Arlo Fulton, also known as Todd Fulton, was advised of the nature of the interview. Also present was Chris R. Graham, Special Agent, South Carolina Law Enforcement Division (SLED). The interview was conducted, pursuant to a written Proffer Agreement, at the Florence County Detention Center. Fulton provided the following information:

Fulton admitted that when he was previously interviewed regarding the murder of Tory York on March 23, 2001, that Fulton left out a key piece of information. According to Fulton, after Fulton; David Brockington, also known as Little D; and Wakonda Cooper, also known as Little Dew, left York's residence on the date that York was murdered, Brockington was cursing about the Yorks lying to him about stealing Brockington's drugs. Brockington then got real quiet while all three of them drove in Brockington's Ford Expedition to a liquor store in Kingstree. They were at the liquor store for approximately five minutes before departing that location.

After leaving the liquor store, Brockington drove to Young's Food Store, located off of Highway 261 near Farmer's Telephone Coop. At that time, Brockington saw Steve Singletary, also known as Rab, pumping gas at Young's Food Store. Singletary was driving a 1988 or a 1989 Cadillac four door Fleetwood with rims and a white top. Singletary was with his cousin, Neal Hammond, who was possibly from the Cedar Hill section of Williamsburg County, South Carolina. Fulton believed that Singletary was from the White Oak section of Williamsburg County.

While Brockington sat in the driver's seat of Brockington's vehicle, Singletary and Hammond came over to Brockington's vehicle and Singletary spoke with Brockington. When Brockington originally spoke with Singletary, Brockington told Singletary that he wanted Singletary to do him a favor. Singletary responded, "I need a bill paid anyway." Brockington discussed with Singletary how York stole Brockington's drugs.

Fulton also recalled that Brockington told Singletary that Tory York and the others were sitting on the porch of York's Keshia Brother!

Since Tory York never returned to his residence with the drugs, Burgess went to B's Store and had the conversation mentioned earlier with Cooper, Fulton, and Brockington. While at B's Store, Burgess gambled with the money he was going to use to buy drugs by playing dice. Burgess stayed at B's Store approximately two hours and left at approximately 7:30 PM to 8:00 PM that night.

Burgess went to the Track Stop Convenience Store in Kingstree to hang out at approximately 8:30 PM to 9:00 PM that same day. Zachary Woods and Lamar Franklin told Burgess that Cooper, Fulton, and Brockington had just left Tory York's residence. They told Burgess that Fulton sat in Brockington's truck the entire time and that the other two went on the porch of York's residence and confronted him about stealing Brockington's drugs. At the time, they were driving in Brockington's Ford Expedition.

After arriving at the Track Stop Convenience Store, Burgess was dealing drugs at that location. Approximately one to two hours later, Burgess heard that Tory York had gotten shot. Initially, Burgess heard that Cooper and Brockington had paid Terrell Brown, aka Rell, from Charleston, SC, to shoot Tory York. Later that same night, Burgess heard that Steve Singletary, aka Rab, and Neal Hammond actually did the shooting.

Keshia Burgess, Burgess' sister, told Burgess that Tory York, Keshia Burgess, Carlos York, and Tony York were all together the night before Tory York was murdered. Carlos York and Tony York are brothers and are cousins with Tory York. Keshia Burgess told Burgess that they followed Brockington that night when he left the Night Life nightclub in Kingstree. Keshia Burgess drove the vehicle they were all riding in and they followed Brockington to a location near Brockington's residence. Brockington had his drugs hidden in a safe near the residence. After Brockington left the location where he had hidden his drugs, they returned to that location and retrieved the safe, which contained the drugs, and busted it open to get the drugs. The drugs were hidden by a trailer used by Brockington to distribute drugs.

According to Burgess, no one has confronted his sister regarding the theft of Brockington's drugs, but Cooper and others have confronted Carlos York and Tony York regarding the theft of the drugs.

After the murder of Tory York, Keshia Burgess told Burgess that Tony York had blood on him and had a lot of drugs in his possession. At that time, Carlos York and Keshia Burgess were dating each other.

