerary, asked them how bus ride was, if
18 they got any bad weather --

19 Q Let me stop you for a second. You mentioned that you
20 walked up and as you got closer to them you asked them if 21 you could talk to them?

22 A Yes, ma'am.

23 Q And at that point did they stop?

24 A They did.

25 Q And, in fact, did they start talking to y'all?

PRETRIAL MOTIONS

1 A They did.

2 Q At any point did y'all handcuff or arrest them at that
3 point?

4 A No, ma'am.

5 Q Would they have been free to go if they didn't want to
6 talk to you at that time?

7 A Yes, ma'am.

8 Q Okay. I'm sorry, continue.

9 A We then asked them if they had -- or we told them the 10 bus lines, that we had had problems in the past with drugs
11 and wanted subjects and counterfeit merchandise, and we 12 asked them for ID. I noted that while I was speaking with 13 the male subject he continued to put his hands underneath
14 his shirt and I guess the motion would be like puff his 15 shirt away from his waistband.

16 Q And that caught your attention?

17 A It did. I asked him to keep his hands where I could 18 see them and not put his hands in his pockets because I
19 didn't know what if he was reaching in his pockets. He 20 did it a couple more times and I kept reminding him to 21 cease putting his hands in his pockets because I wasn't --
22 for officer's safety regards I wasn't sure if he had 23 anything in his pockets that could hurt us. Drugs and 24 guns are commonly hand in hand, criminals often have 25 designated weapons in their possession. So he continued

PRETRIAL MOTIONS

1 to get frustrated, or he continued to put his hands in his
2 pockets or pulled his shirt out and I told him I was going
3 to conduct a pat down of him so I could be sure he didn't
4 have any weapons on him or anything that was going to hurt
5 me.

6 Q Let me back up for a second. Prior to him -- the part
7 about the shirt, had y'all had a conversation and you asked
8 him certain questions about whether he had some illegal
9 items --

10 A I did. I asked him -- he was -- I asked -- him. I
11 engaged him in causal conversation about his trip, all of 12 his answers were very forthcoming. When I asked him about 13 any illegal weapons on him or on his property he hesitated
14 for providing an answer no. That made me a little 15 suspicious, because like I said, he'd been very 16 forthcoming with all of his answers. And in my training
17 and experience especially working interdiction, when 18 people get confronted with an answer they don't want to 19 tell you the truth on a lot of times they're going to 20 hesitate. I conducted a pat down of the subject. When I
21 got to his waistband on the right side on the front, there
22 was a balled-up object, which to me felt consistent with 23 previous seizures of crack cocaine. I removed the object
24 from his waistband, at which time I could see the items
25 inside were wrapped in a paper towel or a napkin. When I

PRETRIAL MOTIONS

1 opened that up it was consistent with crack cocaine and
2 there was a small amount of marijuana. At that point the 3 subject was detained and we called for TFO Dana Robinson
4 to come to the location so that he could help us get this
5 person processed.

6 Q And you mentioned while you were doing this search,
7 you were doing it for weapons; is that correct?

8 A Well, I didn't know what he had in his waistband
9 since he wanted to place his hands under his shirt out of 10 my view, and for my safety I went ahead and conducted the 11 pat-down.

12 Q And that's when it felt in your experience like --

13 A It felt like crack cocaine. It was rock like and you
14 could feel it had jagged edges and it was in a ball form.

15 Q And it was only after you removed that item and it
16 appeared to be crack cocaine?

17 A After the napkin was opened it looked like crack
18 cocaine.

19 Q At that point you detained him.

20 A We did.

21 Q And called in Richland County.

22 A Yes.

23 Q Since this was taking place in Richland County.

24 A Yes, ma'am.

25 Q That day, was the item field tested?

PRETRIAL MOTIONS

1 A To the best of my knowledge it was, I didn't field
2 test it.

3 Q That would be other officers.

4 A Yes, ma'am.

5 Q And then that item was turned over to, I believe,
6 Investigator Robinson or Investigator Gwyn as far as them
7 taking it into evidence.

8 A Yes, ma'am.

9 Q Were you present that day for any questioning of the 10 defendant?

11 A No, ma'am.

12 Q So once you had found the crack cocaine basically your 13 role had ended.

14 A Yes, ma'am.

15 Q And that's the extent of how these items were -- again
16 but for his -- after he agreed to stop to talk to you, but 17 for his movements around his waist at his t-shirt it was at 18 that point that it triggered you being concerned for your 19 safety.

20 A Correct.

21 Q And when you were actually searching him that day, you
22 were searching for weapons for officer's safety.

23 A Yes, ma'am.

24 Q And the person that we don't have here in the 25 courtroom, I'm going to show you what I haven't marked yet

PRETRIAL MOTIONS

1 but will in a second. Do you recognize that?

2 A Yes, ma'am.

3 Q Is that the person?

4 A That's the booking photo of the subject.

5 Q That you found the crack cocaine on.

6 A Yes, ma'am.

7 MS. CAMPBELL: Thank you, sir. I don't have anything
8 further.

9 MR. HAWKS: Your Honor, may I have a minute to speak
10 with my witness who just arrived?

11 THE COURT: Sure. Did she just sit in here through 12 the whole testimony?

13 MS. WALKER: She did, Your Honor.

14 MR. HAWKS: I don't think she knew, Judge. I didn't 15 know who she was at first.

16 MS. WALKER: If I may, Your Honor? I saw her walk in 17 and I pointed her out and said, "I think one of your 18 witnesses just got here," and she sat down and listened to 19 the entire testimony.

20 THE COURT: Is that true?

21 MR. HAWKS: Yes, sir.

22 THE COURT: Well, why didn't you kick her out of the 23 courtroom?

24 MR. HAWKS: I wasn't sure who she was at first. I
25 have never met this woman, I don't know what she looks

PRETRIAL MOTIONS

1 like.

2 THE COURT: Ms. Walker said she just told you that
3 that was the witness.

4 MR. HAWKS: She asked me if it was the witness.

5 MS. WALKER: I said, "I think your witness just walked 6 in the courtroom," he turned around and waived to her and 7 then she sat down.

8 THE COURT: You didn't think enough to say, "Hold on,
9 let me figure out if it's my witness?"

10 MR. HAWKS: Apparently I didn't. Judge, I have 11 clients come in all of the time and sit in the back of the 12 courtroom, for all I know it's a different client who is 13 here for court. I don't know what the woman looks like. I
14 did assume it was her but I did not know.

15 MS. WALKER: And I didn't know either, Your Honor,
16 that's why I pointed it out to Mr. Hawks.

17 THE COURT: Go out and talk to her for just a minute,
18 just a minute.

19 (Break in proceedings.)

20 MR. HAWKS: I apologize, Judge.

21 THE COURT: Cross-examination.

22 MR. HAWKS: May it please the Court?

23 CROSS EXAMINATION

24 BY MR. HAWKS:

25 Q So what is your proper title?

PRETRIAL MOTIONS

- 1 A Special agent.
- 2 Q Do you mind if I just call you Tracy?
- 3 A You may.
- 4 Q Okay. Now, I'm assuming this is not the first
- 5 incident report you've written.
- 6 A No, sir.
- 7 Q Okay. Ballpark number, hundreds?
- 8 A Hundreds.
- 9 Q Five hundred?
- 10 A I stated earlier I had been involved in 2600 narcotic
- 11 cases, sir, so probably more than 2600.
- 12 Q And it's important to make sure that those are
- 13 accurate, right?
- 14 A Yes, sir.
- 15 Q Because a situation like this might arise where three
- 16 years have gone by almost and this is all I've got, so it's
- 17 important for it to be accurate.
- 18 A Yes, sir.
- 19 Q And truthful, specific, contain all the -- everything
- 20 that went on. Now, this is written on a Lexington County
- 21 form but that's only because that's where you worked at the
- 22 time, right?
- 23 A Yes, sir.
- 24 Q But you were acting under your federal authority,
- 25 correct?

PRETRIAL MOTIONS

1 A Correct.

2 Q As a federal agent, correct?

3 A Correct.

4 Q And how many other officer agents were on the scene?

5 A Well, let's see, we had a special agent with the 6 Homeland security, so that's one. Two DEA TFO's, that's 7 three, and myself, so four total.

8 Q Okay. And how about Deputy Gwyn?

9 A He was working for the sheriff's department at that
10 time.

11 Q Okay. Where was he?

12 A He responded -- I don't know if he was at the other
13 location, but he wasn't there when we made the initial 14 contact with the subjects.

15 Q So you were at the bus stop but Gwyn was not.

16 A Myself, TFO Finch, and Special Agent Lorenzen were 17 the first to make contact with the two people that were 18 walking from the bus stop.

19 Q So you didn't see Gwyn.

20 A Not originally.

21 Q And this bus stop, it is basically an Economy Inn
22 parking lot.

23 A Well, bus stop is not a relative term, it's not 24 really a -- it's a stop but there is not a sign, there's 25 not any benches. It's basically a semiclosed down

PRETRIAL MOTIONS

1 business that they dump people off at.

2 MR. HAWKS: Judge, I just have a map for
3 demonstration, it's printed from Google, Google Maps.

4 THE COURT: Do you have any objection to that map?

5 MS. CAMPBELL: I've never seen it, but again --

6 MR. HAWKS: It's printed straight from Google Maps,
7 Judge.

8 MS. CAMPBELL: If the witness can identify it I have 9 no problem.

10 THE COURT: Let him look at it and familiarize himself
11 with it.

12 Q All right. But this is Broad River.

13 A Yes, sir.

14 THE COURT: Which one is Broad River for my -- the 15 yellow one?

16 MR. HAWKS: The yellow one.

17 THE COURT: Can you see that, Agent Tracy?

18 THE WITNESS: I can.

19 MS. CAMPBELL: Okay. Thanks.

20 Q Okay. Now, I don't know if you know that that's the 21 Economy Inn but it is labeled there, that's the Economy
22 Inn. And the street you were talking about on direct, the 23 one that they were walking on is Briargate.

24 A Okay.

25 Q Does that sound familiar?

PRETRIAL MOTIONS

1 A Yes, sir.

2 Q So does this look like it looked at the time?

3 A Yes, sir.

4 Q Okay. Now, the bus would have come in on Broad River.

5 A Yes, sir.

6 Q And the bus drops the people off at least back in this

7 parking lot?

8 A I believe it pulls --

9 THE WITNESS: Can I step down from the witness stand?

10 THE COURT: As long as you keep your voice up.

11 THE WITNESS: I'll keep my voice up.

12 A Okay. If I remember correctly the bus pulls into

13 here because it can pull around here a lot easier than it

14 can whip into kind of anything here.

15 Q Okay.

16 A The bus pulls in here, the subjects all are standing

17 here when they get off.

18 Q Okay. So although the bus pulls in here, the 19 passengers are hanging out in this parking lot essentially.

20 A Yes.

21 Q All right. You can stay up here or go sit back down,

22 whatever you would like to.

23 A Okay.

24 Q Now, there's businesses over here, basically

25 businesses all down Briargate.

PRETRIAL MOTIONS

1 A I think the only thing down Briargate, unless I'm
2 mistaken, is maybe like a car rental rim place. I don't
3 remember a bunch of businesses right there.

4 Q And Briargate itself goes back into some
5 neighborhoods, apartments.

6 A It goes into an apartment complex.

7 Q Okay.

8 A And there is a post office..

9 Q And although you don't list the location on your
10 incident report, could you just give me a rough estimation
11 of where on the map you encountered these two?

12 A The post office has from what I remember three --
13 like a three part driveway, and the middle of the three 14 driveways, or the middle driveway of the three is where we 15 contacted them.

16 Q So maybe in this area.

17 A Closer to where the curb is.

18 Q Okay.

19 A No, this way, sir.

20 Q This far down is what I'm asking.

21 A I think it's going to be closer down to this corner.

22 Q Okay.

23 A It was a good ways. It was a hoof because --

24 Q How many feet?

25 A From where?

PRETRIAL MOTIONS

- 1 Q From where they were let off.
- 2 A Several hundred, couple hundred. It's a ways, it's a 3 hoof.
- 4 Q Okay.
- 5 A They're walking, we're walking behind them, we didn't
6 run. However quickly we could walk a little faster than 7 they did to make contact with them.
- 8 Q Okay. And so you did follow them in a sense.
- 9 A Yes.
- 10 Q Because they had turned their back and walked away.
- 11 A Yes.
- 12 Q Okay. Now, you don't mention a tip at all in your 13 incident report.
- 14 A Correct.
- 15 Q And the tip as you remember it was simply a black 16 male.
- 17 A Correct.
- 18 Q No other description.
- 19 A Correct.
- 20 Q No name given.
- 21 A No.
- 22 Q No clothing, age.
- 23 A No.
- 24 Q Height, weight, nothing of that sort of thing.
- 25 A As far as I know, no.

PRETRIAL MOTIONS

1 Q Okay. And in fact, the tip did not specify which of 2 the two stations between the other station and this one?

3 A The reason I didn't put the tip in there is because
4 the tip didn't come directly to me. Our bus interdiction
5 efforts were completely independent of whatever tip may or 6 may not have existed. We made contact with the 7 individuals solely based on their activity, not based on a
8 tip per say.

9 Q So your testimony is the tip didn't have anything to 10 do with why you contacted these two.

11 A We are out there because of the tip, but the tip
12 isn't specifically enough for me to say that's our subject
13 based on the tip alone.

14 Q Now, when they get off the bus, does it appear they 15 are together?

16 A Yes.

17 Q In a relationship?

18 A It looked like a boyfriend/girlfriend type of 19 relationship.

20 Q And they did have a lot of bags, large suit cases.

21 A Yes.

22 Q And they had to pull those up from the side bus door,
23 right?

24 A I'm assuming so.

25 Q But you saw that.

PRETRIAL MOTIONS

- 1 A They retrieved their bags. I can't say with any 2 certainty whether they pulled them out from underneath the 3 bus, the bus driver pulled them out from underneath the
4 bus, but they had four bags that recovered from underneath
5 the bus that were theirs.
- 6 Q Okay. And so are y'all in cars at this point?
- 7 A No, we're on foot.
- 8 Q On foot. How did y'all get there?
- 9 A In a vehicle.
- 10 Q Where was the vehicle?
- 11 A We came into the far side of the parking lot. Down
12 closer to the bottom of the map. Yes, sir.
- 13 Q Okay. So your cars are over here.
- 14 A Yes.
- 15 Q And your walk up to --
- 16 A Correct.
- 17 Q And there's four of y'all?
- 18 A There's three of us.
- 19 Q Three. Okay. And are you wearing a suit?
- 20 A No, sir.
- 21 Q What kind of clothes?
- 22 A Plain clothes, just regular street clothing.
- 23 Q Khakis, polos?
- 24 A Sure.
- 25 Q And were you carrying your firearms outside the

PRETRIAL MOTIONS

1 waistband?

2 A No, sir.

3 Q You were carrying concealed?

4 A Concealed.

5 Q So no part of your firearm was exposed.

6 A Correct.

7 Q And do you carry a gun when you're not on duty?

8 A I do.

9 Q Concealed.

10 A Concealed.

11 Q Do you carry it on your belt?

12 A Yes.

13 Q You have to have a strong sturdy belt for that, right?

14 A Yes.

15 Q Because guns are heavy.

16 A Correct.

17 Q So obviously you can't testify for Finch, and I'm 18 sorry, what's Baker's other name?

19 A Lorenzen.

20 Q Now, you can't say what they saw, but your report is 21 describing what you saw at the bus stop.

22 A Correct.

23 Q So if they were paying excessive attention to you, do
24 you think they knew that you were law enforcement?

25 A That would be my assumption.

PRETRIAL MOTIONS

1 Q And people do pay attention to law enforcement when
2 they are there.

3 A Are you asking for my opinion in this matter?
4 Because I'll give my opinion if that's what you want.

5 Q Yes, that's fine.

6 A People pay attention when they see law enforcement
7 that is obvious. People see blue lights, they pay
8 attention. People see a uniformed officer, they pay
9 attention. People that are not in criminal activity don't
10 normally look at a law enforcement officer in plain
11 clothes.

12 Q Okay. But you're not sure they knew you were law
13 enforcement.

14 A You just asked if that's how it appeared to me and 15 that's how it appeared to me.

16 Q So you thought they knew you were law enforcement and 17 they were paying excessive attention.

18 A Yes, sir.

19 Q Okay.

20 MR. HAWKS: Beg the Court's indulgence.

21 (Break in proceedings.)

22 Q Now, this stuff on direct -- and I apologize for 23 interrupting you, just trying to create a record here, but 24 I objected because that's the first I had heard of any of 25 that stuff. In your report you simply describe them as

PRETRIAL MOTIONS

1 paying excessive attention and you don't mention the
2 nervousness at all.

3 A Okay.

4 Q So you thought it was important that they were nervous
5 but you didn't mention it in your report.

6 A Yes.

7 Q Okay. And you didn't contact them in the parking lot.

8 A No. We were well down that street before we
9 contacted them.

10 Q Okay. And in your report it says that the male and 11 female began walking away with their luggage, but you
12 didn't say that they began walking as you described it sort
13 of a hoof.

14 A No, sir, that's not what I said. What I said is was 15 they began to walk away. We walked behind them, we didn't
16 run after them, we had to walk quicker to catch them. So
17 they walked at a normal pace, we had to walk at a faster
18 than normal pace to catch them. We came up behind them at 19 a faster rate of a walking speed to catch them to 20 obviously shorten the distance from us to them.

21 Q Okay.

22 A They did not run away, they did not walk away. They 23 had four pieces of luggage, they weren't going anywhere
24 fast.

25 Q And so you just walked quickly in order to shorten the

PRETRIAL MOTIONS

1 gap.

2 A Yes.

3 Q So now in your report you don't mention anything about
4 the female having an object.

5 A Correct.

6 Q Okay. You don't mention anything about the female
7 giving that object to the male.

8 A Correct.

9 Q Okay. In fact, you don't mention them stopping or 10 putting down their bags at all until you come up the speak
11 with them.

12 A They didn't put down their bags at all until we came 13 to speak with them.

14 Q Okay. So they're carrying bags and handing each other
15 things.

16 A They were moving four bags and she was still able to 17 get in the purse and transfer and object to him, yes.

18 Q She must have stopped to be able to do that.

19 A It's possible they stopped, but they didn't
20 necessarily set their bags all the way down.

21 Q And did they know that you were behind them?

22 A They kept looking back at us, yes, sir.

23 Q Okay. So they knew that you were following them.

24 A Yes, sir.

25 Q And they continued to walk.

PRETRIAL MOTIONS

1 A Yes.

2 Q So can you describe to the Court how you announced
3 yourself?

4 A I'm not sure of the exact words we used, it was 5 something nonthreatening like, "Excuse us, do you mind if 6 we have a word with you," something along those lines.

7 Q And would that have been when you're very close to 8 them or while you're still far back?

9 A No. It was when we were close to them.

10 Q So you didn't say anything until you got --

11 A We were within -- if I had to estimate I'd say within 12 eight to 10 feet, so it wasn't consistent with yelling a 13 command to them. It was basically, "Do you mind if we 14 talk to you for a second?"

15 Q Okay. And did you say you were federal agency?

16 A I presented my task force ID since we were contacting
17 them under federal authority.

18 Q Okay. Is that a badge?

19 A Well, it's a credential card, it's an ID card
20 basically.

21 Q Okay. And did you tell them you were a federal agent?

22 A I told them I was a task force officer with customs
23 enforcement.

24 Q Okay. And you said in direct that you didn't ask them
25 to stop, they just voluntarily stopped when you asked to

PRETRIAL MOTIONS

1 speak with them.

2 A Correct.

3 Q Okay. The purpose of that from your report and also 4 from your direct testimony was to identify them for 5 identification purposes.

6 A The reason we contacted them was to first of all
7 identify them, and second of all to ascertain if they were 8 involved in any criminal activity, specifically under our
9 ICE authority it would be trafficking counterfeit goods.
10 They have four large bags coming out of a known source
11 area for counterfeit goods, we thought that might be 12 something we wanted to take a look at.

13 Q Okay. I hate to ask you to step down again, but I'd 14 like to talk to you about the motions Mr. Spears was 15 making. Now, he was wearing a larger shirt?

16 A I refer to it as a baggy type shirt.

17 Q About how far down on his legs?

18 A A sweatshirt, so I would say maybe here.

19 Q It was a sweatshirt?

20 A I think it was a sweatshirt.

21 Q Was it hoody?

22 A I don't believe so.

23 Q Okay. Would you say that it was too big for a man of 24 his size?

25 A No, not necessarily.

PRETRIAL MOTIONS

1 Q Okay. And when you first got up there and started to
2 talk to him, was his shirt resting flat on his beltline at 3 that time?

4 A I don't know if initially it was. I know that as I
5 continued to talk to him it became -- I'm sorry -- it
6 became something that drew my attention to the fact that
7 he was intentionally putting his hands inside his shirt.
8 I can't really do it with this shirt. But what he was 9 doing --

10 THE WITNESS: And I don't know how I can do this, Your
11 Honor, and how it's going to look with the transcriber.

12 A It was like he grabbed the inside of his shirt and 13 rolled his hands in it so that it was tight and pulled 14 away from his waistband.

15 Q And that would have actually made his shirt shorter.

16 A No. But it made his shirt come out from his 17 waistband.

18 Q Okay.

19 A Yes. It made it slightly shorter, but not quite 20 noticeable.

21 THE COURT: Do it again.

22 THE WITNESS: He took his hands and like put them
23 inside shirt, grabbed the bottom of the shirt and then
24 rolled it up so that it became tight on the outside.

25 THE COURT: The hands are underneath the shirt?

PRETRIAL MOTIONS

1 THE WITNESS: Hands are inside the shirt underneath it
2 and basically doing that made the shirt plane out so you
3 couldn't see -- if there was a bulge in his waistband you
4 wouldn't have been able to see it.

5 THE COURT: Okay.

6 Q You can sit back down, I'm sorry. So when he's doing
7 that, could you see his stomach or his undershirt?

8 A No.

9 Q So his shirt wasn't not pulled up.

10 A It was, not that high.

11 Q And he was wearing sweat pants?

12 A I'm not sure about the pants, sir.

13 Q Do you know if he had a belt on?

14 A Again, I'm not 100 percent sure on the belt either.

15 Q And there's really no description of him in your 16 report as far as what he's wearing.

17 A Correct.

18 Q Now, on direct you said at some point you told him to 19 stop making those movements.

20 A Yes, sir.

21 Q And did he comply?

22 A He would take his hands out briefly and then within a
23 number of seconds he would go back to doing the same exact
24 thing.

25 Q And when he gave you his ID card, did he retrieve it?

PRETRIAL MOTIONS

- 1 A He did.
- 2 Q Where did he retrieve it from?
- 3 A I'm not 100 percent sure, I believe in a back pocket.
- 4 Q It was in a wallet?
- 5 A I believe so.
- 6 Q Okay.
- 7 A I'm not 100 percent but I believe it was in a wallet.
- 8 Q Okay. And at this point you're really investigating
- 9 drugs, counterfeit items, anything that might be trafficked
- 10 on this bus --
- 11 A Correct.
- 12 Q -- that comes from New York.
- 13 A Correct.
- 14 Q You don't know how fast this bus runs.
- 15 A Daily.
- 16 Q Daily. So every day the bus comes from New York,
- 17 Chinatown, New York.
- 18 A At least one.
- 19 Q Okay. When you advised Spears that you were going to
- 20 pat him down, he didn't say anything?
- 21 A No, sir.
- 22 Q Right. All right. Let's talk about the pat down
- 23 itself here. I've never patted somebody down before, so
- 24 I'm guessing you kind of just go all over, sides, chest?
- 25 A You start where you're most likely to find a weapon,

PRETRIAL MOTIONS

1 down their back, waistband, pockets, down the legs.

2 Q Okay. And although you felt this hard ball object,
3 did you continue to make sure there were no weapons in 4 other places?

5 A I did.

6 Q So you finished the pat down?

7 A Yes, I did.

8 Q And you found no weapons.

9 A No.

10 Q And it's not really in the report, but could you --
11 right here?

12 A About right there, that's fair.

13 Q Okay. So not down in his crotch.

14 A No. It was as if -- if somebody were to -- and I'm 15 not saying he had sweat pants, but if you had sweat pants
16 and you just flip them over, maybe roll them over twice
17 maybe and put something right there in the upper part of 18 your waistband.

19 Q So it may have been even wrapped up in the pants.

20 A I'm saying that's what it was --

21 Q Right.

22 A -- I can't testify that he had sweat pants on. What 23 I'm saying is -- it wasn't like sewn in the pants, it was 24 placed there in his waistband where he figured it would
25 stay there.

PRETRIAL MOTIONS

1 Q Okay. And you described it as hard -- I guess I
2 didn't get the ball part from your report, but on direct it
3 felt like a hard ball.

4 A It felt like maybe golf ball size but it had jagged
5 edges so you could feel it. I've gotten plenty of crack
6 out of a waistband before and that's what it felt like.

7 Q But it wasn't broken up smaller crack rocks or what
8 they would call a cookie.

9 A It was not a cookie. It was more like if you took
10 broken glass and put it in a bag and then made it into a
11 ball -- if I recall correctly it was smaller pieces that 12 had jagged edges which is what felt like crack to me.

13 Q Okay. And when you pulled the object out, was it also 14 inside of his underpants or just the pants?

15 A I'm not 100 percent sure it was in his underpants or 16 not.

17 Q And it was a napkin that was inside of a plastic bag,
18 or it was inside of a plastic bag that was inside of a
19 napkin?

20 A I think it -- if I can recall correctly I want to say
21 crack, plastic bag, napkin.

22 Q So the napkin is on the outside.

23 A If I recall correctly.

24 MR. HAWKS: Beg the Court's indulgence.

25 (Break in proceedings.)

PRETRIAL MOTIONS

1 MR. HAWKS: I have nothing further for this witness,
2 Judge.

3 MS. CAMPBELL: Just one.

4 REDIRECT EXAMINATION

5 BY MS. CAMPBELL:

6 Q I show you an item of evidence. And you didn't
7 actually log this into evidence yourself, did you?

8 A I did not.

9 Q But does that appear to be the crack cocaine?

10 A It's deteriorated, but that appears to be what it was 11 like.

12 MS. CAMPBELL: Your Honor, may I approach? Thank you.
13 I don't have anything further.

14 THE COURT: Anything else, Mr. Hawks?

15 MR. HAWKS: Nothing else, Judge.

16 THE COURT: Thank you very much. Any other witnesses,
17 Ms. Campbell?

18 MS. CAMPBELL: Not on the search issue.

19 THE COURT: Any witnesses, Mr. Hawks?

20 MR. HAWKS: I'd like to call Traci Jenkins.

21 MS. CAMPBELL: Your Honor, we do not have a date of 22 birth on her.

23 THE COURT: All right. Can you get her date of birth?

24 (Break in proceedings.)

25 MR. HAWKS: Yes. Judge, she is wavering a bit with

PRETRIAL MOTIONS

1 the 5th Amendment issue, and because we heard that she may
2 have been the one who handed it to him, she may have a
3 point. I was wondering if Your Honor could explain
4 everything to her, advise her of her rights?

5 THE COURT: Yeah, sure. Did you get her date of 6 birth?

7 MR. HAWKS: She does not want to give it to me.

8 THE COURT: Okay. She can give to it me. Is she 9 under subpoena?

10 MR. HAWKS: She is, Your Honor.

11 THE COURT: Okay. Okay. Come on down. Right here.
12 Right over here. What's your full name?

13 THE WITNESS: Traci Jenkins.

14 THE COURT: Spell Traci.

15 THE WITNESS: T-r-a-c-i.

16 THE COURT: And your last name?

17 THE WITNESS: Jenkins.

18 THE COURT: J-e-n-k-i-n-s?

19 THE WITNESS: Yes.

20 THE COURT: All right. Raise your right hand.

21 The witness, TRACI JENKINS, was first sworn and
22 testified as follows:

23 EXAMINATION

24 BY THE COURT:

25 Q Okay. How old are you?

PRETRIAL MOTIONS

- 1 A Forty-one.
- 2 Q How far did you go in school?
- 3 A Two classes away from a bachelors, close to a
- 4 bachelors.
- 5 Q So you graduated high school?
- 6 A Yeah, got an associates.
- 7 Q Are you married?
- 8 A Separated.
- 9 Q Any children?
- 10 A Two.
- 11 Q Do you live in Columbia?
- 12 A Yes.
- 13 Q Do you work?
- 14 A Not right now.
- 15 Q When you do work, what kind of work do you do?
- 16 A I was working in the warehouse and restaurant
- 17 industry.
- 18 Q Okay. Who is the gentleman in the back?
- 19 A Oh, that's my cousin.
- 20 Q Your cousin?
- 21 A Yes.
- 22 Q Okay. All right. I have a few questions for you.
- 23 Okay. I need to explain a few things to you. Okay.
- 24 A Okay.
- 25 Q Do you understand me okay?

