FOR A SECOND DEFENSE

8. The defendant realleges and reiterates each and every allegation set forth above, and not inconsistent herewith, as if fully repeated herein.

9. The defendant alleges that the Complaint of the plaintiff fails to state facts sufficient to constitute a cause of action against him and, therefore, the plaintiff's Complaint should be dismissed pursuant to Rule 12(b)(6) of the South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure.

FOR A THIRD DEFENSE

10. The defendant realleges and reiterates each and every allegation set forth above, and not inconsistent herewith, as if fully repeated herein.

11. The defendant alleges that even assuming that he was negligent, careless, grossly negligent, willful, wanton or reckless in any respect, and that any such conduct on his part operated as a proximate cause of the accident and the plaintiff's resulting injuries and damages, if any, all of which is expressly denied and admitted solely for the purpose of this defense and no other, that the plaintiff's negligent, grossly negligent, reckless, willful and wanton conduct contributed more than 50% to the cause of the accident and the plaintiff's resulting injuries and damages, if any. For that reason, the defendant is not liable to the plaintiff in any sum whatsoever.

FOR A FOURTH DEFENSE

12. The defendant realleges and reiterates each and every allegation set forth above, and not inconsistent herewith, as if fully repeated herein.

13. The defendant alleges that even if he was negligent, careless, grossly negligent, reckless, willful or wanton in any respect whatsoever, which is expressly denied and admitted solely for the purpose of this defense and no other, and if any such conduct on his part operated as a greater than 50% cause of the accident and the plaintiff's resulting injuries and damages, if any, which is also expressly denied and admitted solely for the purpose of this defense and no other, he is entitled to a determination as to the percentage which the plaintiff's negligent, grossly negligent, reckless, willful and wanton conduct contributed to the accident and to a reduction of any amount awarded to the plaintiff in an amount equal to that percentage of the plaintiff's own negligent, grossly negligent, reckless, willful and wanton conduct.

FOR A FIFTH DEFENSE

14. The defendant realleges and reiterates each and every allegation set forth above, and not inconsistent herewith, as if fully repeated herein.

15. The defendant alleges that the plaintiff has failed to mitigate his damages and, therefore, the plaintiff's Complaint should be dismissed.

FOR A SIXTH DEFENSE

16. The defendant realleges and reiterates each and every allegation set forth above, and not inconsistent herewith, as if fully repeated herein.

17. The defendant specifically reserves any additional and/or affirmative defenses as may become available to him or revealed to him during the course of the investigation and/or discovery in this case.

FOR A SEVENTH DEFENSE

18. The defendant realleges and reiterates each and every allegation set forth above, and not inconsistent herewith, as if fully repeated herein.

19. The defendant would allege that an award of punitive damages would constitute an impermissible and excessive fine under the Eighth Amendment of the Constitution of the United States, and such damages would further be a violation of the due process and equal protection causes of the Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments, respectively, of the United States

Constitution, as well as the applicable corresponding section of the Constitution of the State of South Carolina, Article 1, Section 3.

Plaintiff's claim for punitive damages violates the defendant's right to access to the Courts guaranteed by the Seventh and Fourteenth Amendments because the threat of an award of unlimited punitive damages chills the defendant's exercise of that right.

Plaintiff's claim for punitive damages violates the due process and equal protection clauses of the Fourteenth Amendment for the following reasons;

- (a) The standard or test for determining the requisite mental state of the co-defendant for imposition of punitive damages is void for vagueness; and
- (b) Insofar as punitive damages are not measured against actual injury to the plaintiff and are left wholly to the discretion of the jury, there is no objective standard that limits the amount of such damages that may be awarded, and the amount of punitive damages that may be awarded is indeterminate at the time of the co-defendant's alleged conduct.

WHEREFORE, having fully answered the Complaint of the plaintiff, the defendant, Scott Carr, prays that the Complaint of the plaintiff be dismissed, for the costs and disbursements of this action, and for any such other and further relief as this Court shall deem just and proper.

19 Q. Alright. And how hard was the impact?

20 A. Pretty hard.

21 Q. You've seen these pictures of the vehicle Mr., that
22 Mr. Carr's attorney produced in this case, he's shown us where 23 he says the damage was, is that what Mr. Carr's vehicle looked 24 like after the wreck?

25 A. No.

1 action here today?

2 A. Because he hasn't done anything to even show me that he
3 was sorry.

4 Q. Alright. Of all the medical bills, everything that, lost
5 wages, all that, that's been your responsibility to deal with
6 that, is that right?

7 A. Yes, sir.

8 Q. After the wreck you go to the hospital?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. Where'd you go?

11 A. Spartanburg Regional.

12 Q. Why'd you go to Spartanburg Regional?

13 A. 'Cause I was in pain.

14 (Whereupon, a discussion was held off the record.)

15 Q. This is a summary a your medical bills, I'm gonna go
16 through it with ya, we'll kinda come back and talk about each
17 a these in a little bit more detail. So the day a the wreck
18 you went to Spartanburg Regional, is that right?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. Is that (indicating) the charge for goin' to Spartanburg
21 Regional?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. Alright, and then the ER physician saw you there, is that
24 (indicating) what they charged ya for ---

8 Q. And then, uh, ya also went to see your family doctor on

10 A. Yes, sir.

11 Q. And then did ya have a chipped tooth in the wreck?

12 A. I did.

13 Q. Okay, and did they fix your chipped tooth?

16 A. Yeah.

17 ~~Q. Did ya see the the Tyger River Dentistry on June 9th to~~

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. Was that (indicating) what they charged?

21 A. Yes, sir.

22 Q. Is this (indicating) the total of your medical bills?

23 A. Yes, sir.

24 Q. And you missed time from work at Pizza Hut.

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. Uh, ya heard me tell the jury earlier that they
2 wouldn't let you come back unless you had a release from your
3 doctor, ---

4 A. Yes.

13 THE COURT: What was the number?

14 MR. LANGLEY: 6,242.25, Your Honor.

15 THE COURT: Thank ya.

16 MR. LANGLEY: Yes, sir.

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. Okay. Uh, and tell the jury if you would in your own
2 words what happened when this impact occurred, what 3 happened?

4 A. I was goin' down passin' Hillcrest and somethin' caught
5 my attention over in the parking lot of Hillcrest. I glanced
6 over and by the time I glanced back I seen the car in front
7 me had stopped.

8 Q. Alright, so you said the speed limit on that road was 9 what?

10 A. Thirty-five.

11 Q. Okay, now before, and and you you agree that your vehicle
12 came in contact with the plaintiff's vehicle, is that ---

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. --- right?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. Alright, before you came in contact with the plaintiff's
17 vehicle were you able to apply your brakes?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. Alright. And did ya hit 'em hard?

20 A. I hit 'em as hard as my foot would go and as fast as I
21 could.

22 Q. Okay, and so if you woulda had another foot between you
23 and the plaintiff's car, what would've happened?

24 A. Probly nothin'.

25 Q. Alright, so was your speed substantially reduced after

OPENING STATEMENTS

1 result somebody's injured, the at-fault driver is responsible
2 for the harm. Let me tell ya what happened in this case. May
3 28th 2014 the defendant's driving west on East Main Street in
4 Spartanburg, approach an intersection of East Main and
5 Drayton, close to Hillcrest shoppin' mall, goin' approximately
6 35 miles an hour, there's a vehicle ahead in the same lane
7 completely stopped for a traffic light, defendant's not payin'
8 attention, he rear-ends the vehicle stopped for the traffic
9 light. Plaintiff Aaliyah Smith was the driver a the vehicle
10 stopped at the traffic light. Now who, we're suin' this
11 defendant because initially though he's now accepted fault
12 before you here today, initially he refused to accept fault.

22 MR. COULTER: I'd appreciate if we could ---

2 MR. LANGLEY: Yes, sir. Page 2 the answer to his

7 THE COURT: I'm gonna ask the jury to go to the jury room
8 for a moment, please, I wanna look at somethin' and think
9 about somethin' a minute here, if you would go the jury room,
10 please.

11 (The following takes place outside the presence of the 12 jury.)

13 THE COURT: Alright, I just, it just occurred to me I
14 don't know, you know, uh, generally speaking are we planning
15 to show to the jury and all are things that are gonna be
16 introduced into evidence durin' the trial and I would, and
17 that, and that raises a question a whether the answer is
18 somethin' that's introduced in evidence durin' the trial,
19 generally that's that's not the case. I don't know, I don't 20 know, uh, if there's any reason that you should be able to 21 show what was said in the answer to start at the trial, start
22 of the trial to the jury, Mr. Langley, you have any authority
23 that says you can do that?

24 MR. LANGLEY: Well, Your Honor, I think pleadings as a

OPENING STATEMENTS

1 MR. LANGLEY: No, sir, Your Honor.

2 THE COURT: It's not? Why do you put evidence in then?

3 MR. LANGLEY: Well ---

4 THE COURT: Either in favor of your side or against the
5 other side, right, that's prejudice.

6 MR. LANGLEY: No, sir, Your Honor.

7 THE COURT: Or it's not? Tell ---

8 MR. LANGLEY: What ---

9 THE COURT: --- me what it is.

10 MR. LANGLEY: --- what I intend to do is show why we're 11 in this courtroom today. What he's going to try to say is 12 that ---

13 THE COURT: That doesn't make any difference why we're 14 here, the only thing is the dispute about how much damage she 15 was caused.

16 MR. LANGLEY: No, sir, Your Honor, I disagree. He 17 said ---

18 THE COURT: Okay.

19 MR. LANGLEY: --- two different things on the record;
20 one, he said he's not at fault. In his deposition he said he 21 may be at fault but he didn't accept responsibility for the
22 harm that he caused so I don't know what he's gonna say when 23 he gets on this stand. The record is and his answer that he's 24 only said that she was at fault, that plaintiff is entitled to

2 SCOTT CARR, having been first
3 duly sworn, testified as follows:

4 THE CLERK: Thank you.

5 DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. LANGLEY:

6 Q. You're Scott Carr, defendant this case?

7 A. Yes, sir.

8 Q. You rear-ended my client Ms. Smith on May 28th 2014?

9 A. Yes, sir.

10 Q. On December, uh, 1st 2014 there's an answer filed on your
11 behalf in this case, is that right?

12 A. Yes, sir.

13 Q. And in that did you say that that you were ---

14 MR. COULTER: Judge, I'm gonna ---

15 Q. --- responsible ---

16 MR. COULTER: --- object that ---

17 THE COURT: Me -- members the jury panel, need you go the 18 jury room for a few minutes, please.

19 (The following takes place outside the presence of the 20 jury.)

21 THE COURT: Alright, we have the jury out, the door's
22 closed, go ahead with your question.

23 BY MR. LANGLEY:

24 Q. Did you say that you're not liable to the plaintiff in
25 any sum whatsoever?

1 A. That's what it says I said then I said it.

2 Q. Alright. Right here (indicating) it is, did I read it
3 incorrectly?

4 A. No, that's exactly what it says.

5 MR. LANGLEY: It's my question, Your Honor.

6 THE COURT: Alright. And your a -- your objection is to
7 relevancy?

8 MR. COULTER: It is, Judge, ---

9 THE COURT: Alright.

10 MR. COULTER: --- it is to relevancy.

11 THE COURT: Why do you think that's relevant to any issue
12 that's involved in this case at this time, Mr. Langley?

13 MR. LANGLEY: Your Honor, I I that I respectfully
14 disagree with the fact that he denied liability, has continued
15 to deny liability throughout all of his pleadings and I
16 respect your ruling that now we're here on a matter a damages.
17 Ha has denied that he's responsible for any damages and I'm 18 entitled to get into that.

19 THE COURT: I appreciable your position but I sustain the 20 objection. Bring the jury back in.

21 MR. COULTER: Well and, Judge, there's still the issue of 22 the, uh, motion in limine before we go into anything that was 23 discussed.

24 THE COURT: Let's let's just go ahead and do that now and
25 all, hold the jury in there if you would. Let's just go ahead

CLOSING ARGUMENTS

1 was going on at time. She's discharged from the hospital that
2 same day, no X-rays, no nothin' and this goes on to say when 3 it talks about the neck, excuse me, cervical spine which is 4 the neck, No cervical spine tenderness, talks about the back,
5 No back tenderness, all things that are goin' on at the time.

6 Now plaintiff has come up and said, I've missed work, I
7 don't even think there was any testimony as to how many days
8 she missed, I, that I don't think I recall hearing anything
9 like that, they just given you a number and said that's it,
10 $964, that's it. I asked the chiropractor about it from 11 records he never provided before and he looked at one and 12 said, Oh, this says June, think he said June 26th was when my 13 last day was and then said, I'm not mistaken, he said, Well
14 she was already back to work. When I questioned him about it
15 some more, he took that back, said no, so I'm not exactly
16 sure, they've just given you a number, but here's what we do
17 know: She missed the the school that same day, didn't miss
18 anymore, didn't miss anymore school at all, actually took a 19 test two days later, okay, two days later she took a test at 20 school and didn't miss any other.