Carlos York told Burgess that Tory York had sold Kevin Pendergrass approximately two to four ounces of powder cocaine at a very cheap price earlier in the day on the day that Tory York was murdered. Since Pendergrass was close friends with Cooper, Burgess speculated that Pendergrass must have told Cooper about the transaction and Cooper made the connection with Brockington's stolen drugs.

In approximately 1997 or 1998, Burgess was driving a black GMC Jimmy vehicle, which was owned by Acquinetta (phonetic) Nesbitt, who lived in Turbeville, SC. At that time, Nesbitt dated Burgess' brother, Fred Burgess, aka Dirt. While Burgess was on his way to Nesbitt's residence in Turbeville to return her vehicle, the engine blew up and caught on fire. Burgess telephoned Nesbitt and Nesbitt arrived at the location with one of her friends. Nesbitt's friend drove Nesbitt and Burgess back to Nesbitt's residence and dropped them off at that location.

Shortly after arriving at Nesbitt's residence, Dennis Parrott, aka Dog Man, Williamsburg County Sheriff's Office, arrived at Nesbitt's residence. Nesbitt is the daughter of Parrott. Since Burgess was scared of Parrott, Burgess hid under a bed at the residence. Parrott had a conversation with Nesbitt and then gave Nesbitt an ounce of cocaine. After Parrott left the residence, Nesbitt admitted that Parrott had given her the drugs. Nesbitt stated, "You didn't know Dog Man was giving me dope?" Nesbitt told Burgess that Parrott was paying her rent and selling drugs was how she was making money.

It was Burgess' understanding that Nesbitt currently deals drugs out of a trailer on Airport Circle in Lake City, where she currently resides. Nesbitt also got drugs from Burgess' brother, Derrick Burgess, in the past.

Wakonda Cooper, also known as Little Dew, was advised of the nature of the interview. The interview was conducted at the Williamsburg County Detention Center pursuant to a written Plea Agreement. Also present during the interview was David Knight, Special Agent, South Carolina Law Enforcement Division (SLED). Cooper provided the following information:

Isaac Woods, also known as Bug, lived close to B's Store on Gausetown Road in Williamsburg County, South Carolina. Tony Woods, also known as T.Y., is Isaac Wood's brother and was from Connecticut. It was Cooper's understanding that Isaac Woods and Tony Woods were dealing drugs together. Tony Woods was currently in jail in the Florence County Detention Center, Effingham, South Carolina. Cooper also noted that prior to when Cooper was arrested, Tony Woods, Isaac Woods, and Willis Graham made a trip to Florida and brought back a half kilogram of cocaine.

It was Cooper's understanding that Twoson Gunter, a drug dealer in Lake City, is being supplied by two drug dealers from Marion. The drug dealers drive a blue Chevrolet Suburban and a green Ford Expedition. Cooper believed that the first names of the drug dealers from Marion were Steve and Mark.

When Cooper was questioned regarding the murder of Tory York in Kingstree, South Carolina, during March 2001, Cooper stated that Steve Singletary, also known as Rab, was paid approximately $500 by David Brockington, also known as Little D, to "fuck him up," referring to Tory York.

Approximately 12:00 noon on the day that Tory York was murdered, Cooper found out that Brockington had some of his drugs stolen. When Cooper received this information, Cooper was sitting in Isaac Woods' yard at his residence eating some food. Cooper could not remember who told Cooper that Brockington's drugs were stolen, but recalled that the individual stated that he heard Tory York had the drugs. The individuals who were sitting in Woods' yard were Cooper, Woods, and Arlo Fulton, also known as Todd.

On June 19, 2002 Cooper arrived at the offices of the ~~United States Attorney's Office, Florence, South Carolina,~~ for his scheduled polygraph examination. Cooper was provided with a copy of an Advice of Rights form (FD-395) and a Consent to Polygraph form (FD-328), the contents of which were read aloud to him. Cooper advised that he understood his rights and demonstrated his willingness to proceed with the polygraph examination by signing both forms.

During the pretest interview, Cooper stated that he was present when Barrington and Singletary discussed retaliation for the theft. Cooper said that he recalled seeing Barrington pay Singletary approximately $500, but could not recall if it was before or after the shooting.

