Respondent has filed a motion to strike matters Appellant designated for inclusion in the record on appeal and referenced in his initial brief. Because Appellant has certified that he presented the matters as attachments to his motions, the motion to strike is denied. Pursuant to Rule 210(c), SCACR, matters may be included in the record as long as they were presented to the lower court, even if they were not admitted into evidence. Rule 210(c), SCACR ("The Record shall not . . . include matter which was not presented to the lower court or tribunal.").
