1 assault and battery of a high and aggravated nature.

2 THE COURT: And the 2012 contributing to the 3 delinquency of a minor, what is the history of that,
4 Solicitor.

5 MS. PATTERSON: Your Honor, that was handled by our
6 office. As far as I can tell, it involved a 13-year-old
7 girl that was dating Mr. Brown's nephew. And she was over
8 to the house. She informed law enforcement that Mr. Brown
9 provided her alcohol and also he rubbed on her body parts.

10 The victim in that case, she didn't cooperate with 11 our office and that's the reason it was pled to the 12 delinquency of a minor.

13 THE COURT: All right. Now, anything further,
14 Solicitor?

15 MS PATTERSON: Yes, sir, Your Honor. You heard the 16 facts. David Ray Brown -- he preyed upon 13 then 14 year
17 old Minor when he was 41 years old. He took 18 advantage of her maturity, then he blackmailed her into 19 having sex with on at least four occasions. There's no
20 telling how long this would have continued had Minor not 21 gotten the courage to disclose when she did.

22 And on behalf of the State, Your Honor, we are 23 asking for a significant prison sentence.

24 THE COURT: Thank you, Solicitor. Anything
25 further?

1 MS. PATTERSON: No, sir, Your Honor.

2 THE COURT: Thank you.

3 Mr. Stitely?

4 MR. STITELY: Yes, sir, his family is here. I'll 5 probably let them do most of the addressing. My request is 6 that you consider due to the time, closeness in the 7 offense, you consider running concurrent sentences. I
8 think his mother and his aunt and one of his good friends
9 would like to address if the Court will permit it.

10 THE COURT: And I'll be glad to hear from anyone
11 you'd like for me to hear from Mr. Stitely.

12 MR. STITELY: One at the time, please.

13 State your name please, fully, so the court
14 reporter can write it down. Speak clearly.

15 THE COURT: Would you pull that microphone toward 16 her, Mr. Stitely.

17 MR. STITELY: Yes, sir.

18 THE COURT: All right, and tell me your name.

19 MS. SWARTZ: Katherine Elizabeth Swartz.

20 THE COURT: All right. Ms. Swartz, I'll be glad to 21 hear from you.

22 MS. SWARTZ: Hi. I want to apologize to the family
23 first of all for this. I want to address the Court to let 24 them know that what Davey did is not excusable, but we have 25 severe mental illness that runs in our family. His dad is

1 my -- his father and my mother are brother and sister.

2 THE COURT: Then y'all are first cousins.

3 MS. SWARTZ: Double first cousins. His mother is 4 my dad's sister. So it's like brother and sister. Mental 5 illness runs on both sides and I understand what Davey did.
6 And we grew up together. We lived together -- I mean every 7 time we were moving, the whole family -- it was all of us.

8 Davey was abused as a young kid. Okay? He was 9 confined to his room. His father was very abusive. I
10 don't think that Davey or his sister, Sandy Brown Lynch
11 really had the room to mature. And the way I see Davey and 12 know Davey, he may be a 44-year-old man right now, but 13 mentally, he like between a 15 to maybe high 18. I would 14 say no higher than 17. So he cannot intellectually
15 communicate or not has he ever had a relationship with say
16 a 30 year old woman. Even a woman fives years to his age,
17 he doesn't have the mental -- like, he's like a 15 year old
18 boy manipulating this little girl, like they do in high
19 school.

20 I'm not trying to make excuses for Davey, but I do
21 want to let the Courts be aware of this mental illness. My 22 brother has it. He has 15 different personalities. I
23 suffer from it. My sisters and brother suffer from it.
24 His whole side of the family is really bad. Really bad.
25 They don't have the education, the maturity. I don't even

1 think that Davey could live on his own in a house or a
2 little apartment by himself because mentally he is between 3 15 and 17 years old. And that's why he associates himself
4 because he can't -- you know what I'm saying,
5 intellectually communicate.

6 I'm not making excuses for Davey whatsoever. But I
7 just want to put a little bit of his family past into this 8 where it shows that he was abused. He was locked up in his
9 room as a teenager. We were either outside all day, can't 10 come in for water, had to drink from a water hose. And his 11 dad was crack all of our hineys, like -- yeah. So it was 12 like, he just didn't have any room. He didn't have a
13 healthy, loving upbringing like, you know. That's all I
14 want to say.

15 But it's not that, you know, Davey is this
16 pedophile and even though he was a 41 year old man,
17 mentally me was a 15, 16 year old guy and I don't think
18 he's ever going to outgrow that, and I think he does need 19 some sort of counseling. Because some of us got it. His 20 sister's getting it. But it's just, you know, it's 21 insurance. It costs money. I mean I legally attempted
22 suicide because I couldn't get the help I needed, but I'm 23 here today and I'm happy and full of life, you know,
24 because I was able to research and get my help. Where he 25 lives, I don't know -- well, you haven't, but where he

1 lives is in a trailer. It's not -- it's kind of broke
2 down, old. You know, there's no people, it's isolated, so
3 I just -- I just don't feel that he had the healthy
4 upbringing, you know -- with his mother's loving, but his
5 dad, the way it was he just stopped -- he just stopped
6 growing as a kid because of the abuse.

