Re: Brenda Harmon v. Joel Johnson
Appellate Case No. 2015-000061

Dear Counsel:

Enclosed is the decision of the Court. The remittitur will be sent as provided by Rule 221(b) of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules.

Very truly yours,

V. Claire Allen, Deputy

CLERK

The South Carolina Court of Appeals

Brenda G. Harmon, Appellant,

v.

Joel E. Johnson, D.M.D., Respondent.

Appellate Case No. 2015-000061

ORDER

Appellant filed her initial notice of appeal for this case on January 12, 2015. On June 15, 2015, Appellant filed the record on appeal, which she amended ten days later. Subsequently, Respondent filed a motion to dismiss based on Appellant's failure to provide an adequate record. On September 2, 2015, this court denied Respondent's motion but allowed Respondent to file a memorandum addressing his challenges to the record. Respondent filed the memorandum and later filed a second motion to dismiss. On December 2, 2015, this court issued an order providing Appellant twenty days to serve and file an amended record on appeal. The order provided specific instructions concerning what materials Appellant should include in the amended record. On December 18, 2015, Appellant filed an amended record. On December 29, 2015, Respondent filed a third motion to dismiss, noting continued deficiencies in the record. On February 5, 2016, this court ordered Appellant to serve and file an amended record by February 15, 2016. This order also provided specific instructions concerning what materials to include in the amended record. However, as of the date of this order, this court has not received an amended record that complies with our previous instructions. Accordingly, we dismiss the appeal.

Additionally, during the course of this case Appellant filed a motion for trial to proceed, a motion for trial to begin, and two motions for discovery. Appellant also filed a response to our February 5 order that we construe as a motion for this court to either allow the case to proceed to trial, send the case to arbitration, or settle the case in her favor. We deny these motions.