A polygraph examination of Cooper was conducted utilizing the following relevant questions:

- A. Have you misled me today concerning the death of that man? (Answer - No); and
- B. Have you withheld any important information from me concerning the death of that man? (Answer - No).

Based on a review of the psychophysiological responses recorded during this examination, it is the opinion of this examiner that the recorded responses are not indicative of deception.

Fulton described Singletary as being a black male, weighing approximately 165 pounds, approximately 5'11" in height, having a long goatee, and being approximately 28 years old.

Fulton described Hammond as being a black male, weighing approximately 180 pounds, being approximately 5'9" in height, and being approximately 25 years old.

While Fulton and Brockington were both recently incarcerated in the Lexington County Detention Center, Brockington told Fulton not to talk about the shooting of Tory York. According to Fulton, Brockington was scared that information regarding the shooting would be revealed to law enforcement authorities.

Steve Durant, black male; date of birth, April 28, 1978; place of birth, Kingstree, SC; was advised of the identity of the interviewing Agent and the nature of the interview. Also present was Shannon Coker, Investigator, Williamsburg County Sheriff's Office. On the date of the interview, Durant was incarcerated at the Williamsburg County Detention Center. Durant was advised of his rights utilizing an FD-395 Advice of Rights form. After Durant signed the form, Durant provided the following information:

Durant recalled when Tory York was murdered during 2001 in Kingstree, SC. Durant recalled that the murder occurred on a Friday.

Durant totally denied any knowledge of the facts which surrounded York's murder or any knowledge of the firearm that was used during the murder.

When Durant was confronted with the fact that witnesses had previously provided information that Durant had provided the firearm to Arthur Mosley that Mosley used to murder York, Durant denied that he ever provided a firearm to Mosley in the past.

Durant agreed to submit to a polygraph examination, if requested.

[EXH. IV]

1 about this incident?

2 A No, sir, he did not.

3 Q He did not?

4 A No, sir.

5 Q Let's start with Mr. Dozier's statement if you would,
6 and you said that you received Mr. Dozier's
7 statement from an officer Flaminii?

8 A Yes, sir.

9 Q If you would let's look at the statement for a second.
10 Is that actually a statement given by Lonnie Lamont
11 Dozier or is that a recapitulation of a conversation
12 that Officer Flaminii had with Mr. Dozier according 13 to Mr. Flaminii?

14 A According to Mr. Flaminii that is the statement that 15 he gave.

16 Q Have you read the statement?

17 A Yes, sir, I looked over it.

18 Q And based on your reading of the statement does it
19 ever directly quote Lonnie Lamont Dozier or is this
20 again a statement that is written by Mr. Flaminii
21 after he allegedly interviewed Mr. Dozier?

22 A This is a statement written by Mr. Flaminii that Mr.
23 Dozier said.

24 Q But it is not a sworn statement of Mr. Dozier. It is a
25 statement written by Mr. Flaminii after he allegedly

1 interviewed Mr. Dozier, is that right?

2 A Yes, sir.

3 Q The statement given by Mr. Flaminii after he
4 interviewed Mr. Liner is also the same situation?

5 A That is correct, but I also talked with Mr. Liner.

6 Q Based on the statement that Mr. Liner gave both to 7 the FBI and to yourself, does Mr. Liner indicate that
8 he had a conversation with Mr. York that day?

9 A Yes, sir.

10 Q Does Mr. Liner also indicate that he had made a deal
11 with Mr. York to take him guns?

12 A I don't recall that.

13 Q Do you recall in the statement where it says that Mr.
14 Liner was going to take Mr. York some guns
15 because Mr. York had contacted him about the guns
16 because he knew Mr. Liner to be a person who had 17 guns. Is that a part of the statement?

18 A Part of the statement is he asked Mr. York about
19 buying a gun.

20 Q He is asking Mr. York about buying a gun, or Mr.
21 York had contacted him about buying a gun?

22 A I think he asked Mr. York about buying a gun.

23 Q Do you recall a part of the statement that says that
24 Mr. York had some problems with a person he
25 referred to as Little D or Little Do?