21 Now I'm gonna wrap up here real quick but plaintiff
22 attorney is asking to return all this (indicating) and then 23 more, all this and more, one being he says anxiety, want some 24 award for anxiety caused by by this (indicating) and the pain
25 and suffering, now I submit to you that common sense would

CLOSING ARGUMENTS

1 tell you ya don't get injured as a result of this
2 (indicating), nonetheless, they want Scott to be responsible
3 for that. They want Scott to be responsible for that
4 (indicating) and more, okay. As a result of this accident,
5 they want him to pay and so just like anybody else who would
6 find themselves here as a result of an accident, I wouldn't
7 want you to be doin' this just to be reasonable, I know you
8 will, I know you will, he can't come up here and promise he's 9 never gonna make, uh, be in an accident again, can anybody say
10 that when there's nothin', they say we don't follow the rules
11 and we're not repentant but can I come up logically in front
12 ya'll and say I'm not gonna be in an accident, I won't make a
13 mistake as a human being and that they're angry and they want
14 s -- for an accident so they want more from then, just this,
15 remember though in considering the pain and suffering, you'll 16 have the medical records and and the chiropractic records,
17 remember this, you can see 'em, within two weeks of this 18 accident, two weeks her complaints are a two outta ten, a two 19 out of ten and yet she says she can't go back to work. One
20 month after this accident her complaints are a zero out of 21 ten, zero and yet she goes to five more chiropractic
22 treatments. Remember, they have to prove to you by a 23 preponderance of the evidence that the damages they're 24 claiming are reasonable and necessary, reasonable and 25 necessary. Was it reasonable to go to the ER based on this

CLOSING ARGUMENTS

1 (indicating)? I don't know, that's up to you. Was it
2 reasonable to spend $4,000 with a chiropractor over a month
3 and a half and to go again and again and again when you have 4 complaints of zero outta ten and then ask Scott to be 5 responsible for that, is that reasonable? Why would 6 chiropractor Ivey you may ask with his bag of his tricks that 7 he came up with, I tell ya, I've been doin' this for 8 twenty-five years, I have never seen a bowling ball in a 9 courtroom, that's a first time, that's first time, so he's got
10 a bowlin' ball and he's showin' ya all this stuff, well why
11 would chiropractor Ivey say, Oh, yeah, all all these things
12 are related, it's all because a this accident and yeah, she 13 was hurt, no question about it, why? 'cause he's owed $4,000,
14 he is owed $4,000 for this. What would cause him to say all
15 this treatment was related? how 'bout the $4,000 he's owed, so
16 I'll sit down and again just ask you remembering human nature
17 and mistakes and all of that, just if you'd be reasonable I
18 submit to you that reasonableness and common sense says there
19 couldn't be an injury and I'm gonna ask you to return a
20 verdict for Scott, it's what I'm ask you to return a defense
21 verdict because they haven't proven their case by a
22 preponderance of the evidence, they have not proven that these 23 are reasonable, that deserves a defense verdict so I'll just 24 leave that with ya and I wanna appreciate, tell you how much I
25 appreciate your time.

1 treatment, do ya?

2 A. No, sir.

3 Q. Show you some pictures that have been produced in this
4 case, ---

5 (Whereupon, a discussion was held off the record.)

6 Q. --- just take a moment look through 'em, make sure you're
7 familiar with 'em.

8 (Whereupon, the defendant complied.)

9 Q. Seen those before?

10 A. Um-hum, yes.

11 Q. And, uh, are those pictures a your vehicle?

12 A. Yes, sir.

13 Q. And when we talked before you told me that some a this 14 damage to the front end was caused from this wreck, is that 15 right, ---

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. This wreck with Aaliyah Smith?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. Now it looks to me like this hood looks a little 20 different from the car, is that the same hood that's always 21 been on there?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. Alright. And you marked for me before I believe the, uh,
24 damage and and a little bump, the, uh, indentation there in 25 your vehicle that had come from this wreck, is that

- 2 Q. Now, uh, this accident took place on May 28th 'bout 7:30

- 17 Q. --- and how -- what did ya hear?
- 18 A. Uh, tires screeching.
- 19 Q. Alright. And how hard was the impact?
- 20 A. Pretty hard.
- 21 Q. You've seen these pictures of the vehicle Mr., that
- 22 Mr. Carr's attorney produced in this case, he's shown us where
- 23 he says the damage was, is that what Mr. Carr's vehicle looked
- 24 like after the wreck?
- 25 A. No.

- 1 Q. How was it different?
- 2 A. The hood was bended up.
- 3 Q. Okay. And point to the jury where the hood was bent up.
- 4 A. Right here (indicating).
- 5 Q. In the middle?
- 6 A. Yes.
- 7 Q. Alright. Do you know where those pictures were taken?
- 8 A. No.
- 9 Q. You know how long after the wreck they were taken?
- 10 A. No, sir.
- 11 Q. Now do you have your seat belt on at the time a the
- 12 wreck?
- 13 A. Yes, sir.
- 14 Q. What happened to you when you were hit at impact?
- 15 A. My body moved forward.
- 16 Q. Okay, and wha'd ya do after the accident?
- 17 A. Um, we wait for the police to come.
- 18 Q. Okay. Did you talk to Mr. Carr?
- 19 A. Yes.
- 20 Q. Alright. How long you talk to him?
- 21 A. Uh, not long.
- 22 Q. Okay, alright. Did he say, I'm sorry, or anything like

9 THE COURT: Wait a minute, why don't you just tell me
10 about that later and everything, give it to me whatever, you
11 know, if you want to and unless you think, unless you want me
12 to do somethin' now you that you think I can do, uh, undue or 13 change or whatever anything ---

14 MR. LANGLEY: Well ---

15 THE COURT: --- that I've done.

16 MR. LANGLEY: --- Your Honor, I think that there's a, uh,
17 it -- there would be an opportunity for me to use the answer
18 in the, in the closing and that's what I'd like to ---

19 THE COURT: Okay.

20 MR. LANGLEY: --- do.

21 THE COURT: Alright, tell me what you want, what -- tell
22 me what that you think those cases say that you think ---

23 MR. LANGLEY: Well I ---

24 THE COURT: --- gives you leeway to do something you
25 wanna do that you don't think I'd let ya do.

MOTIONS AND MATTERS

1 MR. LANGLEY: Yes, sir, Your Honor. I'm just gonna read
2 to ya directly from the case ---

4 MR. LANGLEY: --- Po -- Postal v. Mann, M-A-N-N and this
5 is 308 S.C. ---

6 THE COURT: You you don't, okay, you don't have to give 7 me a cite, just tell me what the case, what the case is about 8 and what do you think it says.

9 MR. LANGLEY: Yes, sir, Your Honor, I'll just put this on 10 the record, 308 S.C. 385 and I'll read directly, It's well
11 settled that parties are judicially bound by their pleadings
12 unless withdrawn, altered or stricken by amendment or 13 otherwise. The allegations, statements, or admissions
14 contained in a pleading are conclusive as against the pleader
15 and a party cannot subsequently take a position contradictory
16 of or inconsistent with his pleadings and the facts which are 17 admitted by the pleadings are taken as true against the 18 pleader for the purpose of the action, alright, and so that's 19 one note, Your Honor, where I I believe that I was entitled,
20 uh, to cross-examine or examine Mr. Carr and to use in the, in 21 the opening his pleadings in this case ---

22 THE COURT: Alright.

23 MR. LANGLEY: --- and, Your Honor, had had mentioned a 24 that you didn't feel like that the pleadings were evidence and 25 there's another case I'd like for you ---

1 THE COURT: Alright.

2 MR. LANGLEY: --- to look at, it's Lucht vs. Youngblood,
3 L-U-C-H-T vs. Youngblood, Pleadings in an action may 4 genelry -- generally be received in evidence against the 5 pleader and now, Your Honor, I understand unless you'd permit
6 me to call Mr. Carr in reply that, uh, I can't enter in -- 7 enter these pleadings into evidence but I think, uh, that the 8 Court can take judicial notice of the pleadings as bein' in 9 the record and in the ---

10 (Indiscernible cross-talk.)

11 THE COURT: I don't know how, let me, let me go back and 12 ask ya you know can you -- do ya know how or what that first 13 case is, what the year of that is?

14 MR. LANGLEY: Very first case I cited ---

15 THE COURT: Yeah.

16 MR. LANGLEY: --- to Your Honor? Yeah, I believe it's 17 1992 but let me pull up. Yes, sir, Your Honor, 1992.

18 THE COURT: And how 'bout the second one?

19 MR. LANGLEY: Well my my machine just logged me out.
20 Give me just one second, Your Honor, I'll tell ya. And by the 21 way, Your Honor, 'cordin' to my Westlaw here that opinion, the 22 Postal opinion had never been, uh, no court or subsequent 23 appellate court had ever been critical of it ---

24 THE COURT: Okay.

25 MR. LANGLEY: --- and the Lucht v. Youngblood case is

MOTIONS AND MATTERS

1 Supreme Court a South Carolina 1976 and again, uh, my ---

2 THE COURT: I don't remember, like like I say, I'll be
3 glad to read read both those cases see what they say, you
4 know, but, you know, course I think that that idea of 5 pleadings being evidence in some way or, well they used, it
6 goes to the -- it -- we used to even, the the pleadings used
7 to go to the jury and we quit doin' that a long time ago and 8 all and I still stand by the fact that that when you get, when 9 a case has been developed as this one has been developed and 10 all and in the modern practice of things with discovery that 11 we have and all, it's quite oftentimes a big difference
12 between the initial pleading and what the positions of the 13 parties are when they get to trial and to try to say that 14 because something was stated in an initial pleading or answer
15 should be conclusive and used against the party at the time a
16 trial I don't think is good, is a good way to operate so I
17 appreciate your position but I'm not gonna change what I've 18 done.

19 MR. LANGLEY: Thank Your Honor.

20 THE COURT: Alright. By the way I give you your rule
21 book ---

22 MR. COULTER: Oh, yes, ---

23 THE COURT: --- back.

24 MR. COULTER: --- thank you. Alright, we'll be back at 25 two o'clock.

JURY QUALIFICATION

1 conflict at all. The reason I asked about the Dr. Ivey is
2 'cause, uh, I believe it's his brother that's a friend of mine
3 and his son is a friend of mine, I don't know if that's a
4 conflict or not.

5 THE COURT: It's just about, you know, he said about 6 Dr. Ivey that you got that.

7 JUROR NUMBER 85: I know David, big brother ---

8 MR. LANGLEY: Oh, got ya.

9 JUROR NUMBER 85: --- and his son.

10 MR. COULTER: Yeah.

11 MR. LANGLEY: Yeah, got ya.

12 (Whereupon, a recess was taken.)

13 THE COURT: Keep your seat. Alright, we're ready to pick 14 a jury, one through twenty for the regular twelve jurors,
15 twenty-one, twenty-two, twenty-three for the alternate.
16 Plaintiff first.

17 MR. LANGLEY: Plaintiff strikes Number 2.

4 alternate. Plaintiff.

8 numbers of those that I have marked as serving, Number 1, 4, 9 6, 7, 8, 11, 12, 13, 15, 16, 17, 20, and 23, everybody agree
10 on that?

11 MR. LANGLEY: Yes, Your Honor.

12 THE COURT: Alright, I ask the clerk call the names of 13 the jurors and if your name is called, bring any personal
14 belongings with ya, come over here (indicating) and have a
15 seat in the jury box.

16 THE CLERK: Juror Number 109, Justin M. Pearson.

17 (Justin M. Pearson, a white male came forward.)

18 THE CLERK: Juror Number 133, Jillian J. ---

19 JUROR NUMBER 133: Stenersen.

20 THE CLERK: Stensen [sic], thank you.

21 (Jillian Stenersen, a white female came forward.)

22 THE CLERK: Juror Number 9, Jerry B. Belue.

23 (Jerry B. Belue, a white male came forward.)

24 THE CLERK: Juror Number 18, Neil Canaday.

3 THE CLERK: Juror Number 4, John G. Alexander, Jr.

7 THE CLERK: Juror Number 112, Kimberly M. Pirfman?

15 (William M. Wilson, III, a white male came forward.)
16 THE CLERK: Juror Number 36, Mark A. Ellis.
17 (Mark A. Ellis, a black male came forward.)
18 THE CLERK: Juror Number 31, Tammy E. Dame.
19 (Tammy E. Dame, a white female came forward.)
20 THE CLERK: And the alternate, Juror Number 80, April R.
21 Littlejohn.
22 (April R. Littlejohn, a black female came forward.)
23 THE CLERK: Your Honor, your jury has been selected.
24 THE COURT: Alright, good, yeah, okay. Alright, any 25 objection to the jury that's presently constitute, plaintiff?

