RE: Clarence Winfrey v. American Fire & Casualty
Appellate Case Nos.: 2014-001788; 2014-001816; and 2014-001815

Dear Ms. Allen:

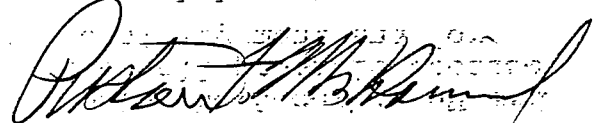

I am available for oral argument on both the December 6th and December 7th but would prefer the 7th if at all possible because I can block the 6th and the 7th out for oral argument and for preparation for the three appeals.

Also, I would appreciate it if the Court could clarify one thing for me concerning argument. Apparently all three of these appeals were and are being set for argument. I am the Appellant as to the separate Record concerning the Order from Commissioner Beck and I am the Respondent and Cross-Appellant to the Order of Commissioner Barden. All three of these appeals were set in October for, I believe, one 10-10-5 argument. I would appreciate it if the Court could advise if that is in fact the case when argument is reset in December and also as to who the Court considers to be the Appellant when we appear for oral argument.

Your assistance and direction is greatly appreciated.

By copy of the letter sent via email and regular mail, I am notifying Mr. Bayne of this communication and notification.

Sincerely yours,

Preston F. McDaniel
