In Re: Clifford Pasley v. TransAgri

Dear Mr. Barton:

It is my understanding you are following up with Court Administration and the Court of Appeals about two transcripts in the above-referenced case. Please accept my apologies. My original emailed response from last month must not have reached you, and thus has occasioned this delay.

Your letter, which arrived 11-19-2016, was apparently your second attempt to order a transcript from me. As you had heard nothing in reply, you were writing to be sure there were no difficulties with producing the work. I answered via the attached email on 11-22-2016 and advised that I had not yet received any requests in this matter. I then said that while I was not the court reporter for the 2014 hearing, I was for the 2016 hearing and would be glad to process your order.

Your hearing was a short one, so I estimate that your transcript will be roughly 15 pages. I should have it to you some time next week.

Cordially,

Elizabeth B. Harris, CVR-M-CM

Subject: Transcript Request: Pasley v. TransAgri

Dear Mr. Barton,

Thank you for your recent request for two transcripts in the case of Pasley v. TransAgri. I'm afraid your first letter did not reach me, so I'm glad you followed up.

I was the court reporter for the hearing on 1/12/2016. You may consider it now officially ordered. I was not, however, the reporter during the earlier hearing on 11/13/2014.

Cordially,

Elizabeth B. Harris, CVR-M-CM