7 THE COURT: Thank you, Ms. Swartz. Ms. Swartz, let 8 me ask you, how much education do you have?

9 MS. SWARTZ: I graduated from high school. I went
10 to real estate school and I also was in cosmetology school
11 before I got into a major accident, so now I'm like,
12 retired.

13 THE COURT: You're retired?

14 MS. SWARTZ: Kind of, yeah.

15 THE COURT: And what was your most previous 16 occupation.

17 MS. SWARTZ: Cosmetologist.

18 THE COURT: And how long did you do that.

19 MS. SWARTZ: I was in school for it. I was just 20 about done and I got -- some guy on the phone rear-ended me
21 at a stop light and -- actually I'm walking today because 22 of the spinal cord stimulator. And I'm like no pain
23 medicine and it's like great. So...

24 THE COURT: Thank you. Thank you very much,
25 Ms. Swartz. Thank you for being here.

1 MS. SWARTZ: Thank you.

2 THE COURT: Thank you for being here.

3 MS. SWARTZ: Thank you for your time.

4 MS. STITELY: Judge, his family and friends are 5 here, Your Honor. I think that's all --

6 MS. SWARTZ: This is my family -- this is my 7 brother.

8 MR. STITELY: Yeah, and that's one of his best
9 friends and his wife. Just want to show their support,
10 Judge, to show that he does have a network of family and 11 friends that do love him and want to see him when he gets 12 out.

13 I can tell Your Honor, briefly, he does have a 9
14 year old male child and a two month old male child, male
15 child. You saw his fiance in the courtroom. She was the 16 younger black haired woman in her mid to late 20's. She's 17 taking care of the kids, so she couldn't be here today.
18 That's what he has to get out to, Judge. He definitely
19 needs some treatment and I'd ask Your Honor to consider
20 running his sentences concurrent due to the time frame. It
21 wasn't an extended period over like multiple years and 22 multiple victims. It's a horrible case, but the time frame
23 was over a one week span, so I'd just ask you to consider
24 that.

25 THE COURT: Now, his 9 year old child -- and a two

1 month old, did you say?

2 MR. STITELY: That's correct, Judge.

3 THE COURT: The mother of those children are --

4 MR. STITELY: Different mothers. The one was in 5 the courtroom for the younger child.

6 Where is your older son?

7 THE DEFENDANT: At my mother's house.

8 MR. STITELY: At his mother's house.

9 THE COURT: At his child's mother's house? Is 10 that --

11 MR. STITELY: With your mother?

12 THE DEFENDANT: With my mother.

13 MR. STITELY: Paternal grandmother. With 14 Mr. Brown's mom.

15 THE COURT: With Mr. Brown's, mother?

16 DEFENSE ATTORNEY: Yes, sir. And as you heard I
17 think I asked him, Judge, he does construction day work,
18 kind of work.

19 THE COURT: And the young lady that was here last
20 week that you just described, the dark headed young lady,
21 that's his girlfriend?

22 MR. STITELY: Girlfriend, fiance, the mother of the 23 child that was born the tail end of 2015.

24 THE COURT: What age is she?

25 THE DEFENDANT: 21, and she actually fell in love

1 with me and it happened.

2 THE COURT: On the internet?

3 THE DEFENDANT: No, actually she's the -- she used
4 to date my nephew.

5 THE COURT: She was dating your nephew.

6 THE DEFENDANT: Yeah. He was like -- I don't 7 know...

8 THE COURT: How old is your nephew?

9 THE DEFENDANT: 19, I think.

10 THE COURT: Anything else, Mr. Stitely?

11 MR. STITELY: No, sir, Your Honor.

12 THE COURT: Anything you'd like to say, Mr. Brown?

13 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir. This is actually not who 14 I am. It just happened. I mean it was like -- it was like 15 it wasn't meant to be, you know, what I mean. It was -- I
16 was lonely -- I mean I'd been in a relation for 16 years
17 and I got out of the relationship -- well my ex-wife took 18 my son for months. And then I fought custody. That was 19 really mental to me and besides my hard life as a childhood
20 of my dad, I just been struggling through my whole life.
21 I've just been needing affection. And just, you know, I
22 had Facebook, and I would just comment on everybody's
23 status, it didn't make -- it didn't matter who it was. I
24 didn't go on profiles, I didn't scroll down I -- I didn't
25 look at their age, where they're from, I just commented.