PRETRIAL MOTIONS

1 A I can hear you.

2 Q Can you hear me?

3 A Uh-huh.

4 Q Do you understand what I've said to you so far?

5 A Uh-huh.

6 Q All right. You understand you're under subpoena to be
7 here, right?

8 A Yeah, I guess, I never received one.

9 Q Okay. You never received one?

10 A No.

11 THE COURT: Okay. All right. Is there an issue with 12 service, Mr. Hawks?

13 MR. HAWKS: It was left at her house.

14 Q All right. And you understand this is a criminal 15 trial.

16 A Yeah.

17 Q Against Mr. Spears.

18 A Yeah.

19 Q You understand that, right?

20 A Yeah.

21 Q You have to say yes or no.

22 A Yes, sir.

23 Q That's okay. Are you little nervous?

24 A Yeah.

25 Q That's okay. Just take a deep breath. You're okay.

PRETRIAL MOTIONS

1 A Okay.

2 Q Now, Mr. Spears' attorneys want to call you as a
3 witness about -- I don't even really know what they want,
4 but they want to ask you some questions and they are
5 allowed to ask you those questions if they want to. Okay.
6 Now, what I need to make sure you understand is that you
7 have constitutional rights that apply to you, do you
8 understand what I mean by that?

9 A Yes.

10 Q Okay. And one of those constitutional rights that 11 applies to you is called your right to remain silent.

12 Okay.

13 A Okay.

14 Q That means if they want to ask you something
15 incriminating then you would have the option or the right
16 to say, "I don't want to answer that. I want to invoke my 17 5th Amendment right to remain silent."

18 A Okay.

19 Q Does that make sense to you?

20 A Yes.

21 Q I mean, you graduated high school.

22 A Yes.

23 Q You've moved towards a college degree, you understand
24 what I'm saying.

25 A Yes.

PRETRIAL MOTIONS

1 Q That's not a foreign concept to you; is that right?

2 A Yes.

3 Q So I certainly don't want to put you in a situation
4 where -- well, I don't want to say that. But you have a
5 constitutional right to remain silent, does that make
6 sense?

7 A Yes.

8 Q Now, you do not have a constitutional right to remain
9 silent as to questions that do not incriminate you. Okay.
10 For example, are you wearing a black jacket right now?

11 A Yes.

12 Q Okay. All right. Do you have glasses?

13 A Yes.

14 Q Okay. See, those are not incriminating questions.
15 Does that make sense to you?

16 A Yes.

17 Q But if they were to ask you something -- and again,
18 I've never seen you before, I don't know you, don't know
19 anything about you, I'm not trying to make any speculation
20 or make any negative statement towards you, does that make 21 sense?

22 A Yes.

23 Q But if they were to ask you, you know, I'm going to 24 say the most glaring one, "Was the crack cocaine yours?"
25 Okay. If you admitted to that you would be admitting to a

PRETRIAL MOTIONS

1 felony punishable by extremely serious prison time. Does
2 that make sense?

3 A Yes, it makes sense.

4 Q So you would have the right to say, "Judge, I want to 5 invoke my 5th Amendment right to remain silent and not
6 answer that question" and I would let you not answer that
7 question. On questions that are not incriminating for 8 instance, you know, is it cold outside, you know, you would
9 have to answer that question. Does that make sense?

10 A Yes.

11 Q Okay. Now, they want to call you as a witness, and 12 every person who is subject to be called as a witness, the 13 other side is allowed to know their date of birth so that 14 they can run a criminal history background check on that 15 person to see if you have any convictions against you that 16 could be used for impeachment purposes. Does that make
17 sense?

18 A No. Explain that a little more.

19 Q Okay. So anytime a witness is called, okay, do you
20 follow me?

21 A Yes.

22 Q This applies in every case. Anytime a witness is 23 called then some witnesses have criminal histories. Now,
24 just because you have a criminal history doesn't mean that 25 they can ask you about that, there are rules for that. But

PRETRIAL MOTIONS

1 some criminal convictions -- let's use a simple one,
2 fraudulent checks. So if you've got a conviction for
3 fraudulent check before the other side would have the right
4 to know that so that they could say, "Now, isn't it true,
5 Ms. Jenkins, you've written bad checks before?" Does that 6 make sense?

7 A Yes.

8 Q So in order to make that happen and to effectuate
9 that, then we will need to have your date of birth so that
10 they can run a criminal background check on you. Okay.

11 Now, you don't have to state that on the record to me now,
12 but I need you to give that to Mr. Hawks so he can turn it
13 over to the State.

14 A Okay.

15 Q Can you do that for me?

16 A Yes. Do I have to be here? Do I have to be a
17 witness?

18 Q You have to be subpoenaed.

19 A And even if I didn't receive the subpoena, I still 20 have to be here?

21 THE COURT: Are you getting a subpoena brought up for 22 here.

23 MR. HAWKS: I can do that.

24 THE WITNESS: Oh, there's something wrong.

25 Q Now, your 5th Amendment right to remain silent still

PRETRIAL MOTIONS

1 applies to you if they want to ask you an incriminating
2 question, does that make sense?

3 A Yes.

4 Q So at this point you are not allowed to leave the 5 building, do you understand that?

6 A Yes.

7 Q Now, supply Mr. Hawks with your date of birth. You
8 don't have to do that on the record, you can go over to the 9 table and give it to Mr. Hawks. That's good right there.
10 Don't leave, stay right there.

11 THE WITNESS: Oh, I was going to sit down.

12 THE COURT: You can sit down on that front row.

13 MR. HAWKS: I have the subpoena right here, Judge.

14 THE COURT: Okay. Go ahead and serve it on her. Do
15 you need to wait on Mr. Ruffin?

16 MR. HAWKS: No. I didn't know I had it in the file.

17 THE COURT: Do you wish to call her as a witness, Mr.
18 Hawks?

19 MR. HAWKS: I do, Your Honor.

20 THE COURT: All right. Come on up here and have a
21 seat on the witness stand.

22 THE CLERK: Is she still under oath, Judge?

23 THE COURT: She is still under oath. Do you
24 understand that, Ms. Jenkins?

25 THE WITNESS: Yes.

PRETRIAL MOTIONS

1 THE COURT: Okay.

2 The witness, TRACI JENKINS, remained sworn and
3 testified as follows:

4 DIRECT EXAMINATION

5 BY MR. HAWKS:

6 Q Ms. Jenkins.

7 A Yes.

8 Q Do you know why you're here today?

9 A Yes, sir.

10 Q So you know the incident that we're all talking about?

11 A Yes.

12 Q You may not remember the exact date.

13 A No.

14 Q But you do remember the incident.

15 A Yes.

16 Q Okay. Do you recognize any of the officers?

17 A No.

18 Q Okay. And you were traveling with Mr. Spears that 19 day?

20 A Yes.

21 Q Y'all were coming from New York?

22 A Yes.

23 Q Okay. And when you got off the bus, do you remember
24 if you had luggage?

25 A Yes.

PRETRIAL MOTIONS

- 1 Q Okay. Big luggage?
- 2 A Yes.
- 3 Q And then were you waiting for a ride?
- 4 A Yes.
- 5 Q Okay. Did the ride not show up?
- 6 A Yes, eventually.
- 7 Q How long did you wait?
- 8 A About -- I don't know.
- 9 Q Okay.
- 10 A She showed up after, I guess.
- 11 Q So the ride came but it was too late.
- 12 A Yes.
- 13 Q So did you decide to walk?
- 14 A Yes.
- 15 Q Okay. And where did you walk to?
- 16 A Just -- we was going towards Briargate.
- 17 Q To Briargate Apartments?
- 18 A Yes.
- 19 Q Okay. So you were walking down Briargate Circle.
- 20 A Yes.
- 21 Q And do you remember law enforcement contacting you?
- 22 A Yes, while we was walking.
- 23 Q Okay. What did they say?
- 24 A To be honest I can't -- I don't recall.
- 25 Q That's okay. Do you remember if they told you to

PRETRIAL MOTIONS

1 stop?

2 A Yes. I believe they did, yes.

3 Q Do you remember how many officers?

4 A No. There was a lot.

5 Q It was a lot?

6 A Yeah.

7 Q Can you guess?

8 A I guess about six or something like that.

9 Q And did you know, you know, if they were Richland
10 County, or did you know what kind of officers they were?

11 A No.

12 Q Did they tell you they were federal agents?

13 A No.

14 Q Okay. Could you see their guns?

15 A I guess you could.

16 Q It's okay if you don't remember.

17 A I'm not good with like -- I guess you could have.

18 Q Okay. How long did this encounter last?

19 A From when they approached us or the whole process?

20 Q Just while they were talking about you.

21 A It wasn't long, it didn't seem like long.

22 Q Okay.

23 A Maybe about 20 minutes, I guess, or maybe not that 24 long.

25 Q Okay.

PRETRIAL MOTIONS

- 1 A I'm not sure.
- 2 Q And did you feel like you were free to leave?
- 3 A No.
- 4 Q So you're didn't think you could walk away?
- 5 A No.
- 6 Q You thought you had to talk to them?
- 7 A Yeah. Because I think they told us to sit down or
- 8 something.
- 9 Q Before Mr. Spears was arrested? It's okay if you
- 10 don't remember.
- 11 A No, I don't remember. I remember sitting down.
- 12 Q Okay.
- 13 A He might have been arrested, he might have been
- 14 standing up and I might have been sitting down.
- 15 Q And did the officers search you?
- 16 A Yes, they searched my stuff.
- 17 Q They searched your luggage?
- 18 A Yeah.
- 19 MR. HAWKS: Beg the Court's indulgence.
- 20 (Break in proceedings.)
- 21 Q When you saw the officers, how far away were they?
- 22 A Maybe like a half a block.
- 23 Q Okay. Did you see them at the bus stop?
- 24 A I think I saw one in the truck.
- 25 Q Okay.

PRETRIAL MOTIONS

1 A An a SUV.

2 Q But he's not one of the ones that talked to you?

3 A Yeah, he came down.

4 Q He did? Do you see him in the courtroom?

5 A I'm not good about -- well, I don't remember faces
6 that good like that.

7 Q Okay.

8 A I'm just being honest.

9 Q When they did talk to you, how close were they?

10 A When they -- they was up in front of us.

11 Q Okay.

12 MR. HAWKS: Nothing further, Judge.

13 MS. WALKER: Thank you, Your Honor.

14 CROSS EXAMINATION

15 BY MS. WALKER:

16 Q Good afternoon.. Are you still in touch with 17 Mr. Spears?

18 A No.

19 Q Y'all don't communicate anymore?

20 A No.

21 Q And how did you know him then?

22 A He was my boyfriend at the time.

23 Q Okay. But this whole incident it's hard for you to 24 remember now.

25 A Yes.

PRETRIAL MOTIONS

1 Q It's been a long time.

2 A Yes, it's been a long time. My memories don't -- I'm
3 like a spur of the moment, I can't remember that far.

4 Q So you don't remember if they asked you to sit down
5 before or after he was arrested or anything of that nature?

6 A I think he was standing up in handcuffs and I was 7 sitting down.

8 MS. WALKER: Thank you.

9 A I'm just not clear on the facts.

10 Q I think --

11 A It's been so long.

12 Q I understand. Thank you for being here.

13 A Okay.

14 MS. WALKER: No further questions.

15 MR. HAWKS: Very brief, Your Honor.

16 REDIRECT EXAMINATION

17 BY MR. HAWKS:

18 Q How long have you and Mr. Spears been separated?

19 A Fourteen months.

20 Q Okay. So you've not been dating over a year.

21 A No, we separated. We married, we separated, we've 22 been separated for 14 months. We got married.

23 Q And again, you remember being told to stop.

24 A Yes.

25 Q Okay.

PRETRIAL MOTIONS

1 A I remember being told to stop, that's why we stopped.

2 MS. WALKER: Your Honor, we just got a copy, this just
3 came in. Judge, did you want to see this?

4 THE COURT: (Nods in the affirmative.)

5 MS. WALKER: May I approach?

6 (A bench conference was held.)

7 THE COURT: Anything else of this witness?

8 MR. HAWKS: No.

9 THE COURT: Ms. Walker?

10 MS. WALKER: Nothing, Your Honor.

11 THE COURT: Okay. Do you want her released from the 12 subpoena or do you want her to stay under the subpoena?

13 MR. HAWKS: Stay under the subpoena, Your Honor.

14 THE COURT: Okay. Do you want to get some information
15 from her? You know how to find her.

16 MR. HAWKS: I have that information.

17 THE COURT: All right. Ms. Jenkins, you are going to 18 be released from -- you will be allowed to leave today but 19 if you are called to come back up here by people who have 20 subpoenaed you, the public defender's office, you must 21 come. If you fail to come I will issue you a warrant for 22 your arrest. They will put you into custody, put you in 23 the county jail and you will sit there until you get called 24 as a witness. Do you understand?

25 THE WITNESS: I understand.

PRETRIAL MOTIONS

1 THE COURT: Okay. He will call and let me know or
2 something. Okay. All right. Anything else?

3 MR. HAWKS: No, Your Honor.

4 THE COURT: Anything else from the State?

5 MS. CAMPBELL: Not on this issue, Your Honor.

6 THE COURT: All right. Go ahead, Mr. Hawks.

7 MR. HAWKS: Okay. I apologize for my brief because I
8 was only going on what I had at the time. I didn't know
9 anything about this object being passed or really any
10 description of what actually took place when they got off
11 the bus. I actually thought Gwyn was an active participant
12 in the case so a lot of my brief goes off that. If that's 13 confusing, I apologize. Your Honor, as I state in the 14 beginning, I do think there are some distinct separate
15 issues here. One, the determination of whether or not a
16 reasonable person would have felt free to leave in the same
17 scenario considering all the circumstances, I think that's 18 the first issue. And I don't think anyone would have felt
19 free leave in that scenario. These people were going about 20 their business. They get their luggage, they leave the bus
21 station, they start walking toward a residential area, and 22 the testimony is conflicting as to whether they were told
23 to stop, but certainly they are hailed by the officers
24 following them down the street at a quicker pace than they 25 are walking. I think that right there would make any

PRETRIAL MOTIONS

1 reasonable person feel they are not free to leave. They
2 are then asked questions about criminal activity. Mr.
3 Spears is ordered not to make some movements with his
4 hands. And we do have testimony that they were asked to 5 stop and that Ms. Jenkins did not feel free to leave. I
6 know the test is not whether the actual person felt free to 7 leave but whether the person would feel free to leave, but
8 I think that does go toward that subject. So if Your Honor
9 would like need to keep going on the other issues or --

10 THE COURT: Well, do you want to respond one at a time
11 or at the end?

12 MS. McDUFFIE: At the end, Judge.

13 MR. HAWKS: So keep going. Okay.. And then we have 14 the issue on the frisk itself. And, Your Honor, of course,
15 I am arguing that they did not have reasonable suspicion
16 when this contact occurred, all they had was nervousness
17 and the two people looking at them at the bus stop. The 18 officer was not able to testify whether or not they knew
19 even they were law enforcement. So those two things alone
20 and a tip that the officer said he did not consider, I
21 don't think that comes anywhere close to reasonable
22 suspicion. There is some case law in my brief about
23 those -- well, not about looking at the officers, I
24 couldn't find anything about that, but about the 25 nervousness itself. I think all people are nervous when

PRETRIAL MOTIONS

1 they come in contact with law enforcement so it's not
2 surprising these two would be whether or not that occurred.
3 So Your Honor, not only am I arguing that they were seized
4 when these officers came on them, but also that they did
5 not have reasonably articulable suspicion at that time
6 which would make it a lawful seizure. As for the Terry
7 frisk, Your Honor, I don't think they were looking for 8 guns. I think they were looking for drugs and they're 9 trying to use this connection between guns and drugs to say
10 that Mr. Spears must have been armed. But Your Honor, they 11 didn't have reasonable suspicion about drugs at that point.
12 They were asking him questions about counterfeit items, I
13 don't think they were just asking him general questions at 14 that time. So I don't think they had reasonable suspicion
15 that he was committing a crime, or reasonable suspicions
16 that he was armed. I don't think an armed individual would 17 draw attention to the weapon especially if he was carrying
18 it on his waistband. I mean, why would he draw attention
19 to his waistband if he's carrying a weapon? And 20 furthermore, Judge, there has been no testimony that if
21 Mr. Spears was carrying a weapon he was carrying it
22 unlawfully. They didn't know who he was at the time, they 23 didn't know if he had a concealed weapons permit, they 24 didn't know anything about it. So if all they had was a
25 suspicion that he had a gun founded or unfounded it's not

PRETRIAL MOTIONS

1 clear that that would have been a crime.

2 THE COURT: I don't think you can ride a bus across
3 seven or eight states and not commit a crime with a firearm
4 in your possession.

5 MR. HAWKS: That could be true, Your Honor.

6 THE COURT: I understand where you're going with that.
7 Okay. Keep going.

8 MR. HAWKS: And then the actual seizure of the item I
9 think is possibly the most important. On my 10 cross-examination he says he pats him down, he feels the 11 hard ball object, he continues to pat him town. That to me
12 means he knew it wasn't a weapon right then and there and 13 he didn't feel a weapon anywhere else on Mr. Spears's body.
14 Instead of ending the frisk he goes back and retrieves the 15 hard ball object. Now, it's not a gun, that much is clear,
16 he testified to that, he didn't think it was a gun. We 17 know it's not a gun. A hard ball object, I'm not sure how 18 that could be a gun or any sort of weapon. And Your Honor,
19 I know the plain field doctrine. If the officer readily
20 believes that it's contraband then that's plain field. I
21 don't think that's what we have here, Judge. He feels a
22 hard ball object, knows it isn't a weapon, continues to 23 search and goes back, pulls it out, he finds a hard rocky 24 like ball wrapped in a napkin wrapped in plastic. He 25 removes those two things and finally discovers that it is,

PRETRIAL MOTIONS

1 in fact, crack. And at that point he had gone well beyond
2 the Terry frisk. He knows that he doesn't have weapons.
3 This is a search for drugs without reasonable suspicion for 4 drugs masked with a Terry frisk of weapons. I do have some
5 case law whenever we get to that point.

6 THE COURT: All right.

7 MS. McDUFFIE: Thank you, Your Honor. May it please
8 the Court? Your Honor, first in terms of I believe his
9 initial argument was the stop. Your Honor, by all accounts
10 the encounter was consensual. There is no credible
11 testimony that this encounter was anything but consensual.
12 Officers are allowed to walk up to an individual and begin
13 to talk to them, they don't need reasonable suspicion and 14 they don't need probable cause and citizens are free to 15 talk to the police if they choose to or not talk to the 16 police. And in this case they chose to speak with the 17 police and there is no evidence on the contrary on that 18 matter, Your Honor.

19 THE COURT: Hold on. Are you in agreement that the 20 tip is out?

21 MS. McDUFFIE: Yes, Your Honor. I agree that the tip
22 had nothing to do with why he was stopped.

23 THE COURT: I just wanted to make sure. That was my 24 impression of Agent Tracy's testimony is that they were --
25 while they may have been there because of the tip, the tip

PRETRIAL MOTIONS

1 was not a factor in why they took the steps they took.

2 Does the State agree with that position?

3 MS. McDUFFIE: We do, Your Honor. Your Honor, when he
4 approached the defendant in this case it was consensual.
5 He asked the defendant for identification, he then
6 proceeded to ask him about trafficking in counterfeit
7 goods, Your Honor, and that's what their main focus was.
8 And it was because the defendant's behavior and because he 9 kept reaching for his waistband after being told on 10 multiple occasions to stop putting his hands there, that 11 officers became in fear for their safety and believed that 12 he had a weapon because of his repeated grabbing his 13 waistband or the motion that the officer described earlier.
14 And, Your Honor, we believe that that gives justification
15 for a Terry frisk in this case. Your Honor, the Terry
16 frisk the officer testified to was done for weapons.
17 During the Terry frisk for weapons he felt a hard rock-like
18 object which he immediately was able to identify as crack
19 cocaine, which he told Your Honor based on his at that 20 point ten plus years of training, Your Honor, he believed
21 it to be crack. Under State v. Smith, Your Honor,
22 329-SC-550, under the plain field doctrine, he knew that 23 that item was contraband, he knew it was crack cocaine, and 24 he did seize the crack cocaine at that time and continued
25 to frisk for weapons, Your Honor, because he did have

PRETRIAL MOTIONS

1 reasonable suspicion and he did believe that this defendant
2 could be armed and for his safety and based on his
3 reasonable suspicious he did frisk the individual for
4 weapons as well, Your Honor. Your Honor, there is no
5 evidence to indicate that the search was anything but
6 lawful, and we would rely on State v. Smith and State v.
7 Taylor, 401 South Carolina 104. Further, Your Honor, I'd 8 like to point out that the defense in their brief does not
9 cite a single South Carolina case to support their position
10 that this was anything but a lawful stop.

11 THE COURT: Go ahead.

12 MR. HAWKS: I'd first like to respond to Smith. I
13 believe the defendant in that case said it's my reefer,
14 referring to marijuana, so that would explain why it was 15 immediately apparent. And State v. Taylor, wow, that is 16 just a questionable case. But I think I could distinguish
17 that, too. Because the officer in that case said he
18 thought there could have been a weapon inside the tennis
19 ball. That's not what we have here. The officer
20 testified -- well, I'm not sure he said exactly he knew it
21 wasn't a weapon, but he did not testify that he thought it
22 was a weapon. In fact, he kept patting the man down to 23 make sure that he didn't have weapons. So I think Taylor
24 is just not appropriate to discuss here.

25 THE COURT: All right. Which ones do you want to

PRETRIAL MOTIONS

1 discuss?

2 MR. HAWKS: Your Honor, I would point you to State v.
3 Abrams. I do have some other copies. May I approach, Your
4 Honor?

5 THE COURT: Yes, sir.

6 MR. HAWKS: In that case, Judge, the officer felt what
7 he thought was a tube instrument about the size of a
8 shotgun shell. He said it should have been a shotgun shell
9 or he thought it was an instrument that could have 10 transported contraband. But he knew again in that case
11 that he did not have weapons, he knew the item was not a
12 weapon. Even if it was a shotgun shell it could not be 13 used as a weapon against the officer. So I think that that 14 case is much more similar to this case where the officer
15 knows it's not a weapon, still pulls it out and we've got
16 crack cocaine.

17 THE COURT: So what do you do with the fact that the 18 officer testified that based upon his experience he knew it
19 was crack cocaine? Was he supposed to leave what he 20 believes to be drugs in the community so he is supposed
21 to -- I guess under your theory he is supposed to seize
22 them but not arrest him?

23 MR. HAWKS: Well, I don't think he knew right away,
24 Judge. He said he felt a hard ball object, he pulled it
25 out, pulled out the wrapper and said it was crack. He said

PRETRIAL MOTIONS

1 it was similar or consistent, he didn't say -- I mean,
2 there's a case that says if an officer says, "I immediately
3 knew it was contraband," that works. That's not what he
4 said here, Judge. He felt a hard ball object, he kept
5 searching, then later he pulls it out, unwraps it and 6 discovers -- that's when he determines for sure that --

7 THE COURT: He says, "I don't know what he had in his
8 waistband. He wasn't compliant. It was for officer's
9 safety. It was rock like, ball formed with jagged edges,
10 and in my experience it felt like crack cocaine."

11 MR. HAWKS: I don't think that's the same as being 12 immediately apparent that it is crack.

13 THE COURT: All right. What else?

14 MR. HAWKS: Your Honor, what you just said about him
15 not being sure, I think that also is telling here. The 16 standard is reasonable suspicion or reasonably articulable
17 specific things about this defendant that would say that he 18 is armed. He said he wasn't sure what he had. And, Your 19 Honor, this is after a pre -- I mean, she said 20 minutes,
20 I don't know how accurate that is, but they asked him for 21 ID, he complies. They asked him if he has anything
22 illegal, maybe he hesitates but he still says no. They 23 start asking him about other things not related to drugs,
24 the counterfeit items, he says no to that. If this is for 25 identification purposes, they're saying officers are

PRETRIAL MOTIONS

1 allowed to approach anyone on the street to ID them and ask
2 questions.

3 THE COURT: Well, I think the US Supreme Court has 4 said that.

5 MR. HAWKS: Yes, sir, and I agree with that.

6 THE COURT: That's just some theory somebody is 7 throwing out.

8 MR. HAWKS: And I agree with that. But I think this 9 encounter went much past that.

10 THE COURT: What about this Abrams case?

11 MS. McDUFFIE: Your Honor, in that case, it was a -- I
12 believe it ended up being a plastic bottle, you couldn't 13 immediately feel that it was contraband. That is 14 completely distinguishable from this case. In this case
15 the officer immediately -- he testified once he felt the 16 object he immediately knew it to be crack cocaine. This 17 wasn't in some sort of constrainer that could have 18 contained contraband. Based on the nature and what he felt
19 on the object he plainly felt, which is the law in this
20 state, that it was contraband and he seized it as a result
21 of that, whereas in the Abrams cases the officer testified
22 he didn't know what it was. It could have been a tool to 23 contain contraband or even in that case he testified it
24 could have been a shotgun shell which would not be 25 contraband and would not be illegal, and I think it's very

PRETRIAL MOTIONS

1 distinguishable from this case, Your Honor.

2 THE COURT: So what is the officer's reasonable
3 articulable suspicion for the Terry frisk?

4 MS. McDUFFIE: Your Honor, I think his reasonable
5 articulable suspicion, just as he testified, is that they
6 approached him, they began to ask him questions. The 7 defendant was very forthcoming -- or the defendant was very 8 forthcoming in his answers to the question. When the 9 officer asked him if he had any weapons on him, I believe
10 he said illegal weapons, the defendant hesitated. That 11 gave him pause because he had been so forthcoming in his 12 other answers. And then, Your Honor, when he kept reaching 13 for his waistband the officers told him not to reach for 14 his waistband anymore, I believe, Your Honor, that's 15 reasonable articulable suspicion to believe someone is 16 armed, just as the deputies in this courthouse everyday,
17 Your Honor, when people are reaching for their waistband or 18 put their hands in the pockets tell them not to do that as 19 it is reasonable to believe that they could be reaching for 20 a weapon, Your Honor, and I believe that's exactly what the 21 officers did in this case.

22 THE COURT: He didn't testify that he asked him do you
23 have any illegal weapons. I think the question is do you
24 have anything illegal on you, not illegal weapons.

25 MS. McDUFFIE: Your Honor -- I'm sorry. If I misheard

PRETRIAL MOTIONS

1 the testimony I apologize for that.

2 THE COURT: And that's when Agent Tracy says the
3 hesitation occurred. What does Taylor have to do with this
4 case, Ms. McDuffie? That's where I'm not following. I
5 mean, in Taylor they get some kind of tip, the guy flees,
6 they take him down and while their patting him down a ball
7 falls out and it has a slit in it and they can see
8 something inside of it.

9 MS. McDUFFIE: Your Honor --

10 THE COURT: I don't understand the relation between 11 the two.

12 MS. McDUFFIE: We don't rely on Taylor for the plain
13 field of the drugs, Your Honor. I'm relying on Taylor for 14 more of the -- I think in this case we have much more
15 reasonable suspicion than the officers articulated in 16 Taylor and I believe that that's --

17 THE COURT: What is the reasonable suspicion? They 18 were nervous in the movements with the hands?

19 MS. McDUFFIE: Your Honor, that they were nervous,
20 they kept looking back at them. The officer testified that 21 he was aware that these buses come in every day, the 22 relationship between illegal goods, drugs and things of 23 that nature, Your Honor. They come in off of the buses --
24 the other people that left the area weren't acting
25 suspicious. They go in their cars, vehicles and this

PRETRIAL MOTIONS

1 defendant was walking towards the location that there was
2 nothing in that direction, Your Honor, which the officer
3 believed to be unusual as well. He said the individuals
4 kept looking back and watching what the officers were
5 doing. They observed them pass something back and forth
6 between the two of them, they couldn't tell what the object
7 was if it was anything at that point but believed that to 8 be odd as well, Your Honor. When they approached this 9 defendant, they believed him to be armed based on his 10 answer -- or his delayed response to the answer, and also
11 his grabbing under the waistband trying to draw officer's
12 attention away from what he was concealing in his 13 waistband. Your Honor, I believe that that's reasonable
14 articulable suspicion. And, Your Honor, he also testified
15 that that was based on his -- he went through his extensive
16 training in his at that point in time 10 years in narcotics
17 alone, Your Honor, and the connection between the drugs and 18 the weapons as well, Your Honor.

19 THE COURT: I mean, why in your analysis of Smith,
20 Mr. Hawks, does it matter what the defendant said from a
21 search perspective and whether or not the defendant
22 confessed to it being his reefer? I mean, if you were 23 making that legal argument on behalf of Mr. Smith you would 24 have said the moment they felt it it was illegal, then his 25 statement is irrelevant.

PRETRIAL MOTIONS

1 MR. HAWKS: I think, Your Honor -- and this is from my
2 co-counsel -- he patted something down. He patted
3 Mr. Smith down, didn't know what it was, they hadn't asked
4 him --

5 THE COURT: No. It says, "And based on his experience
6 he knew it was some type of narcotics," which is basically
7 verbatim what we have today. And then he says to him,
8 "What's this, your reefer?" And the defendant replied,
9 "Yeah man, that's my reefer," then he they arrested him.

10 MR. HAWKS: Well, I think the difference in this case
11 is that he did not immediately know that it was narcotics.

12 THE COURT: Ms. McDuffie, what's the evidence that 13 criminal activity is afoot? I mean, for a Terry stop one
14 issue is officer's safety, but the other issue is the 15 officer has to believe that criminal activity is afoot.

