Re: Harry Reese v. South Carolina Department of Mental Health - Appellate Case No. 2016-000997

Dear Honorable Kitchings:

Thank you for extending the deadline for the Appellant's response to the Respondent's Initial Brief; however, I'm requesting additional time to submit my response based on the following:

- Currently, I'm in the process of serving as Pro Se within another legal manner against the Respondent which has a major deadline. If I do not meet this deadline, I will lose my right to file the complaint.
- Filing the additional compliant against the Respondent has become extremely taxing; in that, I'm working independently and have no knowledge of the legal process and procedures.
- In working to complete the Appellant's response to the Respondent's Initial Brief, it's imperative that I wait on a decision from the Court regarding both the Respondent's Motion to Strike and the Appellant's Motion to Admit additional documents to rebuttal the claims made by the Respondent as well as to demonstrate the South Carolina Workers' Compensation Commission staff and the Respondent's illegal and unethical conduct against the Appellant.

With the aforementioned being said, I'm requesting that the Appellant's response to the Respondent's Initial Brief be postponed until a decision has been made regarding the motions previously mentioned.

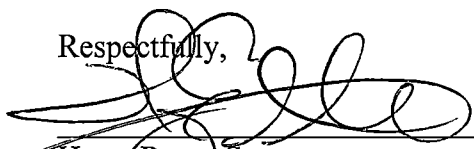

Finally, I respectfully apologize that I have not met the extended deadline provided by the Court; however, the aforementioned reasons have impeded my ability to successfully meet the extended deadline provided.

Thank you in advance for your consideration within this extremely important matter.

I'm providing a copy of this request to the Respondent's attorney on record.

J

Respectfully,

---

Harry Reese Sr.
Appellant
Pro Se

cc: Ms. Page Snyder
