1 stopping me from working I may as well clock out and go
2 home?

3 A I said that with the understanding that I
4 came to work to work. If you don't want me here by 5 stopping me from working, that's the reason. But not
6 that I was going to clock out and go home. I never
7 volunteered, I never intended, or never had I planned
8 to go home.

9 Q Right. But you mentioned clocking out and
10 going home in the context of: If y'all don't want me
11 to work, I can clock out and go home?

12 A If they don't want me to work, yes.

13 Q All right. So we're now in office, and Kathy
14 is in there, two officers are in there, and you're in 15 there. So you asked why you were there. And what 16 happened?

17 A I just asked why, what's wrong, what have I
18 done. And she then said -- He said she had called
19 them. I said, for what, I haven't done anything wrong.
20 And I don't remember what she said. I don't remember.
21 I actually don't remember.

22 Q Okay. Well, what happened?

23 A What happened then is the officers, they 24 were, ma'am, you don't want to get in trouble for 25 insubordination, why don't you go home and come back in
