RE: Gaines v. Campbell
C.A. # 2015-002347

Dear Mr. Shearouse:

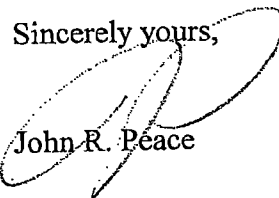

As I discussed with Lindsey Matthews in your office this afternoon, I am writing to advise that the parties have settled this matter.

Ms. Matthews asked me to provide a copy of the State Farm Release along with this letter. I received the enclosed Release and the $20,000.00 Settlement Check today.

Thank you for your kind attention to this matter and please let me know if you have any questions.

With kindest regards, I remain,

Sincerely yours,

John R. Peace

For the Sole Consideration of

Twenty thousand and no/100 dollars the receipt and sufficiency whereof is hereby acknowledged, the undersigned hereby releases and forever discharges Joyce Campbell her heirs, executors, administrators, agents and assigns, and all other persons, firms or corporations liable or, who might be claimed to be liable, none of whom admit any liability to the undersigned but all expressly deny any liability, from any and all claims, demands, damages, actions, causes of action or suits of any kind or nature whatsoever, and particularly on account of all injuries, known and unknown, both to person and property, which have resulted or may in the future develop from an accident which occurred on or about January 08, 2010, at or near Boiling Hills Road, Easley, SC.

This release expressly reserves all rights of the parties released to pursue their legal remedies, if any, against the undersigned, their heirs, executors, agents and assigns.

Undersigned hereby declares that the terms of this settlement have been completely read and are fully understood and voluntarily accepted for the purpose of making a full and final compromise adjustment and settlement of any and all claims, disputed or otherwise, on account of the injuries and damages above mentioned, and for the express purpose of precluding forever any further or additional claims arising out of the aforesaid accident.

Undersigned hereby accepts draft or drafts as final payment of the consideration set forth above.
