Attorney for Appellants

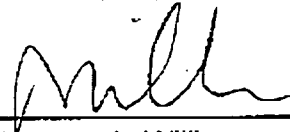

NOW COMES Terence A. Willis, attorney for the appellants, Alan F. McNeal and Adrienne McNeal, and files this his Second supplement to the Motion to Withdraw from Representation of Appellants and in support thereof would show the following:

1. Terence A. Willis mailed his Motion to Withdraw on November 21, 2016, his Supplement To The Motion To Withdraw From Representation Of Appellants on November 22, 2016, and is still entitled to withdraw from the representation of Alan F. McNeal and Adrienne McNeal according to South Carolina Rules of Professional Conduct Rule 1.16(b)(5) & (6) and Terence A. Willis has complied with the requirements of said rule.
2. Mr. Willis received a bank check from Mr. McNeal today, Tuesday, November 29, 2016, for the past due fees and a small expense retainer. Mr. Willis has not accepted or negotiated the check.
3. An unreasonable financial burden is put upon Mr. Willis when his clients fail to pay the fees owed to him for some months and then, pay the fees only when Mr. Willis has filed a motion to withdraw. Mr. and Mrs. McNeal have not made any representations about their ability or willingness to pay future fees for this appeal or the remainder of the case.

WHEREFORE, Terence A. Willis prays that this Court grant his Motion to Withdraw on such terms as the Court finds just and appropriate which includes returning the bank check just received.

Respectfully submitted on November 29, 2016
