Re: Reginald Evans v. Pace River Apartment
Appellate Case No: 2015-002157

Dear Ms. Kitchings:

On December 13, 2016 the Respondent sent this Honorable Court a letter requesting or motioning the court to dismiss the above Appellate Case. The Appellant received the letter on December 15, 2016 via regular mail.

The Appellant object to this request or motion for the following reasons:

1. The Appellant filed his Record on Appeal and Proof of Service on December 5, 2016 which by the Appellant count is fourteen calendar days from November 21, 2016. If the Court allowed for three days mailing the deadline would be December 9, 2016.
2. The Respondent acknowledges and signed the certified letter with the Appellant Record on Appeal on December 8, 2016 which three days after the Appellant mailed the Record on Appeal on December 5, 2016 again within the deadline of December 9, 2016.

The Appellant respectfully request the Respondents' motion or request for dismissal be denied and this Appeal is docketed and a hearing be before this Court.

Thank you for your consideration of Appellant request. Please do not hesitate to contact me should you have any question or need additional information.

Respectfully

Reginald Evans, Pro Se
Appellant