1 MR. LANGLEY: No, sir, Your Honor.

2 THE COURT: Defendant?

3 MR. COULTER: No, sir.

4 THE COURT: Alright, member jury panel, as I said this is 5 a, you're the jury for the trial of the second case and we're
6 not gonna, we're gonna get, we plan on starting that case
7 Wednesday mornin' so I'm gonna let ya go now in just a minute
8 and ask you be back with us, uh, Wednesday mornin' at 9:30,
9 we'll get started just as soon as we can after that, Wednesday
10 morning at 9:30 reassemble in the jury room, show 'em where 11 you want 'em to come back to what jury room and where, make 12 sure you know how to get in and out from that jury room, be 13 back with us at 9:30, course you don't know anything about 14 this case at this point in time other than what I've told ya
15 earlier and that is that it involved this claim that the 16 plaintiff makes against the defendant and a dispute about the 17 money that he, uh, that she wants him -- wants to -- him to 18 pay her and, uh, but don't discuss the case, don't let anybody
19 contact your -- do anything as far as, uh, uh, this case is 20 concerned, that you're to make your decision based on the 21 testimony and the evidence that'll be presented to you from 22 the witness stand and my instructions to ya on the law, so
23 don't try to discuss the case with your family, friends, or 24 anyone else between now, when you're deliberating at the end
25 of the case, you're the twelve that'll make the decision, not

MOTIONS AND MATTERS

1 somebody else so if they wanna know, somebody wants to know
2 what you're doin': family, friends or whatever, you tell them
3 you're involved the trial of a case, you'll be -- you've been 4 picked as the jury on the case and you can tell 'em all about 5 it once it's over but until it is over it'll be improper for 6 you to discuss the case with them, so with that instruction
7 keep that in mind, be back with us Wednesday mornin' at 9:30,
8 see you then. Let the jury get out.

9 (The following takes place outside the presence of the 10 jury.)

11 (Whereupon, the jury pool was released.)

12 THE COURT: Alright, ya'll are free too then, be on your 13 way, be back here ---

14 MR. LANGLEY: Yes, Judge.

15 THE COURT: --- at 9:30 Wednesday.

16 MR. LANGLEY: Yes, sir.

17 MR. COULTER: By, Judge, thank you.

18 THE COURT: Okay.

19 (Proceedings March 23, 2016)

20 THE COURT: Alright, anything before we bring the jury 21 in?

22 MR. COULTER: Yes, sir, Judge, we do have a co -- I I've 23 got one motion in limine.

24 THE COURT: Alright, what is that?

25 MR. COULTER: Judge, uh, I, and I'm assuming it's still

MOTIONS AND MATTERS

1 the case but, uh, at one point, uh, Mr. Langley had had 2 indicated that it was his intention to attempt to 3 cross-examine my client on criminal convictions that were over
4 10-years-old. Uh, he's had no criminal conviction just ---

5 THE COURT: What's the, ---

6 MR. COULTER: --- so ---

7 THE COURT: --- what's the rule say? I don't have my 8 rule book right here with the re -- what's the rule say about 9 that?

10 MR. COULTER: Uh, the rule says that, uh, uh, criminal 11 convictions that are over 10-years-old aren't pr -- aren't 12 proper to be presented into evidence.

13 THE COURT: Is that right, Mr. Langley?

14 MR. LANGLEY: No, sir, Your Honor, it's not. Uh, there's 15 two rules that are applicable: 609 and 608. Uh, 609 says the 16 part about ten years, 608(b) says that, These criminal 17 convictions may, however, in the discretion a the Court if 18 probative of truthfulness or untruthfulness be inquired into 19 on cross-examination concerning the witness's character for 20 truthfulness or untruthfulness. I'm not tryin' to ask about 21 the criminal conviction in isolation, Your Honor, I'm tryin'
22 to ask about Mr. Carr's failure to be truthful with me in his 23 deposition and I'll just read to you the excerpt that I'm 24 concerned about. I asked him about, just to give a little 25 context, uh, I asked him about his past DUIs and I've got the

MOTIONS AND MATTERS

1 original transcript, Your Honor, if you wanna me to go ahead
2 open it up.

3 THE COURT: Try to con -- condense it and tell me what 4 you're talkin' about first.

5 MR. LANGLEY: Yes, sir, Your Honor. Uh, I a -- he had,
6 I'd asked him about prior DUIs and he admitted to me he had 7 four DUIs prior and I said, Okay, any a those felonies? No.
8 Any a those involve crash? No. Any other criminal 9 convictions you've got? No, flat nos, Your Honor, and and 10 that that's not true.

11 THE COURT: Well what is no -- what is the truth?

12 MR. LANGLEY: The truth is he's got a felony DUI, uh,
13 from Virginia, it's just a little bit of outside the 10-year
14 window, it's 13-years-old or 14-years-old now, it was 15 12-years-old when this wreck happened, it's from 2002. I've 16 got the certified record from the circuit court of Loudoun
17 County where Mr. Carr pled guilty to a felony DUI third or 18 subsequent violation within ten years pursuant to 18.2-266 of 19 the code of Virginia so it's not in isolation that I'm trying
20 to use a criminal conviction, it's not under 609, Your Honor, 21 it's under 608(b), it's his failure to be truthful with me
22 that is at issue.

23 MR. COULTER: And, Judge, I would wanna point out here
24 that this issue about a felony DUI first of all is 25 substantially different than a South Carolina felony DUI.

MOTIONS AND MATTERS

1 This is not a situation where someone was killed or injured an
2 in Virginia as I understand it, I have research as well, if 3 you're over particular number, it it regarded as a felony as 4 opposed to what we consider it down here, bottom line though
5 is it's a backdoor attempt to get in criminal convictions that 6 are more than 10-years-old and the other thing is this is a,
7 this is a case of admitted, uh, fault, admitted fault so his 8 credibility regarding what happened in this accident that he 9 caused this accident really becomes a 401 argument because 10 we're not talkin' about attacking his credibility when it's 11 a -- he's admitting these and then it becomes an issue of 12 becoming prejudicial as apposed [sic] to probative, uh, which 13 is just again backdoor attempt.

14 THE COURT: Alright, well I'll take a look at that and 15 all, uh, uh, I I'll I'll take a look. I'm not gonna make a 16 decision on that now, I'm not gonna rule on it right now and 17 all but so before we get into, 'fore you get into any of that 18 you let me know that you wanna take up a matter with the Court
19 or something like that, bring it to my attention and I'll give 20 it a more thour -- thorough examination, that point I'll look 21 at the rule a little bit closer.

22 MR. COULTER: Sure.

23 THE COURT: If you wanna loan me your rule book until ---

24 MR. COULTER: Certainly.

25 THE COURT: --- then ---

1 MR. COULTER: Yes, sir.

2 THE COURT: --- that be fine, I didn't bring mine out
3 here with me and all but, uh, I'll be glad to look, I'll be 4 glad to look at that but appreciate ya bringin' that to my
5 attention so, Mr. ---

6 (Whereupon, a discussion was held off the record.)

7 MR. LANGLEY: Yes, Your Honor, one more ---

8 THE COURT: Okay, ---

9 MR. LANGLEY: --- uh, ---

10 THE COURT: --- before you, before you start into any a 11 that you let me know and I'll ---

12 MR. COULTER: Yes, sir.

13 THE COURT: --- be glad to rule on it but let, we'll put 14 everything in, let me hear, look at everything and I'll make a 15 ruling then.

16 MR. LANGLEY: Yes, sir, Your Honor, ---

17 THE COURT: Alright, ---

18 MR. LANGLEY: --- and if ---

19 THE COURT: --- what else?

20 MR. LANGLEY: --- I might approach, I've provided a 21 copy ---

22 THE COURT: Anything else from you, Mr. Coulter, you were 23 goin', anything?

24 MR. COULTER: No, sir, that's ---

25 THE COURT: Alright, ---

MOTIONS AND MATTERS

1 MR. COULTER: --- that's the only thing.

2 THE COURT: --- anything from you?

3 MR. LANGLEY: Yes, Your Honor, just a pretty general, uh,
4 motion in limine.

5 THE COURT: What is ---

6 MR. LANGLEY: I, ---

7 THE COURT: --- that?

8 MR. LANGLEY: --- it's, I provided it to Mr. Coulter way
9 back in December when we were first gonna try this case and 10 maybe even one time before that, and the first time, the 11 very ---

12 THE COURT: What ---

13 MR. LANGLEY: --- first time ---

14 THE COURT: --- what is it?

15 MR. LANGLEY: --- because it -- it's just a general
16 motion in limine, Your Honor, ---

17 THE COURT: About what?

18 MR. LANGLEY: --- about references to whether or not that 19 the plaintiff, uh, what they'll do with these funds collateral
20 source, ---

21 THE COURT: Yeah, do you know ---

22 MR. LANGLEY: --- uh, ---

23 THE COURT: --- what he's talking about?

24 MR. COULTER: Uh, Judge, I'm not gonna be getting into 25 collateral source or anything ---

1 THE COURT: Alright, ---

2 MR. COULTER: --- that quick, ---

3 THE COURT: --- good.

4 MR. COULTER: --- I ---

5 THE COURT: Good.

6 MR. LANGLEY: Then income tax, if there's no objection to 7 this motion then we're fine, Your Honor.

8 MR. COULTER: Well, I mean, there's seven or eight here
9 and some of 'em I do. I mean, one of 'em says that I can't 10 mention the fact that, uh, there was minimal damage caused to 11 the the plaintiff's vehicle. Uh, ---

12 THE COURT: I think you can certainly do that.

13 MR. COULTER: Well I I agree and so I I'm not gonna not 14 object to that so but these about collateral source and so 15 forth I certainly don't plan to do that, uh, so that I would 16 certainly agree with.

17 THE COURT: Alright, well as as with most motions in 18 limine I find that I cannot and I will not make a final
19 ruling. If he raises a question about somethin' that you
20 think's objectionable, you object and I'll rule.

22 THE COURT: Alright.

23 MR. COULTER: And, Judge, I also think that, I think I,
24 although I hadn't seen Ryan's, I think we're in agreement to 25 mark some, uh, some ---

1 THE COURT: Well go ahead ---

2 MR. COULTER: --- evidence ---

3 THE COURT: --- and do it.

4 MR. COULTER: --- so that we can go ahead and move
5 through it a little quicker.

6 (Whereupon, a discussion was held off the record.)

7 MR. LANGLEY: No, Your Honor, we don't have an agreement
8 on him marking, uh, these pictures ahead a time, ---

9 MR. COULTER: Okay.

10 MR. LANGLEY: --- particuly -- particularly the large
11 board, uh, that's duplicative of and and redundant of evidence
12 that will be in the record. Now he wants to show the 13 picture ---

14 THE COURT: If you don't have an agreement, just sit down 15 then.

16 MR. COULTER: Yeah, that ---

17 MR. LANGLEY: Well, Your Honor, I think we do have an 18 agreement in part, that's why I was, uh, ---

19 MR. COULTER: Judge, I just assume go ahead and and start
20 the trial and we'll get into it when we get into it.

21 THE COURT: Alright.

22 MR. LANGLEY: And, Your Honor, I'm just waitin' on one,
23 uh, more board to to get here then I'll be ready to proceed.

24 THE COURT: Okay.

25 THE BAILIFF: Judge, may I approach please?

1 THE COURT: Sure.

2 THE BAILIFF: I've just been told that Juror 112 is 3 here.

4 THE COURT: Okay, good. Juror 112, the one that was 5 sick.

6 THE BAILIFF: Yes.

7 THE COURT: Okay, so we're back to twelve, good.

8 MR. LANGLEY: Great.

9 (Pause.)

10 THE COURT: Alright, we're gonna bring the jury in, get 11 started and whenever your thing gets here you can go get here
12 but we're gonna go ahead and get started for for with, uh, my 13 instructions and also with the opening statement. Bring the 14 jury in.

15 THE BAILIFF: Yes.

16 (The following takes place in the presence of the jury.)

17 THE COURT: Let's see, where is juror Rebecca Green?
18 Where? Alright, I'm gonna ask you to serve as forelady of the 19 jury. If you would come down and take this first seat down
20 here (indicating) and all but ya'll, you swap with her if you
21 would, sir, I'd like for her to serve as the forelady of the 22 jury. Alright, I am appointing you as forelady, foreperson of 23 the jury, if you would occupy that seat at all times during 24 the trial, the rest of you're free to sit anywhere you'd, that 25 you'd like in the jury box at such time as you come and go

MOTIONS AND MATTERS

1 from the courtroom but if you would let the forelady sit down
2 there (indication) in that first seat. I'm gonna ask the 3 clerk to swear the jury, please.