16 MS. McDUFFIE: Your Honor, I think we're talking about
17 two different things between a Terry stop and a Terry
18 frisk. I don't think they were alleging that this was a
19 Terry stop. I believe that they approached these 20 individuals based on the conduct that they observed and 21 they encountered them just as they were allowed to 22 encounter any citizen and these individuals were allowed to 23 walk away -- or stop and talk to the officers which they 24 did in this case. So, Your Honor, I don't think that we 25 have a Terry stop situation.

PRETRIAL MOTIONS

1 THE COURT: Where you would have to prove criminal
2 activity is afoot.

3 MS. McDUFFIE: Correct, Your Honor.

4 THE COURT: Because under your theory they approached
5 them and the consent to a manner and they are free to 6 leave, so then the issue becomes officer's safety on the 7 frisk.

8 MS. McDUFFIE: Yes, Your Honor.

9 THE COURT: Do you want to respond to that, Mr. Hawks?

10 MR. HAWKS: I would argue that a frisk is a seizure if 11 they are patting him down. He told Spears he was going to 12 pat him down.

13 THE COURT: Right.

14 MR. HAWKS: I mean, how are you free to leave at that 15 point? They still don't have reasonable suspicion. And 16 I'm sorry, going back to Smith --

17 THE COURT: Which one?

18 MR. HAWKS: Smith.

19 THE COURT: Okay.

20 MR. HAWKS: It says in this case the incriminating
21 character of the evidence seized was immediately apparent
22 with the experience and the contact with the object and
23 Smith's response to Russell's question.

24 THE COURT: In smith it also says, "In assessing
25 whether someone is armed and dangerous the officer need not

PRETRIAL MOTIONS

1 be absolutely certain that the individual is armed, the
2 issue is whether a reasonably prudent man in the 3 circumstances would be warranted and would believe that his
4 safety and that of others was in danger."

5 MR. HAWKS: Yes, Your Honor. And I don't think it's 6 reasonable to think that someone who is continuously
7 drawing attention to an area is carrying a gun in that
8 area, I just don't think it's reasonable. And when they
9 patted him down at that point they knew he didn't have a
10 weapon. And, Your Honor, I think it's important that 11 apparently he's doing this over and over and they never 12 thought their safety was in jeopardy until they wanted to 13 frisk him. I think what really happened was they weren't
14 getting the answers that they wanted and then decided to go
15 about it through the Terry frisk which is why he says, "I'm 16 not sure what he had. I'm not sure if it was a weapon.
17 I'm not sure he had if anything at all."

18 THE COURT: All right. Anything else from the State?

19 MS. McDUFFIE: No, Your Honor.

20 THE COURT: Anything else, Mr. Hawks?

21 MR. HAWKS: No, Your Honor.

22 THE COURT: All right. Everybody be ready to go
23 tomorrow morning at 9:30. I'm going to spend a little time
24 on this this afternoon and then I'll rule on the record in 25 the morning. But just for the sake of everybody being

PRETRIAL MOTIONS

1 prepared, have everything ready to go at 9:30.

2 MR. HAWKS: Thank you, Judge.

3 THE COURT: Thank you.

4 MS. CAMPBELL: Your Honor, before we --

5 THE COURT: Do you want this on the record?

6 MS. CAMPBELL: Yes, just briefly if you don't mind.

7 THE COURT: Sorry, go ahead.

8 MS. CAMPBELL: There is also after he was arrested he 9 was advised of his Miranda rights, he did make multiple
10 statements admitting to the drugs. I don't know if you
11 want to take that or they are conceding that, I just want
12 to make sure the record is preserved on that issue.

13 MR. HAWKS: We talked about this, Judge. We're just 14 not sure why it's relevant since trafficking simply 15 requires the possession of X amount of drugs, so I don't 16 know why any of this is relevant at all.

17 THE COURT: That's not the question right now. The 18 question right now is do you want to challenge them
19 pursuant to Jackson versus Denno?

20 MR. HAWKS: No, Your Honor.

21 MS. CAMPBELL: Okay.

22 THE COURT: So you're going to waive his right to
23 challenge those statements under Jackson versus Denno?

24 MR. HAWKS: If we're clear about which statements
25 we're talking about, the ones after Miranda.

PRETRIAL MOTIONS

1 MS. CAMPBELL: The ones after Miranda.

2 THE COURT: The ones after Miranda.

3 MR. HAWKS: Just to be clear, we're only waiving the 4 voluntariness objection.

5 MS. CAMPBELL: He gave me a list of motions and one
6 was for Rule 5 and the other was for a suppression motion
7 of the drugs. So at this point we intend on offering all
8 the statements, so if you have an objection to any of them
9 it's something we need to take up pretrial. I understand
10 you aren't objecting on the voluntariness issue, if there
11 is some issue I need to be aware of.

12 MR. RUFFIN: Your Honor, the specific statements that 13 I'm thinking of -- I see. Spears was asked had he been 14 arrested before and he responded probably for the same
15 thing, we would object to that as propensity evidence.

16 MS. CAMPBELL: If we could take them in the order they 17 came up --

18 MR. RUFFIN: Okay.

19 MS. CAMPBELL: -- then we may be able to agree that 20 some should be redacted.

21 MR. RUFFIN: Okay.

22 MS. CAMPBELL: The first thing that he was questioned
23 about, they asked Spears if he knew what the substance was,
24 he said he didn't know. When they said you don't know what 25 it is his response was, "Just because it is on me doesn't

PRETRIAL MOTIONS

1 mean I know what it is."

2 MR. RUFFIN: No objection to that, Your Honor.

3 THE COURT: Okay.

4 MS. CAMPBELL: Then the next statement he says if he
5 had been arrested before it is probably for the same thing,
6 we would agree that that should not come in.

7 THE COURT: Arrested before and the answer to that
8 question is out.

9 MR. RUFFIN: Cool. Sounds good.

10 MS. CAMPBELL: And then once he was transported to 11 headquarters he then engaged the officer in a conversation.
12 He had stated that he felt he had been set up, that he had 13 been on the bus many times and never seen the cops before.

14 MR. RUFFIN: No objection to that.

15 MS. CAMPBELL: He wouldn't have been there, he would 16 have seen the cops first.

17 MR. RUFFIN: No objection to that.

18 THE COURT: Are all these post Miranda?

19 MS. CAMPBELL: All post Miranda.

20 THE COURT: Okay.

21 MS. CAMPBELL: He stated he wouldn't have been there
22 if he had seen the cops first. Again, they asked him about 23 what he had been arrested for, they could not go into that.
24 He told them he did ten years federal time for the same
25 thing, trafficking, they could not go into that. And then

PRETRIAL MOTIONS

1 they asked him why started back up doing it after ten
2 years, we just limit that to why did you do this and his
3 answer was stupidity.

4 MR. RUFFIN: We're okay with that. I'm okay with 5 that.

6 MS. CAMPBELL: He then stated that he would -- was 7 unemployed and was moving down here to start a restaurant.
8 He was then asked if he was selling crack to start his 9 business. Spears informed them the crack wasn't even his 10 and he was bringing it down here for somebody.

11 MR. RUFFIN: Those are the statements that we would 12 object to on relevance. What Mr. Hawks was talking about 13 is that intending to distribute is not an element of 14 trafficking, all they have to show is that he possessed
15 more than 10 grams. So we would object to those statements
16 based on relevance. I think it's somewhat confusing the 17 issues to the jury thinking that there is a -- does he have 18 to be selling it or does he not have to be selling it. He 19 doesn't have to be selling it, he only has to be in 20 possession of more than 10 grams, that's all the State has 21 to prove.

22 MS. CAMPBELL: That may be one way to prove
23 trafficking, there are multiple ways we can prove 24 trafficking crack cocaine for the purpose of --

25 THE COURT: What about that?

PRETRIAL MOTIONS

1 MR. RUFFIN: I mean, Your Honor, I think that that's
2 true, there's more than one way.

3 THE COURT: I think there's like four or five in the 4 statute.

5 MR. RUFFIN: I agree.

6 THE COURT: I didn't write it for the record, but it's 7 pretty broad.

8 MR. RUFFIN: I'll just stand on my previous objection.

9 MS. CAMPBELL: And it continues --

10 THE COURT: Okay. Those statements will be relevant.

11 MS. CAMPBELL: And then he also said that crack
12 cocaine --

13 THE COURT: Hold on. They go directly to an element
14 of the crime. Go ahead.

15 MS. CAMPBELL: Thank you, Your Honor. He said that 16 crack in South Carolina is at a set rate but in New York
17 it's cheaper. He then said someone here in South Carolina
18 pays him $2,200 to bring the crack from New York and the 19 only reason he did it was because of his bills.

20 THE COURT: Anything irrelevant?

21 MR. RUFFIN: We would have the same objection, Your
22 Honor.

23 THE COURT: Okay. All right. That motion will be 24 overruled. I deem it to be relevant. Again, it goes
25 directly to an element of the crime that the State is

PRETRIAL MOTIONS

1 required to prove.

2 MS. CAMPBELL: Then, Your Honor, he goes through a
3 series of questions which we agree would not be because he
4 asked basically about his bail and the officer said he
5 wasn't sure how much it would be. He then asked if he knew
6 how much his bail was when he was arrested in Virginia.
7 The officer hold him that he didn't know, the defendant
8 told him it was in excess of a million dollars and stated
9 $20,000 in cash and three vehicles from him. He then asked
10 him how much crack he had at the time and Spears said maybe
11 an ounce. I think all of that would not come in.

12 THE COURT: Which witness is putting this in?

13 MS. CAMPBELL: Investigator Gwyn.

14 THE COURT: Are you okay with that not coming in?

15 MR. RUFFIN: Yes, Your Honor.

16 THE COURT: Okay.

17 MS. CAMPBELL: We'll go over that too to make sure.

18 MR. RUFFIN: I think that's all the statements.

19 THE COURT: Okay. So basically anything about being 20 arrested before or federal time or bail in Virginia, all
21 that kind of stuff, where everybody agrees is to stay away
22 from all that.

23 MS. CAMPBELL: We agree.

24 THE COURT: And, Ms. Campbell, if you would just -- or 25 whoever is putting Investigator Gwyn up just go over it

PRETRIAL MOTIONS

1 with him one more time so that's clear. Anything else?

2 MR. RUFFIN: Nothing from us, Your Honor.

3 MS. CAMPBELL: That's the only thing.

4 THE COURT: All right. 9:30.

5 (Whereupon, the proceedings were adjourned and

6 Resumed at 9:45 a.m. on February 18, 2015.)

7 THE COURT: We have one juror, juror number one, who
8 called in sick with a stomach bug. Any objection to 9 seating the alternate?

10 MR. HAWKS: No, Your Honor.

11 THE COURT: Did she talk to you, Ms. Pat?

12 THE CLERK: She talked to Sheila.

13 THE COURT: She talked to Sheila.

14 THE CLERK: Yes, sir.

15 THE COURT: Okay. All right. So that will be juror
16 number 18, Ms. Bellamy, who gets seated in the place of 17 juror number one, Ms. Cox, who has called in sick this 18 morning and spoken to Ms. Sheila at the clerk of court's 19 office and confirmed that she has a stomach bug. Okay. On 20 the defendant's motion to suppress, that motion is going to 21 be denied. I'm going to go through my reasoning for doing
22 so. I'm starting off with the fact that based upon
23 Investigator's Tracy's experience, he has 19 years in law
24 enforcement, he's been in narcotics since 2002 which would 25 put him in narcotics for approximately ten years at the

PRETRIAL MOTIONS

1 time of the stop. He has been in interdiction since 2004,
2 which would put him at eight years of experience with
3 interdiction at the time of the stop. He's been certified
4 by the DEA in interdiction cases involving buses, trains,
5 planes and other things of that nature. He has worked over
6 2600 narcotic cases. He teaches interdiction for the DEA,
7 and even though at the time he was employed by the 8 Lexington County Sheriff's Department he was assigned to 9 what at that point in time was known as ICE or Immigrations
10 Custom Enforcement, I believe the name has changed or they
11 have been joined in Homeland Security as a task force
12 officer. Now, the only justification for patting down the 13 defendant is a reasonable belief that his safety or the 14 safety of others was in danger. Law enforcement has 15 pointed to specific and articulable facts which warranted a
16 search of the defendant's person. Number one, the 17 defendant was observed getting off a bus that was known by 18 law enforcement to be used commonly by criminals. Number
19 two, the defendant paid close attention to law enforcement
20 officers even though they were plain clothed and their guns
21 were out of sight. Number three, law enforcement began to 22 follow the defendant and the female subject, which we have 23 now learned to be his girlfriend/wife at some point in 24 time. Number four, the defendant and the girlfriend were 25 nervous. Investigator Tracy observed the defendant take an

PRETRIAL MOTIONS

1 object from the girlfriend in a suspicious manner while
2 they were walking away. Law enforcement initiated a
3 conversation with the defendant, and defendant and the 4 female subject willingly stopped and spoke with law
5 enforcement. Law enforcement notified the defendant that 6 they were law enforcement. Law enforcement never told the 7 defendant he was not free to leave. The defendant was 8 originally forthcoming with information in answering the 9 questions to law enforcement, then when questioned about
10 having something illegal on his person he was hesitant.
11 Defendant continuously rolled up his shirt at his waist and 12 put his hands at his shirt. Defendant was told multiple
13 times to stop doing this by law enforcement and he refused
14 compliance with the order to remove his hands from his 15 shirt. Based upon these observations law enforcement had 16 reasonable belief that based upon specific and articulable
17 facts that the defendant was armed and thus justified a
18 frisk. Now, moving on to the discovery of the actual 19 narcotics. Upon patting down the outer layers of the 20 defendant's clothes in a search for weapons, Investigator
21 Tracy felt an object that he immediately believed to be 22 contraband, specifically Special Agent Tracy testified that
23 he felt a ball form with jagged ends that in his experience
24 felt like crack cocaine. Because the incriminating
25 character of the object was immediately apparent to

PRETRIAL MOTIONS

1 Investigator Tracy during the pat down for weapons, the pat
2 down was proper under the plain field test. In the words
3 of Investigator Tracy from the witness stand he has gotten 4 plenty of crack cocaine from a waistband before and that is
5 what it felt like at that time. I'm going to deny the 6 defendant's motion to suppress and you'll need to renew
7 that at the appropriate time during the trial. Anything
8 else before we get started?

9 MR. HAWKS: Your Honor, I have a couple of things.
10 Number one, I forgot to do this yesterday, I would like to 11 make my motion Defense's Exhibit Number 1 and make it a 12 part of the record.

13 THE COURT: Okay.

14 MR. HAWKS: So I'm just going to hand the same motion
15 up to the court reporter. Court's Exhibit, excuse me.

16 THE COURT: That's fine.

17 (The motion was marked as Court's 1.)

18 MR. HAWKS: Also, Your Honor, I would like to renew my 19 objection to the testimony from Special Agent Tracy that we 20 had not heard before, and I would move for a mistrial at 21 this time. Your Honor, I would like to point the Court
22 toward State v. Gibson, it's 334SC526, I believe, that site
23 might be wrong. Your Honor, I'm going to read something
24 from that. The overriding theme of the Brady case is the 25 emphasis of the Supreme Court has placed on the

PRETRIAL MOTIONS

1 prosecutor's responsibility for fair play. In close cases
2 the proving prosecutor will resolve doubtful questions in
3 favor of disclosure, this is as it should be. Such
4 disclosures will serve to justify trust in the prosecutor
5 as the representative of a sovereign whose interest in 6 criminal prosecution is not that it shall win the case but
7 justice should be done. And it will attempt to preserve
8 the criminal trial as distinct from the prosecutor's
9 private deliberations as the chosen form for ascertaining
10 the truth about criminal accusations." Your Honor, I
11 believe the case law in this area makes clear that not only 12 should the prosecution turn over discussions that they've 13 had with law enforcement prior to trial, but that also even 14 if they haven't had those discussions they have a duty to 15 have them and then turn them over. That was simply not 16 done in this case. I believe Ms. Campbell said yesterday
17 when we were talking about sequestering the witnesses she 18 wanted to make sure that she could talk to her witnesses,
19 so I'm guessing she spoke to them at some point before
20 trial. I doubt she would put a witness on the stand that 21 she had not spoken to, so I believe that is all stuff that 22 needs to be turned over. I don't think any of these 23 officers should be allowed to testify, I'm referring to 24 Lorenzen, Robinson and Finch specifically. We have nothing
25 about what they saw, any reports they may have made, any

PRETRIAL MOTIONS

1 discussions they may have had with the solicitor's office.
2 Quite frankly, Judge, I have no idea what they're going to
3 say on the stand. That makes it impossible for us to 4 prepare cross examination and it does not secure my
5 client's due process right to a fair trial. When we went
6 through discovery and prepared for this case, Judge, it
7 seems that Gwyn was on the scene, that he took an active
8 part in this investigation and now we're told on day one of 9 trial that he wasn't even there, he wasn't even on the 10 scene. So, Your Honor, I think this rises to a manifest
11 necessity for a mistrial. I don't believe it is possible
12 in any way for Mr. Spears to receive a fair trial.

13 THE COURT: Who wants to respond?

14 MS. CAMPBELL: I'll be glad to respond, Your Honor.
15 In Gibson they talked about how that it was a Brady
16 violation and prosecutorial misconduct actually not to turn
17 over exculpatory evidence, we would agree with that.
18 Whereas in addition to that, Your Honor, as far as any
19 testimony yesterday, I have not spoken to that witness
20 prior to putting him on the stand, and quite frankly
21 neither has Ms. Walker talked to him at that point. Your 22 Honor, we have turned over all the discovery material in 23 the case that had been reviewed. As far as anything being 24 exculpatory that came out yesterday, I fail to see what 25 could have been exculpatory that came out on behalf of the

PRETRIAL MOTIONS

1 defendant. In addition to that, Your Honor, the officers
2 or witnesses are not exclusive to the State but also
3 available for the defense attorney as they've done in many
4 other cases to speak to as well about what was done and
5 what was seen in this case. In the Gibson case
6 specifically they did not turn over the fact that one of 7 the main key witnesses in the case could not have seen what
8 she claimed to have seen and that fact was discovered
9 beforehand, I believe that's what was not turned over.

10 THE COURT: You're talking about in this case or --

11 MS. CAMPBELL: In Gibson.

12 THE COURT: Okay.

13 MS. CAMPBELL: That was a Brady violation which we
14 would agree with. I'm not aware of any exculpatory
15 information that was not turned over to the defense. And 16 in fact, my understanding is the defense had an opportunity
17 to examine the one officer from the preliminary hearing,
18 Richland County Investigator Gwyn, as well as the other
19 officers I'm sure would have been available to speak to him
20 if he had so chosen. I was not aware of anything
21 exculpatory that needed to be turned over and I still fail
22 to see what exculpatory evidence was not turned over. In 23 response to their I have a duty to talk to the officers
24 beforehand, I don't know that that's necessarily true. I
25 don't know that anything that he alleges is any different

PRETRIAL MOTIONS

1 from what was in the report would be considered exculpatory
2 in any manner.

3 MR. HAWKS: Your Honor, just a brief response. It's 4 not only exculpatory evidence, it is evidence that could be
5 used to impeach the witnesses. Gwyn not being at the scene
6 could be used to impeach his prelim testimony where he says
7 that he is at the scene, and this is from Gibson. The 8 burden is on the solicitor to disclose material evidence
9 which is exculpatory or impeaching.

10 THE COURT: So what came out yesterday that was 11 impeachment material?

12 MR. HAWKS: Well, the fact that they weren't even 13 acting on this tip which is direct contradiction to the 14 discovery.

15 MS. CAMPBELL: The only thing about the tip is is that 16 wasn't part of the --

17 THE COURT: They had a tip. They didn't say that a 18 tip didn't exist, they just said that the tip wasn't their 19 basis.

20 MS. CAMPBELL: The basis of the search.

21 MR. HAWKS: But according to Gwyn's report and his 22 testimony at the preliminary hearing, it was.

23 THE COURT: I don't understand how you've been harmed.

24 MR. HAWKS: Well, Your Honor, we can't prepare. I
25 can't prepare for anything Finch says, anything Ms.

PRETRIAL MOTIONS

1 Lorenzen says, anything -- and I don't know what Gwyn is
2 going to say on the stand, I have no idea because it can't
3 be what he said in the prelim and in his report because 4 apparently that didn't stop --

5 THE COURT: Did Finch and Lorenzen not do reports?

6 MS. CAMPBELL: They did no reports.

7 THE COURT: Are they testifying?

8 MS. CAMPBELL: They are testifying and they are 9 testifying substantially to the same thing that --

10 THE COURT: What is the substance of their testimony?

11 MS. CAMPBELL: That they were with Agent Tracy, that 12 one of them was standing on one side and the other as they
13 approached the people, that they also observed them walking
14 away from the scene in the same manner. And I'm sorry,
15 Your Honor, I didn't talk to them until yesterday, and then
16 at that point they told them what they observed, one was 17 able to see better than the other and exchanged -- one was 18 not able to see the exchange but heard Dennis Tracy mention
19 something about it. At that point that they observed
20 basically what he testified to yesterday. There is no
21 substantial difference between anything they're going to 22 testify to that he testified to.

23 MR. HAWKS: So if she talked to them yesterday, where 24 is that? Why don't we get that? I don't understand.

25 THE COURT: I don't understand why you can't go talk

PRETRIAL MOTIONS

1 to them.

2 MS. CAMPBELL: They're available, and were yesterday.

3 THE COURT: I mean, tell me one thing that she just
4 said that is favorable to the accused?

5 MR. RUFFIN: I'm not sure that it's favorable, Judge.

6 THE COURT: Well, that's the whole purpose behind
7 Brady is that they're intentionally keeping information
8 that is favorable to the accused away from you.

9 MR. HAWKS: Well, I think I could have been able to 10 better prepare my pretrial motions, specifically the 11 suppression motion, if I actually knew what happened.

12 THE COURT: So did you ever call Investigator Tracy or 13 Investigator Gwyn or any of the other witnesses?

14 MS. WALKER: No, I did not.

15 THE COURT: Why not?

16 MR. HAWKS: Because I assumed that the State had 17 turned over everything that they had. I assumed that 18 Deputy Gwyn when he testified at the prelim under oath,
19 that that's what happened.

20 THE COURT: So what's the big thing about Gwyn's
21 prelim testimony?

22 MS. CAMPBELL: We received it yesterday, Your Honor,
23 from the defense --

24 THE COURT: A transcript?

25 MS. CAMPBELL: -- we reviewed it and I'll be able to

PRETRIAL MOTIONS

1 hand it up to the Court.

2 THE COURT: A transcript?

3 MS. CAMPBELL: It is an audio disc.

4 THE COURT: What's the big deal about Gwyn's prelim?

5 MR. HAWKS: All I can point to is some examples. And
6 this is not a transcript, this is my own just typing up
7 what was on the disc. He says -- I think the solicitor
8 asked, "And the reason that y'all targeted Mr. Spears is 9 just suspicion? He looked suspicious?" And Deputy Gwyn,
10 "He fit the description that was given. And y'all were 11 acting on anonymous tip. It was an anonymous tip." In his 12 report he says it's a confidential informant.

13 MS. CAMPBELL: This is all information he had.

14 MR. HAWKS: "And y'all were doing surveillance fairly
15 close by when y'all approached him?" Answer from Gwyn,
16 "Right." The whole time he was acting like he is there,
17 that he is on the scene and now we hear from Tracy that he 18 is not.

19 MS. CAMPBELL: He is on the scene, he's just not one
20 of the three that approaches them initially. He actually
21 shows up right as -- I mean, it's in this report that
22 Tracy -- it's clear in Tracy's report that the three of them
23 approached, the three of them confronted them. He refers
24 to the three people, that's in his report I can hand up.
25 And then Brian Gwyn just summarizes what Tracy did along

PRETRIAL MOTIONS

1 with what he did after it was turned over to Richland
2 County once the arrest was made. To say he wasn't at the 3 scene was a mischaracterization, I don't understand that.

4 MR. HAWKS: I'm not saying he wasn't anywhere in the 5 general vicinity. This is the defense attorney. "When 6 you -- when y'all approached him for his ID," and he
7 doesn't correct that that didn't happen, he says, "right."
8 He admits that he wasn't the one that patted him down, but 9 he doesn't say, "No, defense attorney, I didn't come until 10 later."

11 THE COURT: I don't understand what the issue is.

12 MR. HAWKS: I don't see how --

13 THE COURT: I mean, you can cross examine him on all
14 that until you're blue in the face. You know all this,
15 you're aware of all this, you've had the opportunity to 16 cross examine at the preliminary hearing, you have all the 17 reports. I mean, I just don't understand -- I'm not saying
18 it's not proper cross examination but I just don't 19 understand how the defendant has been prejudiced or that 20 anybody is keeping anything that is exculpatory or 21 impeachment away from the defense.

22 MR. HAWKS: The only issue in this case is the search,
23 everybody knows that. And I prepared my entire motion, all
24 of my arguments based on what was given to me, then Tracy
25 gets on the stand and everything changes. They saw a hand

PRETRIAL MOTIONS

1 to hand exchange.

2 THE COURT: Well, I'm going to tell you, Mr. Hawks, I
3 mean, that's why it's a trial.

4 MR. HAWKS: Right.

5 THE COURT: Because things change. I mean, if I had a
6 dollars for every time a federal judge ruined my 7 suppression motion because the judge herself questioned the 8 witnesses and is completely fixed the entire State's case
9 and their suppression motion on testimony I had never heard
10 before in my entire life I could retire. But I don't 11 know -- the only thing that changed in my understanding is 12 that he said they were nervous and he said there was this 13 hand to hand transaction. How are either one of those 14 things favorable to your client?

15 MR. HAWKS: I'm not saying these are exculpatory
16 evidence. I am saying that my client cannot get a fair
17 trial because his attorneys for three years prepared on 18 what we were given and now at trial we have to start all
19 over.

20 THE COURT: You don't have to start all over, you just 21 have to deal with the punches as they come. You have to 22 deal with the testimony -- no one who knew what Ms. Jenkins
23 was going to say yesterday, I'm not even sure you knew what
24 she was going to say, right? I mean, let's be candid.

25 MR. HAWKS: I had talked to her before, Your Honor.

PRETRIAL MOTIONS

1 THE COURT: She was called as a witness and no one in
2 the room knew what she was going to say. I mean, I
3 understand she's a defense witness and not a prosecution
4 witness so there is different standards, I means, that's
5 why it's a trial. That's why there's inherent risk in a
6 trial is because you don't ever know what somebody is going
7 to get on the witness stand, put their hand on the Bible
8 and what they're going to say. It may be completely
9 different than what they said before. That's why you have 10 cross-examination. Your motions are all denied. It's not
11 grounds for a mistrial, I do not find that there is a
12 discovery violation or there's any kind of Brady violation.
13 I haven't found that anybody has intentionally withheld
14 anything that was favorable to the accused or impeachable
15 evidence in reference to the defense. All right. Anything
16 else?

17 MS. CAMPBELL: Your Honor, the only thing I believe 18 that he addressed yesterday that he didn't put in his
19 report that he was nervous. Actually how he describes it
20 in his report, it's described as a black male subject
21 appeared to be paying excessive attention to law
22 enforcement presence around the bus stop location. So the 23 terminology is a little bit different perhaps but that
24 reference was in there.

25 THE COURT: All right. Bring them in.

1 trial do not read, watch or listen to any news reports
2 about the case. You must not consider anything you may
3 have heard or read about the case outside the courtroom
4 whether before or during the trial. Once the case is
5 submitted to you, you must discuss it only in the jury room
6 and only with your fellow jurors. The attorneys and the 7 parties in this case have been advised that they are not to 8 talk to you at all, so if you see someone in the hallway
9 and they do not even say hello, they are not being 10 unfriendly, they are just following my instructions. And 11 it is important that you keep an open mind and not decide
12 any issue in this case until all of the evidence has been
13 presented, the parties have made their closing arguments
14 and I have told you what the law is in this case. It is 15 your responsibility to determine the guilt or the innocence
16 of the defendant, and your verdict must be based solely on 17 the evidence as it is presented to you in this trial and on 18 the law as I instruct you during and at the close of the 19 trial. All right. Is the State ready to proceed?

