Appellate Case No. 2016-001525
Trial Case No. 2014-CP-39-350

SC Court of Appeals

Alliance Biomedical Research, LLC,

Appellant,

v.

Judith H. Parham, Personal Representative of the Estate of David Michael Parham, deceased and Parham & Smith, LLC,

Respondents.

CONSENT MOTION FOR EXTENSION

Pursuant to South Carolina Appellate Rule 263(b), Appellant, with the consent of the Respondents, respectfully moves this Court to extend the time within which Appellant may file its Initial Brief by an additional four (4) days. Appellant's Initial Brief is currently due on October 3, 2016. The granting of this Consent Motion for Extension would cause Appellant's Initial Brief to be due by October 7, 2016. Appellant requests this extension due to the unexpected death of our eighteen (18) year old niece in Florida on September 17, 2016, in a car crash. This would be Appellant's third extension. By consent, Appellant requested and received a prior extensions of thirty (30) days and fourteen (14) days.

Prior to filing this motion, counsel for Appellant conferred with counsel for the Respondents who graciously consented to the extension. This extension would not affect any other deadlines.

Respondents – Appellate Case No. 2016-001525

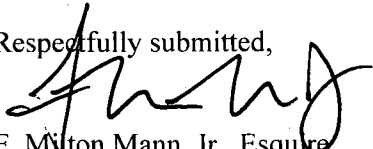

Dear Ms. Kitchings:

Please find enclosed, an original and seven (7) copies each of Appellant's Motion for Extension and Proof of Service. Please file the original in your records and return the FILE COPY to Appellant in the self-addressed, stamped envelope provided herewith. Additionally, enclosed is a check in the amount of Twenty-Five and 00/100 ($25.00) Dollars for the filing fee.

We respectfully request this extension for the extraordinary circumstance that our eighteen (18) year old niece was killed in a car crash on September 17, 2016, in Florida. My Law Clerk, Holly Mann, is my former wife and this was her sister's only child. She was out the entire week of September 19th and I drove to Florida at the end of the week for the funeral. Brandy was just thirteen (13) days older than our son, Brad. Our entire family was very close with her.

Thank you in advance for your assistance in this matter.

Respectfully submitted,

F. Milton Mann, Jr., Esquire