4 THE CLERK: Please stand and raise your right hand.
5 (Whereupon, the jury was sworn.)

6 THE CLERK: Thank you.

7 THE COURT: Thank you. Alright, if we ha -- have ya
8 already -- yeah, you've already given the notepads and the 9 pens to the jury?

10 THE CLERK: Uh, it was that they've already ---

11 THE COURT: Bailiff has?

12 THE CLERK: --- got ---

13 THE COURT: Somebody? Ya alright?

14 UNIDENTIFIED JUROR: We're good.

15 THE COURT: Okay, everybody has a notepad and a pen. I
16 do allow jurors to take notes during the trial, you don't have 17 to take any notes but you may take notes. Some people don't 18 think it's a good idea to give you notepads and pens, they 19 think it may distract you from what is actually being said and 20 done during the presentation the testimony and the evidence to 21 you, if you do take notes, do not allow your note-taking to 22 distract you. Notes are to be used used only as memory aids, 23 notes are not entitled to any greater weight than the 24 recollection or the impression of each juror as to what the 25 testimony or evidence actually was, those will be your notes

MOTIONS AND MATTERS

1 and your notes only, no one will be looking at them, loo --
2 check checkin' to see what you wrote down, anything of that
3 sort. At the conclusion of the trial, I'd ask ya tear off any 4 notes you may have made, take them with you, tear 'em up,
5 whatever you wanna do, as I said those are your notes and your 6 notes only and notes are not entitled to any greater weight in 7 the recollection or the impression of each juror as to what 8 the testimony or evidence actually was.

9 The oath that you just took was an oath whereby you swore 10 you would decide this case based on the testimony and the 11 evidence that will be presented to you from that witness chair 12 right over there (indicating) between you and me and my 13 instructions to ya on the law. I really don't know much more
14 about this case at this point in time than you do. All I know
15 is this is a dispute, a disagreement between these parties
16 that grows out of an automobile accident that happened here in 17 Spartanburg sometime ago, I've forgotten exactly when it was 18 but couple years ago I'm sure, but anyway there's there's a 19 dispute about the consequences really of of this accident in 20 terms of any damages or injuries that the plaintiff may have 21 suffered in this case. I believe that the defendant, uh,
22 admits that he was at fault in causing this accident so you
23 don't have to worry about that aspect of the case. Oftentimes
24 we have a dispute about whether somebody ran a red light or 25 somethin' of that sort, goin' too fast or whatever and all but

MOTIONS AND MATTERS

1 in this case the defendant admits that this accident was his
2 fault, he ran into the back of the automobile that was 3 occupied by the plaintiff, she claims that as a result of 4 that, direct consequence of that she was injured, what we call
5 "damages," in this case that's what she's claimin', that she 6 was injured and damaged as a result of this and that he should 7 be required to pay her some money, that's what this se -- this 8 case is about, when you get right down to it, that's what this 9 case is about: how much money should he be required to pay to 10 her as a direct, as a direct consequence of this accident,
11 that's what you'll have to decide at the conclusion this case,
12 that's how I understand it as at least at this point in time
13 and as I said you'll learn about it more by the witnesses who 14 come up here to that witness chair right there (indicating)
15 and tell you what they know about this case.

16 You are the sole judges of the facts a this case, I don't 17 have anything to do with the facts. My job during the trial
18 is to make sure the parties follow the rules. We have certain 19 rules of evidence and rules of procedure that they're supposed
20 to follow, my job is to make sure that they follow those 21 rules. Perhaps durin' the trial one or both lawyers'll get up
22 and say something like, Your Honor, I object, and hopefully 23 have some reason as to why the objection to a question that's 24 been asked or an answer that's been given, when the lawyers do
25 that, they're talkin' to me, they're not talkin' to you,

MOTIONS AND MATTERS

1 they're talkin' to me, they're calling a possible violation of
2 one a those rules to my attention. Don't you concern
3 yourselves with those objections whether I overrule it,
4 sustain it, whatever because it has absolutely nothin' to do
5 with your job in the case which is to be the finders or the 6 judges of the facts of this case. Perhaps those objections
7 come I may send ya outta the courtroom, I'm not tryin' to hide
8 anything from ya by doin' that, it's just we've found over the 9 years that that's the easiest and the best way for me and the 10 lawyers to discuss those rules, to discuss the rule, let me
11 make a decision about it, then bring you back in and go on 12 with the trial, again, not tryin' to hide anything from ya,
13 it's just that we found that's the easiest and the best way
14 for me and the lawyers to deal with those rules questions is 15 to send ya out, discuss it, let me make my decision, go on 16 with the trial.

17 Now, how you gonna go about learning about this case?
18 First thing we're gonna do is I'm gonna allow each attorney to 19 make a brief opening statement to you. These are not 20 arguments, the arguments will come at conclusion a the case
21 but I do allow each side to introduce themselves a little 22 further to ya, tell ya little bit more about what they see
23 this case to be about in their openin' statement. Plaintiff
24 goes first, tells ya about their side a the case then the 25 defendant has an opportunity to make that kinda opening

OPENING STATEMENTS

1 statement to ya also, after that we'll have the presentation
2 of the testimony and the evidence. People will come up here
3 (indicating) and sit there and tell you what they know,
4 plaintiff goes first then the defendant. After everybody's
5 had a full and fair opportunity to present all the testimony,
6 all the evidence that they wish you to consider in this case
7 then you'll have arguments, we'll have arguments from the 8 lawyers, they'll argue to you, try to persuade you as to what
9 version or view you should take a the facts of this case
10 'cause there is a controversy, there is a disagreement, try to 11 persuade you, after that I'll discuss with you more fully what 12 your duties and responsibilities are as the jury in this case, 13 the law that you -- applies to this case and then you go to 14 jury room and the twelve of you will deliberate and you'll 15 decide how much money, if any, the defendant should be 16 required to pay to the plaintiff as the result of this case
17 that we'll hear about, keep in mind what your job is going to 18 be at conclusion of this case. Mr. Langley, would you like to 19 make an opening statement?

20 MR. LANGLEY: Yes, Your Honor. May it please the Court.
21 Good mornin'.

23 UNIDENTIFIED JUROR: Morning.

24 MR. LANGLEY: A driver on the road must pay attention
25 when driving, if the driver fails to pay attention and as a

OPENING STATEMENTS

1 result somebody's injured, the at-fault driver is responsible
2 for the harm. Let me tell ya what happened in this case. May
3 28th 2014 the defendant's driving west on East Main Street in
4 Spartanburg, approach an intersection of East Main and
5 Drayton, close to Hillcrest shoppin' mall, goin' approximately
6 35 miles an hour, there's a vehicle ahead in the same lane
7 completely stopped for a traffic light, defendant's not payin'
8 attention, he rear-ends the vehicle stopped for the traffic
9 light. Plaintiff Aaliyah Smith was the driver a the vehicle
10 stopped at the traffic light. Now who, we're suin' this
11 defendant because initially though he's now accepted fault
12 before you here today, initially he refused to accept fault.

14 MR. COULTER: Judge, ---

15 MR. LANGLEY: --- the ---

16 MR. COULTER: --- Judge, I ---

18 MR. COULTER: --- I have no idea what he's showin' the
19 jury, Judge, it hasn't been presented.

20 MR. LANGLEY: Page 2 of the answer to his complaint, it's 21 a pleading, Your Honor.

23 THE COURT: Okay.

24 MR. COULTER: --- be able to see ---

25 MR. LANGLEY: Sure.

OPENING STATEMENTS

1 MR. COULTER: --- what it is before showin' to the jury.

2 MR. LANGLEY: Yes, sir. Page 2 the answer to his
3 complaint, now, uh, to plaintiff's complaint and in our system
4 when we have a disagreement we have to file a complaint,
5 plaintiff files a complaint. The defendant
6 files ---

7 THE COURT: I'm gonna ask the jury to go to the jury room
8 for a moment, please, I wanna look at somethin' and think
9 about somethin' a minute here, if you would go the jury room,
10 please.

11 (The following takes place outside the presence of the 12 jury.)

13 THE COURT: Alright, I just, it just occurred to me I
14 don't know, you know, uh, generally speaking are we planning
15 to show to the jury and all are things that are gonna be
16 introduced into evidence durin' the trial and I would, and
17 that, and that raises a question a whether the answer is
18 somethin' that's introduced in evidence durin' the trial,
19 generally that's that's not the case. I don't know, I don't 20 know, uh, if there's any reason that you should be able to 21 show what was said in the answer to start at the trial, star
22 of the trial to the jury, Mr. Langley, you have any authority
23 that says you can do that?

24 MR. LANGLEY: Well, Your Honor, I think pleadings as a
25 matter of law are part of the public record and they're

OPENING STATEMENTS

1 part ---

2 THE COURT: Well, they are, ---

3 MR. LANGLEY: --- of the record ---

4 THE COURT: --- but whether they're ---

5 MR. LANGLEY: --- in this case.

6 THE COURT: --- evidence in the trial or not when we've
7 got a defendant now who admits at this point that that, uh, he
8 was at fault in causing the accident you wanna ---

9 MR. LANGLEY: Well ---

10 THE COURT: --- somehow contradict that and say that
11 that's a bad thing and that you oughta hold it against him ---

12 MR. LANGLEY: No, sir.

13 THE COURT: --- before this jury.

14 MR. LANGLEY: No, sir, Your Honor, that's not what I
15 wanna say. I don't ---

16 THE COURT: Well that is ---

17 MR. LANGLEY: --- know that it's ---

18 THE COURT: --- what you were sayin'.

19 MR. LANGLEY: I don't know that it ---

20 THE COURT: What would it -- what would you bring it in
21 for if it wasn't to prejudice the case?

22 MR. LANGLEY: It's not to prejud ---

23 THE COURT: Only thing, only thing that's in evident,
24 only reason to put evidence in is to produce prevy --
25 prejudice on one side or the other, right?

1 MR. LANGLEY: No, sir, Your Honor.

2 THE COURT: It's not? Why do you put evidence in then?

3 MR. LANGLEY: Well ---

4 THE COURT: Either in favor of your side or against the
5 other side, right, that's prejudice.

6 MR. LANGLEY: No, sir, Your Honor.

7 THE COURT: Or it's not? Tell ---

8 MR. LANGLEY: What ---

9 THE COURT: --- me what it is.

10 MR. LANGLEY: --- what I intend to do is show why we're 11 in this courtroom today. What he's going to try to say is
12 that ---

13 THE COURT: That doesn't make any difference why we're 14 here, the only thing is the dispute about how much damage she 15 was caused.

16 MR. LANGLEY: No, sir, Your Honor, I disagree. He
17 said ---

18 THE COURT: Okay.

19 MR. LANGLEY: --- two different things on the record;
20 one, he said he's not at fault. In his deposition he said he 21 may be at fault but he didn't accept responsibility for the
22 harm that he caused so I don't know what he's gonna say when
23 he gets on this stand. The record is and his answer that he's 24 only said that she was at fault, that plaintiff is entitled to 25 no recovery. I'm entitled to show the jury that, Your Honor,

OPENING STATEMENTS

1 I believe there's, uh, abundant case law on it. I don't have
2 a a specific cite I can provide to ya today ---

3 THE COURT: Well I ---

4 MR. LANGLEY: --- I'll be happy ---

5 THE COURT: --- appreciate ---

6 MR. LANGLEY: --- to ---

7 THE COURT: --- that ---

8 MR. LANGLEY: --- research that ---

9 THE COURT: --- but I'm not ---

10 MR. LANGLEY: --- and produce it ---

11 (Indiscernible cross-talk.)

12 THE COURT: --- gonna let you use that in your opening
13 statement. Bring the jury back in.

14 MR. LANGLEY: Just so we're clear, Your Honor, may I
15 reference the answer and just not show it to 'em, is that your 16 rulin'?

17 THE COURT: What do you have to say about that,
18 Mr. Coulter?

19 MR. COULTER: Judge, I, you know, I, in his deposition he
20 clearly admitted fault, I I've made it a a an answer to a
21 complaint that I had to file within thirty days of a
22 complaint. I filed that answer and I have to is to, uh, put
23 in every affirmative defense at the time of answering a
24 complaint. I don't know what all the facts are at the time I
25 answer but I do the best I can. He has completely admitted

OPENING STATEMENTS

1 fault from day one and he's tryin' to use this as some reason
2 to say he's a bad guy 'cause his attorney said he's not at 3 fault when he initially filed the answer, ---

4 MR. LANGLEY: That's not, ---

5 MR. COULTER: --- it's not evidence, ---

6 MR. LANGLEY: --- that's ---

7 MR. COULTER: --- it is not evidence.

8 MR. LANGLEY: --- that's not true, Your Honor.

9 THE COURT: That ---

10 MR. COULTER: It it is ---

11 THE COURT: --- well what what is, what is it then,
12 Mr. Langley?

13 MR. LANGLEY: Well he admitted fault apparently and and 14 then denied fault, denied responsibility his deposition, that 15 was in April ---

16 THE COURT: Well what ---

17 MR. LANGLEY: --- a year ago.

18 THE COURT: --- what what is that having to do to 19 anything, to any fact that this jury has to decide ---

20 MR. LANGLEY: Well ---

21 THE COURT: --- today?

22 MR. LANGLEY: --- 'cause I don't -- it it's not correct
23 to say he's admitted fault, Your Honor, that's a matter at 24 issue.

