P.O. Box 11629 1220 SENATE STREET
Columbia, S.C. 29201

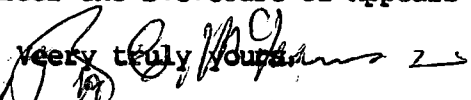

re: The State v. Brent McLauren Appellate case No. 2015-00147 re: extension of time request.

To whom it may concern, on November 04, 2016, a document received (enclosed inside a manilla envelope with the postmarked) dated notice "Received in November 15, 2016 Kirkland R & E Center Mailroom, a copy of 1, the purported 493-page document purported to be a facsimile of my May 18, 19, 2015 jury trial before the Honorable John C. Hayes III. Note, it is not an accurate and true, correct copy of the genuine transcript, rather it is a terribly significant convoluted, deliberately altered self-serving version intentionally rewritten which has been carefully designed to protect the solicitor, the court, and various other(s) via rehabilitating the literal actual trial testimony these unauthorized testimony in such a manner that this revision serves only to render the complete trial transcript as an inaccurate fraud. Deliberately foisted upon this court for the purposes of sanitizing an unconstitutional record.

Moreover, I recently suffered a serious stroke in which I spent over twenty-four (24) days hospitalized, add to this that the fact our prison is routinely locked-down; etc., etc., making it necessary that I am compelled to seek another forty-five (45) day extension of ~~time~~ time within which to file a pro se brief.

Wherefore, I seek additional time of forty-five (45) days within which to file my pro se brief addressing any issue I feel the S.C. Court of Appeals has an obligation to consider and rule upon.

GNC, NOTES

Very truly yours,

Also; The official court reporter (of my jury trial): who was Ms. Vivian H. Cross, Court Reporter

For the Tenth Judicial Circuit P.O Box 704, Belton, SC 29627 may correctly advise this Court of my official written-complaint concerning the deliberate corruption of my official court trial transcript; I stand prepared and quite willing to voluntarily submit to a comprehensive polygraph examination to demonstrate that I am giving 100% honest information relative to the deliberate contamination of my trial transcript. I do know I was convicted on May 19th, 2015. On the following morning, I gave Mr. John DeJung, Esq a box containing ~~all my legal documents including trial work product and other exhibits, etc, etc.~~ at which juncture that attorney assured me he would forthwith mail those legal documents to my friend in Florida (The. Rev, Al Salmon; Rev. Salmon never received these documents until a month thereafter).

I was under the impression I asked this attorney to additionally be sure to mail my court clothing to Rev. Salmon once I discovered I had sufficient funds in my account at that facility to take care of these concerns. Never sent until much time later. Brent McLauren December 13, 2016
