Subject: Guice v. US Foods, et al, Appellate Case No. 2015-001821 - Receipt of stamped copies of Motion for Sanctions
Date: Thursday, December 08, 2016 3:45:27 PM

Dear Ms. Kitchings:

Good afternoon.

Please be advised that I am submitting this correspondence to respectfully request customer assistance.

Specifically, I request a status as to when I can either expect to receive my stamped copies of the "Motion for Sanctions Against Respondents' for Repeated Violations of Rules 241(a) and 269 of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules", dated November 29, 2016, which was confirmed delivered at your USPS P.O. Box on December 1, 2016 at 9:37 a.m. (Priority Mail Receipt No. 9505514629026334067520), or in the alternative, when said motion will be uploaded for review (and copying) on C-Track respective of the above-referenced action.

I respectfully acknowledge the mass undertaking regarding the duties and responsibilities of your office; however, based on the usual excellent service, I normally would have already received my stamped copies of the aforementioned motion back via regular mail, or the Motion would already be uploaded on C-Track. If the copies are in transit, and are slow getting back to me (due to the holiday mail rush), please advise of the same.

At your earliest convenience, please respond and provide a status regarding the requested information. Attorney Erin Leigh Hantske, the Attorney of record for the Respondents, has been provided a copy of this correspondence as an attachment hereto. Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me. Thank you for your assistance in this matter.

Kind regards,

Alexander Guice