OPENING STATEMENTS

1 MR. LANGLEY: He's denied respon ---

2 THE COURT: --- appreciate that ---

3 MR. LANGLEY: --- sibility ---

4 THE COURT: --- but I I I'm gonna tell this jury that he
5 has admitted fault at the end a the case so I think there's no
6 reason to bring in a red herring or to drag it up before the
7 jury ---

8 MR. LANGLEY: He's never ---

9 THE COURT: --- so you just ---

10 MR. LANGLEY: --- one time, ---

11 THE COURT: --- leave out, you just leave out anything
12 like that in your opening statement to the jury.

13 MR. LANGLEY: --- he's never one time filed an amended
14 answer, Your Honor. This was a year ago that he admitted and 15 then he denied responsibility.

16 THE COURT: Well I ---

17 MR. LANGLEY: If -- I don't, ---

18 THE COURT: --- appreciate your, ---

19 MR. LANGLEY: --- I don't think ---

20 THE COURT: --- I appreciate ---

21 MR. LANGLEY: --- I think it's an appropriate ---

22 THE COURT: --- your position, ---

23 MR. LANGLEY: --- consideration.

24 THE COURT: --- I appreciate your position, I've ruled.
25 Bring the jury in.

OPENING STATEMENTS

1 MS. BAILIFF: Okay, we'll bring 'em in.

2 MR. BAILIFF: Alright.

3 (The following takes place in the presence of the jury.)

4 THE COURT: Alright, we have the jury back with us and
5 the parties are present, you may continue with your opening
6 statement.

7 MR. LANGLEY: Yes, Your Honor. We had to bring this
8 action because the defendant denies that he is responsible for
9 any a the harms caused to Aaliyah Smith and so we're here to 10 ask you to settle this case for us. When we have a
11 disagreement under the law, we have to file a complaint, the 12 defendant files an answer and when there's a disagreement in 13 there, when the defendant says he's not at all responsible for
14 any harms done to Ms. Smith, we have to bring it before you,
15 so that's what we're here to do today, ladies and gentlemen,
16 ask ya'll to settle this case for us.

17 Now there are rules that are important in this case and
18 I've talked to you little bit about the rule about payin'
19 attention while on the road and this rule's important because
20 under these circumstances rear-ended Ms. Smith, under other
21 circumstances he may have struck a pedestrian in a crosswalk
22 or struck someone on a motorcycle. The same conduct could
23 cause serious injury and harm but fortunately you will hear
24 Ms. Smith had a pretty good recovery, she was not permanently
25 injured. She went to the hospital on the day a the wreck, she

OPENING STATEMENTS

1       went to a a, uh, family doctor in the course of her treatment
2       and she saw a chiropractor in the course of her treatment,
3       you'll hear from the chiropractor.

4               One a the things that the judge will tell you in this 5       case is that the only reason or the only basis that you can 6       use for making a determination about the money to allow to 7       settle this case is the harms and losses that we show you in 8       this case, now I've gotta go through those harms and losses
9       for you because of that so what those harms and losses are,
10      again, Ms. Smith went to the emergency room at Spartanburg
11      Regional, you'll see the notes, you'll hear the notes about 12      the complaints she made the same day a the wreck. Spartanburg
13      Regional doctors prescribed her Indocin, an inflammatory,
14      anti-inflammatory medication for pain, Flexeril, a muscle
15      relaxer, and Norco which is Hydrocodone. She was told to 16      follow up with her primary care doctor and returned to work 17      when she felt a sense of well-being that returned to her. The 18      followin' day she still had pains, May 29th 2014. Her mother
19      helped her get arrangements to go see a chiropractor, that's 20      Dr. Robin Ivey. He treated her two to three times a week, 21      he'll tell ya 'bout the nature of his treatment, until the 22      pain in her back and shoulder and neck resolved. Now you'll 23      hear this term "whiplash," some people don't like that term, I
24      think it's pretty illustrative of what happened. If you've 25      seen a whip, a leather whip and it cracks at the end just on

OPENING STATEMENTS

1 the flip of a wrist, something similar happens with whiplash
2 in a car. Now that whip cracks just on that end flip and the 3 whiplash that takes place on a rear-end collision when a
4 person is struck, seat belt grabs 'em, they are pulled back
5 initially by the seat belt but the head stays forward and then
6 there's a whipping motion, thousands of pounds of vehicle
7 slammin' together create that motion. Now, because of all 8 that she treated for seven weeks and you'll see, again, the 9 notes from the the Westgate Family Physicians, her family
10 doctor, and what her job at Pizza Hut required at that time
11 was that she get a release to return to work from her doctor
12 and her doctor was not willin' provide that for those seven
13 weeks so part a the harms and losses that we'll talk to you
14 about today are the seven weeks of lost wages where she was 15 workin' part-time at Pizza Hut. Now, we'll show you those 16 summary of those medical bills and lost wages but what we need 17 you to do is not add up the lost wages and medical bills an 18 eighth grade math class could do that, what we need you to do
19 to settle this case is to value the most important harms, 20 harms like anxiety of this case, stress, mental anguish of 21 goin' through this and you're the most important judges of the 22 value of those harms, maybe you have suffered wrongs and you
23 can value those harms yourself and you're in a position to 24 value for Aaliyah those type hardships, worry and tears. You
25 can expect the defense to say it's all about money, maybe over

OPENING STATEMENTS

1 and over and of course it is, this is civil court, it's what
2 the judge has told ya, that's the only remedy that's available
3 under our law and if defense can tell ya some other way to 4 make Aaliyah Smith whole then I welcome to hear.

5 Now, one other thing you'll see and I I suspect time and 6 time again is that there's not a whole lotta physical damage
7 to Aaliyah Smith's car. Her bumper if you look at it doesn't 8 look like there's much damage at all but that's not, that's 9 why we're not suin' for any damage to the car, we're only 10 bringin' this action for the damage to the occupant so at the 11 end a the day what you've got to the decide is that this young 12 lady right here (indicating) is a liar, a fraud and a s -- and 13 a scam artist basically, that she concocted this scheme over a
14 couple years to come before ya, to go through this missed
15 work, to go through this missed school, to pull you away from 16 your jobs and your families just to make somethin' up or if 17 she's really entitled to recovery, so I thank you for your 18 attention and I think you'll find that when she's honest with 19 ya and she's straightforward with ya that she's entitled to a
20 full and fair verdict.

21 THE COURT: Thank you. Alright, Mr. Coulter, would you
22 like to make an opening statement?

23 MR. COULTER: Yes, Your Honor, just briefly. May it
24 please the Court. Ladies and gentlemen, good morning, uh, my 25 name is Mike Coulter, uh, I represent Scott Carr seated with

OPENING STATEMENTS

1 me here at this (indicating) table. Uh, you did hear a little
2 bit about the different kinda courts, uh, here in in South
3 Carolina. This is circuit court and we do have two different
4 kinds: we have general sessions which is criminal court which 5 this is not, okay, obviously, and then we have the common
6 pleas court which is the civil court which is about money as 7 the judge has already told you, that's what ultimately you're
8 gonna be asked to do in this case is the plaintiff's
9 attorney's gonna want you to return a verdict for money
10 against Scott as a result of this accident back in 2014,
11 again, we are admitting fault, Scott made a mistake, okay,
12 just like any other human, uh, in Spartanburg County can make 13 on an everyday basis: he was in an accident. He glanced away
14 from the road and hit his breaks and just before he's could 15 stop, just before he could stop he hit the rear of the bumper
16 of the plaintiff's vehicle. You're gonna see the photographs
17 in this case of the damage caused to this vehicle and the 18 question becomes could a person be actually injured in this
19 accident and if so how badly, how badly, and then how much
20 does Scott have to be responsible for what they're asking in 21 terms of this accident, accidents that happen every day.
22 You're gonna find out that both vehicles in this case drove 23 away, drove away from the scene, both driving. You're gonna 24 find out that the plaintiff made no complaints of any type of 25 pain at the scene, none. Didn't go to the hospital till a

OPENING STATEMENTS

1 couple hours later, then goes to a chiropractor for a month
2 and a half and you're gonna h -- see those records, you're 3 gonna hear what type of complaints are bein' made and the 4 question becomes just how much compensation, if any, is she 5 entitled to as a result of this accident that you're gonna
6 hear about the facts from very shortly.

7 One thing you did not hear from the plaintiff's attorney
8 is that they have the burden of proof, they have to prove to 9 you to your satisfaction by preponderance of the evidence that 10 what they are claiming is damages in this case are reasonable,
11 they have to prove that to you, are these damages reasonable 12 as a result of this accident that you're gonna hear facts on 13 in just a short time, this particular accident, and all we ask
14 you to do and I know you will is to be reasonable to Scott
15 just like any other person in Spartanburg County would want to 16 have a jury do if they make a mistake is for the jury to be
17 reasonable regarding the damages assessed against him so I
18 thank you so much for everything so far, we'll try to get this 19 done quickly, present it to ya and then we'll eventually ask
20 you to return that verdict later on, uh, in this case. Thank 21 you.

22 THE COURT: Thank you. Call your first witness.

23 MR. LANGLEY: Scott Carr, Your Honor.

24 (Whereupon, the defendant came forward.)

25 THE CLERK: Please raise your right hand, place your left

1 hand Bible.

2 SCOTT CARR, having been first
3 duly sworn, testified as follows:

4 THE CLERK: Thank you.

5 DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. LANGLEY:

6 Q. You're Scott Carr, defendant this case?

7 A. Yes, sir.

8 Q. You rear-ended my client Ms. Smith on May 28th 2014?

9 A. Yes, sir.

10 Q. On December, uh, 1st 2014 there's an answer filed on your
11 behalf in this case, is that right?

12 A. Yes, sir.

13 Q. And in that did you say that that you were ---

14 MR. COULTER: Judge, I'm gonna ---

15 Q. --- responsible ---

16 MR. COULTER: --- object that ---

17 THE COURT: Me -- members the jury panel, need you go the 18 jury room for a few minutes, please.

19 (The following takes place outside the presence of the 20 jury.)

21 THE COURT: Alright, we have the jury out, the door's
22 closed, go ahead with your question.

23 BY MR. LANGLEY:

24 Q. Did you say that you're not liable to the plaintiff in
25 any sum whatsoever?

1 A. That's what it says I said then I said it.

2 Q. Alright. Right here (indicating) it is, did I read it
3 incorrectly?

4 A. No, that's exactly what it says.

5 MR. LANGLEY: It's my question, Your Honor.

6 THE COURT: Alright. And your a -- your objection is to
7 relevancy?

8 MR. COULTER: It is, Judge, ---

9 THE COURT: Alright.

10 MR. COULTER: --- it is to relevancy.

11 THE COURT: Why do you think that's relevant to any issue
12 that's involved in this case at this time, Mr. Langley?

13 MR. LANGLEY: Your Honor, I I that I respectfully
14 disagree with the fact that he denied liability, has continued
15 to deny liability throughout all of his pleadings and I
16 respect your ruling that now we're here on a matter a damages.
17 Ha has denied that he's responsible for any damages and I'm 18 entitled to get into that.

19 THE COURT: I appreciable your position but I sustain the 20 objection. Bring the jury back in.

21 MR. COULTER: Well and, Judge, there's still the issue of 22 the, uh, motion in limine before we go into anything that was
23 discussed.

24 THE COURT: Let's let's just go ahead and do that now and
25 all, hold the jury in there if you would. Let's just go ahead

1 and do that now and all, so, Mr. Langley, the issue that was
2 brought up about your wantin' to bring up prior
3 convictions ---

4 MR. LANGLEY: Right, yes, sir.

5 THE COURT: --- go ahead, let's ask those question,
6 explore that fully so that I hopefully will understand your
7 position and so that I can make a ruling.

8 MR. LANGLEY: Yes, Your Honor. Might, uh, approach with 9 the, uh, sealed deposition?

10 THE COURT: Well you can unseal it too.

11 MR. LANGLEY: Okay.

12 THE COURT: You can do that certainly as good as me or 13 the court reporter, either one.

14 MR. LANGLEY: Yes, Your Honor.

15 (Whereupon, counsel handed the deposition to the 16 defendant.)

17 BY MR. LANGLEY:

18 Q. Alright, Mr. Carr, you remember when, uh, I took your 19 deposition back in December of two thousand or, excuse me,
20 April of 2015, 'bout a year ago?

