KALVEN TERRY PEARSON VS. STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA

1 The Court: Alright. The next matter before the 2 Court is a probation violation report, a probation 3 violation hearing on Kalven K-A-L-V-E-N Pearson. The 4 court has a copy of the 1106 of the Department of 5 Probation and Parole Pardon Services violation report in 6 case number 13-GS-14-00111. The 1106 has been made a 7 part of the record as court's exhibit number one and 8 indicates that the defendant was sentenced by Judge
9 Cothran on September 11, 2013 exactly two years ago today
10 here in Clarendon County for malicious injury to real 11 property and burglary 2nd non-violent. The matter is 12 before the court on a probation citation dated 6/30/15 13 and served on 6/30/15. The Court also has a copy of the 14 sentencing sheet of Judge Cothran and the two charges
15 that are involved as well as a statement from Third 16 Circuit Drug Court Judge Amy Land, whereby he was ordered 17 to participate in drug court and Judge Land has certified 18 that he did not complete, satisfactorily complete drug 19 court and has recommended a full revocation.

20 Alright Mr. Pearson, the matter is before the court 21 on a probation citation as I have indicated, indicating 22 that you are in violation of your probation for having 23 failed to report, last reported on January 27, 2015. You 24 haven't paid your supervision fees, you haven't paid your 25 fine, and you failed to attend and complete the drug

1 court program having been terminated by Judge Land on 2 5/27/15, which you acknowledged on 9/11/15. Do you 3 understand the things the department says you did to 4 violate the terms and conditions of your probation?

5 Mr. Pearson: Yes, can I continue to speak sir?

6 The Court: I am going to give you a chance in just a 7 minute to present anything to me that you wish to 8 present. Okay?

9 Mr. Pearson: (No response).

10 The Court: Do you understand the charges?

11 Mr. Pearson: I don't understand the charge about 12 malicious. I don't understand ...

13 The Court: The charges of the citation are that you
14 didn't report since January 27, 2015, you haven't paid 15 your supervision fees...

16 Mr. Pearson: Yes sir, I understand.

17 The Court: ...you haven't paid your fine, you 18 haven't paid your surcharge, and you didn't complete drug 19 court. Those are the things they said you didn't.

20 Mr. Pearson: Yes sir.

21 The Court: And you will have the right to present
22 any testimony or evidence to me that you wish to present 23 in just a few minutes, you understand that?

24 Mr. Pearson: Yes sir.

25 The Court: And you have the right to be represented

5

1 by counsel and I see that you are here with Mr. Robinson
2 and have you had a chance to talk with him about this 3 matter?

4 Mr. Pearson: I haven't had the chance to talk to 5 him, sir.

6 The Court: Alright, stand aside and talk to him.
7 (Mr. Robinson and Mr. Pearson have off the record 8 discussion)

9 The Court: With regards of the State vs Mr. Pearson,
10 Mr. Pearson have you now had a chance to talk to Mr.
11 Robinson about this matter?

12 Mr. Pearson: Yes sir.

13 The Court: And do you understand that you will have 14 the right to appeal from my decision and you must do so 15 within ten days? Do you understand that?

16 Mr. Pearson: Yes sir.

17 The Court: Ms. Rucker, is there anything you would 18 like to add to it?

19 Ms. Rucker: Yes sir, Your Honor, he is currently in 20 jail on the drug court bench warrant so whatever decision 21 you make, we will ask for that bench warrant to be 22 lifted.

23 The Court: Alright, I was wondering, because it was 24 a citation, I was wondering why he was in jail. But he's 25 in jail on a bench warrant per the drug court.

1 Ms. Rucker: That's correct, Your Honor.

2 The Court: Okay, Mr. Robinson.

3 Mr. Robinson: Thank you, Your Honor. Mr. Pearson is 4 49 years old and I apologize for the confusion earlier.
5 We've talked several times previously. We had not spoken 6 specifically today about addressing this issue and he was 7 just concerned that perhaps I had forgotten what we had 8 previously talked about. Your Honor, Mr. Pearson is 49
9 years old and he and I have talked about this; he has a 10 terrible drug problem, a terrible drug problem. I know 11 you've probably heard other attorneys say that. The 12 reason I understand that is I have represented Mr.
13 Pearson a number of times. When he is clean and sober, 14 he truly, honestly is a really nice person, responsible 15 person. He had a great job when I first met him, got 16 into a little bit of a drug habit. Took some stuff from 17 his mother-in-law's house. We worked through that. He 18 did great for a little while. He got back on drugs and 19 it's kind of been that cycle. My honest hope, and 20 obviously Judge Cothran's hope, in this particular 21 instance, was because of that problem, he would do a 22 little bit of time, get dried out, come out of the drug 23 court, and that would help him keep the wheels on.
24 Unfortunately, that did not work out for Mr. Pearson.
25 His request, Your Honor, the only thing that I'm aware of