20 MS. CAMPBELL: The State is ready, Your Honor.

21 THE COURT: Okay.

22 MS. CAMPBELL: May it please the Court?

23 THE COURT: Yes, ma'am.

24 MS. CAMPBELL: Good morning. On March 29, 2012,
25 officers responding to a tip went to a motel on Broad

OPENING STATEMENTS

1 River, which was a place where a bus that traveled from New
2 York State typically dropped off its passengers. Once they
3 got there they observed a man and a woman with some luggage
4 walking away from the area. They kept looking at them, the 5 officers, they were nervous, and at that point they became
6 focused on them. They walked up to the man and the woman,
7 they started to have a conversation with them. The man
8 kept putting his hands towards his waistband, pulling his 9 shirt away as if trying to keep it from going flat to 10 expose something that might be on his waistband. And the 11 officers at that point concerned for their safety lawfully
12 conducted a pat down search, and when they didn't find the 13 gun, what they did find was a ball size rock of crack
14 cocaine in the man's waistband, in the very area he had 15 been attempting to conceal. The man who was in possession
16 of the crack cocaine who was trafficking in crack cocaine,
17 who had come here on a bus from New York State bringing
18 back crack cocaine here to South Carolina was Eric Spears,
19 and we are here today for his trial. My name is Luck
20 Campbell, I'm an assistant solicitor here in the Fifth
21 Judicial Circuit, and I will be one of the two prosecutors
22 along with Meghan Walker who is seated at the table, who 23 will be presenting the evidence in this case from different
24 officers. And as the Judge has already told you, there's 25 one indictment upon which you must listen to the evidence,

OPENING STATEMENTS

1 determine what the facts are and apply the law, and that
2 indictment is for trafficking crack cocaine. And as the
3 Judge has told you, the indictment itself is not evidence
4 in this case, but the indictment is important because it
5 serves a two-fold purpose. Number one, it puts the 6 defendant on notice on what the State intends to prove
7 against him. And very importantly in that same manner it
8 puts the State on notice as to what the elements of 9 trafficking in crack cocaine are, what the evidence is that 10 we must prove to you before you can render a verdict that 11 speaks the truth. Now, the Judge will tell you, and this 12 is very important, the burden of proof is on the State of 13 South Carolina who represent the citizens of this
14 community, the burden of proof is on us to prove this 15 defendant guilty beyond a reasonable doubt. That is the 16 highest level of proof in any courtroom in this nation just 17 as it should be. And I submit, ladies and gentlemen, in 18 this courtroom with this evidence, that is a burden the 19 State welcomes, because it's not only proof beyond a
20 reasonable doubt, it goes further than that. All we must 21 prove is to make you feel like you are firmly convinced of 22 this defendant's guilt, and I submit this evidence goes
23 beyond that. Now, the indictment, trafficking, and the 24 Judge has already read to you the definition, what is 25 trafficking in crack cocaine? Why is it different from say

OPENING STATEMENTS

1 possession with intent to distribute? Very simply, ladies
2 and gentlemen, there's an inference, and the Judge will
3 tell you, the amount of crack cocaine that was found on
4 this man that day, that alone is enough to make it
5 trafficking because it was over ten grams. It's called
6 trafficking in crack cocaine ten to 28 grams. That amount
7 was such that over 50, some 60 people could get high off
8 the amount of crack cocaine that was brought into our state
9 that day, and that's why this is trafficking and not one of 10 the other drug charges. And very simply, the trafficking
11 statute reads like this: A person who knowingly sales,
12 manufacturers, delivers, purchases or brings in this state
13 or who provides financial assistance or otherwise aids,
14 abets, attempts or conspirers to sell, manufacture, deliver
15 or purchase or bring into this state either in actual or 16 constructive possession or attempts to become in actual or
17 constructive possession is guilty of trafficking in crack
18 cocaine when that amount is over 10 grams. In this case,
19 ladies and gentlemen, you will hear from the analyst who
20 will tell you that the amount of crack cocaine
21 conservatively was well over 11 grams. On March 29th
22 agents had received a tip, and when I'm talking about
23 agents you're going to hear about people from the DEA, it
24 was a task force made up of Homeland Security, DEA agents,
25 Richland County Sheriff's Department and other agents were

OPENING STATEMENTS

1 also on the scene that day. And they went to this area on
2 Broad River Road somewhere around noon or shortly before
3 that because they had received a tip that there would be a
4 man coming on a bus and they were familiar with these bus
5 lines from New York State and that he would have crack
6 cocaine on him and he was bringing it into our state and
7 that was the extent of what that man told them. But they 8 responded to that area because as police officers they have 9 the right to follow up on that. They can't base a stop on 10 that alone but they have a right to followup to see what 11 they observed, and once they got to the motel on Broad 12 River Road they saw people getting off the bus. Many 13 people were milling out in the parking lot area, greeting
14 loved ones, their wives were there to pick them up. Two 15 people stood out to them because these two people went to 16 the bus and got their luggage out from the bus and at that 17 point they looked at them. And even though these officers
18 were plain clothes, they were the only people there that
19 day that didn't exit off the bus or weren't greeting people
20 there that day. Immediately these two people, one of which 21 was Eric Spears, the other was his wife or girlfriend, kept 22 looking at them. At that point they started to leave the 23 area on foot. They kept looking back. They were nervous.
24 At that point Agent Tracy, who is now with SLED who was 25 assigned to this task force along with two other officers

OPENING STATEMENTS

1 assigned to the task force DEA agents, ICE, started to go
2 behind them to follow them, and their purpose was and they
3 couldn't unlawfully detain them, but they could initiate a
4 conversation. And as they approached them they walked up
5 to them and asked them if they would speak to them and they
6 started asking questions. And at first Mr. Spears was 7 forthright, but when they got to the question when they
8 asked him if he had anything illegal on him, he hesitated,
9 he said no. They asked him if he had counterfeit goods on 10 him and he said no. And as agents kept talking to him, he
11 kept going to his waistband with his hands, Agent Tracy
12 asked him on more than one occasion to please not put his 13 hands around his waistband or his pockets, the same thing
14 the deputies in this courtroom do all the time. Because in 15 his experience as a narcotics agent, he had been in 16 narcotics for over ten years, this is what people did, and 17 he kept puffing the shirt out as if trying to make it
18 conceal something. At that point Agent Tracy based on the 19 totality of the circumstances lawfully then conducted what
20 is known as a pat down search, which police officers can do
21 to ensure their safety if the situation warrants it. And 22 during the course of the pat down he didn't find any
23 weapons and he starts -- and he explains to you what areas
24 you go to when you go do the pat down, but as he did he
25 felt a rock on the waistband area. And in his experience

OPENING STATEMENTS

1 as a narcotics agent, a trained narcotics agent, he even
2 trains other people, he knew that to be crack cocaine. And
3 when he removed the rock item from the waistband, he opened
4 it up and there, in fact, was a golf-sized ball of crack
5 cocaine, it was field tested there at the scene positive,
6 and it was later tested further by other chemists. You
7 will hear how the defendant was then taken into custody, he 8 was arrested for trafficking because of the amount, because
9 he was bringing it in this state. And remember when you
10 hear those definitions about the trafficking we don't have 11 to prove he did all of those things, we only have to prove
12 he did any one of those things. But in this case he did
13 more, he possessed it, he brought it into this state. What 14 was his intent? The amount alone is not for personal use.
15 You will hear how the defendant was Mirandized. He was 16 told what his rights were there at the scene by another
17 investigator from the Richland County Sheriff's Department
18 assigned to the same task force. Once he was advised of 19 his rights he was asked, "Do you know what was on you? Do
20 you know what you had in your possession?" His immediate 21 was, "No. But just because something is on me doesn't mean
22 I knew what it was." You'll hear how he is transported
23 back to Region Four Headquarters by Investigator Gwyn who 24 was doing paperwork, and by that point the defendant
25 initiated a conversation with agent Gwyn. He started

OPENING STATEMENTS

1 really complaining, told him, "Hey, I feel like I got
2 setup. I've been on that bus before, there never have been
3 any cops there. If I had known the cops were going to be
4 there I wouldn't have been there," statements of that
5 nature. When Agent Gwyn asked him, "Why did you do this?"
6 His response was "Stupidity." He went further than that in
7 answering the officer about the crack cocaine. He stated
8 that he was unemployed and was trying to move down here
9 from New York where he was from to start a restaurant, that 10 somebody had paid him $2,200 to bring the crack cocaine in 11 here. It wasn't even his, he was bringing it in for 12 somebody else. Started talking about how the rates and 13 amounts of crack cocaine were different for crack cocaine,
14 it was cheaper up there. He said the only reason he did it
15 was because he had to pay bills. Those were his statements
16 as you will hear. Now, once you have heard all of the 17 evidence in this case -- and this case is very specific,
18 it's not going to be a lot of witnesses, you're going to 19 hear from the witnesses that were out there that day who
20 participated in this. But once you hear from everybody;
21 the officers who founded the crack cocaine, the officers
22 who Mirandized him and talked to him as he eventually 23 admitted to knowing about the crack cocaine, that it was 24 his and in his possession. All the State asks is one
25 thing, and the Judge will tell you this, once you've heard

OPENING STATEMENTS

1 all of the evidence and heard again from us, Ms. Walker
2 will address you, you will be asked to go back to your jury
3 room and reach your verdict. The word verdict comes from a
4 Latin phrase, veredicto, and very simply it means to speak
5 the truth. All we ask is that you hold Eric Spears
6 responsible for his choices, his actions when he chose to 7 bring crack cocaine into our state. Thank you.

8 THE COURT: Thank you, Ms. Campbell. Mr. Ruffin?

9 MR. RUFFIN: Thank you, Your Honor. May it please the 10 Court?

11 THE COURT: Yes, sir.

12 MR. RUFFIN: Good morning, ladies and gentlemen. My 13 name is Adam Ruffin and I represent Mr. Spears, along with 14 Lucas Hawks who is seated there in the middle, and Robert
15 Corning. You know, when our country was being founded
16 Thomas Jefferson said, "I consider a trial by jury to be
17 the only anchor ever yet imagined by man by which a
18 government is held to the principles of its constitution."
19 It has been said that the American Trial Jury is the last 20 roadblock against tyranny and government oppression. You
21 have a very, very important responsibility today. You
22 know, this is -- the 13 of you are the most powerful people
23 in this courtroom right now. You're more powerful than me,
24 you're more power than these prosecutors, you even have
25 more power than Judge Hood, and that's because you and you

DENNIS TRACY

1 alone get to decide the question, guilty or not guilty.
2 And your right to serve on this jury, your responsibility
3 to serve on this jury is so important and so crucial to our 4 system of justice that it's mentioned throughout our
5 nation's constitution, and it's also in our state
6 constitution. It's one of the greatest hallmarks of 7 American citizenship, and I would submit to you that your 8 right to serve on this jury is even more important than 9 your right to vote in elections. You know, when you go to 10 the polls to vote in a ballot box in a presidential 11 election, your vote might be one in a hundred-million.
12 When you go back in your jury room to deliberate, your vote
13 is one in 12. That is significant power, it's a
14 significant responsibility and it's one that you should not
15 take lightly. Probably with one or two exceptions,
16 basically every witness that's going to testify in this
17 case is a government agent, they're law enforcement
18 officers. And as they're testifying I want y'all to 19 listen, I want you to ask yourselves is what this person is 20 saying, does it make sense? Is what they're saying
21 consistent with their own statements and with the other
22 witness's statements? Do I trust this person? Can I
23 believe this person? All we're asking you to do is listen.
24 Now, at the end of this trial after you've heard all of the 25 testimony you will be asked to go back to your jury room to

DENNIS TRACY

1 deliberate. You'll be asked to go back to your jury room
2 to vote, you'll either vote guilty or you'll vote not
3 guilty. And you may not all vote the same way, you may not
4 all agree on what the answer is in this case, and that's 5 okay. One of the great things about our system is that if 6 you are in the minority you do not have to be swayed to 7 move from the minority. Because each and every one of you
8 as individuals holds an absolute power and an absolute
9 right to vote however you want when you get in that jury
10 room. And if even a single one of you is determined to 11 vote not guilty, you do not have to abandon your 12 principles, you do not have to be swayed by your other
13 jurors. Today, you know, I cannot -- I just cannot 14 overstate the importance of your responsibility today. You
15 know, as an attorney people ask me, family and friends.
16 How to get out of jury duty. You know, people don't want
17 to serve on juries. That blows my mind. Because you have 18 been called upon today by your country to engage in one of 19 the most sacred activities you will ever engage in as an 20 American. Today you are an active participant in our 21 system of justice, in our system of self-governance. Today
22 y'all as individuals and as a group have an opportunity,
23 you have a responsibility to hold the government to their 24 burden, to hold the gunshot to the principles of our great 25 constitution. You stand today as the final safeguard of

DENNIS TRACY

1 liberty, and I trust that you will exercise that
2 responsibility with the utmost care. Thank you.

3 THE COURT: Thank you very much, Mr. Ruffin. You may
4 call your first witness.

5 MS. CAMPBELL: May it please the Court? The State
6 calls Dennis Tracy.

7 THE COURT: All right. Investigator Tracy, please
8 come forward.

9 The witness, DENNIS TRACY, was first duly sworn,
10 and testified as follows:

11 THE CLERK: Please have a seat in the witness stand,
12 state your full name for the record and please spell your 13 last name.

14 THE COURT: Dennis Tracy, T-R-A-C-Y.

15 DIRECT EXAMINATION

16 BY MS. CAMPBELL:

17 Q Agent Tracy, where are you currently employed?

18 A South Carolina Law Enforcement Division.

19 Q What do you do there, sir?

20 A Narcotics agent assigned to the interdiction unit.

21 Q And you talk faster than I do.

22 A I'm sorry.

23 Q And as part of the interdiction unit, what does that 24 mean for somebody like me that doesn't understand those 25 terms?

DENNIS TRACY

1 A Interdiction is a law enforcement effort to stop the
2 flow of narcotics into our neighborhoods by nontraditional
3 means. People using common carrier parcel systems; Fed
4 Ex, UPS, DHL, people coming in airplanes, buses, trains
5 anything except cars, or just people walking across the 6 border, I assume. But basically if there's a way to get
7 in here we're tasked with trying to solve that problem.

8 Q So basically you focus on the flow of drugs from other
9 areas into our state.

10 A Yes, ma'am.

11 Q And you're trying to help deter that.

12 A Yes, ma'am.

13 Q You mentioned that you're on a task force, is that 14 what you call it?

15 A I have a four person team and we partner with local
16 agencies when we have operations.

17 Q And is the four person team now, are those all from 18 SLED?

19 A They are.

20 Q I want to turn your attention back to March of 2012.
21 Where were your working back then?

22 A I was employed by the Lexington County Sheriff's
23 Department.

24 Q And how long have you been in law enforcement total
25 now?

DENNIS TRACY

1 A This is my 19th year of law enforcement.

2 Q And when did you actually start working in the 3 narcotics area at the Lexington County Sheriff's
4 Department?

5 A I started in narcotics in 2002.

6 Q So by 2012 you had over ten years experience?

7 A Yes, ma'am.

8 Q Back in 2012 in March, where were you assigned?

9 A The Lexington County Sheriff's Department as a
10 narcotic's investigator. I was also assigned as a task
11 force officer to, at that time which was Immigrations
12 Customs Enforcement, which has been renamed to Homeland
13 Security.

14 Q Slowdown a little bit. What was it?

15 A Immigrations Customers Enforcement.

16 Q Is that what commonly is referred to -- or used to be
17 referred to as ICE?

18 A It is.

19 Q What is it referred to now today?

20 A Homeland Security Investigations.

21 Q And these were people that were all part of this task
22 force, or this was the task force?

23 A It's a different group now, but back then it was --

24 Q And I'm sorry, I'm focusing on 2012.

25 A There were people that were working from Immigrations

DENNIS TRACY

1 Custom Enforcement and DEA together.

2 Q And DEA, what does that mean?

3 A Drug Enforcement Administration.

4 Q And was it common for the task force to also have
5 local representatives that were affiliated with it?

6 A It was.

7 Q And typically, how would y'all decide how to act on
8 certain situations?

9 A We would focus on one mode of transportation whether
10 it be Amtrak train, work Greyhound, work the chinese bus
11 lines or whatever we decide for the day.

12 Q Before I forget this, do you also actively participate
13 in actually teaching other officers about this area,
14 narcotics investigations and things of that nature?

15 A I teach specifically parcel interdiction, but I've 16 been teaching for the DEA since 2007.

17 Q I want to turn your attention to the morning of 18 March 29th of 2012. Had y'all received some information
19 that you were acting on that day?

20 A It was my understanding that a tip had been received.

21 Q And that tip did not come directly to you, did it?

22 A No, ma'am.

23 Q But to other agents.

24 A Correct.

25 Q And was that information shared with you?

DENNIS TRACY

1 A Yes, it was.

2 Q And when we talk about a tip, what are we talking
3 about?

4 A I believe somebody whether it had been -- I don't
5 know whether the source was an informant or some source of 6 information -- called law enforcement and provided some 7 sort of information as to an individual traveling to the 8 state from the New York with narcotics.

9 Q And as a result of that tip, what did you do?

10 A We got together and targeted the Oriental Bus Lines
11 or the Chinese Bus Lines is how we refer to them that 12 dropped off in Richland County.

13 Q And when you say these oriental or chinese bus lines,
14 what is this?

15 A Most people are familiar with Greyhound. Greyhound
16 is an established company, it has established companies,
17 it has established stations, tickets everything is very 18 formalized. There's another set of bus lines that are 19 unmarked that operate out of Chinatown and they come down
20 the Eastern Seaboard to big cities. So you could be in 21 Chinatown and get on a bus that goes to Columbia, South
22 Carolina, it might stop at two or three other cities but 23 the destination is where it's going to go. They're 24 relatively inexpensive and from a law enforcement
25 standpoint the problem with these bus lines is there's no

DENNIS TRACY

1 security measures. Everybody here is familiar with TSA,
2 there's no TSA at this bus line. You can walk straight
3 there, buy a ticket for $20 or $30 and get right on the
4 bus. There's no positive ID checks, there's no anatomics,
5 there's no security measures in place. So we have found
6 in law enforcement that these bus lines are exploited by
7 all types of criminals, whether they be wanted subjects,
8 whether they be a kidnapper, whether they be somebody
9 trafficking in counterfeit merchandise. We found them to 10 be a well known group of people that have tried to get
11 from New York to our state.

12 Q That day, did you know where the dropoff point was for 13 that bus line?

14 A We knew of a drop off point for these buses at the 15 Dutch Square Mall right there by the McDonald's. Normally 16 they come in somewhere between 11:00, 12:00, 1:00, they're 17 not really on a set schedule. The like Greyhound is 18 usually on time, these things leave at a specific time,
19 however long it takes down is how these buses operate.

20 Q And do they have their own station when they come to 21 Columbia?

22 A There's no real station. They drop off in a parking
23 lot or a closed business or whatever the case may be, they 24 might stop at McDonald's and drop everybody off. There's 25 not like a station for these bus lines.

DENNIS TRACY

1 Q That day you mentioned that one of the dropoff points
2 was near Dutch Square Mall or the McDonald's right next to
3 it?

4 A Yes, ma'am.

5 Q Was there an additional dropoff place?

6 A There was. We got notified that another bus had come
7 off the interstate at Broad River and had pulled into a
8 hotel parking lot right just north of I-20 on Broad River
9 Road, it might have been a Comfort Inn, I'm not 10 100 percent sure, but I think it might have been an Old
11 Comfort Inn.

12 Q Based on that information, did that you proceed to 13 that dropoff point?

14 A I did.

15 Q The one at the motel, whatever it was?

16 A Yes, at the motel.

17 Q And once you got there what, if anything, did you
18 observe?

19 A The bus had begun the process of disembarking
20 passengers. We noted that most of the passengers, their 21 travel patterns were consistent, they had either somebody
22 coming to pick them up, they were getting into a cab to 23 get to their destination, they were on a cell phone
24 telling somebody that hadn't showed up. We did see a
25 couple of people that stuck out that didn't appear to get

DENNIS TRACY

1 on a cell phone, and we did notice that two people did
2 proceed to -- we figured -- or what we felt is they were
3 paying an excessive amount of attention to us.

4 Q When you say excessive amount of attention to us, who
5 is us?

6 A Us as law enforcement.

7 Q And who was with you that day?

8 A Myself, a DEA task force officer named Frank Finch, a
9 special agent from -- a homeland security named Briton
10 Lorenzen.

11 Q So you were actually with two other people initially
12 when you got there that day?

13 A Yes.

14 Q And when you say they were paying excessive attention,
15 what were they doing?

16 A Well, everybody has some innate curiosity, everybody
17 has a level of curiosity about law enforcement, but that's 18 when law enforcement is obvious. I've been in law
19 enforcement 19 years, I still panic when I see blue lights
20 on the side of the interstate because I figure I'm going
21 to get pulled over for speeding. Everybody pays attention
22 to marked cars, everybody pays attention to officers in 23 uniform, however, we were in plain clothes. So 99 percent
24 of the people out there don't pay attention to people in 25 plain clothes, they're not looking for law enforcement in

DENNIS TRACY

1 plain completes. So in our experience if somebody is
2 paying attention to us, there's a reason for that, and
3 commonly we see that people that are looking for us are
4 engaged in some form of illegal activity.

5 Q So when y'all were out there, did you announce with 6 the crowd that you were with law enforcement?

7 A No, ma'am.

8 Q Did you flash your badge?

9 A No, ma'am.

10 Q Did you show them your gun?

11 A No, ma'am.

12 Q And, in fact, were your badge and your gun concealed?

13 A They were.

14 Q But these people kept looking at y'all.

15 A Correct.

16 Q What were they doing as you observed them initially?

17 A They were retrieving their baggage from the underside
18 of the bus and talking amongst themselves.

19 Q What did you observe them to do as they kept looking
20 at you or paying attention to y'all? Where did they go?

21 A After a few minutes they took their property and
22 began walking up the side street toward the post office,
23 and I think it's Briarcliff or Briargate Circle, they 24 proceeded to walk up to the road.

25 Q And they were on foot?

DENNIS TRACY

1 A They were.

2 Q And what did y'all do once you saw them leaving the
3 area on foot?

4 A We decided to make contact with them and have a --
5 engage in a conversation.

6 Q And were you there at that point to arrest them?

7 A No, ma'am.

8 Q Were you going to detain them in any way?

9 A No, ma'am.

10 Q And, in fact, what was the purpose of you approaching
11 them at that point?

12 A To engage them in a consensual encounter and talk
13 with them and see if there was anything suspicious about
14 their stories or their actions.

15 Q And how did you approach them?

16 A Well, they were walking up the street, we walked
17 behind them, we have didn't run but we had to walk at a
18 brisker pace than they did to catch up to them. As we 19 were walking behind them we observed the female remove
20 something, an unknown object from her purse, she handed it
21 to the male subject who was walking next to her. We did 22 not see the male subject move his hands lower than his
23 waist so we discredited that she handed him a piece of gum
24 or piece of candy or anything like that. So we knew that 25 whatever he (sic) had handed her (sic) had either been put

DENNIS TRACY

1 into his pockets or his waistband.

2 Q Could you tell what the item was?

3 A We could not tell what the item was.

4 Q And at that point did they have their bags with them?

5 A They had their bags.

6 Q And she was able to retrieve it from her purse.

7 A Yes.

8 Q Or what appeared to be her purse.

9 A Yes, ma'am.

10 Q Did y'all make contact with them?

11 A We did.

12 Q And what happened then?

13 A When we got about maybe eight to ten feet behind them
14 we asked them if we could talk to them for a minute. We 15 identified ourselves as law enforcement and engaged them
16 in causal conversation, engaged them in just common
17 questions; where are you coming from? How was the trip?
18 How long did it take? Things like that. Where are you
19 coming from? Asked them for identification. Mr. Spears
20 presented a New York ID. He was very forthcoming in his 21 information in the line of questions we were asking him.
22 When I asked him certain questions he started rearranging
23 his clothing to try to remove his clothing away from his 24 body. I asked him for safety reasons to not do that since
25 his hands were out of my view. I believe I asked him

DENNIS TRACY

1 three times to cease putting his hands inside his shirt,
2 and I could probably show you what he was doing with his
3 shirt.

4 Q Let me back up a minute. You said that you had asked
5 him a series of questions and initially he was forthcoming?

6 A Yes.

7 Q At some point was he less forthcoming about
8 information?

9 A He was.

10 Q And what was that, sir?

11 A After our simple questions I asked him if he had any 12 illegal items on him or his property and he hesitated and 13 after a few seconds he said no. In my training and 14 expertise, especially narcotics, when people hesitate
15 there's a reason they hesitate, they're usually trying to 16 convince themselves of what they're going to be telling
17 me. And at that point I figured he was not telling me a
18 truthful statement.

19 Q Okay. You've mentioned he was doing something with 20 his clothing.

21 A Yes, ma'am.

22 Q Can you stand up and show the jury --

23 MS. CAMPBELL: With the Court's permission.

24 Q -- and show the jury exactly what he was doing that 25 you recall?

DENNIS TRACY

1 A He had a baggy shirt on and what he did was he put
2 his hands -- sorry -- his t-shirt was baggier than mine.
3 But he would take his hands inside it and grab the inside
4 and keep it tight to keep it away from his waistband. It
5 was longer than this, it was easier for him to do it. But
6 he would just make it tight so you couldn't see anything
7 that would have been on his waistband.

8 Q At that point, is that when you asked him to cease --

9 A I did.

10 Q -- to stop doing that?

11 A I did.

12 Q And why was that?

13 A For my own safety. I didn't know what he had. I
14 didn't know if he was concealing a weapon in his 15 waistband, I didn't know what he had in his waistband but 16 I didn't want him to do that because hands are what can 17 hurt you from a law enforcement perspective. If I have 18 can't see your hands that's a concern for me, it's an 19 officer safety concern.

20 Q Take the stand. You mentioned that you asked him at 21 least on a couple of occasions --

22 A Yes.

23 Q -- not to do that at some point. Did your concern for 24 your safety make you act?

25 A It did.

DENNIS TRACY

1 Q And what at that point were you able legally to do?

2 A At that point I advised Mr. Spears that I was going
3 to conduct a pat down of his waistband to make sure he
4 didn't have any weapons.

5 Q And did you, in fact, do that?

6 A I did.

7 Q And when you say you conducted a pat down, what is
8 that?

9 A A pat down is basically a police term that we are 10 using our hands to feel the waistband or any part of the 11 body. But in this instance I went for his waistband to 12 see if he anything that felt consistent with a weapon, the 13 butt of a gun, the heel of a knife, anything like that.

14 Q And when you do a pat down, you do it pretty much the 15 same way every time?

16 A Yes.

17 Q Are there certain areas you focus on where weapons can
18 typically be concealed?

19 A In an interdiction environment I'm only worried about 20 places they can get to quickly, somewhere around their 21 waistband, in their pockets. I'm not going to feel up on 22 his shoulders because his hands are down there, I'm 23 worried about what's around his waistband, what's in his
24 pockets and legs. I mean, somebody could have something
25 in a sock or ankle holster or something like that. Those

DENNIS TRACY

1 are the main parts I do. Waist area, pockets are the
2 first things we're going to check in a pat down.

3 Q And as you were doing the pat down, where did you
4 start?

5 A His waist.

6 Q And when you were patting down his waist, what, if,
7 anything, did you do?

8 A On the right front of his waist, maybe like right
9 above where his pocket would have been, there was a small
10 hard object about the size of a golf ball, maybe slightly
11 bigger than a golf ball that had jagged edges. In my 12 training and expertise it was consistent with what -- how 13 crack cocaine is normally trafficked, or normally
14 concealed, what it would feel like if it was concealed.

15 Q So in your training it felt like crack cocaine?

16 A It did.

17 Q And at that point did you remove the -- at some point
18 did you remove the object front his waist after completing 19 the pat down?

20 A I did.

21 Q And what did you find when you removed the object?

22 A When I removed the object there was a small ball
23 shaped item that was wrapped in a napkin.. I opened up the 24 napkin, inside the napkin was a clear bag that contained
25 numerous off-white rock like items that were consistent

DENNIS TRACY

1 with crack cocaine.

2 Q At that point what did you do?

3 A Mr. Spears was detained at that point and we turned
4 him over to Richland County for further investigation.

5 Q And when you say you turned him over to Richland
6 County, Investigator Gwyn with the sheriff's department?

7 A Investigator Gwyn and Investigator Robinson were both
8 responding to the scene or involved in this operation.

9 Q So at some point they showed up as well?

10 A Yes.

11 Q At that point was your involvement with this -- did
12 you do any field testing?

13 A I did not conduct any field testing.

14 Q Did you advise him of his rights or were you there for 15 any of his questioning?

16 A I was not for his questioning and I did not ask him
17 any questions beyond that point.

18 Q I want to show you a few items.

19 MR. HAWKS: Without objection, Your Honor.

20 MS. CAMPBELL: I need get them marked, but I want to 21 show you just to make sure you've seen all this before.

22 MR. HAWKS: Yes, Your Honor.

23 MS. CAMPBELL: I'd like to get these marked.

24 (State's 1-4 marked for ID.)

25

1 BY MS. CAMPBELL:

2 Q I want to show you first items one and two. Do you
3 recognize those?

4 A I do.

5 Q And what are those items, sir?

6 A Item number one appears to be crack cocaine in a bag,
7 an evidence bag.

8 Q Okay. And item number two?

9 A It looks like a napkin, consistent with the napkin
10 that the crack cocaine was located on Mr. Spears.

11 MS. CAMPBELL: Your Honor, at this time we'd offer
12 State's Exhibits 1 and 2 into evidence.

13 MR. HAWKS: Objection, Your Honor, to all my previous 14 objections. And also, we never received any chain for 15 this. I would object on a chain basis as well.

16 THE COURT: Okay. Ladies and gentlemen, let's take a
17 little break. Return to your jury room, do not discuss the 18 case, keep an open mind, we'll be back in just a few
19 minutes.

21 THE COURT: All right. What's the chain issue?

22 MS. CAMPBELL: Your Honor, we will be -- and this is 23 subject -- I'm sorry, he said no objection when I showed 24 him this stuff.

25 THE COURT: Okay.

DENNIS TRACY

1 discuss your testimony with anybody.

