IN RE: Charles Thomas Brooks, III v. SCCID
Lower Court Case No.: 2012CP4007200
Appellate Case No.: 2014-002477
IRF Claim #: 87989

Dear Ms. Kitchings:

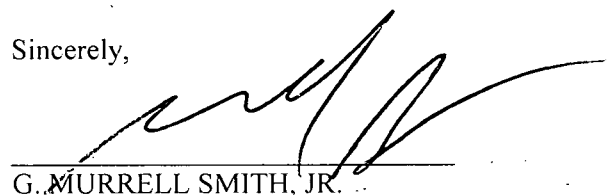

I received notice that the above referenced matter was scheduled for appeal to be argued on October 12, 2016 at 11:20 a.m. Unfortunately, I previously scheduled a deposition in New York City in a medical malpractice trial pending in Sumter County. We have five attorneys involved in this case and people have already purchased airline tickets. I would respectfully request that if there are any other dates available for this Term for oral arguments, that this case be rescheduled. It is going to place a hardship on a number of attorneys and delay the progress of our case for trial if a miss that Deposition.

By copy of this letter, I am hereby notifying the Appellant's attorney of my request for rescheduling of the October 12, 2016 Term of Court. It is my understanding from communications with the Court of Appeals, that October 4, 2016 is a possibility. I have emailed the opposing counsel to check her availability. I will let you know as soon as I hear back from her.

If you have any questions, please feel free to contact me. I appreciate your consideration of this request.

With kindest regards, I am

Sincerely,

G. MURRELL SMITH, JR.