1 that he has not done is long term inpatient drug 2 treatment. And that's what he would like the court to 3 consider. He has been working with the minister and I've 4 talked with him a couple of times at the, I think it's 5 the Baptist or Methodist church in Summerton. I don't 6 remember which one it is. But I have spoken with that 7 preacher personally. He was trying to help Mr. Pearson 8 get into one of those programs, but obviously because of 9 the bench warrant situation and this violation matter not 10 being taken care of, he was not in a position to get him 11 enrolled anywhere. That is Mr. Pearson's request, quite 12 frankly, Your Honor, that he go into some sort of long 13 term treatment program and what he proposes is that you 14 not revoke his probation. But continuing on, he's been 15 in there for some time on this bench warrant and that he 16 would remain incarcerated until he can get into this 17 program, go straight in there with a requirement of his 18 probation be that he successfully complete it. If he 19 does not, the honestly the court hasn't really lost 20 anything. He still has the same six year sentence
21 hanging over his head, but it's kind of a last ditch
22 attempt to save Mr. Pearson from himself, quite frankly.
23 Because he's not appeared to blame anyone else, to blame 24 society. It's his fault. He realizes that, he 25 understands that. He needs a lot of help and a lot of 1 people have been trying to give it to him and he has 2 screwed that up. This is his last stop before a long 3 term commitment in the department of corrections so he 4 would ask, Your Honor, that you consider that. He's not 5 trying to make a promise and walk out of here today.

6 He's willing to remain incarcerated until we can arrange 7 placement and have probation still in place so that if he 8 does not get cleaned up, that the Department of 9 Corrections is still waiting for him.

10 The Court: Alright, thank you Mr. Robinson. Alright
11 Mr. Pearson, let me hear from you.

12 Mr. Pearson: Yes, sir. Like he said, I am 49 and I 13 really apologize to the court for all of my back and 14 forth. I do have a drug problem, a crack cocaine 15 problem. I'm willing to go to this program and try to 16 learn all I can learn.

17 The Court: Why didn't you do that while you were in 18 drug court? Before you failed out of drug court and come 19 up here and now your ox is in the ditch and all of a 20 sudden, you want this long term treatment? You could've 21 gotten this long term treatment a long time ago.

22 Mr. Pearson: Yes sir, I understand what you're 23 saying. I did try. When I went back to doing drugs I 24 called drug court. I was already doing drugs and I was 25 trying to work with them so I can go in this program and

9

1 to my knowledge, they finally disagreed or whatever.

2 The Court: You could have done both. You didn't 3 have to do...you didn't have to wait on drug court's 4 permission to get into a long term program.

5 Mr. Pearson: I couldn't go into the drug program
6 until the agreement because I was still on probation.

7 The Court: Well, if I go along with what Mr.
8 Robinson says, you're still going to be on probation, 9 trying to go into a long term program so probation is 10 still going to prevent you from getting in, isn't it? I 11 mean, you're not getting off probation, at the very 12 least, you're not getting off probation. How's that 13 going to help you?

14 Mr. Robinson: Your Honor, I think if this order is a 15 term of the probation, I know that Judge Land in the past 16 has had, quite frankly, and I'm not saying that this is 17 the case with Mr. Pearson, but that she has had people 18 try to go into inpatient treatment to avoid her. That 19 sometimes they're easier on them in rehab than she is so 20 she is, she does like to have approval over that. But 21 obviously, if you make it a part of the court order and 22 I'm not asking you to put him back in drug court.

