RE: Ronald Coulter #300410 v. State of South Carolina;
Appellate Case No. 2013-002379

SC Court of Appeals

Dear Mr. Dudek:

I am in receipt of your December 7, 2016, correspondence regarding the deficiency in the final brief and final reply brief. Thank you. Unfortunately, I am somewhat confused by your instruction directing me to resolve the deficiency. I was under the impression that you were correcting the deficiency with the certificates of service. Your September 20, 2016, correspondence provided one final brief, one final reply brief, and one certificate of service for me to sign and return to you. That certificate of service referenced both the final brief and final reply brief. It is my understanding that each of those briefs required a separate certificate of service, and thus, the deficiency notice from the clerk of court. I have been patiently waiting for you to provide the correct certificates of service for me to sign and return to you, in a similar fashion to the above-mentioned September 20th correspondence. I was then expecting copies of the corrected final brief and final reply brief with the appropriate individual certificates of service.

However, if I have misapprehended the Court's instructions regarding my final brief and final reply brief, please clarify this matter with me so I can take the necessary steps to rectify this deficiency.

Thank you, in advance, for your attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

Ronald Coulter, #300410
