Re: Johnson, Marquette v. Chaudhry, Anu; Tracking No. 2011190146

Dear Madam Clerk:

We received a copy of a letter to Mr. Sitnik and Mr. Phillips, Counsel for Appellant/Respondent from the Court, dated September 5, 2012, regarding the fact that they had not filed their proof of service of the Record on Appeal. We will confirm to the Court that Mr. Sitnik did, in fact, timely serve the Record on Appeal on us in July, and we timely served the final briefs on behalf of Respondent/Appellant Dr. Chaudry on July 31, 2012, by mailing copies to both Mr. Sitnik and Mr. Phillips. However, we have never received any final briefs on behalf of the Appellant/ Respondent.

Upon inquiry with your Office, I have been informed that on October 1, 2012, Mr. Sitnik did finally file his final briefs and the Record on Appeal along with a motion to permit out of time filing. I am informed that the certificate of service indicates that the motion and final briefs and Record on Appeal were mailed to Mr. Buyck on October 1, 2012. However, neither Mr. Buyck nor I have received the final briefs or the motion.

By copy of this letter we are asking that Mr. Sitnik send us his final briefs. In the meanwhile, we obtained a copy of the motion from your Office on October 18, 2012, and would request a 10-day extension of time until October 29, 2012, to allow us to respond to the motion.

Sincerely yours,

Deborah H. Sheffield
