Dear Mrs. Kitchings:

I am in receipt of your September 14, 2016 letters regarding these matters instructing that Orders corresponding to the dates listed on the Notice of Appeals be submitted. I intend to address the issues listed in your letter through the enclosure provided with this letter.

It is my understanding, and I request that you please confirm, that Appellate Case No. 2016-001890 has been assigned to the Notice of Appeal relating to Order dated July 28, 2016 in Civil Action No. 2015-CP-4007380 (this is the same Civil Action that gave rise to Appellate Case No. 2016-001494, which challenges a different Order from the same civil action that is dated June 3, 2016). Based on this understanding, I have enclosed a copy of that July 28, 2016 Order to address the deficiency listed in your letter.

It is also my understanding, and I request that you please confirm, that Appellate Case No. 2016-001892 has been assigned to the Notice of Appeals relating to Orders listed on the Notice of Appeals as being dated July 28, 2016 and August 8, 2016 in Civil Action No. 2015-CP-4007468. I have enclosed a copy of a filed Stipulation of Dismissal without prejudice that has been filed in the Circuit Court in relation to Civil Action No. 2015-CP-4007468 (the Claimant's Cross Appeal in Circuit Court).

McKAY, CAUTHEN, SETTANA & STUBLEY, P.A.

Based on this dismissal below, I request to withdraw my appeals filed in relation to Civil Action No. 2015-CP-4007468, with the reservation of all rights to refile future appeals in the event that the Claimant re-files the action below. This requested withdrawal should have no affect on the Appeals of the two orders from Civil Action No. 2015-CP-4007380 (Appellate Case No. 2016-001494 & 2016-001890).

Should anything in this letter require further discussion, please call me on my direct dial: 803-705-2149.

Sincerely,
