

To Whom It May Concerns:

1-17-17

On November 11, I received a letter from the S.C. Court of Appeals telling me that my case was dismissed due to a failure to provide a sufficient guilty plea explanation. I got my time on May 31, 2016 and since then I've been unable to ~~talk~~ have any kind of communication with my lawyer, by telephone or letter. His name is Mike Gambrell of Greenville S.C. I didn't even know that he filed an Appeal in my behalf. I've got another letter from S.C. Court of Appeals on November 30 saying that they remitted my case (Case No. 2016-001226) to a Lower Court. So what I'm asking since I'm unable to contact my lawyer, do you need me to provide the Court with any kind of information about my case, or anything I need to do to keep my appeal process moving forward.