2 THE WITNESS: I'll stay here.

3 THE COURT: All right. Everybody stretch your legs.

4 (A short break was taken and the jury returned to the
5 Courtroom.)

6 THE BAILIFF: The jurors are all present, Your Honor.

7 THE COURT: Okay. Welcome back, ladies and gentlemen.

8 So State's Exhibit Number 1 is for identification only
9 purposes, State's Exhibit Number 2 is admitted over
10 defense's previous objection. And State's Exhibit Number 3
11 is admitted without objection.

12 MS. CAMPBELL: And Number Four?

13 THE COURT: And State's Exhibit 4?

14 MR. HAWKS: No objection.

15 THE COURT: Very well.

16 (State's 2, 3 and 4 were received into evidence.)

17 BY MS. CAMPBELL:

18 Q State's Exhibit 1 and 2, those items were turned over
19 to, I believe, Investigator Gwyn at the sheriff's 20 department?

21 A They were.

22 Q And during the time that you had the crack cocaine in 23 your possession, did you alter it or change it in any way?

24 A No, ma'am.

25 Q Did you tamper with it?

DENNIS TRACY

1 A No, ma'am.

2 Q And during the time, did anyone else have the
3 opportunity to alter it or tamper with it in any way?

4 A No, ma'am.

5 Q The person you stopped that day, I'm going to show you
6 State's Exhibit No. 4. Do you recognize that?

7 A I do.

8 Q And who is this, sir?

9 A That is Mr. Spears.

10 Q And is that the person that you stopped back on March 11 29, 2012?

12 A It is.

13 Q You also mentioned this area.

14 MS. CAMPBELL: Your Honor, may the witness step down?

15 THE COURT: Just keep your voice up please, special
16 agent.

17 Q Can you come over so the court reporter can hear you
18 better? State's Exhibit Number 3. You can use this. You
19 mentioned that the area was on Broad River near I-20; is 20 that correct?

21 A Yes, ma'am.

22 Q And can you see where I-20 is on this map?

23 A You can. I-20 would be right here.

24 Q So this is the main part right here that says I-20 on 25 it, I guess. Anyway, where is the motel parking lot you're

DENNIS TRACY

1 referring to where the bus stopped?

2 A The motel parking lot is right here. The bus pulls
3 in off of Broad right here, turns around in this big
4 parking lot and drops passengers off.

5 Q Right in that area where you are pointing.

6 A Yes, ma'am.

7 Q And that's actually on what road?

8 A Briargate Circle.

9 Q What's this main gate right here?

10 A This is Broad River Road.

11 Q And then you mentioned Briargate Circle. Where is 12 this?

13 A Briargate Circle is this road right here.

14 Q And once these individuals you observed got their 15 luggage, where did they head?

16 A They proceeded up this direction up Briargate Road --
17 or up Briargate Circle --

18 Q From this direction?

19 A From that way towards the post office.

20 Q Where is the post office on that diagram?

21 A The post office is this big white square right here.

22 Q And where did you actually make contact with them
23 approximately?

24 A Right in between these two driveways right here.

25 Q Right in this area?

DENNIS TRACY

1 A Yes, ma'am.

2 Q In front of the post office.

3 A I guess it's actually the side of the post office.

4 Q Side of the post office. Okay. At that point that is
5 where you actually had the conversation with him?

6 A Yes, ma'am.

7 Q As well as did the pat down search.

8 A Yes, ma'am.

9 Q That day you also mentioned that the bus also went to 10 another area of town.

11 A Yes, ma'am.

12 Q And what area of town -- was there an actual 13 separate --

14 A The separate bus would have been way off the map down
15 in Dutch Square. Dutch Square is probably a half mile or 16 three quarters of a mile from that location.

17 Q On this side.

18 A Down Broad River Road on that side of I-20.

19 Q Okay. You can take the stand. Thank you, sir.

20 A You're welcome.

21 Q State's Exhibit Number 1. Has its shape changed a
22 little bit since the testing was done?

23 A It has.

24 Q And how has that changed?

25 A Oversimplifying this, crack cocaine is basically

DENNIS TRACY

1 cocaine and baking soda, it's not going to hold its shape
2 for two years. It's also not going to hold its shape if
3 it's excessively handled like in the testing process. So
4 the sharp ends and things that I referred to in my initial
5 testimony, they're not as noticeable in this because it's
6 deteriorated and broken down over two years.

7 Q And again, the person you stopped is the person that's
8 seen in State's Exhibit Number 4.

9 A Yes, ma'am.

10 MS. CAMPBELL: Your Honor, may the record reflect he 11 has identified the defendant?

12 THE COURT: Yes, ma'am.

13 MS. CAMPBELL: Thank you.

14 THE COURT: Cross-examination?

15 MR. HAWKS: Thank you, Your Honor. May it please the 16 Court?

17 THE COURT: Yes, sir.

18 CROSS EXAMINATION

19 BY MR. HAWKS:

20 Q Good morning, Special Agent Tracy.

21 A Good morning, sir.

22 Q I don't know if you mentioned this this morning, but I
23 believe yesterday you said you've done 2,600 cases, drug 24 cases?

25 A Yes, sir.

1 Q Something along these lines. And how many of them did
2 you submit an incident report?

3 A All of them.

4 Q All of them. Okay. So you've done over 2,000
5 incident reports.

6 A Yes, sir.

7 Q Okay. And you did one in this case.

8 A I did a supplemental report in this case.

9 Q Okay. And you submitted that to the State --

10 A I did.

11 Q -- as part of discovery.

12 A Yes, sir.

13 Q And it looks like you actually did it the same day.

14 A Yes, sir.

15 Q So everything was fresh in your memory at that time.

16 A Yes, sir.

17 Q And this incident we're talking about, March 29, 2012,
18 almost three years ago.

19 A Yes, sir.

20 Q Okay. So back then, three years ago, you had a much
21 better -- well, I shouldn't say that, but it was much
22 fresher in your memory since it just happened.

23 A That's a fair statement.

24 Q And that's why you do this incident report right away.

25 A Correct.

- 1 Q And you want that incident report to be accurate.
- 2 A Yes, sir.
- 3 Q Truthful.
- 4 A Yes, sir.
- 5 Q Complete.
- 6 A Yes, sir.
- 7 Q Because someday this days might go to trial.
- 8 A Yes sir.
- 9 Q Which it has. And you want to be able to remember
- 10 what happened.
- 11 A Correct.
- 12 Q And you want the defense to be able to provide their
- 13 client with a defense, or at least a way to assess what
- 14 happened on that day.
- 15 A If your asking me if I want the defense to have a
- 16 defense, no. I want to solve the case that the defense
- 17 doesn't have a defense to, but I prepare a report and it
- 18 obviously goes to you in discovery.
- 19 Q Okay. And on direct you mentioned one of your goals
- 20 was stopping the flow of drugs in South Carolina.
- 21 A Yes.
- 22 Q At this time specifically in Lexington and Richland
- 23 counties.
- 24 A Yes.
- 25 Q And you've not been able to do that, right?

1 A We're trying.

2 Q Okay. Let's talk about this tip. I know you didn't
3 receive the tip. On direct the tip was talked about as an
4 individual, but, in fact, it was for a black male.

5 A It was.

6 Q Okay. And it wasn't for crack, it was just generic
7 for narcotics.

8 A I'm not -- I didn't receive the tip, I just know it
9 was a narcotics tip.

10 Q Okay. And it wasn't for two people, it was for one
11 black male.

12 A As far as I remember.

13 Q And that other dropoff point you mentioned farther
14 than that, that is also in Richland County?

15 A It is.

16 Q And so I know y'all weren't specifically looking for a
17 black male when you approached Mr. Spears, but the reason
18 you went to these two bus stations was because of that tip
19 for a black male.

20 A We went to the bus stations to conduct an
21 interdiction effort. My reason for stopping Mr. Spears
22 was completely independent of the tip, it was based solely 23 on his actions.

24 Q All right. But the law enforcement presence at both
25 those stops was because of the tip.

- 1 A There were people there in response to the tip as 2 well, yes.
- 3 Q Okay. And the motel that you're referring to is 4 actually an Economy Inn that's closed down?
- 5 A I just saw that, yes, sir, Economy Inn.
- 6 Q And it's not everything operational.
- 7 A I don't believe so.
- 8 Q And you said on direct that they were paying excessive
9 attention to you, these two.
- 10 A Yes.
- 11 Q And your -- you think that because you're law
12 enforcement, you think that's why they were paying 13 attention to you?
- 14 A Yes, sir.
- 15 Q And you think that's what made them suspicious.
- 16 A Yes.
- 17 Q But you were in plain clothes.
- 18 A I was.
- 19 Q And there were no squad cars around.
- 20 A No, sir, there were not.
- 21 Q Couldn't see your badges.
- 22 A No, sir, it was not.
- 23 Q Couldn't see your guns.
- 24 A No.
- 25 Q So you don't know they knew that you were law

1 enforcement.

2 A My opinion was that that's why they were paying us an
3 excessive amount of attention.

4 Q Okay. And this stuff you went into on direct about
5 not talking on the cell phones, not being greeted by 6 families, none of that stuff is in your report.

7 A No, sir.

8 Q Okay. And I think you mentioned that they were 9 nervous, they appeared nervous?

10 A Hence them paying an excessive amount of attention to 11 law enforcement.

12 Q But you didn't mention that nervousness in your
13 report.

14 A No.

15 Q We don't have to look at the map since you've already
16 showed them, but you've stopped them in front of the post
17 office. Or not stopped them, I'm sorry, you've made
18 contact with them.

19 A Yes, sir.

20 Q And about how many feet would you say that is away
21 from where they got off the bus? 500?

22 A About, that's fair.

23 Q And you walked at a brisk pace you said.

24 A Well, we didn't want to run at them because it would
25 have been -- this whole thing is based off consensual

1 encounters and us running after somebody is more a show of
2 force so we didn't want to run after them.

3 Q Okay.

4 A We obviously had to walk faster than they did or else
5 we never would have caught them.

6 Q So you were chasing them but not running.

7 A No, sir, not chasing them. Just following them to 8 make contact with them.

9 Q Okay. You were following them.

10 A Yes, sir.

11 Q And then on direct you said you saw a female -- the 12 female removing an object.

13 A The motion was consistent with removing an object
14 from her purse and handing it to the male.

15 Q And that's not in your report.

16 A No, sir.

17 Q Okay.

18 A Can I explain my answer?

19 Q I just wanted to know if it was in your report.

20 THE COURT: Yes.

21 A I've taken an oath to give the truth and nothing but 22 the truth, but the way you're asking the question is not 23 allowing me to give a truthful answer to that. No, it's 24 not in my report. The reason it is not in my report is my 25 report is based on facts. I can't say with fact that she

1 100 percent gave him an object, they might have shaken
2 hands, they might have done something else. So that's not
3 in my report because it was an observation consistent with 4 her handing him something. The nervousness is an
5 objective thing, I can't write it's nervous. I wrote the 6 actions they did that made me think that they were acting
7 nervous. So if you can ask me the questions that I can
8 give a full answer to it would be helpful to everyone
9 involved.

10 THE COURT: Mr. Hawks gets to asks the questions,
11 Investigator Tracy.

12 MR. HAWKS: Thank you, Your Honor.

13 THE WITNESS: I'm sorry.

14 BY MR. HAWKS:

15 Q But it is a reason -- her giving him -- what you saw,
16 that was a reason for them to think that they were 17 suspicious.

18 A If in fact she handed him something it would have 19 been a suspicious, yes.

20 Q Now, let's get to the point where you're actually
21 speaking with them. In your report it mentions asking
22 Mr. Spears about illegal items.

23 A Yes.

24 Q And on direct you mentioned asking him common
25 questions such as how his travels were, how he was doing,

- 1 things like that.
- 2 A Yes.
- 3 Q But that's not in your report.
- 4 A It is not.
- 5 Q And in your report you mention that you did ask him to
- 6 refrain from making those movements at some time.
- 7 A Yes, sir, I did.
- 8 Q And on direct you said that you asked you guessed
- 9 about three times.
- 10 A Yes, sir.
- 11 Q But only once is it mentioned in the report.
- 12 A Yes, sir.
- 13 Q And your reason for frisking Mr. Spears was your
- 14 safety and the safety of the officers around you.
- 15 A Correct.
- 16 Q But the whole time he was making those movements you
- 17 didn't feel that your safety was threatened at that time?
- 18 A Well, the first time I thought it just might have
- 19 been his nervousness, but as he continued to do it my
- 20 nervousness and my concern for officer's safety kind of
- 21 increased.
- 22 Q You didn't notice a bulge around his waistband that
- 23 would be consistent with a gun.
- 24 A I couldn't.
- 25 Q Okay. Would it make sense for Mr. Spears to draw

1 attention to a gun if he was trying to conceal it from you?

2 A I can't speak to what was going on in Mr. Spear's
3 mind. My opinion would be that he would probably think
4 the butt of a gun would be more obvious had he not tried
5 to pull his shirt away from his waistband, but I'm 6 speculating.

7 Q Okay. And when you did that pat down of Mr. Spears
8 you knew that that hard object, the ball object was not a
9 gun.

10 A Correct.

11 Q And, in fact, that object was inside of a clear bag
12 inside of a napkin inside of Mr. Spears' pants.

13 A Yes.

14 Q And it might have been also inside of his underpants?

15 A I can't say for certain if it was in his underpants
16 or not, sir.

17 Q Okay. But you were able to feel that it was crack
18 cocaine.

19 A It was consistent with crack cocaine. In my training
20 and experience I've recovered bundles or bags of crack
21 cocaine from waistbands and pockets before and it was 22 consistent with the feeling of a bag of crack cocaine.

23 Q And during that frisk, once you felt the hard ball
24 object, you didn't pull it out right then, you continued to 25 frisk.

1 A I wanted to make sure -- my safety concern was still
2 there, I wanted to make sure he did not have any weapons
3 on him.

4 MR. HAWKS: Beg the Court's indulgence.

5 THE COURT: Yes, sir.

6 (Break in proceedings.)

7 MR. HAWKS: Thank you, Special Agent Tracy. I don't
8 have any further questions.

9 THE COURT: Thank you.

10 MS. CAMPBELL: May it please the Court?

11 THE COURT: Yes, ma'am.

12 MS. CAMPBELL: Just a few questions.

13 REDIRECT EXAMINATION

14 BY MS. CAMPBELL:

15 Q Sir, he asked you about whether or not you saw the 16 bulge in his waistband and you said you were not able to.
17 Can you explain that to the jury?

18 A Due to the actions of pulling his shirt away from his 19 waistband I couldn't tell if anything was or was not in 20 his waistband.

21 Q He also asked you about things that were in your
22 report --

23 A Yes, ma'am.

24 Q -- specifically he was the one using the word nervous.

25 A Yes, ma'am.

1 Q And in fact, in your report do you describe the reason
2 they caught your attention up here where it's highlighted.

3 A If I have may read it?

4 Q Uh-huh.

5 A "TFA Tracy observed a black male subject and female
6 subject who appeared to be paying excessive attention to 7 law enforcement presence around the bus stop location."

8 Q So you didn't use the word nervous but you're 9 describing the behavior.

10 A Yes, ma'am.

11 Q He then asked you about whether or not you put in 12 specifically about talking to them about some initial 13 questioning.

14 A Yes, ma'am.

15 Q And, in fact, do you refer to a conversation?

16 A "The subject's engaged in a conversation with law
17 enforcement."

18 Q And that was you.

19 A Yes.

20 Q So you did mention the conversation.

21 A I did.

22 Q And then he said you didn't put in about repeatedly
23 asking him or going to his shirt repeatedly. Is that in 24 fact in your statement?

25 A "TFO Tracy asked Spears to retrain from reaching into

1 his pockets for officer's safety reasons."

2 Q I'm sorry, I didn't highlight the part right before
3 that. In conjunction with that, can you refer to the whole
4 sentence?

5 A "Spears would repeatedly stretch his shirt down or
6 place hands under his shirt around the waistband or pocket
7 area. TFO Tracy asked Spears to refrain from reaching
8 into his pockets for officer safety concerns.

9 Q So that was in your report.

10 A It was.

11 MS. CAMPBELL: Thank you, Your Honor.

12 MR. HAWKS: Just briefly, Your Honor.

13 RE CROSS EXAMINATION

14 BY MR. HAWKS:

15 Q Special Agent Tracy, my question to you on cross was 16 whether or not you asked him to stop repeatedly was in the 17 report, not whether or not he was making those motions.

18 A I believe I asked him to stop three times. I did put 19 in my report he was asked to stop but I did not write the 20 words three times after it.

21 MR. HAWKS: Thank you.

22 THE COURT: Anything else?

23 MR. HAWKS: No, Your Honor.

24 THE COURT: Okay. Have a nice day. Thank you. Call
25 your next witness.

BRITON LORENZEN

1 MS. WALKER: Your Honor, the State calls Investigator
2 Briton Lorenzen.

3 MR. RUFFIN: Your Honor, at this time the defense
4 would move for renewing of its original objection based on
5 our conversations earlier.

6 THE COURT: Okay. Noted for the record and my ruling
7 is the same.

8 The witness, BRITON LORENZEN, was first duly
9 sworn and testified as follows:

10 THE CLERK: Thank you. Please have a seat in the 11 witness stand, state your full name for the record, spell
12 your last name.

13 THE WITNESS: Briton Baker Lorenzen.

14 THE CLERK: Spell your last name.

15 THE WITNESS: L-o-r-e-n-z-e-n.

16 DIRECT EXAMINATION

17 BY MS. WALKER:

18 Q Good morning. Where are you currently employed?

19 A I work for Homeland Security Investigation.

20 Q And how long have you been there?

21 A I've been here since 2009.

22 Q With Homeland Security?

23 A I've been with the Department of Homeland Security
24 since 2004, I was formerly a secret service agent.

25 Q And can you tell the jury a little bit about what you

BRITON LORENZEN

1 do for the Department of Homeland Security?

2 A Our main objective for investigations are electric
3 property rights which are counterfeit goods, any crime
4 with narcotics, or child exploitation as well.

5 Q And is that what you were doing for Homeland Security
6 back in 2012?

7 A Yes. I was working a case with the DEA.

8 Q I want to take your attention back to March of 2012,
9 specifically March 29, 2012. Did you become involved in a
10 narcotics investigation here in Richland County?

11 A Yes, I did.

12 Q And how did you become involved?

13 A I was contacted by my counterpart at DEA regarding a
14 bus interdiction that we needed to conduct in regard to 15 the case that we were working. Upon the notification from 16 DEA, myself, Dennis Tracy and Frank Finch conducted
17 surveillance at a location, I believe it was a hotel
18 parking lot area off of Broad River and the I-20 area, at 19 which time we saw a bus drive into the parking lot. The 20 bus we were told was supposed to have two of our targets
21 that we were investigating in the DEA case.

22 Q Well, let me slow you down just for a moment. When 23 you -- was it uncommon for you guys to get tips regarding 24 different issues that may come up as a part of y'all's
25 investigations?

BRITON LORENZEN

1 A No, it was not uncommon.

2 Q And acting on those tips, was it common for y'all to
3 set up surveillance in order for you to discover the 4 accuracy of those tips?

5 A Yes.

6 Q And is that what y'all did in this situation?

7 A Yes.

8 Q And once you guys got to that hotel parking lot, what
9 did y'all do?

10 A We conducted surveillance waiting for the chartered
11 bus to pull into the parking lot.

12 Q And how does that -- how does that surveillance work?
13 Where are you situated and what, if anything, are you
14 looking for?

15 A We were looking for a chartered bus unmarked like --
16 I say unmarked, it wasn't a Greyhound chartered bus, it
17 was another chartered bus to pull into the parking lot.
18 We typically sit in and around the area where we can see
19 the bus pull in and see the people walk off the bus.

20 Q And while y'all were conducting this surveillance what
21 did you observe?

22 A We observed several people walking off the bus. Some 23 of the people were getting into cars, other people were 24 getting into taxi cabs, some people were making telephone
25 calls. We also saw two people walk off the bus and start

BRITON LORENZEN

1 walking down the parking lot into the road area with their
2 suit cases, and they continued -- they started looking
3 back at us.

4 Q And was that significant to you in your training?

5 A It was. They kept on looking at us as if they knew
6 that we were law enforcement at the time.

7 Q You have on a badge lapel pin now. Were you
8 identified that way during this surveillance?

9 A I actually had on my badge, which is a larger version
10 of this, and my gun, my sidearm, which was visible at the 11 time.

12 Q Both of those things were visible.

13 A Yes. Both the gun and the badge were visible.

14 Q And how far away were you from them during this --
15 during, I guess, the initial surveillance?

16 A I can't say approximately, but we were in view of 17 them and we could see them as they walked off the bus and 18 away from us.

19 Q At some point did you approach the subjects getting
20 off the buses?

21 A Yes. Myself, Dennis Tracy and Frank Finch approached
22 the individuals.

23 Q And what about the two individuals that y'all actually
24 approached stood out to you compared to the ones that y'all
25 did not approach?

BRITON LORENZEN

1 A Neither one of them were getting into a car or making
2 a call for someone to come pick them up, they weren't
3 getting into a taxi cab. They kept on looking back at us
4 as if they were trying to walk away from us so I think
5 hoping that possibly we would avoid speaking to them.

6 Q And what did you do?

7 A Dennis Tracy made contact with Mr. Spears and 8 stopped, identified ourselves and stopped and spoke with
9 him.

10 Q And can you -- what was the nature of that
11 conversation?

12 A It was just a basic identification of a person; where 13 have you been, where are you coming from, what's your 14 name, do you have any information.

15 Q And initially, was the male subject forthcoming?

16 A He was a little hesitant to speak, a little hesitant
17 to give us -- he actually provided a New York ID but 18 pretty hesitant.

19 Q And at some point did this progress into where the 20 other investigator actually did a pat down of the subject?

21 A Yes. Mr. Tracy conducted a pat down of Mr. Spears,
22 because he had asked him to stop fumbling around with his 23 waist area, with his shirt. Mr. Spears kept on putting 24 his hands kind of under his shirt and fumbling around with 25 his shirt.

BRITON LORENZEN

1 Q And was that concerning to law enforcement?

2 A It was, because a lot of times we don't know what can
3 be found in the waistband. A lot of weapons can be found
4 in the waistband.

5 Q And upon conducting the pat down search what, if
6 anything, did you observe the defendant to have on him?

7 A I observed the defendant had a napkin that looked
8 like a ball that Mr. Tracy had pulled out from the 9 waistband area.

10 Q And at that point in which the napkin and the ball are 11 pulled out, what happened?

12 A Mr. Tracy, Agent Tracy arrested Mr. Spears and a
13 Richland County deputy was on scene at that time as well.

14 Q At that time.

15 MS. WALKER: Your Honor, beg the Court's indulgence.

16 (Break in proceedings.)

17 MS. WALKER: Thank you. I don't have any further
18 questions.

19 MR. RUFFIN: Thank you, Your Honor. May it please the 20 Court?

21 THE COURT: Yes, sir.

22 CROSS EXAMINATION

23 BY MR. RUFFIN:

24 Q You said that your badge and gun were visible?

25 A Yes, sir.

1 Q What about TFO Finch, was his badge and gun visual, do
2 you remember?

3 A I can't recall.

4 Q Do you remember if Tracy's badge or gun were visible?

5 A I can't recall.

6 Q Okay. But yours were.

7 A Yes.

8 Q You said that there were two targets that you were
9 looking for on this bus.

10 A Yes.

11 Q Who were they?

12 A Oh --

13 Q Can you tell me what were the targets?

14 A They were two targets in one of the cases that we 15 were working with the DEA.

16 Q Did you have names?

17 A Yes, I did.

18 Q Can you tell me the names?

19 A Tyrone Richardson and Eric Bradley.

20 Q Okay. Did you find those individuals?

21 A They were found on -- another bus came after this bus
22 and they were located by DEA agents after we had already
23 encountered Mr. Spears and the girlfriend.

24 Q Okay. And those two individuals that you were -- the 25 other targets that were on the other bus, were you

1 expecting them to be carrying counterfeit goods or
2 narcotics or what? Did you have any information?

3 A I didn't receive the tip so I don't know the full
4 information. I was just told by my DEA counterpart that
5 we were going to go out and conduct surveillance and try
6 to intercept this bus.

7 Q And as far as you were concerned you were at that
8 location of looking for these two other people.

9 A Yes. And it was the beginning of the investigation
10 as well so we didn't know who else may be involved.

11 Q But you didn't know anything about a tip that there
12 may be a black male with narcotics.

13 A Well, I -- Tyrone Richardson and Eric Bradley are 14 both black males.

15 Q Okay. And nobody -- you'd never heard the name Eric
16 Spears before.

17 A No, sir.

18 Q So how many tips did y'all have, do you know?

19 A I didn't receive the tips --

20 Q So --

21 A -- again, my DEA counterpart did.

22 Q He told your about the tips?

23 A He told me about this tip because it was concerning
24 that day with the individuals.

25 Q And when you say this tip, you're referring to a tip

1 of the two individuals that were on the other bus.

2 A Yes.

3 Q Is that right? You never heard anything about a tip
4 for a black male carrying narcotics.

5 A I don't know the correct verbiage for the tip because
6 I didn't take a tip and I can't testify for the DEA agent.

7 MR. RUFFIN: No further questions.

8 MS. WALKER: I don't have any questions, Your Honor.

9 THE COURT: Have a good day. Call your next witness.

10 MS. WALKER: Your Honor, the State calls Brian Gwyn.

11 The witness, BRIAN GWYN, was first duly sworn

12 and testified as follows:

13 THE CLERK: Thank you. Please have a seat in the 14 witness stand, state your full name for the record, and 15 spell your last name.

16 THE COURT: Brian Gwyn, G-w-y-n.

17 DIRECT EXAMINATION

18 BY MS. WALKER:

19 Q Investigator Gwyn, can you tell me where you are 20 currently employed?

21 A I'm currently employed with the Lexington County
22 Sheriff's Department.

23 Q And before that where were you employed?

24 A The Richland County Sheriff's Department.

25 Q And how long were you at the Richland County Sheriff's

BRIAN GWYN

1 Department?

2 A With the Richland County Sheriff's Department for ten
3 years in investigations.

4 Q And you've since transferred your employment to 5 Lexington County.

6 A I did.

7 Q Back in 2012 when you were at the Richland County
8 Sheriff's Department, what division were you in?

9 A At this time I was assigned to the narcotics.

10 Q And can you tell this jury a little bit about what the 11 narcotics division of the Richland County Sheriff's 12 Department does?

13 A In narcotics in Richland County we were assigned tips
14 for specific locations concerning drug complaints, or we 15 will initiate our own cases by virtue of just traffic
16 stops or going through informants or -- confidential
17 informants.

18 Q And in March of 2012, how long had you been at the 19 narcotics division?

20 A At that point I want to say I was with narcotics
21 about a year-and-a-half when we received this information.

22 Q And did you become aware of a tip involving the case
23 in which we're here for this week?

24 A I was.

25 Q And can you tell me the content of this tip?

BRIAN GWYN

1 A It was a very vague tip. One of the other agents
2 for the -- that was actually assigned to the DEA task
3 force stated that a black male was supposedly coming in 4 from New York bringing narcotics on a bus line.

5 Q The tip you had was a black male from New York.

6 A That's correct.

7 Q Is it uncommon for multiple agencies to, I guess,
8 receive multiple tips regarding narcotics information and
9 then share that information?

10 A No, not at all.

11 Q Is that actually useful in the narcotics
12 investigations?

13 A It is.

14 Q Approximately how many tips were coming in about this 15 particular bus stop?

16 A Just in general?

17 Q Around this -- that led you to be at this bus stop on 18 March 29th of 2012?

19 A We received -- when I say we, Richland County
20 narcotic's agents received this one tip.

21 Q And other agencies received others.

22 A I'm assuming they could have, yes. It's not uncommon
23 for everybody to get the same tip or multiple tips
24 involving certain locations.

25 Q How did multiple agencies become involved in being at

BRIAN GWYN

1 this bus stop at said time?

2 A From my standpoint we have TFO's that are assigned
3 their --

4 Q When you say TFO's --

5 A Task force officers. I know Frank Finch is a
6 Lexington County Deputy but he is a TFO assigned to with 7 the DEA. Ron Robinson is a Richland narcotics agents
8 assigned to a -- he is a TFO with the DEA, as well.

9 Q And taking these tips into consideration, did you
10 respond to a location here in Richland County?

11 A We did.

12 Q What location was that?

13 A It was two different locations that these possibly 14 could come -- the buses could come to, we responded to the 15 Briargate Circle, the Economy Inn.

16 Q Are you trying to intercept these drugs before they 17 actually infiltrate the community?

18 A Absolutely.

19 Q And tell me what, if anything, you observed once you
20 got to this location.

21 A I actually set up on the surveillance looking for the 22 bus to come in. We received information that another bus
23 arrived at the McDonald's, so I left from the Economy Inn
24 and went to the McDonald's. So I was kind of between both 25 locations at that time.

BRIAN GWYN

1 Q And once you got to this location what did you
2 observe?

3 A This location is when I observed Agents Tracy,
4 Lorenzen and Frank Finch engaged with the defendant and a
5 female.

6 Q And what did you do once you observed that?

7 A They were in possession of the crack cocaine, I took
8 possession of Eric Spears.

9 Q At some point did you also take possession of the 10 crack cocaine?

11 A I did.

12 Q I want to show you what's been marked as State's 13 Exhibit Number 1 and State's Exhibit Number 2. And ask if 14 you recognize those?

