RE: Ordering Transcript and Appeal From Case No: 2010-CP-23-3371

Dear Ms. Gee,

I am inquiring into the status of the filing of our Notice Of Appeal and accompanying documents mailed to you on June 29, 2012. The Appeal is being seeked from the Judgment Of the Honorable G. Edward Welmaker from Greenville County. I provided this Court with original "Notice Of Appeal" and copies thereof, with the original for filing and copy to be clocked-stamped and returned to me for my records. I have not received my clocked-stamped copy.

Further, please take notice to a copy of a letter received by me from the Court Reporter, Ms. S. Danette Hanks, in regards to the ordering of the transcript of record from Case No: 2010-CP-23-3371. I am extremely limited in resources here at the Kershaw Correctional Institution and I am confused as to my next step(s) needed to continue the Appeal process and receive my copy of the transcript.

I have already provided this Court (Clerk Of Court) and Court Reporter with an "Inmate Trust Fund Account Report". I have been unable to locate any Policy, Rules, Statutes, or Case Law explaining the necessary procedures to proceed any further than I have with this appeal. Therefore, let me know what I must do to receive the transcript and continue with the appeal. I will greatly appreciate all assistance you may provide in resolving this matter.

Thank you for your kind services.

Respectfully,

Michael A. McKeown

RE: Michael A. McKeown -vs- James L. Goldsmith, Jr.
Case No. 2010-CP-23-3371

Dear Mr. McKeown:

I am in receipt of your letter requesting the above-referenced transcript held before the Honorable G. Edward Welmaker on June 4, 2012. In my estimation this proceeding lasted approximately 5.5 hours, which would equate to approximately 250 pages. At a cost of $3.25 per page, the total cost of the transcript will be $812.50, plus postage for a total of $817.50. When I have received this amount, I will begin preparation of the transcript.

Under our rules, I have 60 days in which to complete a transcript. In the event I need an extension of time to complete the transcript, I will request an extension from Court Administration. You will be notified if the extension is granted.

Sincerely,
