Appellate Case No. 2015-001548

William Henry Chapman, Appellant,

v.

South Carolina Department of Social Services, Respondent.

MOTION FOR CONTINUANCE

TO THE ABOVE-NAMED RESPONDENT:

YOU WILL PLEASE TAKE NOTICE That the undersigned Counsel for Appellant William Henry Chapman does hereby move before this Court for a continuance of the within captioned case beyond the December 2016 term of the South Carolina Court of Appeals. As grounds for his Motion, Counsel would show as follows:

1. By letter dated August 23, 2016, Counsel received notice from the Deputy Clerk of Court that the instant case may or may not be considered during the term scheduled for December 5, 6, 7 and 8, 2016. As of November 7, 2016, the Court Roster for December 2016 was not available.

2. Counsel has planned a vacation out of state for the period December 6-11, 2016, and respectfully requests leave of the Court to go forward with the planned trip.

3. The continuance of the case would not prejudice or adversely affect the interest of either party and Counsel for the Respondent does not object to the case being continued.

WHEREFORE Counsel prays that the Court issue its Order continuing the within case beyond the term of the South Carolina Court of Appeals scheduled for December 5, 6, 7, and 8, 2016.