15 A I do.

16 Q And are these the items you came in possession of that 17 day?

18 A Yes. Those are the items I got from Agent Tracy.

19 Q And what was your purpose of taking custody of the 20 defendant in this case?

21 A Because it became a Richland County case. They were 22 assisting with the surveillance and the actions that we 23 came in contact with Eric Spears, or the defendant, and at 24 that point with it being a Richland County case I took 25 possession of the case.

BRIAN GWYN

- 1 Q And what made this case a Richland County case?
- 2 A Because it was in Richland County.
- 3 Q The drugs were.
- 4 A Yes.
- 5 Q As was the defendant.
- 6 A Yes.
- 7 Q And once you took custody of the defendant, tell me
- 8 what happened next.
- 9 A Well, any time we get narcotics we do a field test,
- 10 we have what we call a NIC swab and we will test the
- 11 narcotics with that specifically for cocaine base. Once
- 12 you test the narcotic if it is positive for cocaine base,
- 13 the NIC swab or item will turn blue.
- 14 Q Are you saying NIC swab?
- 15 A NIC, N-i-c. I can't break it down, but it is a --
- 16 just a swab with a chemical on it and when it comes in
- 17 contact with cocaine base it turns blue.
- 18 Q When you say cocaine base, is that another term for
- 19 crack?
- 20 A Yes, crack is cocaine base.
- 21 Q Okay. And did that happen in this case?
- 22 A It did.
- 23 Q And once the swab turned blue, what did you do?
- 24 A I field tested it and placed the defendant under
- 25 arrest for trafficking crack cocaine.

BRIAN GWYN

1 Q At that point once you placed him under arrest, did
2 you advise him of his rights?

3 A I did.

4 Q Are those typically called Miranda's?

5 A I do. And I always do it from a card I will possess
6 in my wallet.

7 Q And what did you say?

8 A Would you like me to read it to you?

9 Q Yes, please.

10 A The same card, and obviously I've had for quite some 11 time, it's kind of tore up. It says suspects rights to a
12 Miranda warning. It says, "You have the right to remain
13 silent. Anything you say can and will be used against you
14 in a court of law. You have the right to talk to an 15 attorney and have him or her present with you while you
16 are being questioned. If you cannot afford to hire an 17 attorney one will be appointed to represent you before any
18 further question if you wish. You can decide at anytime
19 to exercise these rights and not answer questions or make 20 any statements. Do you understand these rights I've 21 explained to you? With these rights in mind, do you wish
22 to talk to me now?"

23 Q And you did that really quickly here. Did you do it
24 slower when on the scene so he could understand?

25 A Right. I read each one and I make sure they

BRIAN GWYN

1 understand. I do the same thing when I do a handwritten
2 Miranda warning, certain words to make sure that they
3 understand what they've been advised of.

4 Q And did the defendant in this case appear to 5 understand you?

6 A He specifically told me he understood his rights.

7 Q And I want to take you over some of the conversation
8 that you had with him. Did you ask him what the substance
9 was that you had taken off of him?

10 A I did.

11 Q And what was his response there?

12 A He said he didn't know. I asked him if he didn't 13 know and he said, "Just because it's on me doesn't mean I
14 know what it is."

15 Q "Just because it's on me doesn't mean I know what it 16 is."

17 A That's correct.

18 Q Did you talk to him about y'all or law enforcement
19 being present at that location?

20 A We did. When I was speaking with him, at this point
21 he was somewhat standoffish. He stated he felt he had 22 been set up, he had been to that bus stop before and never 23 seen law enforcement, and that if he'd seen us he wouldn't 24 have been there.

25 Q So he had made that trip before but this was the first

BRIAN GWYN

1 time he had seen law enforcement.

2 A It was very clear that he had made it multiple times.

3 Q Did he indicate to you what he would have done had he
4 known law enforcement would have been there?

5 A He made it quite clear he would not have been there
6 had he seen law enforcement prior to.

7 Q Did you ask him why he was trafficking drugs into our
8 community?

9 A When I asked him, you know, why he was doing this, he
10 said because of stupidity. He did it, it was stupidity,
11 but he had to do it to make money.

12 Q Did it to do what?

13 A To make money.

14 Q And how did that he come about making money from this
15 drug transportation?

16 A The defendant during this conversation told me that 17 he was paid $2,200 by an individual to bring crack cocaine
18 to South Carolina. He would obviously not tell me who 19 paid him that money, but apparently crack cocaine is 20 cheaper in New York. His comments to me were that South
21 Carolina crack is at a set rate but it's cheaper in New
22 York so obviously you're going to make a profit once you
23 bring it doing here.

24 Q And where were y'all when y'all were having this
25 conversation.

BRIAN GWYN

1 A At that point we had relocated to region four
2 substation which is on Beatty Road.

3 Q And so this was after you had advised him that he had
4 the right to remain silent and not speak to you?

5 A That's right.

6 Q And he waived that right?

7 A That's correct. He actually disengaged the 8 conversation, he stated he knew his rights and at that 9 point did not want to talk. He never asked for an
10 attorney, however while we were doing paperwork he engaged
11 in a conversation at the office.

12 Q He initiated the conversation again to you?

13 A That's correct.

14 Q I want to show you what has been marked as State's 15 Exhibit Number 4 and ask you if you recognize this?

16 A I do.

17 Q How do you recognize this?

18 A This is the individual we had custody of, this is 19 Eric Spears.

20 Q Is this the individual who told you he was paid $2,200
21 to bring crack from New York to Columbia?

22 A That's correct.

23 MS. WALKER: Your Honor, may the record reflect that 24 he has identified the defendant?

25 THE COURT: All right.

BRIAN GWYN

1 Q I also want to show you what's been marked as State's
2 Exhibit Number -- oh, I'm sorry. It hasn't been marked.

3 (Break in proceedings.)

4 MR. HAWKS: Your Honor, I would just object for
5 discovery reasons, I have never seen those ID's before.
6 There is nothing in the reports about that.

7 MS. WALKER: Your Honor, these are --

8 THE COURT: Y'all approach.

9 (A bench conference was held.)

10 THE COURT: Objection overruled.

11 BY MS. WALKER:

12 Q I'll show you State's Exhibit Number 5 and ask you if 13 you recognize these?

14 A I do.

15 Q And how do you recognize these?

16 A Those were identifications that the defendant had on 17 his person.

18 MS. WALKER: Your Honor, at this point the State seeks
19 to move Exhibit 5 in evidence.

20 THE COURT: Over the defense's objection, admitted.

21 MR. HAWKS: Your Honor, I have another objection to 22 relevance.

23 THE COURT: All right. Overruled.

24 (The ID's were received as State's 5.)

25 BY MS. WALKER:

BRIAN GWYN

1 Q And in terms of the amount of crack cocaine that was
2 seized from the defendant that day, approximately how many
3 people could get high off of this amount of crack cocaine?

4 A Probably about 50 to 60.

5 Q And how do you come to that calculation?

6 A It's based on the -- how it's sold. Generally it's 7 in the form of .2 grams or $20, my math skills are not the 8 best.

9 Q Neither are mine. And when you took possession of 10 that crack cocaine, was it tampered with in any way?

11 A No, it was not.

12 Q And what do you do with that?

13 A I submitted it into evidence once we finished testing
14 with it and packaged it.

15 Q And was it properly sealed and packaged when you
16 submitted it into evidence?

17 A Yes.

18 Q And tamper proof at that point.

19 A Yes.

20 Q Thank you.

21 MS. WALKER: I don't have any further questions?

22 THE COURT: Cross?

23 MR. HAWKS: May it please the Court, Your Honor?

24 THE COURT: Yes, sir.

25 CROSS EXAMINATION

BRIAN GWYN

- 1 BY MR. HAWKS:
- 2 Q It's still Deputy Gwyn, right?
- 3 A Yes.
- 4 Q All right. And what do you do over in Lexington?
- 5 A I'm currently assigned to the parole division.
- 6 Q Okay. So not narcotics specifically.
- 7 A No.
- 8 Q Okay. I want to go back to something you just talked
- 9 about because it's fresh in my mind. You said .2 is about
- 10 $20.
- 11 A Roughly.
- 12 Q And when you say .2, you mean .2 grams.
- 13 A Correct.
- 14 Q And so a gram then would be $100.
- 15 A Correct.
- 16 Q And 10 grams would be 1,000?
- 17 A Correct.
- 18 Q And Mr. Spears allegedly had field weight 13.2 grams.
- 19 A That's what field weight it tested to, yes, sir.
- 20 Q Okay. I'm not going to do the math on that, but
- 21 somewhere around $1,300.
- 22 A Are you asking me or are you telling me?
- 23 Q Yes. Just assume everything I said is a question.
- 24 A Okay.
- 25 Q So 13.2 would be around $1,300 street value.

BRIAN GWYN

- 1 A Correct.
- 2 Q Now, let's go back to the beginning. Who did this tip
- 3 come from, the tip that you heard?
- 4 A I received a tip from Agent Robertson.
- 5 Q Okay. And he was on the scene with Tracy and
- 6 Lorenzen?
- 7 A Initially, no. He showed up either shortly
- 8 thereafter I did or about the same time.
- 9 Q Okay. So he's not one of the agents that questioned
- 10 Mr. Spears.
- 11 A You're talking about initially?
- 12 Q Yeah.
- 13 A No.
- 14 Q Okay. And you don't know anything about this tip that
- 15 she was talking about about two specific males.
- 16 A No, not to my knowledge.
- 17 Q And if you could, just tell the jury again what tip
- 18 you heard.
- 19 A The tip I heard from Agent Robertson was a black male
- 20 was coming in on the chinese bus line from New York
- 21 bringing narcotics.
- 22 Q And you never told Joanna McDuffie of the solicitor's
- 23 office that it was for heroin?
- 24 A On this particular case?
- 25 Q Yes.

BRIAN GWYN

1 A Not to my knowledge.

2 Q Okay. And you never told her that the bus would be
3 coming to the Economy Inn.

4 A It did come to the Economy Inn.

5 Q But the tip was just for a bus from New York, not a
6 specific stop.

7 A Generally bus lines come to one of two places, the 8 McDonald's or the Economy Inn.

9 Q Okay. But you didn't tell the solicitor's office that 10 this tip was for a specific stop.

11 A I can't recall.

12 Q Okay. And this field test you're talking about, do
13 you have that with you?

14 A You're talking about the swab itself?

15 Q Yeah.

16 A No, I do not.

17 Q Is there any sort of record created for those?

18 A As far as --

19 Q The results or how it tested --

20 A It's basically just for us to basically know for the 21 most part for the fact that it is what we think it is,
22 which pretty much helps solidify the fact that they were
23 arrested for possession of crack cocaine.

24 Q Okay. So that kind of stuff is never turned over to 25 the State, the results of that test or the test itself.

BRIAN GWYN

1 A From the mixed swab? No. Because it's submitted to
2 the lab for actual testing itself.

3 Q Deputy Gwyn, you were in the courtroom when I was
4 asking Special Agent Tracy about incident reports.

5 A Correct.

6 Q So I don't have to go through that again about how
7 important they are and all of that stuff.

8 A Correct.

9 Q And you submitted an incident report in this case.

10 A I did.

11 Q And a supplemental report?

12 A I don't think I did a supplemental, it's all on one
13 initial report itself.

14 Q Okay. And you have your report because you were 15 reading it on direct.

16 A Correct.

17 Q Okay. I'd like you to go to -- do you see the third
18 line in the middle where it says "while at the drop off
19 point?"

20 A Correct.

21 Q Okay. Could you read from there up to the three words
22 "agents approached spears?"

23 A It says, "While at the drop off point agents noticed
24 Spears acting nervous and watching the agents. Spears and 25 his girlfriend" -- which I put NFI in there -- "had

BRIAN GWYN

1 several large suit cases with them.

2 Q And then "agents approached Spears."

3 A Correct.

4 Q So it doesn't mention in there these two people walked
5 500 feet away before the agents approached them.

6 A No.

7 Q Okay. And that NFI, does that mean you didn't know
8 who the woman was?

9 A I did not get her information, I did not.

10 Q And she was never a suspect in this case.

11 A No, because the tip was specific in nature.

12 Q Okay. That it was a black male.

13 A Correct.

14 Q But it didn't say anything about a black male with a
15 female.

16 A It did not.

17 Q Okay. All right. And you testified in the 18 preliminary hearing for this matter.

19 A Correct.

20 Q And that was under oath.

21 A Correct.

22 MR. HAWKS: Beg the Court's indulgence.

23 (Break in proceedings.)

24 Q And in that hearing you testified that as we were 25 talking with him it was noticed that he was wearing an

BRIAN GWYN

- 1 oversized shirt.
- 2 A Correct.
- 3 Q You said we.
- 4 A Correct.
- 5 Q But you weren't talking to him.
- 6 A No.
- 7 Q Okay. And at the prelim, I'm not sure if it's the
- 8 solicitor or the defense attorney at the time, somebody
- 9 asked you if Mr. Spears had been ID'd before he was frisked
- 10 or afterwards.
- 11 A Can you direct me where you're talking about?
- 12 Q Yeah. Do you have the same thing that I have?
- 13 A I have the notes that you gave me, yes.
- 14 Q Okay. I'm sorry, I have to find it. Okay. It's
- 15 towards the end. The defense attorney says, "At that point
- 16 had he provided you with his ID," and that point is
- 17 referring to the frisk. And what was your answer?
- 18 A Give me just one second to read where you're talking
- 19 about. "Correct. That's correct."
- 20 Q Okay. And you talked about the surveillance. Were
- 21 you conducting surveillance at this location?
- 22 A I had, yes.
- 23 Q Before Mr. Spears got there?
- 24 A Correct.
- 25 Q But you left before you ever saw Spears?

BRIAN GWYN

1 A That's correct.

2 Q Okay. But in your incident report it says, "Spears
3 was acting nervous and watching the agents. Spears and his
4 girlfriend had several large suit cases." You didn't see
5 any of that.

6 A That's the information I was given by the agents on 7 the scene, yes.

8 Q Okay. I'm sorry to flip flop back and forth here.
9 Now, the solicitor at the prelim asked you if you had ever
10 heard of this person before, and he asked you what was the 11 reason that y'all had targeted Mr. Spears.

12 A Correct.

13 Q And what was your answer? It's on the top.

14 A What was your question again? I'm sorry.

15 Q The solicitor at the time asked you you had never 16 heard of this person before, the reason that you targeted
17 Mr. Spears was just suspicion, he looked suspicious. And 18 your answer was what?

19 A I think the question was wasn't you zeroing in on him
20 because he was acting nervous and I said "that's correct."

21 Q Okay. You never said that he fit the description that 22 was given?

23 A You have to direct me to where --

24 Q Top of the second page.

25 A Top of the second page. I did, that's correct.

BRIAN GWYN

1 Q And then just a few more sentences down in that same
2 block of text you're saying so we approached him.

3 A That's correct.

4 Q But you never approached Mr. Spears.

5 A Not until after he was taken into custody by Agent
6 Tracy.

7 Q And did you submit the warrant affidavit in this case?

8 A I did.

9 Q And you didn't mention the tip on the warrant?

10 A I did not. Well, I'd have to read the warrant.

11 Q That's okay.

12 MR. HAWKS: Beg the Court's indulgence.

13 (Break in proceedings.)

14 BY MR. HAWKS:

15 Q And then the description you said Mr. Spears fit was a
16 black male.

17 A Coming in from New York running narcotics.

18 Q Okay.

19 MR. HAWKS: I have nothing further.

20 MS. WALKER: Thank you, Your Honor.

21 REDIRECT EXAMINATION

22 BY MS. WALKER:

23 Q Mr. Hawks asked you a lot of questions about the 24 preliminary hearing.

25 A Correct.

BRIAN GWYN

1 Q What are preliminary hearings?

2 A It's basically a fact-finding hearing to make sure
3 there is probable cause to make the arrest.

4 Q Is there -- who all was at a preliminary hearing?

5 A Just the defendant, a public defenders office and
6 attorney, solicitors and myself.

7 Q Is there is judge there?

8 A There is a judge there, yes.

9 Q During these preliminary hearings, does every officer
10 come to testify or just the lead case agent?

11 A Just the lead agent.

12 Q And when you're testifying at these preliminary
13 hearings, are you relaying information to defense attorneys
14 based upon the collective information you have at that 15 point?

16 A That's correct.

17 Q So things that everyone involved in the investigation
18 saw.

19 A Yes.

20 Q And is that what you did in this case?

21 A It is.

22 Q And at preliminary hearings, what happens at the end
23 of a preliminary hearing?

24 A We notify them whether it was enough probable cause
25 to bound a case over for a trial.

BRIAN GWYN

1 Q And because of the way this particular case unfolded,
2 did you become the lead investigator?

3 A I did.

4 Q And once you become the lead investigator, do you rely
5 on information from other investigators in order to help
6 you determine whether or not to make an arrest?

7 A Absolutely, it's not uncommon at all.

8 Q And is that what you did in this case?

9 A I did.

10 Q Including the two officers we've already heard from.

11 A That's correct.

12 Q And do you relay the information that you have from 13 those officers in your report?

14 A I do, and I did.

15 Q As the lead investigator?

16 A Yes.

17 Q Thank you.

18 MS. WALKER: I don't have any further questions?

19 MR. HAWKS: I don't have anything else.

20 THE COURT: Attorneys approach.

21 (A bench conference was held.)

22 THE COURT: I was trying to figure out where we are 23 with lunch and the number of witnesses trying to be 24 cognizant of your time. It's 12:15, if you'll be back in 25 your jury room at 1:30 we will be ready to go. Do not

TARA KINNEY

1 The witness, TARA KINNEY, was first duly sworn
2 and testified as follows:

3 THE CLERK: Thank you. Please have a seat in the 4 witness stand and state your full name for the record.

5 THE COURT: My name is Tara Kinney.

6 DIRECT EXAMINATION

7 BY MS. CAMPBELL:

8 Q Ms. Kinney, where are you employed?

9 A With the Richland County Sheriff's Department.

10 Q And what do you do there?

11 A I work in their forensic laboratory in the drug
12 identification section.

13 Q And when working in the drug identification section,
14 what does your job entail?

15 A We test all of the substances that are submitted by 16 the officers that they suspect may contain some kind of a
17 controlled substance.

18 Q Can you tell this jury a little bit about your
19 education and training in that field?

20 A Sure. I have a Bachelor's Degree in Forensic
21 Chemistry from Eastern Washington University. I did a
22 short internship with the Washington State Patrol Crime
23 Laboratory doing a research project on methods of 24 methamphetamine manufacturing that was subsequently
25 published. I attended the drug enforcement administration

TARA KINNEY

1 special human research laboratory training. I've also
2 attended numerous continuing education courses in
3 instrumental analysis, various scientific conferences and
4 seminars. I'm also certified to respond to 5 methamphetamine laboratories, clandestine laboratories
6 which requires a special Hazmat certification.

7 Q Have you been qualified before as an expert in the 8 area of drug analysis?

9 A Yes.

10 Q And approximately how many times have you been 11 qualified?

12 A Twelve times. And I've testified in magistrate,
13 civil, general sessions and federal.

14 MS. CAMPBELL: Your Honor, at this time we would offer
15 her as an expert in drug analysis.

16 THE COURT: Voir dire?

17 MR. HAWKS: No, Your Honor, and no objection.

18 THE COURT: All right. Ladies and gentlemen, normally
19 a person cannot give opinion testimony. Normally when a 20 person testifies, that person must testify as to what they 21 saw, heard, did or sensed by smell or something of that
22 nature. However, there is an exception under the rules
23 when someone is qualified because of education or
24 experience, that person is permitted to give their opinion
25 in certain areas if the Court qualifies them that way.

TARA KINNEY

1 This witness will be qualified in the area of drug
2 analysis, Ms. Kinney will. She will be allowed to give
3 opinion testimony in that area. That does not mean that
4 you have to accept her opinion, but it is evidence for you
5 to use in any way that you see fit and give it the weight
6 and the credibility that you believe is appropriate.

7 MS. CAMPBELL: Thank you, Your Honor.

8 Q I want to turn your attention to the case involving
9 Eric Spears as the defendant. Did you receive a quantity
10 of what ended up being crack cocaine in this case?

11 A I did.

12 Q And I'm going to show you State's Exhibit Number 1 and 13 just ask you to look at that.

14 A (Complies.)

15 Q Does that appear to be the drugs that were forwarded
16 to you?

17 A Yes. This appears to be the item that I received in 18 this case.

19 Q And who actually forwarded those items to you?

20 A I received this item from our evidence and property
21 room from our custodian, Dale Blackmon.

22 Q Dale Blackmon?

23 A Yes.

24 Q And you note that in your report. And do you have a
25 report in this case?

TARA KINNEY

1 A Yes.

2 Q And you note that in your report and that's to ensure
3 the chain of custody as we call it.

4 A Yes.

5 Q And when you received this amount of what ended up
6 being crack cocaine, was it packaged properly when you
7 received it prior to your testing it?

8 A Yes.

9 Q Can you tell the jury exactly what steps you went
10 through in order to test that item?

11 A Sure. When we received the item the first thing we 12 do is weigh the item to determine how much is there. We 13 report a net weight, which means we remove all of the 14 outer packaging so the weight that's reflected in our 15 report is the weight of just the substance itself, it
16 doesn't include any of the packaging. From there we do a 17 presumptive test. This is a color test which is just to 18 give us an indication of what we might be working with.
19 There are a lot of things that present as a white powder
20 or white rock like substance so it kind of points us in 21 the right direction as far as our next steps in the 22 analysis. After we do the presumptive test we take a
23 small sample and run it on our instrument.

24 THE COURT: Ms. Campbell --

25 (Whereupon, there was a bench conference.)

TARA KINNEY

1 THE COURT: I'm sorry, I just don't know everybody.

2 MS. CAMPBELL: No problem.

3 THE COURT: I apologize, Ms. Kinney.

4 A That's okay. We run an instrumental analysis and
5 that's a confirmation technique. In our laboratory we use
6 a gas chromatograph mass spectrometer, it's called a GCMS
7 for short. And that gives us a molecular confirmation of 8 the identity of the substance.

9 Q And when you did the testing in this case, can you
10 share with this jury what your results were?

11 A Sure. In this case I received one item. It was a
12 clear Ziploc bag containing a plastic bag containing a
13 white rock like substance. My testing determined that 14 that substance was cocaine base, or crack cocaine with a
15 net weight of 11.43 grams.

16 Q 11.43 grams?

17 A Yes.

18 Q Was just the total weight of just the substance
19 itself.

20 A Yes.

21 Q And you mentioned it was a cocaine base crack cocaine?

22 A Yes.

23 Q And what's the difference between crack cocaine and
24 cocaine?

25 A Cocaine in its powder form as we typically think of

TARA KINNEY

1 it its salt form versus its base form. Cocaine in its
2 salt form, it has different properties than the cocaine in
3 its base form. For example, cocaine in its salt form is
4 soluble or will dissolve in water. Cocaine base, or crack
5 cocaine, will not dissolve in water. And that's one of 6 the properties that we use in our analysis to determine
7 the difference between a salt and base form.

8 Q Okay. And in this case the substance was tested
9 positive for was crack cocaine itself?

10 A Yes.

11 Q And the amount was 11.43 grams?

12 A That's correct.

13 Q And if an item such as this had tested -- are you
14 familiar with the process known as field testing?

15 A Yes.

16 Q And is that again what you refer to as a presumptive
17 test for the presence of crack cocaine?

18 A Correct. The field test that the officers do is 19 similar to the presumptive test that we do in the 20 laboratory.

21 Q And is it unusual for that field test to weigh more
22 than the 11.43 grams you did in your testing?

23 A When they take a field weight of the item they are 24 typically not using a scale or a balance that's been 25 calibrated. They also include the outer packaging in the

TARA KINNEY

1 weight, they don't remove it from the packaging when
2 they're weighing it. So typically the field weight will
3 weigh a little bit more than what our laboratory final
4 weight is for those reasons.

5 Q And as long as the chain of custody is complete and 6 not tampered with, that doesn't mean anybody took any of 7 the cocaine.

8 A Correct.

9 Q And in this case the condition of State's Exhibit 1
10 has become crumbled a little bit, is that unusual over time
11 for the crack cocaine to I don't want to say disintegrate
12 but to deteriorate a little bit?

13 A No, that's not uncommon. Sometimes when they submit 14 it it will be one solid substance, and in the course of 15 our analysis we'll break it up into smaller chunks to 16 remove a sample or to get a representative sample of the 17 quantity.

18 Q And finally in your dealings with crack cocaine and
19 crack cocaine on the street, is it unusual for say a dealer
20 or someone to bring in an amount of crack cocaine and then
21 later cut it with other agents to make it into a larger
22 quantity?

23 A We typically see substances that are not pure. They 24 typically are adulterated or diluted with other things,
25 that's not uncommon.

TARA KINNEY

1 Q And a person can take an amount and cut it again and
2 again depending on what they want as far as the end
3 quantity.

4 A Sure. They can add whatever they want to it.

5 Q And crack cocaine, how is it exactly made?

6 A Cocaine originates from the cocoa plant and they do
7 an extraction of the leaves from the cocoa plant.

8 Q Okay. And then in order to make it into a material
9 that can be -- how is crack cocaine ingested typically by 10 humans?

11 A Crack cocaine is typically administered --

12 Q Okay. That's good --

13 A -- by smoking. That's one of the reasons that they 14 convert it from cocaine in its salt or powder form to 15 cocaine base so that it's smokeable.

16 Q And in order to make it into that rock like substance
17 we're talking about, they actually cook it in a certain way
18 with another substance; is that correct?

19 A Yes.

20 Q And typically what assistance do they mix it with to 21 make bigger amounts?

22 A In order to convert or to cut it?

23 Q Can you explain both?

24 A Sure. In order to convert cocaine salt to cocaine
25 base they will typically add baking soda, which also can

TARA KINNEY

1 be used to cut the final product. But they use a number
2 of other things to cut the final product as well;
3 caffeine, lidocaine, benzocaine just to name a few.

4 Q And when you talk about cutting it, is that to make it
5 into a larger quantity?

6 A Sure, they're just adding bulk.

7 Q Thank you.

8 MS. CAMPBELL: I don't have anything further.

9 MR. HAWKS: May it please the Court?

10 THE COURT: Yes, sir.

11 MR. HAWKS: Thank you, Your Honor.

12 CROSS EXAMINATION

13 BY MR. HAWKS:

14 Q Good afternoon, Ms. Kinney.

15 A Hello.

16 Q It's good to see you again. I'm not going to ask too
17 many questions. Does your lab test for purity?

18 A No.

19 Q So when you say that there are 11.43 grams of crack,
20 you are not saying there are 11.43 grams of cocaine.

21 A I don't have the data in front of me and we don't do
22 a quantitation which would determine how much of that 23 11.43 grams was actually cocaine. It very well could have 24 been cut with other things.

25 Q But it would have to be cut with something to become

TARA KINNEY

- 1 crack.
- 2 A Not necessarily.
- 3 Q Okay. So what is pure crack? Is there such a thing?
- 4 A Yes.
- 5 Q Could you explain that?
- 6 A It's crack cocaine that has not been adulterated or
- 7 diluted with other assistances.
- 8 Q And how is that made?
- 9 A By converting cocaine powder to cocaine base or
- 10 directly from the processing of the cocoa leaves. You
- 11 actually get it in cocaine base form and then they'll turn
- 12 it into the salt form.
- 13 Q Are other ingredients used to do that to make it
- 14 crack?
- 15 A From cocaine salt?
- 16 Q Yeah, or base.
- 17 A I'm not sure I understand your question.
- 18 Q Okay. You can't just use cocaine to make crack is
- 19 what I'm getting at.
- 20 A Correct.
- 21 Q You need other ingredients.
- 22 A Yes.
- 23 Q So there must be other ingredients in this
- 24 11.43 grams.
- 25 A When you add other things to convert the cocaine from

TARA KINNEY

1 its salt to base form, those other things aren't
2 necessarily ending up in the final product, they're used
3 to convert it from one thing to another.

4 Q Okay. So that 11.43 doesn't necessarily have to 5 contain adulterants.

6 A Not necessarily.

7 Q And you don't know if the crack in this case contained
8 any adulterants.

9 A Not at this time, no.

10 Q Okay. But it is not your testimony that that 11.43 is 11 all cocaine.

12 A I can't say that it was pure or not, we don't do
13 quantization.

14 MR. HAWKS: Beg the Court's indulgence.

15 (Break in proceedings.)