23 The Court: Alright, the court does find that the 24 defendant in this case understands the nature of these 25 proceedings. The Court also finds the matter properly

1 before the court on a probation citation and the Court 2 does find that he is in violation of the terms and 3 conditions of his probation as imposed by Judge Cothran.
4 Specifically, that he has not completed, attended and 5 completed the drug court program having been terminated 6 by Judge Land. Her recommendation that the probation be 7 terminated. I'm not making any finding with regards to 8 the financial obligations because that requires a finding 9 of wilfulness under the Spare case, but it's simply 10 enough of a violation in this case for him not to have 11 reported to probation since January of this year and also 12 for not having done the matters of the drug court program 13 by Judge Land. So, he is in violation of the terms and 14 conditions of his probation. In my view, the state's 15 done about all it can do. He's also had the opportunity 16 to get private treatment. He just came into court today
17 with no concrete treatment plan or any proof of a program 18 that he wants or could get into or that he has planned or 19 that that plan is willing to accept him. Just 20 unsubstantiated statements about a long term program from 21 a church in Summerton and no evidence of a program or 22 that he would be accepted. I'm also concerned that he 23 doesn't seem to have any real support here or anyone that 24 has been trying to get him into any kind of treatment
25 program or that he's made any concrete attempts to enroll

KALVEN TERRY PEARSON VS. STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA 11

1 in any type of a treatment program. There has to be a 2 reckoning when the law has been violated and the State's 3 done all it can to help someone who refuses to help 4 himself. He had the drug court before Judge Land, he 5 didn't take advantage of it. He's now asking for another 6 chance but not giving to the court any proof of anything 7 that he really is going to do except these 8 unsubstantiated statements that he wants to get into a 9 long term program. I think he's had that chance before 10 now.

11 As a result of which, The Court does find a 12 violation in terms of conditions of probation revokes the 13 probationary sentence requiring him to serve the 14 remainder of the sentences as imposed by Judge Cothran, 15 ATU at the South Carolina Department of Corrections and 16 terminate probation.

17 Mr. Robinson: Your Honor, I understand, Your Honor, 18 has already ruled, Mr. Pearson asked me while you were 19 announcing the ruling of the Court, if I could call the 20 gentleman at the church I talked to to verify that he has 21 in fact done some of the matter or just not here to be 22 presented.

23 The Court: I understand that but I take the 24 position. I just feel like that he's had the chance to 25 do that before today and come in with some concrete

1 program or that he's had a chance to even apply for it in 2 sometime in the past. I think we are just prolonging the 3 inevitable. The ruling of The Court will stand.

4 Ms. Rucker: Your Honor, did you want to do a civil 5 judgement for the fines and the surcharges?

6 The Court: Civil judgement for any matters that can 7 be converted to a civil judgement.

8 Ms. Rucker: Okay, thank you.

Amy A. Land, Judge

To Whom It May Concern:

Kelvin Pearson was ordered to participate in the Third Circuit Drug Court as a condition of his probation in March, 2014. Mr. Pearson signed an agreement indicating that he understood the rules of the program. Most importantly, that he attend court weekly, refrain from the use of drugs and alcohol, submit to random drug screens and follow all the rules of probation. Mr. Pearson until April 16, 2014. He stopped attending at this time and also missed a hair follicle on April 23, 2014. A bench warrant was issued and he was arrested. On May 20, 2014 he was brought back before this court and reported that he had been at work during his extended absence and unable to attend. He assured me that he would report to Sumter on May 22 to make up his missed hair follicle test. I released him for this reason. He was sanctioned to three months in jail on June 4, 2014, for missing the second test. He was released early on August 26, 2014 because of the death of his brother. He attended court regularly until February 4, 2015. He also had a negative hair follicle test in October, 2014. He has not returned since February 4, 2015 and missed a hair follicle test on February 18, 2015.

I recommend a full revocation for Mr. Pearson. The Third Circuit Drug Court was put into place to aid offenders who have drug and alcohol addictions. It is an alternative to incarceration and intended to rehabilitate participants so that they can function in society as law abiding citizens. Mr. Pearson has shown that he no longer has the desire or the intention of getting off drugs or participating in the drug court program.

Sincerely

Amy A. Land

AFFIDAVIT

County of CLARENDON

Personally appeared before me, Susan K. Rucker, who first being duly sworn, deposes and says that KALVEN PEARSON did within this county and State on the 30 day of June, 2015, violate certain conditions of release in the following particulars:

DESCRIPTION OF VIOLATION

By violating conditions of probation numbers 1, 7, 9, 10 and Special Conditions as ordered in Cause Number 13-GS-14-0111 by the Clarendon County Court of General Sessions dated 9-11-13.

The Affiant states that there is probable cause to believe the defendant named committed the violations set forth and that such probable cause is based on the following facts:

Failed to report having last reported on 1-27-15; failed to pay supervision fees being $600.00 in arrears; failed to pay fine being $272.00 in arrears; failed to pay surcharge being $80.00 in arrears; failed to attend and complete Drug Court program by being terminated on 5-27-15. Such actions constitute a violation of his probation agreement which he signed and acknowledged on 9-11-13.
