Re: Shedrick Wigfall v. The State
Appellate Case No. 2015-001190

Dear Mr. Wigfall:

Upon reviewing your letter dated October 19, 2016, which the Court construes as a petition for rehearing, the following deficiencies have been noted under the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules (SCACR), and must be corrected in their entirety within ten (10) days of the date of this letter or your petition will not be considered by this Court:

- The required filing fee has not been submitted. If you would like to consider your letter as a motion to rehear the dismissal, the correct filing fee is $25.00.
- A proof of service has not been provided. You must serve and file a proof of service substantially in the format shown by Form 7 in Appendix C to part II of the SCACR. Any document filed with this Court must include a proof of service showing that the document has been served on all the other parties to the appeal.
- Mr. Wigfall, you are the appellant in this appeal. It is the appellant's responsibility to serve and file the record on appeal. Please see Rule 210 of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules for guidance on serving and filing the record on appeal. If you intend to proceed with an appeal pro se, the fact that you are not an attorney does not relieve you of the responsibility to perfect your appeal in accordance with the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules.

Very truly yours,

V. Claire Allen, Deputy

CLERK
