S.C. SUPREME COURT

October 24, 2016

To Whom it concern,

I, Reggie Pinkney is addressing to the Supreme Court in the form of a Pro Se Response:

1) Ineffective assistance of counsel: (in transcript pages 364, 365, & 366.)

-My attorney J.M. Buddy Long did not object and preserve the fact that the Marijuana was mentioned in trial before the Jury. Also was said that I plead guilty to the case. Which I believe tainted the Jury mind to believe I was guilty of the Trafficking case. Which I believe should have permitted me a new trial with a new jury panel.

-Illegal search: When I tried to notify officer Bradley, the owner of the vehical was on the phone. He took upon himself to reach into the truck and grab what he claim to be a torn off corner of a baggie. That he believe to have been used in drug activity. That he claim to have lead to a drug search. But did not contain no type residue or drug. Nor was tested for any type drug and was not in evidence in trial.

- No charges for the probable cause of the stop.
- No in car camera in any patrol vehicle. When was permitted by law.
- Lacking of evidence: torn baggie not in evidence.

For the above reasons the above said attorney is ineffective.
