SC Court of Appeals

Dear V. Claire Allen Deputy Clerk.

On 9-26-2016, I received your letter dated September 22, 2016 that is in response to my letter dated September 13, 2016.

In reference to the Respondent's Motion to Dismiss, I filed an Return pursuant to SCACR:

in reference to the above mentioned ~~ex~~ appellate Case NO 2016-000966. I am inquiring on whether the S.C. Court Appeals Received my Return. If it has please send me verification of such Return by me being filed.

I would appreciate it, that when the S.C. Court of Appeals receives filing from me a document to be filed, that once they are received, you please provide me with some sort of verification that you have or the court has received and filed them; to eliminate any problem with this court sending my filing to someone other than me, like what had happened before in sending my correspondence between the court and me, to a Mr. James W. Bannister, in which this court had mistakenly through its clerk, ~~son~~ thought Mr. Bannister was representing me in this case, and sent all court's correspondences to him instead of me. When I filed this Motion for a new trial based on after discovered

Evidence Pro-se, as well as the appeal. Therefore please let me know whether or not this could have received my return to the respondent. Motion & dismiss my appeal. Please provide me a filed copy of my return.

Thank you

Sincerely Yours