1 And I got a lot of -- what you call it a lot of remarks
2 saying, Why am I commenting, you know, just a lot of bad
3 stuff.

4 But I had like three or four profiles on there
5 because I used to play games on there, my two years of 6 being single out of 16 years. And you have a lot of 7 profiles so you can send yourself gifts. It's just some 8 stupid games on there. And then to -- I turned to drinking
9 like really bad and I didn't want to put drinking or any
10 kind of partying on my really, truly profile, David Ray
11 Brown, you know, that showed pictures of my son, my family,
12 my true self, and I used the other profiles for, I think,
13 it was -- I had David Rowling Blunts or something like 14 that. Just showing liquor all the time snuff like that.

15 I was drinking like a fish, taking drugs, and I
16 just -- I wasn't -- it affected me being alone, you know
17 what I mean? The companionship of a girl and then somehow
18 or another I got that profile and -- just to talk to 19 people.

20 THE COURT: What profile is that?

21 THE DEFENDANT: The -- the one -- that -- which -- 22 the Justin --

23 MR. STITELY: Justin Goodwin, Your Honor.

24 THE COURT: Justin Goodwin?

25 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir. I made that profile just

1 because -- I mean a lot -- on the cell phone, you can can't
2 really -- if you looked at everybody's profile on a little
3 tiny cell phone and looked at that age and everything, I
4 really didn't just didn't really pay attention to that. I
5 just commented and then one thing led to another. Just 6 started -- wasn't thinking what profile I was on, I guess.
7 I'd even -- even on my other profiles I'd talk to people.

8 But I just got to talking, I guess, to her -- Minor
9 and it clicked and, you know, emotionally. I felt sorry
10 for her. She was -- what I was told she wasn't having a 11 good life either. Like I didn't want to bring it out, but,
12 you know. That's why I got her a birthday present.

13 That, I mean, that's why I got her birthday
14 presents. It was like she didn't receive things and stuff,
15 you know. People at school talked about her, called her -- 16 they called her a whore and a slut and all this stuff; and 17 I always just said don't listen to them. You know, it
18 become -- I really -- I wasn't like falling in love, like,
19 I just sort of like, cared about her, you know what I mean?
20 Like I wanted to help and it was like she.

21 And then she would text my phone and I wouldn't 22 text her. Sometimes I would, but she did text me. I mean, 23 if you can look at the records or whatever, early in the 24 morning, first thing in the morning before she went to 25 school, good morning and all this and I'd answer. I'd just

1 naturally answer without even thinking, just being a
2 friend.

3 And -- so I wouldn't -- it wasn't nothing like I
4 was stalking out this girl because she was the only one I
5 was paying attention to as in needing help, I guess the 6 help I needed, is when I was a child is the way I was 7 feeling. Because if it was that way, then I would have had 8 hundreds of girls, you know what I mean?

9 THE COURT: Not exactly.

10 THE WITNESS: Well, I mean what I'm saying is, this
11 girl told me that she never got nothing and all this stuff
12 and she -- everybody talked crap about her at school and 13 this and that, and it just caught me, man the way I used to 14 get treated. And so, I mean, it didn't end up to mean
15 nothing. And I just, it didn't mean to be like the way it
16 was or the way it sounds.

17 I just beg mercy of the Court and I'm sorry to the 18 family, sorry to her, Minor, and it won't never ever happen
19 again.

20 THE COURT: All right. I'm going to ask you a
21 question. You don't have to answer it if you don't want
22 to, but State's Exhibit Number 2.

23 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

24 THE COURT: Who is that?

25 THE WITNESS: I don't know him.

1 THE COURT: So you just got that off of the 2 internet and used it as your profile picture as Justin 3 Goodwin.

4 THE WITNESS: Yes, sir.

5 THE COURT: You don't have to answer that if you
6 don't want to.

7 And then State's Exhibit Number 1, again you, you
8 don't have to answer it if you don't want to. Who is this?

9 THE DEFENDANT: That's me.

10 THE COURT: And you sent a friend request to 11 Ms. Minor back in September using State's Exhibit Number 12 1? You don't have to answer that if you don't want to.

13 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir, but that was after -- 14 that was after I was already friends with her on that 15 Justin Goodwin. It wasn't before.

16 THE COURT: All right. Anything else you'd like to 17 say, Mr. Brown?

18 THE DEFENDANT: The objection, the reason for 19 meeting up was to be social. It wasn't for what it meant
20 to be or was or whatever was said. It was to have that 21 company, that talk. I know it seems like, you know,
22 there's no interaction between, but always -- you can ask
23 my whole family, I've never acted my age. I've always
24 acted, you know, like with my 9-year-old son, I'd, you
25 know, I'd be like 13, 14 years old around him, you know

1 what I mean. But when I needed to be, you know what I
2 mean, like job interviews or whatever, selling at the flee
3 market or whatever, I'd be, you know -- but, you know, but 4 the intentions for what was said is untrue it was only for 5 companionship that I wasn't getting.