21 A. Yes, sir.

22 Q. And, uh, in the course a that deposition we had a number
23 of discussions about who was at fault for the wreck and 24 whether or not you accepted responsibility, you recall that?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. And I believe durin' that time that you told me that, uh,
2 a little bit about your background, you remember that
3 discussion?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. You'll flip to page 7 a the deposition, please. Read to 6 yourself beginning on line 12 through line 24, not out loud,
7 just to yourself.

8 (Whereupon, the defendant complied.)

9 Q. Had an opportunity to read it?

10 A. Yes, sir.

11 Q. Did you tell me the truth when we were havin' this 12 conversation back in April of 2015?

13 A. Yes, sir.

14 Q. You did? I'd like to show you ---

15 THE COURT: Well I need to see what you're talkin' about, 16 you said wanna read read it to himself but I wanna know what 17 he's talkin' about.

18 MR. LANGLEY: It's the same portion I read to ya earlier,
19 Your Honor, but I'll be ---

20 THE COURT: Let me read what it is.

21 MR. LANGLEY: Yes, sir.

22 THE COURT: What is the lines?

23 MR. LANGLEY: Twelve to, uh, the end a the page.

24 THE COURT: Okay. Okay, I read it.

25 MR. LANGLEY: Alright.

1 BY MR. LANGLEY:

2 Q. So you told me the truth when I asked you, Did you have 3 any felony DUIs, is that your testimony before this court?

4 A. Yes, sir.

5 Q. Are you Scott Nathern [sic] Carr?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. Is your social security number 249-57-8397?

21 wit DUI third or subsequent violation within ten years."

22 Q. You now wish to amend your earlier answer where you told 23 me no, you did not have any felonies.

24 A. Yes, sir.

25 MR. LANGLEY: Your Honor, it goes directly to 608(b), his

1 THE COURT: Alright, anything else you'd like to say,
2 Mr. Langley, 'bout that?

3 MR. LANGLEY: Yes, Your Honor. His his character is
4 important in this trial, his truthfulness is important in this
5 trial. They've already said my lady didn't complain at the
6 scene, they've already said he just barely tapped her bumper.
7 His truthfulness or lack thereof is critical in this, in this
8 case, Your Honor.

9 THE COURT: I appreciate your position but I sustain the 10 objection, I will not allow that be used. Come get your 11 deposition.

12 MR. LANGLEY: Yes, sir, Your Honor. Well, I'm I'm gonna
13 make other reference to it.

14 THE COURT: Oh, okay.

15 MR. LANGLEY: Yes, sir.

17 (The following takes place in the presence of the jury.)

18 THE COURT: Alright, we've got the jury back with us and 19 the parties are present along with their attorneys, you may
20 continue to examine the witness.

21 MR. LANGLEY: Uh, yes, Your Honor.

22 BY MR. LANGLEY:

23 Q. Uh, Mr. Carr, you accept responsibility for causing 24 injury to my client?

25 A. Yes.

1 treatment, do ya?

2 A. No, sir.

3 Q. Show you some pictures that have been produced in this
4 case, ---

5 (Whereupon, a discussion was held off the record.)

6 Q. --- just take a moment look through 'em, make sure you're
7 familiar with 'em.

8 (Whereupon, the defendant complied.)

9 Q. Seen those before?

10 A. Um-hum, yes.

11 Q. And, uh, are those pictures a your vehicle?

- 13 Q. Alright, sir. Uh, ya have any kids?
- 14 A. Three.
- 15 Q. Three kids, alright. Now goin' back to May, uh, 28th,
- 16 day a this accident, where were ya headed at the time this
- 17 accident occurred?
- 18 A. To work.
- 19 Q. Alright, and so 'bout what time was it in the morning,
- 20 Scott, when when when you were headed to work?
- 21 A. I usually try to leave my house around seven, ---
- 22 Q. Alright, ---
- 23 A. --- have to be there at 7:30.
- 24 Q. --- and you were drivin' down what road?
- 25 A. Uh, Main Street, Spartanburg.

1     you placed your, ya put your foot on the brake?

2     A.    Yes.

3     Q.    Okay.  Now what happened to you in the vehicle when when 4     you came in contact with her vehicle, ---

5     A.    I mean, ---

6     Q.    --- did you strike anything within the interior a your 7     car?

8     A.    No, sir, had my seat belt on.

9     Q.    Okay, did your seat belt hold you?

10    A.    I I didn't even really move in my car.

11    Q.    Okay.  Alright, were you hurt in this accident?

12    A.    No.

13    Q.    Okay.  Did you talk to the plaintiff at all when you were 14    there at the accident scene?

15    A.    Yes.

16    Q.    Did you ask her if she was okay?

17    A.    Yes.

19    A.    No, she was fine.

20    Q.    Okay, alright.  Now your car that's been marked into

23    A.    I drove it.

24    Q.    You drove it.  And did you ever make any repair to this 25    vehicle?

1 jury room for a moment, please.

2 (The following takes place outside the presence of the
3 jury.)

4 THE COURT: Alright, jury's out, the door's closed. Yes,
5 sir.

6 MR. LANGLEY: Your Honor, Mr. Coulter purposely injected
7 Mr. Scott's, uh, Mr. Carr's character in fronta this jury:
8 Marine Corp. honorable discharge, his history of his work, all
9 these things and bein' from Spartanburg, if I'm not allowed to 10 refute that by this, by he -- the fact that he's lied to me
11 and he's he's also said something that will be co -- directly 12 contradicted by the plaintiff and that that's that she spoke 13 to him at the scene and so, Your Honor, the truthfulness is 14 even more at issue now than it ever was before and his 15 character as Mr. Coulter tried to say was irrelevant before in 16 his argument, it's clearly relevant now because he's brought 17 up this information about Mr. Carr's past in order to try to 18 boost his status in fronta the jury, it's a un -- it's 19 fundamentally unfair for me to not be able to show where he 20 lied under oath, Your Honor, to this jury now that Mr. Coulter
21 has introduced his character in fronta the, fronta the Court.

22 THE COURT: I appreciate your position but I'm not gonna
23 allow you to use what you wanna use. Bring the jury back in.

24 (The following takes place in the presence of the jury.)

25 THE COURT: Alright, we have the jury back with us and

1 jury room for a moment, please.

2 (The following takes place outside the presence of the
3 jury.)

4 THE COURT: Alright, jury's out, the door's closed. Yes,

6 MR. LANGLEY: Your Honor, Mr. Coulter purposely injected

22 THE COURT: I appreciate your position but I'm not gonna
23 allow you to use what you wanna use. Bring the jury back in.

24 (The following takes place in the presence of the jury.)

25 THE COURT: Alright, we have the jury back with us and

JURY CHARGE

1 THE COURT: --- somewhere, ---

2 MR. COULTER: --- I'm sorry.

3 THE COURT: --- I like to be able to see ---

4 MR. COULTER: Absolutely.

5 THE COURT: --- all the jury.

6 MR. COULTER: Yes, sir.

7 THE COURT: Thank you.

8 MR. COULTER: Yes, sir.

9 THE COURT: You've seen and heard the evidence presented
10 to you in this case, it's now my duty under the Constitution
11 Code of Laws of this state to discuss with you what your
12 duties and responsibilities at at this point are and the law
13 that you may apply in the case and then you go the jury room
14 and you'll give us your decision, your your verdict in regard
15 to this case you've learned about today.

16 You are the sole judges of the facts of this case, I
17 tried to emphasize that to you at the start a this trial. If
18 I've said or done anything durin' the course a the trial that
19 you have interpreted as any opinion that I might have about
20 the facts a this case, please disregard it for I've intended
21 to be fair and impartial both sides in this case. To 22 determine the facts it's going to be necessary for you to
23 evaluate the credibility or believability of the witness
24 whose, witnesses who have testified. You have to decide who 25 and what to believe in regard to that testimony and evidence,

JURY CHARGE

1 you have to decide how much weight, how much, uh, weight to
2 assign to to the evidence that's been presented, testimony and
3 the evidence that's been presented. In deciding who and what
4 to believe, I would sugge -- I would suggest you go about that
5 in much the same way you decide that issue in your every day
6 life, you and I have to decide every day whether to believe
7 so -- what someone tells us, it's so much a part of every day
8 life that we oftentimes don't think about any mental process
9 that we may go through in deciding whether to believe someone
10 but you do it every day whether on your job, on the street,
11 wherever. When someone comes up to you and makes a factual
12 statement to you, when someone says something like such and
13 such just happened or such and such is about to happen or you
14 should do this because or you should do that because, when a
15 person makes that type of statement to you, you have to decide
16 do I believe what that person tells me, how much trust, how
17 much faith do I put in what that person tells me. As I said I
18 will suggest you go about deciding who and what to believe in 19 regard to the testimony and the evidence in this case in much
20 the same way you decide that issue in your every day life but
21 some a the things that you may want consider and this is by no
22 means an exhaustive list but some a things you may want to
23 consider in deciding who and what to believe, in deciding how 24 much weight to give some testimony are such things as, and
25 this is by no means an exhaustive list, but you can consider

JURY CHARGE

1 such things as what was the manner or appearance of the 2 witness who testified, was he or she straightforward or 3 hesitant in answering, was the testimony of a witness
4 consistent or inconsistent, how did the witness come to know
5 the facts that he or she testified to or what was his or her
6 ability to know these facts, is there some reason a witness
7 would want to give testimony which would help or hurt one side
8 or the other; in other words, was the witness biased or 9 prejudiced in some way, was the techni -- testimony of a
10 witness strengthened or weakened by other testimony or 11 evidence presented. You certainly do not determine truth or 12 credibility or believability merely by counting the number of 13 witnesses who may have testified for one side or the other or 14 who may have testified concerned some particular point or fact
15 that may be involved in this case. Throughout this entire 16 process of deciding who and what to believe you have but one
17 goal really and that is to seek the truth regardless of its 18 source.

19 Now the same Constitution and code of laws that makes you
20 the finders of fact in this case it also makes me the 21 instructor of the law, that means you must accept the law as I
22 explain it to be the correct law, you should not be concerned 23 with what you may think the law should be but only with what 24 the law is.

25 Now this is a relatively simple case in terms of the 4 pronunciations, A-A-L-I-Y-A-H.

5 MR. LANGLEY: That's Aaliyah Smith, Your Honor,
6 that's ---

7 THE COURT: Alright, ---

8 MR. LANGLEY: --- the plaintiff.

9 THE COURT: --- Ms. Smith, right here, if you would 10 please stand, turn so the jury can see you.

11 (Whereupon, the plaintiff stood.)

12 THE COURT: Thank you, you can be seated. She is ha -- 13 is the plaintiff in this case, she's brought a claim against 14 Scott, S-C-O-T-T, Carr, C-A-R-R, is he present?

15 MR. COULTER: He is not, Your Honor.

16 THE COURT: Not hit -- here but ---

17 MR. COULTER: No.

18 THE COURT: --- he'll be here tomorrow, is that right?

19 MR. COULTER: Wednesday, Judge.

20 THE COURT: Fly in Wednesday, he'll be ---

21 MR. COULTER: Yes, sir.

22 THE COURT: --- here Wednesday?

23 MR. COULTER: Yes.

24 THE COURT: Alright, that's when we s -- plan to actually
25 start the trial of this case and all. This is a case growing

JURY QUALIFICATION

1 out of an automobile accident that happened on or about May
2 28, 2014 here in Spartanburg County on East Main Street, East
3 Main Street goin' out toward Greenville. How far out?

4 MR. LANGLEY: Uh, Your Honor, it was, uh, out not not
5 quite to to 26 and 85 but on the way to to that direction, not
6 far outta downtown, Your Honor.

7 THE COURT: Alright, and Ms. Smith was drivin' a car, is 8 that right, she was the driver?

9 MR. LANGLEY: Yes, sir, Your Honor.

10 THE COURT: Alright, drivin' a car and, uh, she claims
11 that Mr. Carr was drivin' another car and, uh, hit her, it was 12 an accident, I think everybody agrees that there was an 13 automobile accident but there's a dispute about, uh, how it
14 happened exactly and the consequences of that: the injuries
15 and damages that she suffered as a direct result, that's her
16 claim against Mr. Carr, a course Mr. Carr denies, uh, her
17 claim, denies that, uh, he was at fault and or or if he do -- 18 or if the fault was his denies that she's been hurt and 19 damaged to the extent that she claims she's been hurt and 20 damaged and all but she's asking that Mr. Carr be required to 21 pay her for her injuries and damages and again, that's what 22 this case is about: money. She claims that that I -- I ju --
23 as I said this accident was the fault of Mr. Carr and he 24 should be required to pay her for her injuries and damages as 25 a direct consequence of what happened on May 28th 2014, so

JURY QUALIFICATION

1 does anybody know anything or thinking anything at all about
2 any fact or circumstance that may be involved in this case, if
3 so please stand. Anyone on the jury panel have any knowledge
4 of anything at all to do with this case, if so please stand.

