I Amin, Ameer -Akeem the owner/custodian of the trust AMEER AKEEM AMIN. I am not a decedent, I am alive and not dead. I rebut the presumption of death under maritime law. The act of probating or managing my allege estate is a act of fraud a pond the court , because I am alive and I have returned to claim all real, personal properties, assets, credits, and securities including but not limited to all proceeds and profit with interest.

I am writing this final brief in support of the initial brief. This final brief brings everything to a climax because everything that was stated can be rectified by this new discovery in the internal revenue manual. In section 21.7.13.3.2.2 of the internal revenue manual it states: An infant is the decedent of an estate or grantor, owner, custodian or trustor of a trust, guardianship, receivership or custodianship that has yet to receive an SSN. This means the court would have been operating in deceptive manner without disclosing to me that they were handling me as a decedent, and it gives clarity on why they were ignoring my documents. In conclusion, this case considered mute since I have discovered the secret. I am in the process of changing my status and reclaiming all properties. Therefore, I am alive and not dead, and I am American and not a U.S. citizen.