1 Q So Officer Shannon Coker is the only officer that
2 you can recall that was on the scene for the
3 investigation?

4 A Yes, sir.

5 Q Did you do the official incident report of the 6 investigation of this client?

7 A Yes, sir, I did.

8 Q And you testified today that when you arrived that
9 Mr. York, the alleged victim had been transferred to 10 the hospital, is that correct?

11 A Correct.

12 Q Do you recall the information that was put in the
13 statement, and does the statement say that when you
14 arrived he was still there?

15 A Ah...

16 Q Would you like to make reference to the statement.

17 A Are you talking about the incident report.

18 Q The incident report, yes, sir.

19 A It says on the above date and time the officer was
20 dispatched to 903 Thorne Avenue on a report of a
21 shooting. Upon arrival the victim was located
22 behind 813 Thorne Avenue with a sole gunshot
23 wound. The victim was located in the front yard. At 24 903 Thorne Avenue just before shots were heard by 25 the complainant he saw the victim talking to a black

Kennedy of approximately $700 in cash. Dozier asked Kennedy for his drugs, but Kennedy stated that his drugs were at his residence, so Dozier only got the money from Kennedy.

Dozier went to Black Biker Week later that same year with Kennedy. Kennedy never realized that Dozier was the one who robbed him.

240 In March of 2001, Corey Liner and Arthur Mosley picked up Dozier at his residence. They then drove to the residence of Steve Durant. While at Durant's residence, Durant told Dozier, Liner, and Mosley that Tory York, Tony York, Carlos York, and Kaisha Burgess had robbed David Brockington, also known as Little D, of some crack cocaine. Durant indicated that Tory York had a lot of the crack cocaine in his possession from the robbery. They then decided to rob Tory York of the drugs, so Durant gave Mosley a black .38 caliber revolver with a rubber grip. 3RD

Dozier, Liner, and Mosley then left Durant's residence together driving in Mosley's girlfriend's car, a black Pontiac Grand Am. At the time, Liner was driving the vehicle, Mosley was in the front passenger seat of the vehicle, and Dozier was in the back seat of the vehicle. Mosley had possession of the .38 caliber revolver. 4-TH 5H

Dozier, Liner, and Mosley then drove to Tory York's residence, located on Thorne Avenue in Kingstree, South Carolina. When they arrived at Tory York's residence, Tory York was sitting on the front porch of the residence with another male, who Dozier could not identify because he was too far away. When Dozier and the others arrived at the residence, the male got up and left the residence.

Upon arrival at Tory York's residence, Liner asked Tory York if he wanted to buy a weapon, while Liner was still sitting in the vehicle. Liner mentioned to Tory York what he had heard regarding the robbery of Brockington. Tory York then came down the steps of his residence and approached the vehicle to see the gun. At that time, Mosley got out of the front passenger seat of the vehicle, while Liner and Dozier remained in the vehicle. Mosley stated, "Give me the money, everything (expletive)." At that time, Tory York backed away and stated, "Hold on, you don't need to do it like that." Mosley pulled out the .38 caliber revolver and pointed it at Tory York. Tory York pulled in his back pocket when Mosley told him to give Mosley the money. At

Since Brockington had been robbed several times prior to the shooting of Tory York, Wallace knew that something would happen sooner or later in the way of retribution. It was Wallace's understanding that Brockington sent someone to purchase drugs from Tory York, who was speculated to be Don Burgess. It was Wallace's understanding that Don Burgess was supposed to be involved in the robbery of Brockington's drugs, but that Burgess got out of the car prior to the robbery. Burgess later got involved in the murder of Tory York by finding out for Brockington who had stolen his drugs. After Don Burgess spoke with the victim, Tory York, regarding purchasing a large quantity of drugs, some individuals arrived at Tory York's residence and confronted Tory York regarding the stolen drugs, including Brockington and Wakonda Cooper, aka Little Dew.