5 (No response.)

6 THE COURT: No one's standing. I've already introduced
7 the parties to ya and all, anyone related by blood or marriage
8 or do you know in any way either Ms. Smith or Mr. Carr, if so
9 please stand. Anyone related by blood or marriage or do ya
10 know in any way either Ms. Smith or Mr. Carr, if so please 11 stand.

12 (No response.)

13 THE COURT: No one's standing. How 'bout the lawyers,
14 introduce yourself.

15 MR. LANGLEY: Yes, Your Honor, I'm Ryan Langley, I'm a
16 member of the Spartanburg Bar, I practice here with Charlie
17 Hodge at Hodge & Langley Law Firm. This is, uh, Arielle
18 Goddard, she's workin' with us at our firm.

19 THE COURT: Any witnesses you gonna call on your behalf a
20 your client tell 'em.

21 MR. LANGLEY: Yes, Your Honor, uh, I'll call the the 22 plaintiff Ms. Smith, uh, who stood there introduced herself to 23 ya'll a moment ago, call Dr. Robert Ivey and Officer Teague
24 Oswald, uh, who's a, uh, Spartanburg ---

25 THE COURT: Alright, ---

OPENING STATEMENTS

1 result somebody's injured, the at-fault driver is responsible
2 for the harm. Let me tell ya what happened in this case. May
3 28th 2014 the defendant's driving west on East Main Street in
4 Spartanburg, approach an intersection of East Main and
5 Drayton, close to Hillcrest shoppin' mall, goin' approximately
6 35 miles an hour, there's a vehicle ahead in the same lane
7 completely stopped for a traffic light, defendant's not payin'
8 attention, he rear-ends the vehicle stopped for the traffic
9 light. Plaintiff Aaliyah Smith was the driver a the vehicle
10 stopped at the traffic light. Now who, we're suin' this
11 defendant because initially though he's now accepted fault
12 before you here today, initially he refused to accept fault.

18 MR. COULTER: --- I have no idea what he's showin' the
19 jury, Judge, it hasn't been presented.

20 MR. LANGLEY: Page 2 of the answer to his complaint, it's 21 a pleading, Your Honor.

22 MR. COULTER: I'd appreciate if we could ---

23 THE COURT: Okay.

24 MR. COULTER: --- be able to see ---

25 MR. LANGLEY: Sure.

OPENING STATEMENTS

1 MR. COULTER: --- what it is before showin' to the jury.

2 MR. LANGLEY: Yes, sir. Page 2 the answer to his
3 complaint, now, uh, to plaintiff's complaint and in our system
4 when we have a disagreement we have to file a complaint,
5 plaintiff files a complaint. The defendant
6 files ---

7 THE COURT: I'm gonna ask the jury to go to the jury room
8 for a moment, please, I wanna look at somethin' and think
9 about somethin' a minute here, if you would go the jury room,
10 please.

11 (The following takes place outside the presence of the 12 jury.)

13 THE COURT: Alright, I just, it just occurred to me I
14 don't know, you know, uh, generally speaking are we planning
15 to show to the jury and all are things that are gonna be
16 introduced into evidence durin' the trial and I would, and
17 that, and that raises a question a whether the answer is
18 somethin' that's introduced in evidence durin' the trial,
19 generally that's that's not the case. I don't know, I don't 20 know, uh, if there's any reason that you should be able to
21 show what was said in the answer to start at the trial, start
22 of the trial to the jury, Mr. Langley, you have any authority
23 that says you can do that?

24 MR. LANGLEY: Well, Your Honor, I think pleadings as a
25 matter of law are part of the public record and they're

OPENING STATEMENTS

1 part ---

2 THE COURT: Well, they are, ---

3 MR. LANGLEY: --- of the record ---

4 THE COURT: --- but whether they're ---

5 MR. LANGLEY: --- in this case.

6 THE COURT: --- evidence in the trial or not when we've
7 got a defendant now who admits at this point that that, uh, he
8 was at fault in causing the accident you wanna ---

9 MR. LANGLEY: Well ---

10 THE COURT: --- somehow contradict that and say that
11 that's a bad thing and that you oughta hold it against him ---

12 MR. LANGLEY: No, sir.

13 THE COURT: --- before this jury.

14 MR. LANGLEY: No, sir, Your Honor, that's not what I
15 wanna say. I don't ---

16 THE COURT: Well that is ---

17 MR. LANGLEY: --- know that it's ---

18 THE COURT: --- what you were sayin'.

19 MR. LANGLEY: I don't know that it ---

20 THE COURT: What would it -- what would you bring it in
21 for if it wasn't to prejudice the case?

22 MR. LANGLEY: It's not to prejud ---

23 THE COURT: Only thing, only thing that's in evident,
24 only reason to put evidence in is to produce prevy --
25 prejudice on one side or the other, right?

1 MR. LANGLEY: No, sir, Your Honor.

2 THE COURT: It's not? Why do you put evidence in then?

3 MR. LANGLEY: Well ---

4 THE COURT: Either in favor of your side or against the
5 other side, right, that's prejudice.

6 MR. LANGLEY: No, sir, Your Honor.

7 THE COURT: Or it's not? Tell ---

8 MR. LANGLEY: What ---

9 THE COURT: --- me what it is.

10 MR. LANGLEY: --- what I intend to do is show why we're 11 in this courtroom today. What he's going to try to say is
12 that ---

13 THE COURT: That doesn't make any difference why we're 14 here, the only thing is the dispute about how much damage she 15 was caused.

16 MR. LANGLEY: No, sir, Your Honor, I disagree. He
17 said ---

18 THE COURT: Okay.

19 MR. LANGLEY: --- two different things on the record;
20 one, he said he's not at fault. In his deposition he said he 21 may be at fault but he didn't accept responsibility for the
22 harm that he caused so I don't know what he's gonna say when
23 he gets on this stand. The record is and his answer that he's 24 only said that she was at fault, that plaintiff is entitled to 25 no recovery. I'm entitled to show the jury that, Your Honor,

OPENING STATEMENTS

1 I believe there's, uh, abundant case law on it. I don't have
2 a a specific cite I can provide to ya today ---

3 THE COURT: Well I ---

4 MR. LANGLEY: --- I'll be happy ---

5 THE COURT: --- appreciate ---

6 MR. LANGLEY: --- to ---

7 THE COURT: --- that ---

8 MR. LANGLEY: --- research that ---

9 THE COURT: --- but I'm not ---

10 MR. LANGLEY: --- and produce it ---

11 (Indiscernible cross-talk.)

12 THE COURT: --- gonna let you use that in your opening
13 statement. Bring the jury back in.

14 MR. LANGLEY: Just so we're clear, Your Honor, may I
15 reference the answer and just not show it to 'em, is that your 16 rulin'?

17 THE COURT: What do you have to say about that,
18 Mr. Coulter?

19 MR. COULTER: Judge, I, you know, I, in his deposition he
20 clearly admitted fault, I I've made it a a an answer to a
21 complaint that I had to file within thirty days of a
22 complaint. I filed that answer and I have to is to, uh, put
23 in every affirmative defense at the time of answering a
24 complaint. I don't know what all the facts are at the time I
25 answer but I do the best I can. He has completely admitted

OPENING STATEMENTS

1 MS. BAILIFF: Okay, we'll bring 'em in.

2 MR. BAILIFF: Alright.

3 (The following takes place in the presence of the jury.)

4 THE COURT: Alright, we have the jury back with us and
5 the parties are present, you may continue with your opening
6 statement.

7 MR. LANGLEY: Yes, Your Honor. We had to bring this
8 action because the defendant denies that he is responsible for
9 any a the harms caused to Aaliyah Smith and so we're here to
10 ask you to settle this case for us. When we have a
11 disagreement under the law, we have to file a complaint, the 12 defendant files an answer and when there's a disagreement in 13 there, when the defendant says he's not at all responsible for
14 any harms done to Ms. Smith, we have to bring it before you,
15 so that's what we're here to do today, ladies and gentlemen,
16 ask ya'll to settle this case for us.

17 Now there are rules that are important in this case and
18 I've talked to you little bit about the rule about payin'
19 attention while on the road and this rule's important because
20 under these circumstances rear-ended Ms. Smith, under other
21 circumstances he may have struck a pedestrian in a crosswalk
22 or struck someone on a motorcycle. The same conduct could
23 cause serious injury and harm but fortunately you will hear
24 Ms. Smith had a pretty good recovery, she was not permanently
25 injured. She went to the hospital on the day a the wreck, she

2 SCOTT CARR, having been first
3 duly sworn, testified as follows:

4 THE CLERK: Thank you.

5 DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. LANGLEY:

6 Q. You're Scott Carr, defendant this case?

7 A. Yes, sir.

8 Q. You rear-ended my client Ms. Smith on May 28th 2014?

9 A. Yes, sir.

10 Q. On December, uh, 1st 2014 there's an answer filed on your
11 behalf in this case, is that right?

12 A. Yes, sir.

13 Q. And in that did you say that that you were ---

14 MR. COULTER: Judge, I'm gonna ---

15 Q. --- responsible ---

16 MR. COULTER: --- object that ---

17 THE COURT: Me -- members the jury panel, need you go the 18 jury room for a few minutes, please.

19 (The following takes place outside the presence of the 20 jury.)

21 THE COURT: Alright, we have the jury out, the door's
22 closed, go ahead with your question.

23 BY MR. LANGLEY:

24 Q. Did you say that you're not liable to the plaintiff in
25 any sum whatsoever?

1 character for truthfulness and untruthfulness and and frankly,
2 the fact that we've now had this discussion on the record
3 preps him appropriately for how he could testify in fronta the
4 jury, ---

5 THE COURT: Well ---

6 MR. LANGLEY: --- I think it's a little unfair in that 7 respect ---

8 THE COURT: --- well let let me read the rule that you're 9 talkin' about ---

10 (Indiscernible cross-talk.)

11 MR. LANGLEY: Yes, Your Honor.

12 THE COURT: Alright, Mr. Coulter, what would you like to 13 say about that?

14 MR. COULTER: Judge, under the analysis the and regarding 15 a 401 relevance, uh, versus prejudicial effect; one, this is 16 clearly prejudicial, overly prejudicial. Yeah, I understand
17 the Court's position that any any, each side presents is gonna 18 be prejudicial to the other but it's overly prejudicial and 19 it's not probative and it is clearly outside the ten-year
20 scope and and I was a prosecutor for thirteen years and I can 21 tell ya this: I had a hard time tellin' what's a felony or 22 what's a misdemeanor, honest to goodness, and simply usin'
23 that to backdoor this in would be to undermined the whole rule
24 regarding criminal conviction more than ten years old, the 25 reason that is is because those convictions aren't relevant.

1 THE COURT: Alright, anything else you'd like to say,
2 Mr. Langley, 'bout that?

3 MR. LANGLEY: Yes, Your Honor. His his character is
4 important in this trial, his truthfulness is important in this
5 trial. They've already said my lady didn't complain at the
6 scene, they've already said he just barely tapped her bumper.
7 His truthfulness or lack thereof is critical in this, in this
8 case, Your Honor.

9 THE COURT: I appreciate your position but I sustain the 10 objection, I will not allow that be used. Come get your
11 deposition.

12 MR. LANGLEY: Yes, sir, Your Honor. Well, I'm I'm gonna
13 make other reference to it.

14 THE COURT: Oh, okay.

15 MR. LANGLEY: Yes, sir.

16 THE COURT: Bring the jury in.

17 (The following takes place in the presence of the jury.)

18 THE COURT: Alright, we've got the jury back with us and
19 the parties are present along with their attorneys, you may
20 continue to examine the witness.

21 MR. LANGLEY: Uh, yes, Your Honor.

22 BY MR. LANGLEY:

23 Q. Uh, Mr. Carr, you accept responsibility for causing 24 injury to my client?

25 A. Yes.

1 A. Yes, sir.

2 Q. Where are you in school?

3 A. South Carolina State.

4 Q. And you still go to church in Spartanburg?

5 A. Um, yes, sir, when I'm home.

6 Q. Okay, is that New Hope Christian Church?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. And you live at home, uh, now sorta back and forth
9 between your mom and dad?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. Are your parents divorced?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. Uh, now you used to work at Pizza Hut and McDonald's and 14 various other places like that, right?

15 A. Yes, sir.

16 Q. At the time a this wreck were ya employed at Pizza Hut?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. Okay. You ever been fired from a job?

19 A. No.

20 Q. You ever been convicted any crimes?

21 A. No.

22 Q. You ever been even arrested?

23 A. No.

24 Q. Prior to this case have you ever been involved in any 25 lawsuit for any reason?

1 A. No, sir.

2 Q. Now, uh, this accident took place on May 28th 'bout 7:30
3 in the mornin', right?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. Where were you headed?

