Re: Carolyn M. Powell v. Ashlin B. Potterfield
Appellate Case No. 2012-212678

Dear Mr. Hill:

Please accept my apologies for the delay in copying you on the enclosed letter. Per our discussion a few weeks ago, we wrote the Court of Appeals to request an extension. The Court requested further information on the date we received the transcript and I failed to copy you on my letter in response. As such, please see a copy of that letter dated November 5, 2012 and the Court's Order granting our request. Also, thank you again for your cooperation in our request for an extension of time.

With kind regards, I remain

Sincerely,

PENDARVIS LAW OFFICES, P.C.

Re: Carolyn M. Powell v. Ashlin B. Potterfield
Appellate Case No. 2012-212678

Dear Ms. Allen:

Today, I spoke with Amelia, who has been extremely helpful in responding to our inquiries. This letter is a follow-up to our letter dated October 24, 2012, which requested a 30-day extension to file our initial brief in the above-referenced matter. In order to better aid in the granting of the extension, we are notifying you that we received the transcript from the court reporter on September 28, 2012. By our calculations, our initial brief would have been due on October 29, 2012. Upon the approval of our request for an extension, the new due date for our initial brief would be November 28, 2012.

We look forward to hearing from you as soon as possible to confirm the extension of our deadline to file the initial brief.

With kind regards, I remain

Sincerely,

PENDARVIS LAW OFFICES, P.C.