16 MR. HAWKS: Nothing further, Judge.

17 THE COURT: Redirect?

18 MS. CAMPBELL: Just one question.

19 REDIRECT EXAMINATION

20 BY MS. CAMPBELL:

21 Q But that 11.43 grams, that's considered crack cocaine.

22 A We did identify -- I did identify crack cocaine in 23 that substance.

24 MS. CAMPBELL: Thank you.

25 THE COURT: Recross?

FRANK FINCH

1 MR. HAWKS: No, Your Honor.

2 THE COURT: Thank you, Ms. Kinney. Have a nice day.

3 Call your next witness.

4 MS. CAMPBELL: State calls Frank Finch.

5 The witness, FRANK FINCH, was first duly sworn
6 and testified as follows:

7 THE CLERK: Thank you. Have a seat in the witness
8 stand and state your full name for the record.

9 THE COURT: My name is Frank Finch, F-i-n-c-h.

10 DIRECT EXAMINATION

11 BY MS. CAMPBELL:

12 Q Sir, where are you employed?

13 A The Lexington County Sheriff's Department.

14 Q What do you do there?

15 A I'm a narcotics agent currently assigned to the drug
16 enforcement administration task force.

17 Q Slow down a little bit. The drug enforcement
18 administration task force?

19 A Yes, ma'am.

20 Q It's also known as DEA?

21 A Yes, ma'am.

22 Q And as parts of that task force, what do your duties
23 include?

24 A We go outside our home counties, it's a 19 area
25 county we're responsible for, and investigate drug

FRANK FINCH

1 complaints, whether it be somebody trotting down the
2 roadway, whether it be somebody selling out of a house,
3 anything that can possibly be prosecuted on a federal
4 level, or assist the locals with something that they need
5 that they're not capable of handling.

6 Q I'm going to turn your attention back to March 29th of 7 2012. Were you working that day?

8 A I was.

9 Q And did y'all -- did you become aware of a tip that 10 had been forwarded to law enforcement --

11 A Yes, ma'am.

12 Q -- about some drugs from New York?

13 A Yes, ma'am.

14 Q And specifically do you remember the specifics of the 15 tips as was told to you?

16 A The information was relayed to those of us working.
17 It was supposed to be a black male traveling on the 18 chinese bus line traveling in from New York to Columbia
19 bringing in heroin.

20 Q And that tip was also distributed to other agents that 21 were working that day as well?

22 A Yes, ma'am.

23 Q And if the tip had been spread around as narcotics
24 from New York, is that unusual for it to be translated that 25 way?

FRANK FINCH

1 A No, ma'am, it's not.

2 Q That day, where did y'all initially respond after
3 getting the tip information?

4 A We were stationary at Broad River, there's like an
5 old gas station near I-20, we had some agents there. I
6 was stationed with some other agents at a location where 7 we knew the bus line dropped off passengers near the 8 McDonald's.

9 Q That's near Dutch Square.

10 A Yes, ma'am.

11 Q Okay.

12 A We were sitting there, we saw a bus come off the 13 interstate and take a right back towards Harbison State
14 Forest area.

15 Q Which is the opposite direction.

16 A Yes, ma'am, opposite where we had people initially
17 staged. And we saw the bus turn into a motel there.

18 Q And what did you do?

19 A Myself, Agent Tracy and Special Agent Lorenzen went 20 over to where that bus was at.

21 Q And what was the purpose of y'all going there that
22 day?

23 A We were going to observe passengers and just to make
24 contact with people coming off the bus, just a general bus
25 interdiction, how are you doing, where are you coming

FRANK FINCH

1 from, just a general conversation.

2 Q At some point did someone catch y'all's attention?

3 A Yes, ma'am.

4 Q And who was that?

5 A That would be the defendant here.

6 Q And why did he catch your attention?

7 A When we pulled up we got out of our vehicles. The 8 people that were there were kind of milling around like
9 people normally do that get off the buses. They looked 10 over at us, they kind of saw that we weren't just off the 11 bus or we weren't there to pick anybody up. The defendant
12 and his girlfriend saw us and began walking away, walking
13 towards the post office, where there is really nothing
14 there except the post office and I believe some 15 apartments.

16 Q Did they have anything with them when they were 17 leaving the area?

18 A They had some luggage with them.

19 Q And you said that they actually looked at y'all; is
20 that correct?

21 A Yes, ma'am. As they were walking away they kept
22 looking behind them, kind of looking anxious. Most people
23 were just kind of milling around waiting someone to pick
24 them up, get in their car or on a cell phone to call a
25 ride, whereas these people were literally walking away.

FRANK FINCH

1 Q Were you dressed in a uniform that day or plain
2 clothes?

3 A No, ma'am, plain clothes.

4 Q When you say plain clothes, what kind of clothing are
5 we talking about?

6 A Typically blue jeans and a collared shirt of some 7 type.

8 Q That day did you have your badge and your gun with 9 you?

10 A I had my badge and gun with me, yes, ma'am.

11 Q And were you doing anything to hide those things?

12 A No, ma'am.

13 Q But how far away were you from when they observed you?

14 A They were probably at a minimum 20 yards or so.

15 Q And were you trying to show anyone your gun or your 16 badge?

17 A No, ma'am. It's kind of like I'm wearing it today
18 except maybe a little more exposed if the weather is nice.

19 Q Once you saw the people walking away, did you make a
20 decision to follow then?

21 A At that point we decided to go at least speak to 22 those people because of their actions, and because of the 23 tip that said it was a black male riding the bus with 24 heroin.

25 Q And while you were following them at that point were

FRANK FINCH

1 you planning on arresting them?

2 A We had no charges on them.

3 Q Were you planning on detaining them at that point?

4 A No, ma'am.

5 Q Did you observe any interaction between the male and
6 the female as they were walking away?

7 A At some point as they were walking away they were
8 walking close together, it appeared that the female
9 possibly passed something to the male.

10 Q Could you see if for sure she did?

11 A You couldn't see, we were kind of back aways.

12 Q And eventually did y'all catch up with them?

13 A Yes, we did.

14 Q And who actually spoke to the two people that day?

15 A Well, in most law enforcement interactions,
16 especially people who have been working together as long
17 as myself and Agent Tracy has and Special Agent Lorenzen,
18 you have a contact and recover. You have a person who 19 does all the talking so the person he's talking to is not 20 trying to answer three questions at one time, and in this 21 case Agent Tracy was the one who was the contact and I was 22 the cover off to the side.

23 Q So you were standing over to the side.

24 A Yes, ma'am.

25 Q But you were leaving him to do all the talking.

FRANK FINCH

- 1 A He was doing all the talking.
- 2 Q And was there a conversation between the two of them?
- 3 A Yes.
- 4 Q And at some point did you notice anything that the
- 5 male was doing?
- 6 A During the conversation he began pulling at his shirt
- 7 kind of like you have a nervous twitch which drew our
- 8 attention to the shirt. We are taught the eyes won't kill
- 9 you but the hands will.
- 10 Q Specifically what did it appear he was doing with his
- 11 shirt?
- 12 A Keeping his shirt off his body, pulling it out.
- 13 Q And did that set off an alarm for you?
- 14 A Yes, ma'am, it did.
- 15 Q Were you aware that Agent Tracy asked him on a couple
- 16 of occasions at least not to do that?
- 17 A Yes, ma'am.
- 18 Q Did he continue to do it?
- 19 A He continued to do it.
- 20 Q And at some point did Agent Tracy initiate what's
- 21 called a pat down?
- 22 A He did based on the subject's reactions and response
- 23 to pulling his shirt up, or out rather.
- 24 Q And were you there for the pat down or nearby?
- 25 A Yes, ma'am.

FRANK FINCH

1 Q And were any weapons recovered --

2 A No, ma'am.

3 Q -- from the defendant? However, was anything else
4 found on the defendant?

5 A There was a bag of crack cocaine located on him.

6 Q And was that from his waistband area?

7 A Yes, ma'am.

8 Q At that point once the drugs were taken off his
9 person, was he then detained?

10 A He was.

11 Q And was he turned over to another agency?

12 A He was turned over to the Richland County Sheriff's 13 Department, in this case it was with Mr. Brian Gwyn.

14 Q Brian Gwyn?

15 A Yes, ma'am.

16 Q Were you there when he was Mirandized and questioned?

17 A No, ma'am, I was not.

18 Q So at that point, was that the extent of your
19 involvement?

20 A Yes, ma'am.

21 Q The person that y'all followed and ultimately talked
22 to, that Agent Tracy talked to, do you see him in State's 23 Exhibit Number 4?

24 A Yes, ma'am.

25 Q And is that the person that you found the drugs on

FRANK FINCH

1 that day?

2 A Yes, ma'am.

3 Q Or that Agent Tracy found the drugs on. Thank you.

4 MS. CAMPBELL: I don't have anything further.

5 THE COURT: Cross?

6 MR. RUFFIN: May it please the Court?

7 THE COURT: Yes, sir.

8 CROSS EXAMINATION

9 BY MR. RUFFIN:

10 Q Agent Finch, Special Agent Finch, is that --

11 A Not special agent, I'm a task force. You can call me
12 whatever.

13 Q You said that Mr. Spears fit the description that 14 y'all had been given.

15 A I didn't say he fit the description.

16 Q That was one of the reasons that you followed him,
17 right?

18 A One of the reasons we followed him was the 19 description we had been given was a black male coming from 20 New York, we had a black male coming off the Chinese bus
21 line.

22 Q Correct.

23 A And he also, him and his girlfriend kept looking back
24 at us.

25 Q As they were walking away.

FRANK FINCH

1 A As they were walking away where everybody else was
2 just kind of milling around.

3 Q And you were following him, correct?

4 A No, initially we weren't. Initially we were looking
5 at the passengers that just got off.

6 Q Right.

7 A As we were canvassing that area and as we're looking 8 then they start looking back, which is suspicious in 9 nature.

10 Q And that's when y'all started to follow them.

11 A Then we began walking towards them, yes.

12 Q Okay. So you were looking for a black male getting 13 off a bus.

14 A Yes.

15 Q Did you see any other black males get off of that bus?

16 A I can't recall if there's any other black males on 17 the bus.

18 Q Did you talk to any males that got off the bus?

19 A Once we got through we had some people at the other
20 bus, we talked to some people off that one.

21 Q Off of the other bus.

22 A Yes.

23 Q Okay. Now, the tip that you got did not say that the 24 black male was with a female.

25 A The tip was real general in nature, it said black

FRANK FINCH

1 male coming from New York with heroin.

2 Q Okay.

3 A On the Chinese bus line.

4 Q Got you.

5 MR. RUFFIN: I don't have any further questions, Your
6 Honor.

7 THE COURT: Redirect?

8 MS. CAMPBELL: No, sir.

9 THE COURT: Have a good day. Thank you, Agent Finch.
10 Call your next witness.

11 MS. WALKER: Your Honor, the State calls Dayle
12 Blackmon.

13 The witness, DAYLE BLACKMON, was first duly sworn
14 and testified as follows:

15 THE CLERK: Have a seat in the witness stand and state
16 your full name for the record.

17 THE COURT: Dayle Blackmon.

18 DIRECT EXAMINATION

19 BY MS. WALKER:

20 Q Good afternoon. Where are you currently employed?

21 A Richland County Sheriff's Department.

22 Q And what do you do at the sheriff's department.

23 A I am currently the asset forfeiture specialist.

24 Q Back in 2012 what did you do?

25 A I was the evidence custodian.

DAYLE BLACKMON

1 Q When you say evidence custodian, will you tell the
2 jury what the evidence custodian does?

3 A I was the supervisor over the evidence room, and at 4 that time I had I believe three people working for me. We 5 have take in evidence, we sign evidence out to the 6 officers, to the solicitor's office or whoever may need it
7 at that time.

8 Q When you take in evidence, are there certain 9 procedures that you follow when you take evidence in?

10 A Yes, ma'am.

11 Q What are those procedures?

12 A They will bring the evidence to us, we log it in, we
13 assign it a number and we have a label that we put on it
14 to keep track of it on our system. We file it in a
15 certain area of the evidence room. Then if someone comes 16 to log it out, then we have to scan it, we use a bar code
17 scanner that will scan these numbers and we sign it out to 18 whoever is picking it up.

19 Q And in order to accept evidence into the evidence
20 room, are there certain packaging requirements that that 21 evidence must meet?

22 A Yes, ma'am.

23 Q What are those requirements?

24 A They have to be sealed, initialed and dated by the 25 person that is entering these into evidence.

DAYLE BLACKMON

1 Q And what is the purpose of that?

2 A So that no one can tamper with it.

3 Q And while the evidence is in the evidence room, is it
4 tampered with in any way?

5 A No, ma'am.

6 Q Is it removed from the packaging or does it remained
7 sealed?

8 A It remains sealed.

9 Q And once the evidence is turned over it is still 10 sealed?

11 A Yes.

12 Q I want to show you what's been marked as State's
13 Exhibit Number 1 and ask you if you recognize this?

14 A Yes, ma'am.

15 Q And how do you recognize that?

16 A This is one of our evidence property bags, and this
17 is what we -- this is the bar code that we put on them.
18 And this one has been logged out and then logged back in,
19 resealed from the lab.

20 Q And when it was logged out, to whom was it logged out
21 to?

22 A Tara Kinney.

23 Q Is she an analyst?

24 A Yes, ma'am, in the lab.

25 Q But while it was in your possession or before it was

DAYLE BLACKMON

1 actually in your possession it was sealed and packaged.

2 A Yeah. It was sealed in the bag that's inside there.

3 Q The smaller plastic bag?

4 A Yes.

5 MS. WALKER: Your Honor, at this point the State seeks
6 to move Exhibit Number 1 into evidence.

7 MR. HAWKS: Objection, Your Honor, based on all my
8 prior suppression motions.

9 THE COURT: Other than chain.

10 MR. HAWKS: Other than chain.

11 THE COURT: All right. My ruling on that is the same.
12 State's Number 1 is admitted over defense objections.

13 (The cocaine was received as State's 1.)

14 MS. WALKER: Thank you, Your Honor. Your Honor, I
15 have no further questions.

16 THE COURT: Cross?

17 MR. HAWKS: I have nothing from this witness.

18 THE COURT: Have a nice day. Thank you, ma'am. All
19 right. Call your next witness.

20 MS. WALKER: Your Honor, at this time the State rests.

21 THE COURT: All right. Ladies and gentlemen, the
22 State has rested its case, that is the evidence that you
23 will hear from them in their case in chief. At this point
24 in time I have a matter of law which I must discuss outside
25 of your presence. If you will please return to your jury

CLOSING ARGUMENTS

1 in the middle of it or something like that, but we'll try
2 to make it all the way through my charge on the law before
3 we take a break. All right. Thank you. Ms. Walker?

4 MS. WALKER: Thank you, Your Honor. May it please the 5 Court?

6 THE COURT: Yes, ma'am.

7 MS. WALKER: Good afternoon. Well, it's been a long
8 day, but before I actually start talking about the facts of 9 the case and I have something I want to get to, I want to 10 thank you for the time and service that you've had over the 11 past two days with being selected for this jury and sitting
12 attentively and patiently and listening to the evidence
13 that was presented here this morning and this afternoon. I
14 know when you were driving here Tuesday morning trying to 15 figure out exactly what jury service was going to entail
16 you didn't know if you would get selected for a jury, and 17 if you did get selected for a jury what type of jury would 18 that be. Would it be a civil jury or a criminal jury?
19 Would there be drugs involved or a car accident? And as 20 you guys were anticipating the type of case that you would 21 be listening to, Ms. Campbell and I were preparing this
22 case and trying to figure out what type of defense we need
23 to prepare for. Because sometimes when we go to trial in 24 these courtrooms the defense is that, "It wasn't me. You 25 have the wrong guy, I'm not the one who did it," or some

CLOSING ARGUMENTS

1 other misunderstanding of that nature. But in this case
2 with these facts when the drugs are found in your pants and
3 you acknowledge bringing them down here from New York for a
4 couple thousand dollars, it's very hard to come up with
5 what type of defense we should be anticipating and fighting
6 in this. As Mr. Ruffin opened this morning I still had no
7 idea what the defense was because we've talked about the 8 founding fathers, we have talked about the 12 of you having
9 to keep the country from falling into the hands of tyrants
10 and into utter tyranny. We talked about presidential 11 elections and voting and jury rooms, but the one thing that 12 Mr. Ruffin absolutely refused to acknowledge in any way are 13 the facts of this case. And I get why he did it. If I was 14 sitting on that other side that would be an attractive
15 defense too. Because it's not helpful in this case to talk
16 about the facts when your client admits guilt, when he has 17 the drugs on him and there are multiple people who can come
18 in here and testify to his guilt, then by all means just 19 don't talk about the facts. As they began to question
20 witnesses in their cross-examination of witnesses there was 21 a theme that kept recurring in their questions. You had a
22 tip, you had a tip about the black male, you stopped this 23 black male when he got off of the bus. And the tip was the 24 black male came from New York. So don't talk about the 25 case, but then suddenly accuse people over here of acting

CLOSING ARGUMENTS

1 in a racist way. Ladies and gentlemen, if those were the
2 facts of this case, they were out stopping every young
3 black male or every black male that say saw getting off
4 from that bus from New York I would have been the first
5 person to stand up in this courtroom and fight against 6 that. That's not what happened. Because unfortunately for 7 these defense attorneys and unfortunately for their
8 defendant, sometimes a tip is accurate. Sometimes there
9 really is a black male on a bus from New York bringing his 10 poison into our community and that's what happened in this 11 case. There are certain laws that the Judge is going to 12 tell you about. The same laws that make you the judges of 13 the facts of this case make Judge Hood the Judge of the law
14 in this case and what is appropriate to discuss to the jury
15 and what is not appropriate to discuss. He's going to talk
16 to you about the types of evidence that are generally
17 presented during a trial; direct evidence and 18 circumstantial evidence. Direct evidence directly proves
19 the existence of a fact and does not require deduction.
20 Circumstantial evidence is proof of a chain of facts and
21 circumstances indicating the existence of a fact. Crimes
22 may be proven by circumstantial evidence. The law makes no
23 distinction between the weight or the value to be given to 24 either direct or circumstantial evidence. However, to the 25 extent the State relies on circumstantial evidence, all of

CLOSING ARGUMENTS

1 the circumstances must be consistent with each other, and
2 when taken together point conclusively to the guilt of the 3 accused beyond a reasonable doubt. If these circumstances
4 merely portrayed the defendant's behavior as suspicious,
5 the proof has failed. The State has the burden of proving
6 the defendant guilty beyond a reasonable doubt. This
7 burden rests with the State regardless of whether the State
8 relies on direct evidence, circumstantial evidence or some 9 combination of the two. Direct evidence directly proves
10 the existence of the fact, it does not require deduction.
11 We don't to deduce that the drugs are his, we don't have to 12 guess at that, they were in his pockets and he admitted to 13 bringing them down here for money. We have don't have to 14 deduce as to what his intentions were. "We were going to 15 give them to a guy for a couple thousand dollars." We don't 16 have to guess at a lot of things in this case because the 17 defendant told Investigator Gwyn those things. What we do
18 have to do is prove to you that the defendant possessed
19 over 10 grams of crack cocaine, and we have to prove that 20 to you beyond a reasonable doubt. Proof beyond a
21 reasonable doubt is proof that leaves you firmly convinced
22 of the defendant's guilt. There are very few things in 23 this world that we know with absolutely certainly, and in 24 criminal cases the law does not require proof that 25 overcomes every possible doubt. If based on your

CLOSING ARGUMENTS

1 consideration of the evidence you are firmly convinced,
2 firmly convinced that the defendant is guilty of the crime
3 charged you must find him guilty. If on the other hand you
4 think there's a real possibility that he is not guilty, you
5 must give him the benefit of the doubt and find him not
6 guilty. And in order to determine whether or not what the 7 officers testified to, whether the defendant actually had 8 the crack in his pants, you have to look at each and every 9 officer and judge his or her credibility, and in doing that
10 you're going to look at the credibility of the witnesses,
11 the demeanor on the witness stand. Was the witness
12 forthright or hesitant? Was the witness's testimony
13 consistent? Was it corroborated? Was it corroborated?
14 Did we tell you he had crack and then provide a chain of 15 custody and show you the crack cocaine? Did all of the 16 officers come in and not say exactly the same thing?
17 Because if they had said exactly the same thing then
18 everybody in this courtroom should be suspicious of that,
19 that those people had gotten together and colluded a story.
20 There were slight differences. "I didn't have my gun but 21 other officers had their gun." Everybody was consistent
22 about seeing a gun and do this number so that way you don't
23 see that bulge in his pockets. What did you hear? How did
24 you perceive the tip you got? They didn't all have the 25 exact same wording because the exact same wording is

CLOSING ARGUMENTS

1 suspicious. But they all had there was someone coming in
2 from New York, a black male coming in from New York with 3 drugs on him, and low and behold that's exactly what they
4 found. In order to prove to you that the substance that
5 was found was actually crack cocaine, he brought in a
6 witness that was Tara Kinney and she was qualified as an
7 expert. And before we went further with the questions, I
8 think Ms. Campbell was questioning her, the Judge stopped
9 and told y'all about an expert witness, and that unlike me
10 or Ms. Campbell or other people in this courtroom, we can't 11 just come up here and testify to our opinions because we're 12 not experts in anything. But because of her training and 13 education and background, Tara Kinney is. Expert witness
14 testimony. The Rules of Evidence ordinarily do not permit
15 witnesses to testify to opinions or conclusions, an 16 exception to this rule exists for expert witnesses. A
17 witness who by education and experience has become an 18 expert by some art, science profession or calling may state
19 an opinion as to relevant and material matter in which the 20 witness claims to be an expert. And they also state the 21 reasons for that opinion. You should consider any expert
22 opinion received in evidence in this case and like any 23 other evidence give it the weight you think it serves. If 24 you decide that the opinion of an expert witness is not
25 based on sufficient education or experience, or if you

CLOSING ARGUMENTS

1 conclude that the reasons given in support of the opinion
2 are not sound disregard that. But in this case we have
3 given you our expert. There's not really any contradiction
4 or disagreement about whether or not this substance is
5 crack cocaine. And finally the charge in this case is 6 trafficking in crack cocaine. A person who knowingly
7 sales, manufactures, delivers, purchases or brings into
8 this state or provides financial assistance or otherwise
9 aids, abets, attempts or conspirers to sell, manufacture or 10 deliver or purchase or bring into this state, or is 11 knowingly in actual or constructive possession, or who 12 knowingly attempts to come in actual or constructive
13 possession of ten grams or more of cocaine base or crack
14 base. In this case we have a person who is delivering by 15 bringing into this state a quantity of crack cocaine. This 16 element is met. The other three elements of the offense of 17 trafficking crack cocaine that the substance involved was,
18 in fact, crack cocaine. No reasonable person is going to 19 get up here and argue to you that it wasn't crack cocaine.
20 That the defendant had possession of that crack cocaine,
21 either actual possession or constructive possession. In 22 this case we have actual possession. It was in his pants,
23 he acknowledged that it was his and that he was bringing it
24 into the state. And that there were 10 grams or more of 25 crack cocaine. I think that's where a lot of those

CLOSING ARGUMENTS

1 questions that Mr. Hawks was asking -- that Mr. Hawks was
2 asking were, "What was the mixture? Did you separate it?
3 Did you figure out what percent of it was being cut and
4 which of it was pure crack cocaine?" There were a lot of
5 questions asked and in this state it doesn't matter. Once
6 you have this final product, the weight of a controlled
7 substance referenced in this article is the weight of the 8 substance in the pure form or any compound or mixture
9 thereof. So once we have this final product that this 10 defendant was bringing into our community and we weigh 11 that, this 11 -- or over 11 grams is the weight that 12 matters. It is not about deciphering who cut it with what 13 weight and what percentage they used to cut it. Those are 14 the laws that apply in this case and Judge Hood is going to 15 go over those laws with you as well. The witnesses that we 16 brought forward in this case had direct evidence and direct
17 testimony about what happened that day, they were law
18 enforcement witnesses who went to the scene because of a
19 tip. You had multiple agencies involved in trying to stop
20 the people coming down from New York, they call them the 21 chinese bus lines, and bringing in drugs and other illegal
22 goods into our communities. I think it was the Department
23 of Homeland Security was involved, the DEA and the Richland
24 County Sheriff's Department. They were sharing these tips
25 back and forth, and that once they observed a person, a

CLOSING ARGUMENTS

1 black male get off of the bus they didn't just go up and
2 start stopping and frisking every black male that got off
3 that bus or every person that got off that bus, they
4 observed, they used their training, they did what every
5 reasonable and responsible citizen wants them to do, talk
6 to people, find out what's going on. When someone starts
7 acting suspiciously and they start reaching for stuff,
8 don't just pull out a gun and start shooting them, pat them
9 down to make sure that you're safe and that they're safe
10 too. Once they did that Investigator Dennis Tracy told you
11 he felt a bulge that he knew from his experience and 12 training -- I think he said he's done over 2,000 drug
13 cases -- that that substance was going to end up being 14 crack cocaine, and lo and behold it was. They just keep 15 wanting to attack the officers, "Well, why did you do it
16 this way? Why did you start talking to them? Why did you
17 pat them down? Why didn't you go into his pants once you
18 felt that hard substance?" I guess Mr. Hawks would have 19 them feel what they believed to be crack cocaine and then
20 just let it go and poison 60 people or so with that
21 amount -- that that amount of drugs could actually serve.
22 This is a case in which officers did things by the book.
23 Mr. Hawks asked questions ad nauseam about a preliminary
24 hearing. Investigator Gwyn said there was a preliminary 25 hearing, he testified about the things that they did at

CLOSING ARGUMENTS

1 that hearing, and that the Judge bound that over to another
2 court for trial and here we are. Because every defendant
3 no matter the charge how serious or how insignificant one
4 person may believe it to be is entitled to confront or to 5 have his attorneys confront the witnesses against him and
6 that's what we've done here today. As Mr. Ruffin said we
7 are practicing the greatest legal system in the world right
8 here in this courtroom, it guarantees the right to be 9 treated fairly and the right to a fair trial. What it does 10 not guarantee is a pass because defense attorneys want to 11 insinuate racism or inject race into the case where there
12 is none. What it does not guarantee is, "It's a drug case, 13 no one is dead, who cares?" It does not guarantee that he 14 gets a free pass for that. What this guarantees is that 15 this defendant is held to the same standard that every 16 other person in this community is held to. And instead of 17 going to school or having a job in order to better himself
18 and provide a better life for his family and a better life
19 for his community, this defendant chose to not only conduct
20 illegal activity in his own town of Jamaica Queens in New 21 York, but to bring it back into our community, too. Now,
22 if you don't believe that we've met this burden, if you
23 don't believe that we have proven this defendant's guilt,
24 if you don't believe that that 11 grams of crack cocaine
25 came from this defendant as was testified to, if you

CLOSING ARGUMENTS

1 believe that for some reason all of these law enforcement
2 officers have gotten together and conspired to frame this
3 guy for 11 grams of crack cocaine, let him go. That is not
4 only your right but it's your duty as jurors. But on the 5 other hand, if you believe the credible admissible evidence
6 that has been brought before you, that on March 29th
7 of 2012 this defendant had those drugs on him that tested
8 to be 11 grams, then hold him accountable for his actions
9 and find him guilty of trafficking in crack cocaine. Thank 10 you very much.

11 THE COURT: Thank you, Ms. Walker. Mr. Hawks?

12 MR. HAWKS: If it pleases the Court, Your Honor?

13 THE COURT: Yes, sir.

14 MR. HAWKS: Good afternoon, ladies and gentlemen. I
15 don't believe these guys, I think y'all have figured that 16 out by now. I don't believe their story, I'm not sure if 17 y'all do either. But the reason that I am so meticulous 18 when questioning these officers is because this case is 19 three years old, it happened three years ago and they only
20 took four pages worth of notes to bring this case in front
21 of you. And those notes are inconsistent, they do not
22 match up with each other. Deputy Gwyn even testified at a
23 hearing and his testimony didn't make sense. He acted like
24 he was there, then he gets up in court and tells you that 25 he wasn't here. I don't know which it was. That sort of

CLOSING ARGUMENTS

1 thing is reasonable doubt, not believing what the officers
2 say. You don't have to not believe everything they say,
3 but if you don't believe some of it, that is reasonable
4 doubt. All this stuff about insinuating racism, I have no
5 idea what she's talking about. My point with the tip is
6 that it's generic, it's bland. How many black people ride
7 the China bus to Columbia? There's two buses every day.
8 How many black people got off that bus? And they only
9 talked to Mr. Spears as he walks away? Where's that big 10 map they had? They see him at the bus stop up here. He's 11 acting nervous, he is paying excessive attention. Well,
12 why didn't they question him right then and there? He gets 13 500 feet away to the post office, now all of the sudden he 14 is suspicious. I don't buy it.

15 MS. WALKER: Objection, Your Honor. Mr. Hawks is 16 repeatedly stating his opinion as to the credibility of the 17 witnesses.

