RE: Clarence Winfrey v. Archway Services, Inc.
Appellate Case No. 2014-001788

Dear Ms. Kitchings:

I am in receipt of the email transferring the Petition under Rule 245 to the Court of Appeals. I am also in receipt of the unsolicited response from Mr. Bayne. This is not, and I want to reiterate not, some type of an emergency Motion. It is a request for an immediate ex parte emergency Order based on the special grounds set forth in the Petition wherein the Defendants have cut off my client's weekly checks and his medical care, and the assistant that is performing the Activities of Daily Livings, cooking, etc. for Mr. Winfrey. I had hoped for a Ruling Tuesday, but understand the transfer and hopefully a Decision today.

Ms. Shealy, please let me know if I need to pick up the additional copies to get those over to the Court this morning so that the Court of Appeals' assigned Judge will have those for review.

I am sending a copy of this correspondence to Mr. Bayne since he chose to reply without request from the Court. I stand ready to come over to the Court immediately upon request.

In deepest appreciation for the urgency of this situation.

Sincerely yours,

Preston F. McDaniel

PFM/kth