Although Tony York was the cousin of Tory York, Tony York did not attend Tory York's funeral because Tory York's family blamed Tony York for the murder. Wallace speculated that the family blamed Tony York for the murder because supposedly a witness stated that the last person she saw on the porch at Tory York's residence matched the description of Tony York, an individual with braids in his hair and gold teeth. Wallace denied the rumor that Tony York had blood on his shirt the day of Tory York's murder.

After Tory York was murdered, Tony York regretted the theft of Brockington's drugs and money, especially since he was not even suppose to be present during the robbery. Tony York told Wallace that Tony York and Keisha Burgess stayed in the car, while Tory York and Carlos York got out and retrieved the safe containing the drugs and the money. Tony York told Wallace that the safe was located in the woods or the backyard of a residence, not inside of a house. After the murder of Tory York, Tony York left Kingstree and stayed with his cousin in Charleston, SC, for a period of time because he was scared.

When Brockington and Cooper confronted Tory York regarding the stolen drugs at Tory York's residence the day of the murder, Tony York was having his hair done at Wallace's sister's residence in Kingstree. When Tony York found out that Brockington and Cooper were at Tory York's residence, Tony York jumped up and ran down the street to Tory York's residence. Tory York denied having any involvement in the theft of Brockington's drugs. Wallace could not remember if Tory York actually sold some drugs to Don Burgess, but theorized since the amount of drugs involved

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date of transcription 08/21/2003

Lonnie Lamont Dozier, black male; date of birth, May 13, 1977; Social Security Number 589-05-7066, was interviewed pursuant to a Plea Agreement. Also present during the interview was Craig Townsend, Special Agent, Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, and Firearms (ATF), and Dozier's attorney, Mike Metze, United States Public Defender's Office. During the interview of Dozier, Dozier provided the following information regarding several investigations that were being conducted by SA Flamini:

During approximately April of 2002, Dozier robbed Mark Kennedy, a drug dealer from the White Oak community of Williamsburg County, South Carolina. Christina Felder set Kennedy up for Dozier to rob. Felder lured Kennedy to her residence at the Royal Knights Apartments, Apartment 21, Kingstree, South Carolina. Kennedy thought that he was going to have sex with Felder. When Dozier arrived at Felder's residence, Felder left a note for Dozier which stated that Felder was driving Kennedy's car, that Kennedy was in the passenger seat, and that Felder would return to her apartment in a short period of time. Dozier then hid in Felder's residence waiting for Felder and Kennedy to return.

When Felder and Kennedy returned to Felder's apartment, Dozier robbed Kennedy when Felder went to the kitchen. Kennedy was lying on Felder's bed when Dozier approached Kennedy. Dozier robbed Kennedy using a black .38 caliber revolver that Dozier got from Antwan Chandler, from Myrtle Beach, South Carolina. Dozier paid $25 to Chandler for the gun used during the robbery of Kennedy.

Felder ran out of the apartment and "played it off" like she did not know that Kennedy was going to be robbed. During the robbery, Dozier wore a black shirt around his face, since he was trying to hide his identity from Kennedy.

After Dozier robbed Kennedy, Dozier forced Kennedy to drive to Lake City at gun point. Kennedy was driving his vehicle, while Dozier was in the back seat of his vehicle holding the gun on Kennedy. Kennedy's vehicle at the time of the robbery was a green Honda Accord. Dozier forced Kennedy to drive to a dead end road in Lake City and then Dozier let Kennedy go. Dozier robbed

Betty Ann Higgins, black female; [REDACTED] was advised of the identity of the interviewing Agent and the nature of the interview. Higgins provided the following information:

Approximately one week after the murder of Tory York on March 23, 2001, in Kingstree, South Carolina, an individual named Sontoria (Last Name Unknown) told Higgins that she heard gunshots on the date of York's murder. Right after Sontoria heard the gunshots, the vehicle of Steve Singletary, also known as Rab, pulled into the yard at Sontoria's residence. Singletary was in the vehicle with someone else and started to talk to Sontoria. Singletary's vehicle was a chameleon colored Cadillac with a naked woman on the rag top roof. Sontoria lived on the same road as Tory York, on the other side of the road in a blue mobile home, located next to a house with a chain link fence.