18 THE COURT: Overruled.

19 MR. HAWKS: Thank you, Your Honor. Sorry about that.
20 One of the reasons they said they were suspicious is 21 because they kept looking back. Well, I don't know about
22 you guys, but I think I would be looking back if three 23 federal agents were chasing me down the street. Now, they 24 don't want to say the word chase or follow, did you notice
25 that? They want to say that we were just wanting to talk

CLOSING ARGUMENTS

1 with them. "We were walking at a quicker pace so we could
2 shorten the distance." You didn't need to shorten the
3 distance, they could have talked to them at the bus stop,
4 chose not to. And what about all this stuff that
5 Mr. Spears supposedly said? I'm not sure I buy that
6 either. Let's talk about these numbers. Someone paid him
7 $2,200 to bring 11 grams of crack to Columbia to sell it
8 for 1,000? That doesn't make any sense. How is this guy
9 that's spending $2,200 supposed to make any money? I don't 10 believe it. And what else does he say? "If I would have 11 saw the cops there I wouldn't have been there." Well, how 12 would he have accomplished that? Just poof, he's gone? He
13 was already on the bus. It doesn't make any sense. There
14 is no written confession, none of this stuff is in writing.
15 There's no videotape of this session, no audio recording,
16 nothing. We're just supposed to believe that they said
17 these things because they are police officers, that's the 18 only reason, but you don't have to. You don't have to 19 believe it just because they're law enforcement. This 20 stuff about poisoning people and all this stuff she said to 21 inflame your passions, I don't understand it. If 60 people
22 were to use that crack, it would have been by their own
23 choice. No one would have forced them. Now, I want to 24 talk about my partner's opening because I found it very 25 impressive and I found everything he said to be extremely

CLOSING ARGUMENTS

1 important for a jury to hear. Y'all have an awesome power
2 here today. You can find him not guilty, you can, that is
3 you're right that each individual one of you have. It
4 doesn't matter what they say, it doesn't matter what Judge
5 Hood says, you have a choice, guilty or not guilty. And I
6 hope you include all of the things that we talked about in 7 that choice. Not just whether or not Mr. Spears supposedly 8 had crack in his waistband, that the officers somehow felt
9 through his pants, through the plastic bag, through the 10 napkin and he just knew it was crack right then and there.
11 I don't buy that, I don't know if y'all buy it either.
12 While they're questioning him he's not giving him the 13 answers they want. "Do you have any drugs? Do you have 14 any counterfeit items?" Yeah, maybe he hesitates, I don't 15 know, I wasn't there, but he says no. They're not getting
16 the answers they want. So what do they do? They frisk him
17 for their own safety, that's what they're saying. But they 18 didn't have any safety concerns throughout the entire 19 discussion until the end because they weren't getting the 20 answers that they wanted. So they decided they would do it
21 their own way, frisk him, didn't find a weapon, they found
22 a hard ball. I just don't buy it. This word, the word
23 trafficking. I don't know about you guys but when I first
24 started working here I did not know what trafficking was.
25 I assumed that trafficking was a lot of drugs. Apparently

CLOSING ARGUMENTS

1 it's a very small amount of drugs. That's trafficking?
2 Can y'all see that? That's smaller than a golf ball.
3 Trafficking. And yeah, I understand that the law says,
4 that purity doesn't matter and that as long as it's one
5 substance that's been compounded and the weight is fine.
6 But we don't know how much of that is actually cocaine,
7 we're never going to know. The analyst can't testify to 8 it, I can't testify to it, we have no idea. And these 9 officers -- and I'm sure they're fine people, I'm not
10 attacking their character as individuals, what I'm 11 attacking is their ability to investigate a case. Four 12 pieces of paper, that's what I have. How much stuff was 13 missing from those notes? I'd say a lot. And I don't know
14 why they didn't want you to hear that stuff, and I think
15 all that stuff adds up to reasonable doubt. Do y'all know
16 for sure that they pulled that crack from Eric Spears? I
17 don't. And no, you don't have to know for absolute
18 certainty. I think you ought to know more than you know
19 now, though. Ms. Walker mentioned something else. There's 20 no victims in this case except the 60 people that are going
21 to poison themselves, I guess. But you don't see any
22 victims here. You don't see any drug dealers here watching
23 concerned about what the State is doing. They don't care,
24 they're still out there dealing drugs. At the beginning of 25 the trial Judge Hood, he explained to you how important

CLOSING ARGUMENTS

1 this case was to both sides, to the Judge, to the Court, to
2 this part of the State. But I think it's really only
3 important to one person, Mr. Spears. They're going home at 4 the end of the day. Mr. Ruffin is going home, Judge Hood
5 is going home, everybody is going home. I don't know
6 what's going to happen to Mr. Spears, but it's not good,
7 that's for sure. For three years this case sat, now all of 8 the sudden it's important to the State. "We've got to 9 convict this guy." I don't buy that either. The reason we 10 continue to talk about the tip, continue to talk about how 11 this man was approached was because it just doesn't make 12 sense. You get off a bus and you get your luggage, you're 13 with your girlfriend, wife, whoever it was, you start
14 walking away. They kept saying that we don't know where he 15 was walking, towards the post office, there was 16 neighborhoods back there, apartment complex, residential
17 neighborhoods, did it ever cross their mind that he was 18 walking home or walking to where he was going to stay? He 19 had all of that big luggage, I'm pretty sure that's where 20 he was going. What about that luggage? Didn't find any 21 drugs in there. They didn't talk about searching the 22 luggage. I don't even know if they told you the woman's 23 name or whether they searched her or searched her bags.
24 Ladies and gentlemen, I know I didn't have a ton to work
25 with. Okay. That much is clear. They're saying that he

CLOSING ARGUMENTS

1 had crack on him. But what I want you to do when you go
2 back there is just think about all the things that don't
3 add up and don't make sense. Think about why they didn't
4 tell you about some of that stuff. Give Mr. Spears a
5 chance. Each one of you has a decision to make, and you
6 could make it however you please. Do not let them sway
7 you, do not let your other jurors sway you "do not vote not
8 guilty." If you think what they did was wrong then vote
9 not guilty. Maybe then the next time when they're trying
10 to investigate this kind of thing they'll do a more
11 complete job, they won't harass a man as he is walking away
12 with his luggage. That's what I want you to think about.
13 I hope when you do that you'll realize there is a
14 reasonable doubt in this case, and I hope you find him not 15 guilty. Thank you.

16 THE COURT: All right. Thank you, Mr. Hawks. All
17 right, ladies and gentlemen, I am now going to instruct you
18 on the law in South Carolina as it pertains to this case.
19 All right. The indictment has charged the defendant with 20 trafficking in cocaine between ten and 28 grams. I remind
21 you that the fact that the defendant was arrested, charged
22 and indicted in this case is not evidence in this case, and 23 it cannot be considered by you as evidence of guilt, nor 24 does it create any presumption of innocence or inference of 25 guilt. This document, that being the indictment, is simply

JURY CHARGE

1 the formal written instrument which contains the charge
2 made against the defendant. It is the formal document by
3 which this case is brought into this Court. Now, I remind
4 you that during this trial you and I have certain duties to 5 perform. As the trial Judge it is my responsibility to 6 preside over the trial of this case, and I also have the 7 duty to rule on the admissibility of the evidence that was 8 offered during this trial. You are to consider only the 9 competent evidence that is before you. You are to consider
10 only the testimony which has been presented from this 11 witness stand, any exhibits which have been made a part of 12 the record in this case and any stipulations of counsel. I
13 have the additional duty to charge you the law applicable
14 to this case. As the presiding judge, I am the sole judge
15 of the law of this case, and it is your duty as jurors to 16 accept and apply the law as I now state it to you. If you
17 already have any ideas what the law is or what the law
18 ought to be and it does not agree with what I tell you the 19 law is, you must abandon this idea because you are sworn to 20 accept the law and apply the law exactly as I state it to 21 you. In every case tried in this court before a jury, the 22 jury becomes the sole and exclusive judge of the facts. A
23 trial judge cannot state, comment on or make any statement
24 to a trial jury about the facts in a case. Since you are 25 the sole judge of the facts, you are not to infer from

JURY CHARGE

1 anything that I have said during this trial in ruling upon
2 the admissibility of evidence or otherwise, or anything
3 that I say now during the course of this instruction to you
4 that I have any opinion about the facts of this case. The 5 law does not allow me to have an opinion about the facts in 6 this case, this is a matter solely for you to determine.
7 As jurors it is your duty to determine the effect, the 8 value, the weight and the truth of the evidence presented
9 during this trial. Now, the defendant has pled not guilty
10 to this indictment, and that plea puts the burden of proof
11 on the State to prove the defendant guilty. A person
12 charged with committing a criminal offense in South
13 Carolina is never required to prove himself innocent. I
14 charge you that it is an important rule of law that a
15 defendant in a criminal trial, no matter what the 16 seriousness of the charge may be, will always be presumed 17 to be innocent of the crime for which the indictment was 18 issued unless guilt has been proven by evidence satisfying
19 you of that guilt beyond a reasonable doubt. This 20 presumption of innocence does not end when you begin your 21 deliberation, but it accompanies the defendant throughout
22 the trial until you reach a verdict of guilt based upon
23 evidence satisfying you of that guilt beyond a reasonable
24 doubt. This presumption of innocence is like a robe of 25 righteousness placed about the shoulders of the defendant

JURY CHARGE

1 which remains with the defendant until it has been stripped
2 from the defendant by evidence that satisfies you of the 3 defendant's guilt beyond a reasonable doubt. The 4 presumption of innocence is not a mere illegal theory, it
5 is not just a legal phrase, it is a substantial right to 6 which every defendant is entitled unless you, the jury, are
7 satisfied from the evidence of the defendant's guilt beyond
8 a reasonable doubt. Now, the State has the burden of 9 proving the defendant guilty beyond a reasonable doubt.
10 Some of you may have served as a juror in a civil case
11 where you were told that it is only necessary to prove that 12 a fact is more likely true than not true such as by the 13 greater weight or the preponderance of the evidence. In 14 criminal cases the State's proof must be more powerful than 15 that, it must be proof beyond a reasonable doubt. Proof
16 beyond a reasonable doubt is proof that leaves you firmly
17 convinced of the defendant's guilt. There are very few
18 things in this world that we know with absolute certainty,
19 and in criminal cases the law does not require proof that 20 overcomes every possible doubt. If based upon your 21 consideration of the evidence you are firmly convinced that 22 the defendant is guilty, you must find the defendant
23 guilty. If on the other hand you think there is a real 24 possibility that the defendant is not guilty, you must give 25 the defendant the benefit of the doubt and find him not

JURY CHARGE

1 guilty. As I told you in the beginning, there are two
2 types of evidence which are generally presented during a
3 trial, direct and circumstantial. Direct evidence is the 4 testimony of a person who claims to have actual knowledge
5 of a fact such as an eyewitness. It is evidence which 6 immediately establishes the main fact to be proved.
7 Circumstantial evidence is proof of a chain of facts and
8 circumstances that indicate the existence of a fact. It is 9 evidence which immediately establishes collateral facts
10 from which the main fact may be inferred. Circumstantial
11 evidence is based on inference and not on personal
12 knowledge or observation. The law makes absolutely no
13 distinction between the weight or the value to be given to 14 either direct or circumstantial evidence, nor is a greater 15 degree of certainty required of circumstantial evidence
16 than of direct. You should weigh all of the evidence in 17 this case. After weighing all of the evidence if you are 18 not convinced of the guilt of the defendant beyond a
19 reasonable doubt, you must find the defendant not guilty.
20 Now, you must determine the credibility of the witnesses
21 who have testified in this case. Credibility is just a big 22 word for believability. It becomes your duty as a juror to 23 analyze and to evaluate the evidence and to determine which 24 evidence convinces you of its truth. In determining the 25 believability of the witnesses who have testified in this

JURY CHARGE

1 case, you may believe one witness over several witnesses or
2 several witnesses over one. You may believe a part of a
3 witness's testimony and reject another part of the 4 witness's testimony. You may believe the testimony of a
5 witness entirely or reject the testimony of a witness
6 entirely. You may consider whether any witness has 7 exhibited to you any interest, bias, prejudice or other
8 motive in this case. You may also consider the appearance
9 and the manner or demeanor of a witness while on the stand.
10 Now, the evidence from which you are to decide what the 11 facts are consists of the sworn testimony of the witnesses
12 both on direct and cross-examination, the exhibits that 13 have been received into evidence. Some things are not 14 evidence and you may not consider them. Number one, the 15 arguments and the statements by the lawyers are not 16 evidence. The lawyers are not witnesses. What they have 17 said in their opening statements or closing arguments and 18 at other times is intended to help you interpret the 19 evidence, but it is not evidence. If the facts as you
20 remember them are different from what the lawyers have 21 stated, your memory controls. The questions and the 22 objections by the lawyers are not evidence. Attorneys have 23 a duty to their clients to object when they believe a
24 question is improper under the Rules of Evidence. You
25 should not be influenced by my ruling on any objection

JURY CHARGE

1 during the course of this trial. Also, anything that you
2 may have seen or heard when court was not in session is not
3 in evidence. You are to decide this case solely on the 4 evidence received in this courtroom at this trial. Now,
5 under the law of this state a defendant may be tried even
6 if the defendant does not attend the trial, but the fact
7 that the defendant is not present may not be considered
8 against the defendant in any manner whatsoever. I also
9 instruct you and emphasize that the fact that the defendant
10 did not testify in this case is not a factor to be 11 considered by you in any way in your deliberations and in 12 your consideration on the question of guilt or innocence of 13 the defendant. It must not be considered by you in any 14 manner whatsoever. A defendant has a constitutional right
15 to remain silent, and the assertion of this right must not 16 be considered by you in your deliberations. I repeat,
17 under your oath you are to draw no conclusion whatsoever
18 from the fact that the defendant in this case did not
19 testify. The fact that this defendant did not testify
20 should not even be discussed in the jury room. The burden
21 of proof, as I have told you from the beginning, is upon
22 the State. The defendant is not required to prove his 23 innocence. The burden of proof remains on the State to 24 prove guilt beyond a reasonable doubt. Now, in order to 25 establish criminal liability criminal intent is required.

JURY CHARGE

1 For example, the mental state required to be proven by the
2 State might be purpose, intent, knowledge, recklessness or
3 negligence, criminal negligence. Criminal intent must be
4 proven by the State beyond a reasonable doubt. Criminal
5 intent is always a matter that must be determined by the 6 jury from the circumstances that surround the situation.
7 There is no way to prove intent to a mathematical
8 certainty. There is no way medical science can dissect a
9 person's brain and determine what that person had in mind,
10 so the law says that criminal intent may be inferred from 11 the circumstances that are shown to have existed. This is 12 how you make a determination of whether or not the element
13 requiring intent was present. It is not necessary to 14 establish intent by direct and positive evidence, but 15 intent may be established by inference in the same way as 16 any other fact by taking into consideration the acts of the 17 parties and all the facts and circumstances of the case.
18 Criminal intent is a mental state, a conscious wrongdoing.
19 It is up to you to determine what the defendant intended to 20 do based upon the circumstances shown to have existed.
21 Criminal intent can arise from an action or a failure to 22 act. It may arise from negligence, recklessness or an
23 indifference to duty, or to consequences that is considered
24 by the law to be the equivalent of criminal intent. Now,
25 the Rules of Evidence ordinarily do not permit witnesses to

JURY CHARGE

1 testify to opinions or conclusions. An exception to this
2 rule exists for witnesses that we call expert witnesses.
3 This is a witness who by education and experience has 4 become an expert in some art, science, profession or
5 calling. That person may state an opinion as to relevant
6 material matter in which the witness claims to be an
7 expert. It may also state the reasons for their opinion.
8 You should consider any expert opinion received in evidence
9 in this case, and like any other evidence give it the 10 weight that you believe it deserves. If you believe that 11 the opinion of an expert witness is not based upon
12 sufficient education and experience, or if you conclude
13 that the reasons given in support of the opinion are not
14 sound, or that the opinion is outweighed by the other
15 evidence, you may disregard the opinion entirely. An 16 expert witness's testimony is to be given no greater weight
17 than that of other witnesses simply because the witness is 18 an expert. Further you are not required to accept an 19 expert's opinion even though it is not contradicted. I'm 20 now going to move on to the charge that Mr. Spears is 21 charged with. The defendant is charged with trafficking in 22 crack cocaine between ten and 28 grams. The State must 23 prove beyond a reasonable doubt that the defendant
24 knowingly sold, manufactured, cultivated, delivered,
25 purchased, brought into this state, provided financial

JURY CHARGE

1 assistance or otherwise aided, abetted, attempted or
2 conspired to sell, manufacture, cultivate, deliver,
3 purchase or bring into this state, was knowingly in actual 4 or constructive possession, or knowingly attempted to 5 become in actual or constructive possession of crack
6 cocaine. The State must also prove beyond a reasonable
7 doubt that the amount of crack cocaine was 10 grams or more
8 but less than 28 grams. The weight of any controlled
9 substance is the weight of the substance in pure form or 10 any compound or mixture thereof. Now, to prove
11 possession -- so I'm going to define the word possession
12 for you now. To prove possession, the State must prove 13 beyond a reasonable doubt that the defendant had both the 14 power and the intent to control the disposition or use of 15 the crack cocaine. Possession may either -- may be either
16 actual or constructive. Actual possession means that the 17 crack cocaine was in the actual physical custody of the 18 defendant. Constructive possession means that the 19 defendant had dominion and control, or the right to 20 exercise dominion and control over either the crack cocaine
21 itself or the property on which the crack cocaine was 22 found. Mere presence at the scene where the drugs were
23 found is not enough to prove possession. The defendant's
24 knowledge and possession may be inferred when a substance
25 is found on property under the defendant's control.

JURY CHARGE

1 However, this inference is simply an evidentiary fact to be
2 taken into consideration by you along with the other
3 evidence in the case and to be given the weight you decide
4 it should have. Two or more people may have joint
5 possession of a drug. I'm almost done. Let me say
6 something to you about your deliberations. Deliberation is 7 defined as a careful consideration weighing up with a view
8 to a decision. The genius of our jury system is that it
9 allows 12 good men and women from 12 totally different
10 backgrounds, life experiences and perspectives to consider
11 the evidence, talk about it and ultimately reach a verdict.
12 We call them deliberations for a reason. You are to 13 consider the evidence in this case carefully and 14 deliberately and discuss it in a calm, thorough and 15 courteous manner. Remember, you are not a partisan or an 16 advocate for either side favoring one side or the other.
17 You are a judge. You are the judge of the facts. Your 18 sole interest is to find the truth from the evidence you
19 have heard in this courtroom. Listen to the views of your 20 fellow jurors. Consider other people's points and their 21 points of view, and talk through and discuss the evidence.
22 And remember, if you are doing something deliberately, you
23 are not in a big hurry, and you should not be in a hurry
24 here. This case is very important to both sides, this is 25 their only day in court. When you retire to your jury

JURY CHARGE

1 room, you should discuss the case with your fellow jurors
2 to reach agreement if you can do so. Your verdict must be
3 unanimous. Each of you must decide the case for yourself,
4 but you should do so only after you have impartially
5 considered all the evidence, discussed it with each other
6 and listened to the views of each other. Do not be afraid
7 to change your opinion if the discussion persuades you you
8 should, but do not come to a decision simply because other
9 jurors think it's right. It is important that you attempt
10 to reach a unanimous verdict but only if each of you can do
11 so after having made your own decision. Do not change an 12 honest belief about the weight and effect of the evidence
13 simply to reach a verdict. In other words, do not change
14 your opinion solely for the sake of reaching a verdict.

15 Okay. All right. So just a few more things. I'm going to 16 give you some instructions and then I'm going to give you
17 this verdict form. The first thing, your verdict must be 18 unanimous, that means all 12 of you must agree. The second
19 thing, you all have to be in the room to deliberate. So if 20 somebody needs to go smoke or somebody needs to go call
21 home and say I'm going to be an hour late or 30 minutes
22 late then deliberations have to stop unless all 12 are 23 present physically inside the room, otherwise you're not
24 allowed to deliberate. Next thing, even now as I'm about 25 to release you here in the next couple of minutes you're

JURY CHARGE

1 not allowed to deliberate. Okay. I have one more matter
2 that I have to take up with the attorneys. Your sign,
3 madam forelady, that you can deliberate is when the
4 evidence comes back in the room. Okay. So I'm finished
5 with all the legal matters with the attorneys and they all
6 have a chance to go through and make sure the right
7 evidence goes back, then one of the bailiffs will bring you
8 the evidence in the case. Once that evidence enters your 9 room you may then begin deliberating, until then you're
10 still not allowed to talk about the case. You can talk
11 about whether or not it's going to snow tonight, but you
12 can't talk about the case until the evidence comes in the 13 room. Okay. Now, one other thing, there is at no point in 14 time where I ever need to know the count. Okay. So when I
15 first started doing this I didn't know to say that and 16 jurors would all the time send me out a note, "Our count is 17 X to X." Your count is your count and I do not need to 18 know and it. Okay. That is for you to decide and for you
19 all to deal with in your jury room. There is no point in 20 time where you ever need to tell me specifically what the 21 count is. Okay. Now, this is your verdict form. Okay.
22 It's very simple. All the parties have reviewed it and 23 what it says is, "We, the jury, by unanimous consent find
24 the defendant as to the charge of trafficking crack cocaine
25 ten to 28 grams, not guilty or guilty." Okay. Madam

JURY CHARGE

1 Forelady, you'll check whatever box applies, date and it
2 sign it. There is no significance in the order in which I
3 put guilty and not guilty, I have to put one first and I
4 have to put one second. So don't read anything into the 5 order of it, I'm just forced to do one first. And this is 6 your verdict form and you will take this with you. And at 7 this point you will retire to your jury room, so do not
8 discuss the case until you see the evidence come into the 9 room. Thank you very much.

10 (The jury left the courtroom.)

11 THE COURT: All right. Any objection to the charge
12 other than those previously stated?

13 MS. WALKER: None, Your Honor.

14 MR. HAWKS: None from the defense.

15 THE COURT: All right. Check the documents. Make 16 sure what's supposed to go back goes back.

17 (The jury began deliberations.)

18 THE COURT: All right. It's my understanding that we 19 have a verdict.

20 (The jury returned to the courtroom with a 21 Verdict.)

22 THE BAILIFF: The jurors are all present, Your Honor.

23 THE COURT: Thank you, Mr. Hollis. Madam Forelady,
24 has the jury reached a verdict?

25 THE FOREPERSON: Yes, Your Honor. We have come to a

JURY VERDICT

1 unanimous decision.

2 THE COURT: Okay. You can hand it to Mr. Hollis.

3 Thank you, ma'am. All right. I find that the verdict is
4 in its proper form. It reads, "We, the jury, by unanimous
5 consent find the defendant, Eric Spears, as to the charge
6 of trafficking crack cocaine ten to 28 grams
7 on 2012-GS-40-2824, guilty. Dated February 18th of 2015,
8 signed Ms. Benson, foreperson. Ms. Benson, is this your
9 verdict and the verdict of your jury?

10 THE FOREPERSON: Yes, it is.

11 THE COURT: Is it unanimous?

12 THE FOREPERSON: Yes, it is.

13 THE COURT: Does anybody request polling?

14 MR. HAWKS: Yes, please, Your Honor.

15 THE COURT: All right. Ladies and gentlemen, the 16 clerk is going to ask you two questions, is this your 17 verdict, and is this still your verdict, and when your 18 number is called out, if you will please stand.

19 THE CLERK: Number 303, was this your verdict?

20 JUROR: Yes.

21 THE CLERK: Is it still your verdict?

22 JUROR: Yes.

23 THE CLERK: Number 228, was this your verdict?

24 JUROR: Yes.

25 THE CLERK: Is it still your verdict?

1 Spears for the purposes of sentencing. Does the State have
2 anything they wish introduce?

3 MS. CAMPBELL: Yes, Your Honor, I have two Court's
4 Exhibits, 4 and 5. Those would be his prior convictions
5 which would be enhancements, Your Honor. He does have
6 additional prior convictions, Your Honor, starting -- most 7 of them are in New York. It started in 1986, I believe he
8 was convicted of rape, and Ms. Walker can read you the rest
9 of them.

10 MS. WALKER: Give me one moment, Your Honor. Your 11 Honor, these are out of Virginia. In 2009 he has an 12 unauthorized use of a vehicle and an obstruction of 13 justice. Then the New York cases that Ms. Campbell just 14 referenced start his New York rap sheet. He has a burglary
15 third degree out of New York as well from 1988. He has an 16 additional burglary in the third degree. He has an escape.
17 He has -- while he was in prison, Your Honor, he was 18 charged and convicted of knowingly possessing dangerous
19 contraband, promoting prison contraband, criminal sale of 20 contraband, there are three counts of that. And once he
21 got out, Your Honor, he then had criminal possession of a
22 stolen credit card in '96. He had criminal possession of 23 property in the 5th degree. Going to 1997 he had more
24 property crimes including petty larceny, it looks like in 25 '98 he started with the drug dealing. There was criminal

1 sale of marijuana, there were two counts of that.
2 Aggregate unlicensed operation of a motor vehicle. In
3 2003, criminal possession of stolen property. In 2004
4 grand larceny, unauthorized use of a vehicle. Those are 5 all out of Brooklyn, Your Honor. And that's the extent of
6 his prior record. I'm sorry, no, it's not. He has a
7 possession with intent to distribute cocaine out of New
8 York as well. And those are both included -- those charges
9 are included in the Court's Exhibits that we had marked,
10 certified copies of those charges.

11 THE COURT: I'm not finding the CDR code that's on 12 here at all, it is -- I found it now.

13 MS. WALKER: Thank you.

14 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Hawks?

15 MR. HAWKS: Your Honor, before I mitigate, I wanted to 16 renew all my prior objections and ask for a retrial based 17 on them.

18 THE COURT: Okay. That motion is denied, your motions
19 are protected for the record.

20 MR. HAWKS: Thank you, Your Honor. I don't have a ton
21 to say, Judge. I would like you to take into account the 22 fact that it was barely over the ten gram threshold, and I
23 hope you don't count against him his presence here.
24 Obviously he was scared, he knew that he was probably going
25 to be convicted and he was probably going to go to jail for

1 25 years and it didn't seem like he had much confidence in
2 his attorneys, so I would just ask for you to show some
3 mercy. Twenty-five years is a lot for possessing a
4 substance. No one was hurt here. I just ask you to take
5 all of those things into account.

6 THE COURT: Thank you, Mr. Hawks.

7 MR. HAWKS: Oh, and one more thing, Your Honor, he was 8 on bond for three years without incident.

9 MS. WALKER: He was arrested --

10 MS. CAMPBELL: He was arrested at least once during 11 that time period.

12 MR. HAWKS: I was unaware of that.

13 MS. CAMPBELL: That was before you got him.

14 MS. WALKER: He was arrested several times.

15 THE COURT: So what's the second conviction that makes
16 this a third offense? That's my question. There is a
17 July 31st 2014. Excuse me, there's a December 22nd, 2004
18 conviction for possession with intent to distribute 19 cocaine, that's in the Eastern District of Virginia out of 20 the Richmond -- so that's in federal court. So that's one.

21 MS. WALKER: There should be -- you should have 22 another one up here.

23 THE COURT: The other one is out of New York?

24 MS. WALKER: Yes, Your Honor.

25 THE COURT: Okay. It says this is from 1991.

1 MS. CAMPBELL: Yes.

2 THE COURT: I thought there was a ten year rule.

3 MS. WALKER: There has to be one within ten years,
4 Your Honor, and then the other ones can be from whenever.

5 THE COURT: Okay. That's what I wanted to look at.
6 I'm not saying anybody is right or wrong --

7 MS. WALKER: As long as --

8 THE COURT: -- I know they changed that a few years
9 ago and I wanted to look at it. Okay. So I have reviewed
10 44-53-370, which is controlling on the second or subsequent 11 offense and find that he does fit into the third offense
12 category, I just wanted to double check that for my own
13 edification. Okay. Anything further, Mr. Hawks?

14 MR. HAWKS: No, Your Honor.

15 THE COURT: And from Ms. Walker or Ms. Campbell?

16 MS. WALKER: Nothing, Your Honor.

17 MS. CAMPBELL: No, sir.

18 THE COURT: All right. I will sentence him and seal
19 the sentence pursuant to the rules of trial in absence.
20 Thank you very much.

21 MS. CAMPBELL: Thank you, Your Honor.

22 (End of trial proceedings.)

23

24

25

1 (SENTENCING HEARING ON 2/19/15)

2 MS. WALKER: Good afternoon, Your Honor. The State
3 calls Eric Spears. May it please the Court, Your Honor?

4 THE COURT: Go ahead.

5 MS. WALKER: Eric Spears was tried and convicted
6 Tuesday and Wednesday of this week for trafficking crack
7 cocaine third degree. He failed to appear.

8 THE COURT: Third offense.

9 MS. WALKER: I'm sorry, third offense, I apologize.
10 He failed to appear for his trial and was sentenced
11 yesterday and the sentence was sealed. We are here today
12 for sentencing. He was apprehended last night.

13 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Hawks, anything for the 14 record?

15 MR. HAWKS: No, Your Honor, unless my client wishes to 16 speak.

17 THE DEFENDANT: No.

18 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Spears, if you'd like to 19 address me, you may, that's your choice. You don't have 20 to, you're not required to, but if you would like to you
21 may. Is there anything you'd like to tell me?

22 THE DEFENDANT: No, Your Honor.

23 THE COURT: I'm opening -- for the record I'm opening
24 the sealed sentence that I sealed yesterday. All right.
25 How much time is he supposed to be given credit for, do you

1 know, Mr. Hawks?

2 MR. HAWKS: Your Honor, he bonded out after about
3 three days.

4 THE COURT: Okay. So there was no significant --

5 MR. HAWKS: No, Your Honor.

6 THE COURT: -- time but no significant pretrial
7 incarceration. All right. On indictment 2012-GS-40-2824,
8 the sentence of the Court is that Eric Spears be committed
9 to the State Department of Corrections for 30 years and pay
10 a fine of $50,000, credit for time served. Have a good
11 day.

12 MR. HAWKS: Thank you, Your Honor.

13 (End of trial proceedings.)