6 A. On my way to school.

7 Q. Okay, and you were stopped at a red light, is that
8 right?

9 A. Yes, sir.

10 Q. How long had you been stopped there?

11 A. Uh, couple seconds.

12 Q. Okay. And you recall seeing or hearing anything prior to 13 gettin' struck in the rear by Mr. Carr?

14 A. Only I heard him try to stop car ---

15 Q. Alright, ---

16 A. --- before he ---

17 Q. --- and how -- what did ya hear?

18 A. Uh, tires screeching.

19 Q. Alright. And how hard was the impact?

20 A. Pretty hard.

21 Q. You've seen these pictures of the vehicle Mr., that
22 Mr. Carr's attorney produced in this case, he's shown us where
23 he says the damage was, is that what Mr. Carr's vehicle looked 24 like after the wreck?

25 A. No.

1 Q. How was it different?

2 A. The hood was bended up.

3 Q. Okay. And point to the jury where the hood was bent up.

4 A. Right here (indicating).

5 Q. In the middle?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. Alright. Do you know where those pictures were taken?

8 A. No.

9 Q. You know how long after the wreck they were taken?

10 A. No, sir.

11 Q. Now do you have your seat belt on at the time a the 12 wreck?

13 A. Yes, sir.

14 Q. What happened to you when you were hit at impact?

15 A. My body moved forward.

16 Q. Okay, and wha'd ya do after the accident?

17 A. Um, we wait for the police to come.

18 Q. Okay. Did you talk to Mr. Carr?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. Alright. How long you talk to him?

21 A. Uh, not long.

22 Q. Okay, alright. Did he say, I'm sorry, or anything like
23 that?

24 A. No.

25 Q. How'd you feel -- strike that. Why you bringin' this

1 action here today?

2 A. Because he hasn't done anything to even show me that he
3 was sorry.

4 Q. Alright. Of all the medical bills, everything that, lost
5 wages, all that, that's been your responsibility to deal with
6 that, is that right?

7 A. Yes, sir.

8 Q. After the wreck you go to the hospital?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. Where'd you go?

11 A. Spartanburg Regional.

12 Q. Why'd you go to Spartanburg Regional?

13 A. 'Cause I was in pain.

14 (Whereupon, a discussion was held off the record.)

15 Q. This is a summary a your medical bills, I'm gonna go
16 through it with ya, we'll kinda come back and talk about each
17 a these in a little bit more detail. So the day a the wreck
18 you went to Spartanburg Regional, is that right?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. Is that (indicating) the charge for goin' to Spartanburg
21 Regional?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. Alright, and then the ER physician saw you there, is that
24 (indicating) what they charged ya for ---

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. --- seein' 'em? Then the next day for the next, uh,
2 month and a half or so you went to see Dr. Robin Ivey in his
3 practice Advantage Healthcare, ---

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. --- and is that that (indicating) his charge for seein'
6 you for those seven weeks?

7 A. Yes, sir.

8 Q. And then, uh, ya also went to see your family doctor on 9 June 5th, was that (indicating) your family doctor's charge?

10 A. Yes, sir.

11 Q. And then did ya have a chipped tooth in the wreck?

12 A. I did.

13 Q. Okay, and did they fix your chipped tooth?

14 A. No.

15 Q. Alright. Did they try to fix it on June 9th?

16 A. Yeah.

17 Q. Did ya see the the Tyger River Dentistry on June 9th to 18 get it evaluated?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. Was that (indicating) what they charged?

21 A. Yes, sir.

22 Q. Is this (indicating) the total of your medical bills?

23 A. Yes, sir.

24 Q. And you missed time from work at Pizza Hut.

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. Uh, ya heard me tell the jury earlier that they
2 wouldn't let you come back unless you had a release from your
3 doctor, ---

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. --- uh, is that why you missed seven weeks?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. And if ya add up seven weeks at nineteen hours a week at 8 7.25 an hour, do you get that number right there (indicating)?

9 A. Yes, sir.

10 Q. Okay. And so all these medical bills and lost wages
11 together total 6,242.25, is that right?

12 A. Yes.

13 THE COURT: What was the number?

14 MR. LANGLEY: 6,242.25, Your Honor.

15 THE COURT: Thank ya.

16 MR. LANGLEY: Yes, sir.

17 BY MR. LANGLEY:

18 Q. Now the, you'll flip over to see these little numbers on 19 the bottom a this sheet here I've givin' ya, "A. Smith," uh, 20 "11." Okay, now up at the top it indicates you arrived at the 21 emergency room 9:35, you see that? top right corner?

22 A. No.

23 Q. See some numbers up there, I think it's got a zero in 24 front of it.

25 A. Yes.

1 hospital, did ya?

2 A. Yes, sir, I did.

3 Q. Well didn't you first, didn't your dad come to the scene?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. And didn't he get your car?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. And didn't he drive it to your cousin's house?

8 A. Yes, but I was with my mother.

9 Q. I know but didn't you follow your h -- your father back
10 to your cousin's house in order to pick him up with your 11 mother so that you could go back to the scene so he could get 12 his vehicle and drive away?

13 A. Yes, sir.

14 Q. Okay, so you didn't go to the hospital right away, first 15 you took this trip with your dad and your mom, right?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. And then your dad who came to the scene he actually left 18 and went on to work, didn't he?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. Okay, because it wasn't until two hours after this 21 accident that you first presented to the hospital, right?

22 A. Yes, sir.

23 Q. Okay. Now let me show you some, uh, photographs. Do you
24 recognize this (indicating) photograph?

25 A. Yes, sir.

1 Q. Okay, got -- how 'bout these (indicating) two 2 photographs, do you recognize those?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. Okay, and what are those photographs?

5 A. My car.

6 Q. Okay. And this is how your car looked right after 7 impact, correct?

8 A. (The witness nodded in the affirmative.)

9 Q. Alright.

10 MR. COULTER: Judge, if I could I'd move to introduce 11 these three into evidence.

12 THE COURT: Any objection?

13 MR. LANGLEY: I have no problem with the small ones, Your 14 Honor, I think the, uh, large one's redundant and would be 15 fine as a demonstrative.

16 THE COURT: But is that the same as one of those?

17 MR. COULTER: No, it's a different photograph.

18 THE COURT: Okay. Alright, I'll take your word for it,
19 I'll allow 'em into evidence then.

20 (Photographs marked Defendant's Exhibit Nos. 1, 2 and 3 21 for identification and admitted into evidence.)

22 MR. COULTER: Thank you.

23 COURT REPORTER: You're welcome.

24 BY MR. COULTER:

25 Q. Alright, so we just looked at these photographs, I'm

1 gonna show the jury this one blown up just to make it easier
2 for 'em. This is Defense Exhibit No. 3, do you see this, ---

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. --- Ms. Smith? Okay, and so this is your vehicle as a
5 result of the accident, right? This (indicating) is the 6 damage that was done to your vehicle as a result of this 7 accident, correct?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. Okay. What -- I'm sorry. Now course you're able to 10 drive your vehicle, actually your father drove your vehicle
11 away from the scene, right?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. Okay. You continue to drive that vehicle, right?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. Matter a fact, when we took your deposition a little 16 while back you were still using that same vehicle ---

17 A. Yes, sir.

18 Q. --- and that was about a year after this accident, maybe
19 two years, right?

20 MR. LANGLEY: Object to the form, Your Honor, that's 21 that's misleading, ---

22 MR. COULTER: I ---

23 MR. LANGLEY: --- the deposition was four months after 24 the wreck.

25 BY MR. COULTER:

1 Q. Okay. Alright, my my apologies. So four months after 2 the wreck you were still drivin' this vehicle ---

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. --- and you made no repairs to the vehicle whatsoever,
5 did you?

6 A. No.

7 Q. Nothing, right? Okay. Now, I'm gonna ask, Judge, to 8 mark a couple more exhibits, that way I can get two in a row
9 quickly, they're medical records that I've provided the 10 plaintiff's attorney before.

11 MR. LANGLEY: No objection.

12 (Emergency room medical records marked Defendant's
13 Exhibit No. 4 and chiropractor medical records marked
14 Defendant's Exhibit No. 5 for identification.)

15 BY MR. COULTER:

16 Q. Ms. Smith, I'm gonna hand ya these two exhibits, alright.
17 Let me, let me take what ya got there, we'll just put that 18 over here. This is 4 and 5, these are some a the medical 19 records that are associated with, uh, what happened, what ya
20 did after the accident and any time ya need to look at those 21 more closely, just let me know, I know you haven't had a
22 chance to look at 'em real close, okay, but your attorney went 23 through some questions with ya and I wanna ask ya some 24 question about it too, okay?

25 A. Okay.

1 Q. --- that kinda thing?

2 A. --- that's just an estimation ---

3 Q. Okay.

4 A. --- of the speed limit and the damages.

5 Q. Alright, and for that, for estimation for Mr. Carr did ya
6 have him goin' 35 miles an hour?

7 A. I did write that, yes.

8 Q. Alright, and for the estimation 'bout the damages done to 9 the vehicle ---

10 MR. COULTER: Judge, I'm gonna object.

11 THE COURT: Members jury panel, need you to go the jury
12 room, please.

13 (The following takes place outside the presence of the 14 jury.)

15 THE COURT: Alright, we have all the jury out, what's 16 your object -- what's your objection?

17 MR. COULTER: Judge, I I kinda let it slide on the 18 estimate as far as the goin' how fast but, I mean, she's got 19 no ability ---

20 THE COURT: Well what's your, ---

21 MR. COULTER: --- to say that ---

22 THE COURT: --- what's your objection?

23 MR. COULTER: --- but the next objection, Judge, is an 24 estimation as to the value a the damage caused to these two 25 vehicles. All due respect to Officer Stacy she doesn't have

1 THE COURT: --- somewhere, ---

2 MR. COULTER: --- I'm sorry.

3 THE COURT: --- I like to be able to see ---

4 MR. COULTER: Absolutely.

5 THE COURT: --- all the jury.

6 MR. COULTER: Yes, sir.

7 THE COURT: Thank you.

8 MR. COULTER: Yes, sir.

9 THE COURT: You've seen and heard the evidence presented
10 to you in this case, it's now my duty under the Constitution
11 Code of Laws of this state to discuss with you what your
12 duties and responsibilities at at this point are and the law
13 that you may apply in the case and then you go the jury room
14 and you'll give us your decision, your your verdict in regard
15 to this case you've learned about today.

16 You are the sole judges of the facts of this case, I
17 tried to emphasize that to you at the start a this trial. If
18 I've said or done anything durin' the course a the trial that
19 you have interpreted as any opinion that I might have about
20 the facts a this case, please disregard it for I've intended
21 to be fair and impartial both sides in this case. To
22 determine the facts it's going to be necessary for you to
23 evaluate the credibility or believability of the witness
24 whose, witnesses who have testified. You have to decide who
25 and what to believe in regard to that testimony and evidence,

JURY CHARGE

1 you have to decide how much weight, how much, uh, weight to
2 assign to to the evidence that's been presented, testimony and
3 the evidence that's been presented. In deciding who and what
4 to believe, I would sugge -- I would suggest you go about that
5 in much the same way you decide that issue in your every day
6 life, you and I have to decide every day whether to believe
7 so -- what someone tells us, it's so much a part of every day
8 life that we oftentimes don't think about any mental process
9 that we may go through in deciding whether to believe someone
10 but you do it every day whether on your job, on the street,
11 wherever. When someone comes up to you and makes a factual
12 statement to you, when someone says something like such and
13 such just happened or such and such is about to happen or you
14 should do this because or you should do that because, when a
15 person makes that type of statement to you, you have to decide
16 do I believe what that person tells me, how much trust, how
17 much faith do I put in what that person tells me. As I said I
18 will suggest you go about deciding who and what to believe in
19 regard to the testimony and the evidence in this case in much
20 the same way you decide that issue in your every day life but
21 some a the things that you may want consider and this is by no
22 means an exhaustive list but some a things you may want to
23 consider in deciding who and what to believe, in deciding how
24 much weight to give some testimony are such things as, and
25 this is by no means an exhaustive list, but you can consider

2 Q All right. I didn't think you were. My questions are 3 not intended to harass or intimidate you, but to just

5 you intend to testify to if it goes to trial.

6 A All right.

7 Q So you mentioned that you've had public defenders
8 before. Tell me about that.

9 A I had them for DUIs.

11 A Four.

12 Q All right. And when were those?

13 A I had three in Virginia. The last one was more than 6 Q So let's try not to do that.

7 A All right.

8 Q And if I fuss at you about wait a minute, I'm not 9 trying to be mean or anything. I'm just trying to make 10 sure we get a clear record.

11 A Okay.

12 Q So your last DUI was in Virginia more than ten years
13 ago and you've had one in South Carolina. When was 14 that?

15 A About three years ago.

16 Q Okay. Did you ---

17 A That was the last one I got, and it's actually counted