6 THE COURT: How old is your ex-wife?

7 THE DEFENDANT: My ex-wife -- well now she's 8 probably 27, 28.

9 THE COURT: All right. And how long have you been 10 divorced?

11 THE DEFENDANT: Well, I'm not -- I've been 12 separated -- I couldn't get a divorce. I didn't know where 13 she lives. Because I was going to marry --

14 THE COURT: How long have you been separated?

15 THE DEFENDANT: Five years.

16 THE COURT: Five years. Anything further?

17 MR. STITELY: Nothing, Your Honor.

18 THE COURT: Thank you, Mr. Stitely.

19 Anything further from the State?

20 MS. PATTERSON: No, sir, Your Honor.

21 THE COURT: All right. I've taken into account the 22 totality of the circumstances involved, both from hearing 23 the trial last week and what has been presented today in 24 both aggravation and mitigation. Specifically I do take 25 into account your abusive upbringing. I was very impressed

1 with the presentation and appearing to be heartfelt remarks
2 by your cousin, Ms. Swartz. I take into account that
3 you've had family support throughout the trial of the case,
4 both family and friends.

5 I do the take into account your criminal history,
6 all of it, but more specifically the fact that you've had 7 two previous contributing to the delinquency of a minor,
8 one as recently as 2012.

9 I am not blinded, however, to the seriousness of 10 the criminal conduct that you engaged in. I thought about 11 it about lot over the weekend to distance myself from the 12 trial itself and analyze it in my mind. The word predator
13 is used a lot in these types of circumstances and generally
14 we think of a predator many times as being a stranger kind 15 of lurking in the shadows or lurking around particular
16 neighborhoods or areas where they can be within arms length
17 of their prey whether their prey be members of a different
18 gender or their prey could be money or their prey could be 19 drugs or what have you. It doesn't always have to be a 20 human prey.

21 This shows now to me, the net that can be cast by a
22 predator, that one becomes then a cyber predator, which is,
23 I don't know, more dangerous than the one that just is 24 walking the streets to see his or her prey, but at least
25 certainly can march towards the predatory gold in a

1 different corridor. And many times predator use bait and 2 that's what you did with State's Exhibit Number 2. And 3 prey is, many times unwary. You have a young lady who was 4 also raised in a rural environment -- nothing whatsoever
5 wrong in being raised in a rural environment, but I've not 6 been there -- like your cousin said, I haven't been to 7 where you lived except probably -- never have, never have,
8 but there's isolation.

9 But in additionally to that there's that immaturity
10 perhaps of being naive, of being of that young age and 11 people talk on Facebook. And I can say well, I just wanted
12 a friendship, I just wanted to be a friend. Well, then you
13 would not have had to abuse and sexually batter her in a 14 field by a deer stand four times. You would not have had 15 to threaten her with the exposure of the photographs.

16 Given your abusive background and history, that 17 doesn't equate to lack of intelligence. You're an 18 intelligent young man, Mr. Brown, but you were selfish, not 19 self-less. If you want the help somebody, help them. But 20 all you did was help yourself. That's all you did. And 21 the DNA report confirms it.

22 And so now, I guess, both -- the four times it
23 occurred and then, of course, the fifth, sixth, seventh,
24 and eighth time it occurred because Miss Minor had to 25 get up here and testify, it just repeats. You know,

1 Mr. Brown, some wounds never heal.

2 2016-GS-32-00160, David Ray Brown, jury having
3 convicted Mr. Brown of criminal sexual conduct with a
4 minor, a victim 11 to 14 years of age, second degree
5 maximum sentence is 20 years; is that correct? As to each
6 count?

7 MS. PATTERSON: Yes, sir.

8 THE COURT: As to one 160, the defendant is
9 committed to the State Department of Corrections for 20
10 years. On 2016-GS-32-00161, defendant is committed to the 11 State Department of Corrections for a determinate term of 12 20 years. That is concurrent.

13 On 2016-GS-32-00163, criminal sexual conduct with a 14 minor second degree, the defendant is committed to the 15 State Department of Corrections for a determinate term of 16 20 years. That's concurrent.

17 2016-GS-32-00162, criminal sexual conduct with a
18 minor second degree defendant the committed to the State
19 Department of Corrections for a determinate term of 8
20 years. That is consecutive.

21 He is to be given credit for all time served. He 22 is subjected to the sexual offender registry upon his 23 release from the department of corrections. I recommend 24 mental health counseling.

25 Good luck to you -- good luck to you, Mr. Brown.

1 Thank you, Mr. Stitely.

2 MR. STITELY: Thank you, Judge.

3 MS. PATTERSON: Thank you, Your Honor.

4 THE COURT: Thank you, Solicitor.
