STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA
In the Court of Appeals

APPEAL FROM RICHLAND COUNTY
Court of General Sessions

The Honorable Frank R. Addy, Jr., Judge of the Circuit Court

Appellate Case No. 2016-002028

The State

Respondent

v.

Cedrick Bouvoir Chick,

Appellant

COUNSEL GEORGE R. McELVEEN, III's RETURN TO APPELLANT'S MOTION TO RELIEVE COUNSEL

In response to the court's request for a return to Appellant's letter dated October 11, 2016, undersigned counsel would state as follows:

I represented Mr. Chick on the charges underlying this appeal. The matter was resolved by plea on September 22, 2016. Although the pleas was "as indicted", other charges were dismissed in consideration of the plea. Mr. Chick did not consult with me regarding further proceedings. Mr. Chick did not ask or direct me to file a Motion for Reconsideration, Notice of Appeal, or otherwise initiate further proceedings. I never, at any time, considered myself as having been retained for such a purpose, and I do not believe that such proceedings would have had merit.

To the extent that Mr. Chick's aforementioned letter represents a motion to relieve counsel, I certainly have no objection. However, never having undertaken to represent Mr. Chick in this regard, I believe that Mr. Chick's filing should be deemed pro-se.
