Re: The State v. Earnest E. Vaughn, Sr.
Appellate Case No. 2016-002300

Dear Mr. Vaughn:

The Court received your recent correspondence. Our records reflect that your appeal is being handled by the Division of Appellate Defense. Once an attorney is assigned to your case, you should receive notification. You can contact Appellate Defense at 1330 Lady St, Columbia, SC 29201.

Regarding any remaining request for relief from the Court, we cannot consider such requests because you are represented by counsel. See Miller v. State, 388 S.C. 347, 347, 697 S.E.2d 527, 527 (2010) ("Since there is no right to 'hybrid representation' that is partially pro se and partially by counsel, substantive documents, with the exception of motions to relieve counsel, filed pro se by a person represented by counsel are not to be accepted unless submitted by counsel.").

Very truly yours,

V. Claire Allen, Deputy
