

The South Carolina Court of Appeals

Reginald Gilliam, 240636, Appellant,

v.

Judy Burns and Index Journal Newspaper, Respondents.

Appellate Case No. 2011-193966

ORDER

Appellant has filed a final brief and an amended final brief. After preliminary review of the briefs, we strike Appellant's final brief and the amended final brief because Appellant has failed to comply with Rule 211(b) of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules, which requires that the final brief shall be identical to the initial brief other than references to the record and the corrections of typographical errors. Within twenty days, Appellant shall serve and file an amended final brief that complies with Rule 211(b), SCACR. Appellant shall serve one copy the amended final brief and file one original amended final brief with this Court.
