D/Hearings: March 23, March 24, and March 25, 2015

Dear Ms. Singletary:

I am in receipt of your November 9, 2016 letter (attached). Pity that you are not permitted to release any audio recordings. Also, listening to the audio may not give me the page numbers, but I am capable of reading the bogus transcript while simultaneously listening to the audio whereas I can indicate particularly where I feel the errors are.

Regarding your offer of services to accurately and correctly transcribe any portions of the proceeding, considering you have submitted to me and to the Courts of South Carolina a transcript which is NOT true and correct, which you have certified with your hand and seal, that all one hundred sixty seven (167) pages are true and correct, I have concluded your services to be unreliable, undependable and unqualified to render any offer of advice you may have to any findings of error. Furthermore, I did not think that your duty involved your rendition of the facts, which brings forth whether I should be questioning your motive.

Therefore, until you are permitted to release any audio recordings, any further communication regarding you correcting the erroneous transcript is meaningless.

Thank you for the offer.

Very truly yours,

Robert Wazney

Dear Mr. Wazney :

This will acknowledge receipt of your letter dated November 1, 2016 wherein you are requesting that I supply you with an original copy of the trials audio from the above-referenced hearing dates so that you can advise in writing the page and line numbers which you claim are inaccurate in the hearing transcript, which ended in a mistrial, that I prepared.

Mr. Wazney, I am not permitted to release any audio recordings. Also, listening to the audio would not give you the page and line number that you feel are inaccurate in the transcript. Therefore, if you will please look at the one that you're reading and give me the page number(s) and line number(s) and what you believe is incorrect, then I will listen to those portions and advise you in writing as to my findings.

Thanking you in advance, I am

Sincerely,

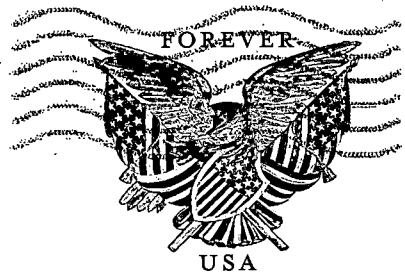

Melissa R. Singletary
