

The South Carolina Court of Appeals

Willie J. Riley, Appellant,

v.

Dennis Wayne Catoe, Respondent.

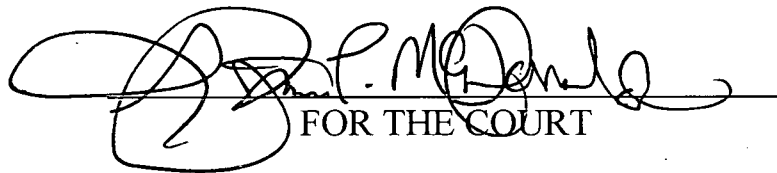

Appellate Case No. 2015-001627

---

ORDER

---

Appellant has filed a motion requesting this court to accept the filing of his final brief out of time. Respondent has filed a motion to strike Appellant's final brief because it is substantially different from Appellant's initial brief. After careful consideration, Appellant's request to file his final brief out of time is granted; however, Respondent's motion to strike the final brief is also granted.<sup>1</sup> Pursuant to Rule 211(b) of the South Carolina Rules of Appellate Procedure, "[t]he final brief(s) shall be identical to the [initial] brief(s)" except for the addition of citations to the record on appeal and the correction of typographical errors and misspellings. Because Appellant's final brief is substantially different from Appellant's initial brief, the final brief is stricken. Within thirty days of the date of this order, Appellant shall serve and file his final brief that is identical to his initial brief, with the exception of citing to the record on appeal and correcting any typographical errors.
