Zach, you have been copied on all written communications. I called Ms. Shealy to determine status of our letters of notification under Rule 244 and I called Judge Duffy's civil case manager for the same purpose. I don't see a problem. No contact with any Judge – not even a Law Clerk.

Thanks,
Barry

We just respectfully object to not copying all counsel on these communications, these extra judicial ex parte communications, and the quasi requests for relief outside of any record or proceeding.

Thank you.

Ms. Shealy,

In follow-up to our communication as to the status of our request for the Supreme Court to consider additional materials, I have followed-up in contact with staff of the US District Court (Judge Duffy's Office) and today I am informed that they wish us to present our request in the form of a motion, which I will do very shortly.

Again, I request that briefing schedules in the Supreme Court be deferred or held in abeyance, pending this motion process with the US District Court.

Respectfully,

Barry L. Johnson
