SC Court of Appeals

The Honorable Jenny Abbott Kitchings
Clerk, The South Carolina Court of Appeals
P.O. Box 11629
Columbia, South Carolina 29211

RE: South Carolina Department of Motor Vehicles v. Michelle Dover
Appellate Case No: 2016-001030

Dear Ms. Kitchings,

I do not understand why they are trying so hard to take my license.
I depend on my license to make a living.
I travel for work.

I have explained everything to a judge before and he ruled in my favor.
I was speeding in Virginia. The ticket plainly said that IF I would want to court in Virginia the reckless driving would have been dropped to speeding. I was told that over the phone when I paid my ticket.

There is people out there with multiple DUI and still have their license.
I have one and I have learned from my mistakes.

Yes I was speeding my not reckless driving. I had been driving for six hours and was traveling with the flow of traffic. I did not realize how fast I was going. As soon as I past Virginia State line, a cop pulled me over. This has made me to be more aware of my speed when I'm traveling.

I thought all this mess was behind me after going to court and a judge ruled in my favor. The lady who represented South Caroline Department of Motor Vehicles said there were two cases including mine who SCDM was going against. She said the other case had a lawyer and they would probably go after them knowing I couldn't afford a lawyer but know I see now it didn't go that way.

Please stop all this mess. I have learned from my mistakes. My driving record shows that. I am single and depend on my license to make a living.

Thank You
Michelle Dower
